1.—Fellows and Fellowships.

Repeal of existing provisions.

1. The provisions of the Statutes of 1913 under the title "Fellows and Fellowships" are hereby repealed and the following provisions substituted therefor.

General.

- 2. The number of Fellowships in the College (exclusive of Honorary Fellowships and Fellowships without emolument) shall not be less than thirty nor greater than forty.
- 3. Of the Fellowships included in this number, not less than six (hereinafter called Professorial Fellowships) shall be permanently attached to Professorships in the University; not more than thirteen (hereinafter called Official Fellowships) shall be tenable by Tutors, Lecturers, or Officers of the College; not more than thirteen (hereinafter called Fellowships by Special Election) shall be tenable by persons elected or re-elected under special conditions; and not more than seven (hereinafter called Fellowships by Examination) shall be tenable by persons elected after examination.

4. Upon a petition from the President and Fellows, the Visitor, if he is satisfied that grave inconvenience cannot otherwise be avoided, may, as a special and temporary measure, permit them to fill up any vacant Fellowship (other than a Professorial Fellowship) either as an Official Fellowship, notwithstanding that the maximum number of Official Fellowships is already reached, or as a Fellowship by Special Election, notwithstanding that the maximum number of Fellowships by Special Election is already reached. But the number of Fellowships in either class shall in no case exceed fourteen; and without fresh permission from the Visitor no new election of a Fellow shall be made in that class until the number is reduced to twelve.

5. Subject to any special provisions of this Statute, the President and Fellows shall not be bound either to fill up any vacant Fellowship (other than a Professorial Fellowship) by an election to the same class of Fellowship, or to fill it up at all so long as the number of Fellowships in the College is not reduced below

6. Upon a petition from the President and Fellows, the Visitor, if he is satisfied that the financial obligations of the College cannot financial obligations of the College cannot otherwise be met, may direct the postponement of the election to any vacant Fellowship (other than a Professorial Fellowship), notwithstanding that the number of Fellowships thereby remains below thirty.

7. If any person holding a Fellowship under the conditions applicable to one class of Fellowship shall be elected to a Fellowship under the conditions applicable to another class, he shall vacate the Fellowship previously held by him.

8. Subject to any express provision in these Statutes, the value of a Fellowship shall be £200 per annum.

9. Subject to any express provision to the contrary in this Statute, no person shall be ineligible for a Fellowship by reason of his being or not being in Holy Orders. No person shall be ineligible for a Fellowship by reason of being married, nor shall any Fellowship be vacated by the marriage of the holder. No Fellow shall by reason of being married be ineligible for any College office.

10. No Fellowship shall be tenable with a Headship or Fellowship (other than an Honorary Fellowship) in any other College or Public Hall within the University.

11. Every person holding a Fellowship as Professor, and every person elected to a Fellowship without emolument or to an Official Fellowship as Dean of Divinity or Senior Dean of Arts or Bursar, and every person elected to a Fellowship who shall already have been a Fellow, other than a Probationer Fellow, of any College in the University shall be admitted forthwith as Actual Fellow. other person elected to a Fellowship shall remain a Probationer Fellow for one year from the day of his election and thereafter until the question of his admission to an Actual Fellowship shall be determined; but in the caseof any Official Fellow (other than those already specified in this clause) or of any Fellow by Special Election, the President and Fellows may, by resolution passed at the time of the election by a majority of not less than twothirds of the votes of those present and voting, dispense with the period of probation.

12. Every Probationer Fellow shall on his election make a declaration in the presence of the President and Fellows to the effect that he will observe the Statutes and By-laws of the College in force for the time being, and shall thereupon be admitted to a year of probation.

13. A Probationer Fellow shall not be entitled to vote on any occasion as a Fellow or to take any part in the government of the College, but shall receive during the period of probation the same emoluments as if he had been admitted an Actual Fellow.

14. So soon as one year is complete from the date of a Probationer Fellow's election, the President and Fellows shall at their earliest Stated General Meeting (or if such Fellow is unable for sufficient cause to be present on that occasion, then at the Stated' General Meeting next ensuing) take into consideration the question of his admission as an Actual Fellow.

Every Actual Fellow shall on his admission as such make a declaration in the presence of the President and Fellows to the effect that he will be true and faithful to the College, that he will observe its Statutes and By-laws in force for the time being, and that he will endeavour to promote its interest as a place of religion, learning, and education.

16. The seniority which a Fellow shall hold in the College shall be determined (subject to any resolution which the President and Fellows may at the time pass of admission юf election \mathbf{or} any particular of Fellow) his by the date admission to an Actual Fellowship, but any Fellow who shall before, or within one calendar month after, the determination of his Fellowship be again elected to a Fellowship, shall retain in respect thereof the same seniority in the College that he held in respect of the first-mentioned Fellowship.

17. Every Fellow shall be required to take the degree of Master of Arts, or the degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Civil Law, or those of Bachelor and Doctor of Medicine, within one year after the time at which he shall be of sufficient standing to take such degree or degrees respectively by the Statutes of the University, and in case of non-compliance shall vacate his Fellowship: provided that it shall be lawful for the President and Fellows, in case of sickness or for any other reasonable cause, togrant a delay for a period not exceeding one

18. It shall be incumbent upon all Fellows, whenever they shall be summoned by the President, to take part in examinations held for election to places of emolument in the College.

