Where an offender convicted before any Court established under this Order is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Consul-General proceeding under section 7 of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," authority in that behalf being hereby given to him, considers it expedient that the sentence should be carried into effect within His Majesty's dominions, and the offender is accordingly sent for imprisonment to a place in His Majesty's dominions, the place shall be either a place in the Punjab or a place in some other part of His Majesty's dominions, the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

15. In cases of murder or culpable homicide, if either the death or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death happened within the limits of this Order, a Court acting under this Order shall have the like jurisdiction over any British subject who is charged either as a principal offender or as an abettor as if both such criminal act and the death had happened within the limits of this Order.

16. Where a warrant or order of arrest is issued by a competent British consular authority in China beyond the limits of this Order for the apprehension of a person who is accused of crime committed in China beyond the limits of this Order, and who is, or is supposed to be, within the limits of this Order, and such warrant or order is produced to the Court, the Court may back the warrant or order, and the same when so backed shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it was originally directed, and also to any constable or officer of the Court, and to any person named on the back of the warrant or order, to apprehend the accused person at any place within the limits of this Order, and to carry him to and deliver him up within the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the warrant or order.

17. Where a British subject is convicted of an offence, the Court may, if it thinks fit, at any time before he is discharged, require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour, and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, cause him to come or be brought before the Court.

18.—(1.) Where it is shown by evidence on oath, to the satisfaction of the Court, that any person subject to this Order has committed, or is about to commit, an offence against this Order, or is otherwise conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of China and His Majesty, or is intriguing within the limits of this Order against His Majesty's power and authority, the Court may, if it thinks fit, by order under the Consular seal, prohibit that person from being within the limits of this Order, during any time therein specified, not exceeding two years.

(2.) The Court, by order in writing under the Consular seal, may vary any order of prohibition (not extending the duration thereof), and may revoke any order of prohibition or removal.

(3.) The Consul-General shall forthwith report to the Governor-General of India in Council every order made under this Article, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

19.—(1.) If a British subject fails to give security for good behaviour or for keeping the peace when lawfully required to do so, or fails to comply with an order of prohibition made under this Order, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that he be deported from Kashgar.

(2.) Thereupon the person ordered to be deported shall, unless the Consul-General thinks fit otherwise to direct, be as soon as practicable, and in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence or while it is in course of execution, removed in custody under warrant to the place named in the warrant.

(3.) The place shall be a place either in the Punjab, or in the part of His Majesty's dominions to which the person belongs, or in a British Possession or Protectorate, the Government whereof consents to the reception therein of persons deported under this Order.

(4.) The Court, on making an order of deportation, may, if it thinks fit, order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation, to be fixed by the Court in the order. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Treasury, or, with the previous or subsequent assent of the Secretary of State, the Governor-General of India in Council, directs.

(5.) The Consul-General shall forthwith report to the Governor-General of India in Council every order of deportation made under this Order, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

(6.) If a person deported under this Order returns to Kashgar without permission in writing of the Consul-General, or the Governor-General of India in Council, or the Secretary of State (which permission the Consul-General, or the Governor-General of India in Council, or the Secretary of State respectively may give), he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with a fine which may extend to 500 Kashgar taels, or with both.

(7.) He shall also be liable to be forthwith again deported under the original or a new order, and a fresh warrant.

20.—(1.) Where under this Order a person is to be sent or removed or deported from Kashgar, he shall, by warrant of the Court, sealed with the Consular seal, be detained, if necessary, in custody or in prison, until a fit opportunity for his removal or deportation occurs.

(2.) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution to receive and detain the person therein named, in the manner therein prescribed, and to send or remove and carry him to the place therein named, according to the warrant.

(3.) In case of sending or removal for any purpose other than deportation, the warrant shall be issued in duplicate, and the person issuing it shall, as soon as practicable after his arrival at the place therein named, deliver, according to the warrant, with one of the duplicates of the warrant, to a constable, or proper officer of police, or keeper of a prison, or other proper authority or person there, the person named in the warrant, to be produced on the order of the proper Court or authority there, or to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

21. An appeal shall not lie against an order of prohibition; or removal, or deportation made under this Order.

22.—(1.) If any British subject, without His Majesty's authority, proof whereof shall lie on the party accused, does any of the following things, that is to say:—

(a.) Levies war or takes any part in any operations of war against, or aids or abets any person in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion, against the Government of China; or

(b.) Takes part in any operation of war in the service of the Government of China against any persons engaged in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion, against that Government;

he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, and with or without a fine not exceeding 3,750 Kashgar taels, or to a fine not exceeding 3,750 Kashgar taels without imprisonment.

(2.) In addition to any such punishment every conviction under the provisions of this Article shall of itself, and without further proceedings, make the person convicted liable to deportation, and the Court may order him to be deported from Kashgar in manner provided by this Order.

23.—(1.) Where, by agreement among the Diplomatic or Consular representatives in China of foreign States, or some of them, in conjunction with the Chinese authorities, Sanitary, or Police, or Game Regulations are established, and the same, as far as they affect British subjects within the limits of this Order, are approved by the Secretary of State and published by the Consul-General in such manner and at such places as he may think proper, the Court may entertain any complaint made against a British subject for a breach of those Regulations, and such person shall, on conviction, be liable to the punishment, forfeiture, or fine, prescribed by such Regulations, or, if no such punishment or fine is prescribed, to imprisonment not exceeding one month, or to a fine not exceeding 150 Kashgar taels.

(2.) In any such case the fine recovered shall, notwithstanding anything in this Order, be disposed of and applied in manner provided by those Regulations, and if the Regulations contain no provisions as to the manner in which it shall be disposed of or applied, it shall be disposed of and applied in such manner as the Consul-General, with the concurrence of the Governor-General of India in Council, may direct.

24.—(1.) If any person to whom this Order applies prints, publishes, or offers for sale any printed or written newspaper or other publication containing seditious matter, he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months, and with or without a fine not exceeding 75 Kashgar taels, or to a fine not exceeding 75 Kashgar taels without imprisonment, and may, in addition to, or in lieu of, any other punishment, be ordered either to give security for good behaviour or to be deported.

(2.) Matter calculated to excite tumult or disorder, or to excite enmity between His Majesty's subjects and the Government of China, or the authorities or nationals in China of any Power in amity with His Majesty, or between the Government of China and its citizens, shall be deemed to be seditious matter within the meaning of this Article.

25.—(1.) If any person to whom this Order applies does any of the following things, namely:—

(i.) Wilfully by act or threat obstructs any Officer of or person executing any process of the Court in the performance of his duty; or

(ii.) Within or close to the room or place where the Court is sitting wilfully misbehaves in a violent, threatening, or disrespectful manner to the disturbance of the Court, or to the intimidation of suitors or others resorting thereto; or

(iii.) Wilfully insults any member of the Court, or any person acting as a Clerk or Officer of the Court during his sitting or attendance in Court, or in his going to or returning from Court; or

(iv.) Does any act in relation to the Court or a Judge thereof, or