19. Every Fellow elected to an official Fellowship as Dean, Tutor, or Lecturer shall reside and pernoctate in College during full term until the end of the period of three years from the commencement of the full term in which he undertakes the duties of his office, and shall be entitled to the use of rooms in College rent free during the period of such

Every Fellow, declaring that he intends to reside, shall be entitled to the use of rooms in College rent free so long as he continues to pernoctate during an aggregate period of not less than eighteen weeks in the academical year. But if in any academical year after that in which he begins residence he shall fail so to pernoctate he shall cease to retain his rooms unless he shall be expressly allowed to do so by the vote of the President and Fellows. The President and Fellows may at any time require any Fellow holding the office of Vice-President, Dean, Bursar, Tutor, or Lecturer to reside in College during such periods and for such hours as may be deemed necessary for the discharge of his official duties, and every Fellow so required to reside shall be entitled to the use of rooms in the College rent free during the period of such residence. Save as aforesaid no Fellow shall be entitled to the use of rooms, but the President and Fellows may allow the use of rooms rent free to any Fellow engaged in the educational or other work of the College or of the University.

20. The President and Fellows may allow to any Fellow required by them to reside in College for the discharge of his official duties a sum not exceeding twelve shillings a week during the period of such residence. The President and Fellows may set apart a sum not exceeding three shillings a day in respect of the President and each Fellow, and also, if they think fit, in respect of any Tutor or Lecturer or Bursar not being a Fellow, for the expenses of his dinner on each day when he shall dine at the Common College Dinner whether in the Hall or elsewhere in the College. Save as aforesaid no Fellow shall be entitled to any allowance, other than the customary exhibitions, in respect of his Fellowship

21. If any Fellow shall be guilty of grave immorality or misconduct, or shall contu-maciously persist in disobeying any of the Statutes or By-laws of the College in force for the time being, he may be deprived of his Fellowship by the Visitor, after due inquiry held upon a petition approved by a majority of the votes of the President and Fellows present at an Extraordinary General Meeting.

Professorial Fellowships.

22. Of the Professorial Fellowships one shall be attached to the Waynflete Professorship of Moral and Metaphysical Philosophy, one to the Waynflete Professorship of Chemistry, one to the Waynslete Professorship of Physiology, one to the Waynflete Professorship of Pure Mathematics, one to the Waynflete Professorship of Mineralogy, and one to the Sherardian Pro-fessorship of Botany.

23. Any person duly elected to one of the Professorships named in the last preceding clause shall be deemed to be thereby elected to the Fellowhip attached to such Professorship. He shall save in the cases mentioned in the next following clause, be admitted to such Fellowship at the earliest convenient opportunity, and shall, upon such admission, be entitled to the emoluments of the Fellowship as from the date of his election to the Professor-

24. If the person elected to such Professorship be at the time of his election the holder of a Headship or of a Fellowship other than an Honorary Fellowship in any College or Public Hall of the University he shall, unless and until he shall have vacated such Headship or Fellowship, be incapable of admission to the Fellowship attached to his Professorship, but shall be admitted thereto as soon as may beupon the termination of such incapacity, and shall thereupon be entitled to the emolumentsof the Fellowship as from the date at which he became capable of admission. The emoluments of the Fellowship during the period of. such incapacity shall be applied to such University purpose as the President and Fellows may, with the consent of the Hebdomadal Council, determine in such a case.

25. If the holder of a Professorial Fellowship shall vacate the Professorship to which it is attached, or shall be elected President of the College, or shall be elected to a Headship or to a Fellowship (other than an Honorary Fellowship) in any other College or Public Hall of the University, or shall be deprived of his Fellowship by the Visitor of the College, the Professorial Fellowship held by him shall be suspended, and shall so remain until a new election shall be made to the Professorship to which it is attached. The emoluments of the Fellowship during such suspension shall be applied to such University purpose as the President and Fellows may, with the consent of the Hebdo-madal Council, determine in each case. Provided that if the cause of the suspension of any Professorial Fellowship shall cease to exist while the Professor whose Fellowship has been suspended continues to hold his Professorship, the Visitor of the College may by a written order addressed to the President and Fellows declaresuch suspension at an end, and restore the Professor, as from the date of such order, to the full possession of the Fellowship which has been

26. The provisions of the four clauses last preceding shall be subject to the condition prescribed in clause 3 of the Statute hereinafter contained relating to Waynflete and other Professorships.

Official Fellowships.

27. The President and Fellows may, subjectto the provisions of clause 3 of this Statute,. elect any person, otherwise qualified for election to a Fellowship, to an Official Fellowship. as Dean of Divinity, Senior Dean of Arts, Bursar, Tutor or Lecturer in the College: provided that no person shall be elected to an: Official Fellowship as Senior Dean of Arts, Tutor or Lecturer unless he shall have been recommended for election to such Fellowshipby the major part of the Tutorial Board constituted under the Statute hereinafter contained relating to Tutorial Board, Tutors and Tuition Fund.

28. Every person elected to an Official Fellowship shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship (subject to the provisions of this Statute). for such period, being not more than ten years, as may be determined at the time of his election by the President and Fellows; and he may at any time within two years before the expiration of the period for which he shall have been originally elected, or last re-elected, be reelected for any period not exceeding ten years from the expiration of the period for which he was originally elected, or last re-elected, as the case may be; provided that before proceeding to the re-election of any person holding an Official Fellowship as Senior Dean of Arts. Tutor, or Lecturer, the President and Fellows shall require a report from the Tutorial Board,

29. Any Official Fellow who shall vacate the office in virtue of which he was elected to his Official Fellowship shall thereupon vacate such Fellowship; but he may, subject to the provisions of clause 30, be immediately re-elected to an Official Fellowship in virtue of any other office qualifying him for election under clause 27.

30. Among the Official Fellows there shall always be at least one person in Holy Orders, qualified and willing to give religious and theological instruction to the undergraduate members of the College belonging to the Church of England, and to hold, if required, the office of Dean of Divinity or that of Senior The President and Fellows Dean of Arts. shall, upon the avoidance of an Official Fellowship by a person thus qualified, unless such person shall immediately be re-elected to an Official Fellowship, or unless there shall be among the remaining Official Fellows another person similarly qualified, elect to the Fellowship thus vacated a person in Holy Orders, qualified for and willing to perform the duties aforesaid. If at any time there be not among the Official Fellows two persons thus qualified, the President and Fellows may, at the time of an election to an Official Fellowship, require that the person to be elected shall be in Holy Orders, and shall be qualified for and willing to perform the duties aforesaid. Any person elected or re-elected under this clause shall hold his Fellowship on condition of taking such part in the religious and theological teaching, and performing such duties with respect to the Chapel Services and the discipline of the College, as may be assigned to him by the President and Fellows, and of holding, if required, the office of Dean of Divinity or that of Senior Dean of Arts. If being in Deacon's Orders at the time of his election, he shall not proceed to take Priest's Orders within one year from his election, he shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship: but in case of sickness, or for any other urgent cause, the President and Fellows may grant a delay in taking Priest's Orders for a period not exceeding one year.

Fellowships by Special Election.

31. The President and Fellows may, subject to the provisions of clause 3 of this Statute, by Resolution passed at a Stated General Meeting by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the votes of those present and voting, elect to a Fellowship any person otherwise qualified for election who is included in either of the following classes:—

(a) Professors and Public Readers of the University of Oxford, and persons appointed or approved by the Convocation or Congregation of the University to hold an administrative of educational office within the University or to perform some definite work on behalf of the University in Oxford or elsewhere.

(b) Persons whose attainments and distinction in Literature, Science, or Art are in the judgment of the President and Fellows such as to warrant their election to a Fellowship and who shall undertake, as a condition of the tenure of a Fellowship, to carry on work of study or research for the advancement of learning in a specified subject, or to perform some special educational work within the College.

Elections shall from time to time be made of persons in each of these two classes.

The Resolution by which any person is elected to a Fellowship under this clause shall specify the nature of his qualification for election, and shall, if such person be elected in virtue of his inclusion in class (b), also specify the particular work which he undertakes to perform.

32. Any Fellow elected in virtue of a qualification under clause 34 (a) of this Statute shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship so long as he shall hold the Professorship, Readership, office, or appointment in virtue of which he was so elected, and shall vacate his Fellowship upon ceasing to hold that Professorship, Readership, office, or appointment. During his tenure of such Fellowship, the emoluments of his Fellowship shall form part of the stipend of his Professorship, Readership, office, or appointment, and shall be considered to be a contribution towards the amount of such stipend fixed by statute or decree, or to be an augmentation thereof, as the University may determine: provided that the total stipend of any person so elected shall not thereby be increased to a sum exceeding £900 a year, exclusive of fees, and that such part of the emoluments of the Fellowship as may raise his total stipend above £900 a year, exclusive of fees, shall not be payable to such person but shall return into the general fund of the College. No sums paid by the College to any Fellow so elected as the emoluments of his Fellowship shall be reckoned against the amount of the contribution due from the College to the University under the Statute concerning College Contributions for University purposes made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

33. Every Fellow elected to a Fellowship under the provisions of clause 34 (b) of this Statute shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship for a period of seven years from the date of his election, and may at any time within one year before the expiration of the period for which he shall have been elected or last re-elected, be re-elected in the manner and under the conditions prescribed in clause 34 of this Statute, for a further period of seven years, to be reckoned from the expiration of the period for which he was originally elected or last re-elected as the case may be.

34. If the qualification or conditions of tenure specified in the Resolution for the reelection of a Fellow under the last preceding clause shall differ from those specified in the Resolution under which he was originally elected or last re-elected, he shall, during any interval between the date of the Resolution for his re-election and that of the expiration of the period for which he was originally elected or last re-elected continue to hold his Fellowship in virtue of the qualification and under the conditions specified in the earlier of the two Resolutions, unless the later of the two Resolutions shall contain an express declaration to the contrary effect.

35. The President and Fellows may by Resolution assign to any Fellow elected in virtue of a qualification under clause 34 (b) of this Statute an annual payment from the corporate revenue of the College, in addition to the emoluments of his Fellowship. The Resolution by which such payment is assigned may be passed either at the same meeting at which such Fellow shall be elected or re-elected, or at any Stated General Meeting during the period of reference to excellence in Theology, and as regards not less than one in six of such Fellowships to excellence in Mathematics, Natural Science, or Medicine. 41. Save as provided under the clause last preceding, the President and Fellows shall on each occasion determine the subject or subjects of the examination. In so determining, they shall have regard to any statement or representation which may have been laid before them by the Hebdomadal Council, to the existing distribution of the whole number of Fellowships in relation to the several branches of knowledge recognized for the time being in the Schools of the University, and to the probable number and quality of candidates. 42. Thirty days at least before the commencement of any examination for a Fellowship, notice of the time and method of the examination and of the conditions of election shall be given by the President in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to secure publicity.

43. No person shall be eligible for any such Fellowship who shall not have passed all the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or whose income from all sources whatsoever (exclusive of earned income) shall exceed £200 per annum.

44. The election to any such Fellowship shall be made within thirty days from the conclusion of the examination, and the President and Fellows shall elect that candidate (being otherwise duly qualified according to the Statutes in force for the time being) who after the examination shall appear to them to be of the greatest merit, and most fit to be a Fellow of the College as a place of religion, learning, and educa-

45. Nothing in the preceding clauses shall interfere with the right of the President and Fellows to make no election, if on any occasion it shall appear to them after the examination that there is no candidate of sufficient merit. If on such occasion the examination shall have been held in one of the subjects prescribed under clause 43, then that subject shall be deemed to have had its turn, notwithstanding that no election was made.

46. Every Fellow elected after examination shall reside in College for not less than five months during his probationary year, unless he be dispensed from the whole or part of such residence by Resolution of the President and

47. Every Fellow so elected shall be required, before admission to an Actual Fellowship, to undertake either (1) to devote some portion of his time to a course of higher study, or (2) to pursue a thorough and systematic preparation for professional life, such course or preparation to be approved in each case by the President and Fellows: and he shall vacate his Fellowship if he fails to fulfil his undertaking to their satis-

48. Every Fellow so elected shall hold his Fellowship for seven years and no longer from the date of his election, unless at any time his income from all sources whatsoever (other than his Fellowship and the value of any rooms or allowances pertaining thereto) shall, for a period of two consecutive years during the tenure of his Fellowship, exceed £500 per annum, in which case he shall vacate his Fellowship at the end of such period, notwithstanding that seven years may not have elapsed from the date of his election. For the purposes of this clause each year shall be computed from his tenure of the Fellowship, and shall specify the amount of such payment, which shall not be less than £100 nor greater than £200. determining the amount of any such payment the President and Fellows shall take into consideration the character of the work undertaken by the Fellow and the amount of his income from other sources. Any Resolution passed under this clause shall, unless the conditions of tenure set forth in the Resolution by which the from other sources. Fellow concerned was elected or re-elected shall be modified or altered as hereinafter provided, remain in force during the term for which he was elected or last re-elected, or during the remainder of that term, as the case may be. Provided that if any Fellow to whom such annual payment is assigned shall hold any office of which the stipend is £150 a year or more he shall not while holding such office receive in respect of such annual payment more than £100 a year.

36. For the purposes of clauses 3-9 of the Statute of 1881 under the title "Disposal of Revenue" any payments made under the last preceding clause shall be treated as expenditure of the College as defined in clause 4 of that

37. The President and Fellows may at a Stated General Meeting, by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the votes of those present and voting, at the request or with the consent of a Fellow elected or re-elected in virtue of a qualification under clause 34 (b), modify or alter the conditions of tenure set forth in the Resolution by which such Fellow was elected or last reelected, and the Resolution declaring such modification or alteration shall, during the remainder of the term for which such Fellow was elected or last re-elected, take the place of the Resolution by which he was elected or re-Upon the exercise of this power any Resolution by which an annual payment has been assigned to such Fellow under clause 38 of this Statute shall cease to be in force; but the President and Fellows may by a new Resolution assign to him, subject to the provisions of that clause, such annual payment during the remainder of the term for which he was elected or last re-elected as they may deem appropriate in view of the new conditions provided for his tenure of his Fellowship.

38. Any Fellow elected or re-elected in virtue of a qualification under clause 34 (b) of this Statute shall vacate his Fellowship if he shall cease to carry on the work undertaken by him as a condition of the tenure of such Fellowship, or if, being required by the President and Fellows to furnish evidence that he is engaged in such work, he shall fail to furnish within four months from the date of such requirement such evidence as shall be satisfactory to them. Provided that the President and Fellows may, on the ground of sickness or for any urgent cause approved by them, grant to such Fellow a dispensation from the performance of the obligation undertaken by him for a period not exceeding one year.

Fellowships by Examination.

39. Subject to the provisions of this Statute, one Fellowship and no more shall be filled up every year after examination in some subject or subjects connected with the studies of the University.

40. The examination shall, as regards not less than one in six of such Fellowships, have special the date of his election or the anniversary thereof.

Fellowships without Emolument.

49. It shall be lawful for the President and Fellows at any Stated General Meeting, upon twenty-eight days' statutable notice and by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the votes of those present and voting, to elect and admit or re-elect to a Fellowship without emolument any person who shall have been President or who is or shall have been an Actual Fellow of the College, and whose services as a Fellow would in their opinion be of advantage to the College as a place of religion, learning, and education. The number of Fellows (other than any retired President) elected under this clause shall not at any one time exceed one-eighth of the total number of Fellows otherwise elected existing at the time of any such election. The time of filling up any vacancies in this class of Fellowship shall be wholly at the discretion of the President and Fellows, save that no election in this class shall be made during a vacancy in the office of President.

50. Any Fellowship under the clause last preceding shall be held for the term of seven years and no person elected to a Fellowship without emolument shall be entitled to rooms in College. Save as aforesaid a Fellowship without emolument shall be held upon the terms applicable to Fellowships generally.

Honorary Fellowships.

51. It shall be lawful for the President and Fellows at Stated General Meetings by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the votes of those present and voting, to elect dis-tinguished persons to Honorary Fellowships in Persons so elected shall be termed the College. Honogary Fellows, and shall not be entitled to vote on any occasion as Fellows, or to receive any emolument whatever, but shall be entitled to enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the President and Fellows shall by Resolution from time to time determine. The conditions of eligibility to and tenure of Honorary Fellowships, and the mode of election thereto, may also be determined by the President and Fellows from time to time. Honorary Fellows shall not be counted among the Fellows of the College in the construction of these Statutes, nor Honorary Fellowships among the Fellowships of the College. The number of Honorary Fellowships in the College shall not at any one time exceed twelve.

II.—DEMYSHIPS.

Repeal of Existing Provisions.

The provisions of clause 11 of the Statutes of 1881 under the title of "Demyships" are hereby repealed, and the following provisions substituted therefor:—

11. Every Demy who shall accept a Fellowship in any College within the University, or cease to be a member of the College, shall thereupon vacate his Demyship. A Junior Demy shall vacate his Demyship upon marriage.

> In any week On any day (other than Saturday) . . . On Saturday

SECTION II .- The Minimum Rate for Overtime in respect of hours worked by Male and Female Workers, whether engaged on time or piece work, in excess of such normal number of hours, shall be as follows:

For the first two hours' Overtime on any day, except Sundays and the holidays as defined hereafter, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to time-and-a-quarter, that is to say, one-and-a-quarter times the Minimum Rate otherwise applicable.

For Overtime after the first two hours of Overtime on any day except Sundays and the holidays as defined hereafter, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to time-and-ahalf, that is to say, one-and-a-half times the Minimum Rate otherwise applicable.

For all time worked on Sundays and the days allowed as holidays under Section 35 of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1901, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to double time, that is to say, twice the Minimum Rate otherwise applicable.

All hours worked in any week in excess of 48 shall be paid for as Overtime, and the Overtime Rate shall also be payable where on any day the number of hours worked exceeds 9 (or, in the case of Saturday, exceeds 5), notwithstanding that the number of hours worked in the week does not exceed 48.

SECTION III.—Notwithstanding contained in Sections I. and II. of this part of this Notice:

- (a) Where it is or may become the established practice of an employer only to require attendance on 5 days a week, the Overtime Rate shall only be payable where on any day the number of hours worked exceeds 91
- (b) Where it is or may become the established practice of an employer to require attendance only on alternate Saturdays, the normal number of hours for the week in which attendance on Saturday is required. shall be deemed to be 50.

NOTE.—The hours which Female Workers and young persons are allowed to work are subject to the provisions of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1901.

PART IV.

Section I.—The above respective Minimum Rates of Wages shall apply, subject to the provisions of the Trade Boards Acts, to all workers who are employed during the whole or any part of their time in any branch of the trade of making Sugar Confectionery, Cocoa, Chocolate, Jam, Marmalade, Preserved Fruits, Fruit and Table Jellies, Meat Extracts, Meat and Table Jellies, Meat Extracts, Meat Essences, Sauces and Pickles; the preparation of Meat, Poultry, Game, Fish, Vegetables and Fruit for sale in a preserved state in tins, pots, bottles and similar receptacles; the processes of wrapping, filling, packing and labelling in respect of articles so made or prepared; excluding the covering and filling of biscuits, wafers and cakes with chocolate or sugar confectionery. Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in this Section, the above Minimum Rates shall not apply to Clerks, Salesmen, Saleswomen, Travellers, Engineers, Carpenters, Vanmen, Watchmen, Outside Messengers, Cleaners of Premises, Timekeepers or to any other workers whose work stands in a relationship to the trade similar to that of the foregoing excluded classes.

Section II.—The above Minimum Rates of Waes shall be paid clear of all deductions other than deductions under the National Insurance Act, 1911, as amended by any subsequent enactments, or deductions authorised by any Act to be made from wages in respect of contributions to any superannuation or other pro-

SECTION III.—The above Minimum Rates of Wages are without prejudice to workers who are earning higher rates of wages.

Dated the twentieth day of February, 1920. Signed by Order of the Trade Board,

' PART' II.

Workers under 21 Years of Age.

Section I.—Male and Female Workers employed in learning one or more of the operations specified in Section I, Section II, and A and B of Section III of Part I of this Schedule.

Workers of 16 and under 17 years of age: Male Workers, per week of 48 hours, 26s. Female Workers, per week of 48 hours, 20s. Workers of 17 and under 18 years of age: Male Workers, per week of 48 hours, 33s. Female Workers, per week of 48 hours, 24s. Workers of 18 and under 19 years of age:

Male Workers, per week of 48 hours, 40s. Female Workers, per week of 48 hours, 28s. Workers of 19 and under 20 years of age:

Workers of 19 and under 20 years of age: Male Workers, per week of 48 hours, 47s. Female Workers, per week of 48 hours, 30s. Workers of 20 and under 21 years of age: Male Workers, per week of 48 hours, 54s. Temale Workers, per week of 48 hours, 31s.

Provided that workers of 18 and under 21 years of age who at that age shall have had less than 2 years' experience in the trade may be employed during the period required to complete the 2 years' experience at a rate of ½d. per hour less than the minimum rate applicable as set out in this Section, during the last 12 months of such period, and at a rate of 1d. per hour less than the minimum rate applicable as set out in this Section, during any previous part of such period.

The weekly rates for Learners set out above are based on a week of 48 hours and are subject to a proportionate deduction according as the number of hours actually spent by the Learner in the factory or workshop in any week is less than 48.

Male Workers Employed as Porters or Labourers.

SECTION II.

Workers of 18 and under 19 years of age, 1s. per hour.

Workers of 19 and under 20 years of age,

1s. 1d. per hour.

Workers of 20 and under 21 years of age, 1s. 2d. per hour.

PART III.

Overtime Rates—Male and Female Workers (all ages).

SECTION I.

In accordance with Section 3 (1) (c) of the Trade Boards Act, 1918, the Trade Board propose to declare the Normal Number of Hours of Work in any Week to be 48.

Provided that all hours worked on Sundays and the holidays as defined hereafter shall be regarded as Overtime to which the Overtime Rates shall apply.

SECTION II.

The Trade Board propose to fix Overtime Rates in respect of hours worked by a worker in excess of the declared normal number of hours of work in the trade as follows, that is to say:—

(a) Workers employed on Time Work:

(1) For the first ten hours' Overtime in any week the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Time and a Quarter, that is to say, one and a quarter times the General Minimum Time Rate otherwise applicable.

(2) For Overtime after the first ten hours of Overtime in any week, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Time and a Half, that is to say, one and a half times the General Minimum Time Rate otherwise applicable.

Provided that for all time worked on Sundays, on Christmas Day as respects England and Wales, on New Year's Day as respects Scotland, and on Statutory Bank Holidays (but not including Good Friday when Easter Monday is not worked, and not including Easter Monday when Good Friday is not worked) the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Double Time, that is to say, twice the General Minimum Time Rate otherwise applicable.

(b) Workers employed on Piece Work:
Workers employed on piece work shall be entitled to receive in respect of each hour of Overtime a piece rate which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an Ordinary worker, at least the equivalent of the appropriate General Minimum Time Rate, with the addition of:

(a) as respects each of the first ten hours' Overtime in any week, a sum equivalent to one-quarter of the appropriate

General Minimum Time Rate;

(b) as respects each hour in excess of ten hours' Overtime in any week, a sum equivalent to one half of the appropriate General Minimum Time Rate;

(c) as respects each hour of employment on Sundays, on Christmas Day as respects England and Wales, on New Year's Day as respects Scotland, and on Statutory Bank Holidays (but not including Good Friday when Easter Monday is not worked, and not including Easter Monday when Good Friday is not worked) a sum equivalent to the appropriate General Minimum Time Rate.

SECTION III.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part of this Schedule, where in any week a worker owing to bona fide sickness or shortage of material is unable to work a full week, the Overtime Rates shall be payable in respect of all hours worked in excess of 5 hours on the Saturday or in excess of 9 hours on any other day in such week.

PART IV.

A Learner is a worker under 21 years of age who while employed is engaged during the whole or substantial part of his or her time in learning some branch or process of the trade.

PART V.

The above Minimum Rates of Wages shall apply subject to the provisions of the Trade Boards Acts to all workers in Great Britain who are employed during the whole or any part of their time in any branch of the trade specified in the Trade Boards (Perambulator and Invalid Carriage) Order, 1919, that is to say, the manufacture wherever carried on of Perambulators. Invalid Carriages (including Spinal Carriages) or Folding Push Cars;

(a) the manufacture of fittings or accessories where made in association with or in conjunction with perambulators, invalid carriages, folding push cars or wheels intended for use on these articles;

(b) the manufacture of wheels, excluding cycle wheels, intended for use on perambulators, invalid carriages or folding push cars;

(c) the manufacture of motor cycle side car bodies where made in association with or in conjunction with perambulators, invalid carriages or folding push cars:

carriages or folding push cars; (d) the repair of perambulators, invalid carriages or folding push cars when carried on in association with or in conjunction with the manufacture thereof;

(e) the manufacture of toy perambulators, toy wheel barrows, toy scooters, nursery yachts, toy cycles, toy cars, toy horses, dolls' houses or other similar toys, when carried on as a subsidiary branch of work in association with or in conjunction with the manufacture of perambulators, invalid carriages or folding push cars, so as to form a common or interchangeable form of employment for the workers;

(f) packing, warehousing, or despatching, or other similar operations incidental to the manufacture of any of the above named articles;

but excluding—

(g) the manufacture of motor scooters; h) the manufacture of wicker or cane bodies for perambulators, invalid carriages or folding push cars, when such manufacture is carried on in association with or in conjunction with the manufacture of other wicker or cane articles so as to form a common or interchangeable form of employment for the workers.

PART VI.

SECTION I.

The above Minimum Rates of Wages shall be paid clear of all deductions, other than deductions under the National Insurance Act, 1911, as amended by any subsequent enactments, or deductions authorised by any Act to be made from wages in respect of contributions to any Superannuation or other Provident Fund.

SECTION II.

The above Minimum Rates of Wages are without prejudice to workers who are earning higher rates of wages.

The Trade Board will consider any Objections to the above Proposals which may be lodged with them within two months from 21st February, 1920. Such objections should be in writing and signed by the person making the same (adding his or her full name and address) and should be sent to the Secretary, The Perambulator and Invalid Carriage Trade Board (Great Britain), 5, Chancery Lane, London, W.C. 2. It is desirable that the Objections should state precisely, and so far as possible with reasons, what is objected to.

Dated this twentieth day of February, 1920. Signed by Order of the Trade Board.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 21st February 1920.)

GLOUCESTERSHIRE ANDDISTRICT (FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE) ORDER OF 1920 (No. 3).

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:-

Modification of Order.

1. The Gloucestershire and District (Footand-Mouth Disease) Order of 1920, hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order," is modified in the manner hereinafter contained, Continued Prohibition of Movement in certain Prohibited Area.

2.—(1) The provisions of the principal Order shall apply without modification except as authorised in the Gloucestershire and District (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) Order of 1920 (No. 2) and the Wiltshire and District (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) Order of 1920 (No. 6) to the area described in the First Schedule hereto, hereinafter referred to as the Prohibited Area.

(2) If any farm (except any detached part) is partly within and partly without the Prohibited Area, the whole shall be deemed to be within the Prohibited Area.

Provision as to movement for slaughter into the parts of the Scheduled District not included in the Prohibited Area.

3.—(1.) An animal may, subject as hereinafter provided, be moved by railway or by vessel without a licence from premises not situate within any district which is for the time being a scheduled district for the purposes of an Order of the Minister relating to foot-and-mouth disease to a railway station or landing place in the Scheduled District which is not situate in the Prohibited Area, and an animal so moved may be moved from the railway station or landing place to any slaughterhouse in the Scheduled District which is not situate in the Prohibited Area if accompanied by a Movement Licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the railway station or landing place is situate.

(2) An animal may, subject as hereinafter provided, be moved by road from any premises not situate within any District which is for the time being a scheduled district for the purposes of an Order of the Minister relating to foot-and-mouth disease to any slaughterhouse in the Scheduled District which is not situate in the Prohibited Area if accompanied by a Movement Licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the slaughterhouse is situate.

Movement within the Scheduled District excluding the Prohibited Area.

4. Where an Inspector of the Local Authority considers it necessary or expedient that an animal in his district should be permitted to be moved from premises in the Scheduled District not situate in the Prohibited Area to any other premises in the Scheduled District not situate in the Prohibited Area, he may authorise such movement by a Movement Licence.

Provisions as to Movement Licences.

5.—(1.) Where the movement authorised by a Movement Licence granted under this Order is movement to a slaughterhouse from premises other than a railway station or landing place an animal shall not be moved with the Licence unless before the movement is commenced it is marked by and at the expense of the owner in manner following:

Cattle.—By the clipping of a broad arrow ↑ about six inches long on the left hindquarter of each of the cattle and by the clipping of the hair off the end of the tail.

Sheep.—By the clipping of a broad arrow f on the forehead of each of the sheep; and also by the painting or stamping of the letter M, about six inches long, on both sides of each of the sheep with the following composition, namely: Rosin, five parts; oil of turpentine, two parts; and blue or red ochre, one part; melted and used warm; or with some other adhesive composition of a blue or red colour.

Swine.—By the painting or stamping of the letter M, about six inches long, on both sides of each of the swine with the composition above mentioned.

(2.) A Movement Licence under this Order shall not be granted by an Inspector of a Local Authority unless he is satisfied that the proposed movement will not involve movement on a road in a Prohibited Area.

(3.) Where the movement authorised by a Movement Licence is movement as often as occasion may require, either between different parts of the same farm or between different farms, the Licence shall be marked with the words "Occupation Licence," and shall be in force until it is revoked by an Inspector of the Local Authority, or of the Ministry by a Notice served on the occupier of the farm on which the animals then are.

(4.) Every Licence shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the animals authorised to be moved, and the name or description of the several premises to and from which the animals are authorised to be moved.

(5.) Where animals are moved with a Licence under this Order, unless the Licence is an Occupation Licence, the Licence shall forthwith after completion of the movement be delivered up to an officer of the Local Authority or be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest Police Station in the same District by the person in charge of the animals at the time of completing the movement.

(6.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order, except where it is otherwise expressly authorised by this Order, shall be in force for four days, inclusive of the day of issue, and shall be in the form set forth in the Second Schedule to this Order or to the like

(7.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order shall not be available if granted by the owner of the animal to be moved, or by his agent, or by the consignee of the animal, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughterhouse from or to which the animal is to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of a Local Authority.

(8.) A copy of a Licence which authorises movement to premises in a District other than the District for which the person granting the Licence acts as Inspector shall forthwith be sent by the Inspector to the Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination is situate.

Movement through the Prohibited Area by Rail.

6. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to apply to the movement of animals into or out of the Prohibited Area where they are moved through the Prohibited Area by railway from a place outside such Area to another place outside such Area without unnecessary delay and without the animals being untrucked within such Area except for the purposes of feeding or watering the animals within the railway station premises where such untrucking takes place.

General Provisions as to Movement.

7. Animals while being moved under this Order shall, so far as is practicable, be kept separate from all animals which are not being so moved, and shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay to the place of destination specified in the Licence, and where the place of destination is a slaughterhouse they shall be there detained until they are slaughtered.

Exception of certain Animals from Provisions as to Movement.

8. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as authorising-

(i) movement of an animal which is affected with foot-and-mouth disease, or which has during the preceding twenty-eight days been in any way exposed to the infection of such disease; or

(ii) movement into or out of a foot-and-mouth disease infected place; or

(iii) movement of an animal the movement of which is prohibited by notice of an Inspector of the Local Authority or of the Ministry given under any Order of the ·Minister.

Saving for Orders and Regulations.

Movement of animals under this Order is subject to any other Order of the Minister, and also subject to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under any Order of the Minister · for prohibiting or regulating the movement of animals.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

10.—(1.) Any person in charge of an animal being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Ministry or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Licence, if any, necessary for the movement, and shall allow it to be read, and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Any person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Holding of Markets and Sales in the Scheduled District (except in the Prohibited Area).

-(1.) A market or sale of animals may be held on any premises in the Scheduled District, except in the Prohibited Area, if the Local Authority are satisfied that the market or sale will be restricted to animals intended for immediate slaughter and the market or sale is authorised by the Local Authority under this Article.

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES RULES.

Additional Rule, Dated 23rd February, 1920, for the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division of His Majesty's High Court of Justice in Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.

Whereas the Rule Committee of the Supreme Court of Judicature did, on the 4th day of February, 1920, make a Rule of the Supreme Court (Solicitors' Remuneration), which is numbered Order 65 Rule 10B;

And whereas it is desirable that there should be uniformity of practice upon the subject with which the said Rule deals;

Now, I, the Right Honourable Sir Henry Edward Duke, President of the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice, do, pursuant to Section 53 of the Statute 20 and 21 Vict., cap. 85, and of Section 18 of the Statute 38 and 39 Vict., cap. 77, make the following Additional Rule concerning the practice and procedure in Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.

Henry Edward Duke, President.

Dated the 23rd February, 1920.

ADDITIONAL RULE.

224. The Provisions of Order 65 Rule 10B of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Judicature, made and dated the 4th day of February, 1920, shall be applied on Taxation of Costs in Divorce and Matrimonial Causes so long as such rule shall remain in force.

> Henry Edward Duke, President.

DIVORCE AND MATRIMONTAL CAUSES.

(Solicitors' Remuneration) Rule, 1920.

Whereas on the 4th day of February, 1920, Order 65 Rule 10B of the Supreme Court Rules was declared to be urgent, and made to come into force on the 16th day of February, 1920, as a Provisional Rule, I do hereby direct that, on the same grounds of urgency, pending the publication of an Additional Rule, to be made for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes dealing with the same subject, the Registrars on taxation of costs in Divorce and Matrimonial Causes do apply from and after the date hereof the provisions of the said Order 65 Rule 10B.

Henry Edward Duke, President.

23rd February, 1920.

HUMBER COMMERCIAL RAILWAY AND DOCK.

(Provision for Redemption or Replacement of Debentures; Increase of Rent Payable by the Great Central Railway Company for Lease of Humber Commercial Railway and Dock; Power to Great Central Railway Company to Purchase Debentures; Additional Second Debenture Stock for Great Central Railway Company.)

OTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to make application to Parliament forthwith for leave to introduce a Bill in the present Session, under the above title, for an Act for the following purposes or some of them.

To enable the Humber Commercial Railway and Dock Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Humber Company") to redeem or replace the debentures issued by that Company without diminishing the funds available for the payment of dividends upon the share capital of that Company, and for that purpose to authorize an increase in the amount of the rentepayable by the Great Central Railway Company for the lease of the Humber Company's undertaking.

To enable the Great Central Railway Company to subscribe for purchase and hold debentures or securities issued or to be issued by the Humber Company, and to apply for those purposes moneys which they now have in their hands or which they have power to raise.

To authorize the Great Central Railway Company to create and issue for the purposes of the Bill an additional amount of second debentures stock ranking pari passu with their existing and authorized second debenture stock, and to provide that such additional amount of second debenture stock may be issued as redeemable stock, with the condition attached thereto that the same may or shall be redeemed by the Great Central Railway Company at such times and in such manner, and on such terms and conditions as shall be provided by the terms of issue or expressed on the certificates thereof, and to provide for the application of the moneys to be raised by the issue of such second debenture stock.

To sanction and confirm any agreement that may have been or may be made between the Humber Company and the Great Central Railway Company with respect to any of the matters aforesaid.

To incorporate, with or without amendment, all or any of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Act with respect to the creation and issue of additional capital.

To vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might interfere with carrying out the objects of the Bill, and, so far as may be necessary for that purpose, to amend or repeal the provisions of the Humber Commercial Railway and Dock Act, 1901, and any other Act relating to the Humber Company or their undertaking and 12 & 13 Victoria, cap. 81, and any other Act relating to the Great Central Railway Company or their undertaking.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons as soon as leave shall have been given by Parliament to present the petition for leave to introduce the Bill.

Dated this 16th day of February, 1920.

^{*} Section 8 of the Corn Returns Act, 1882, provides that where returns of purchases of British Corn are made to the local inspector of Corn Returns in any other measure than the imperial bushel or by weight or by a weighed measure, that officer shall convert such returns into the imperial bushel, and in the case of weight or weighed measure the conversion is to be made at the rate of sixty imperial pounds for every bushel of wheat, fifty imperial pounds for every bushel of barley, and thirty-nine imperial pounds for every bushel of oats.

NOTE.—The above prices are based on returns received from Inspectors during the week named. They represent on the whole the average prices ruling in the preceding week.
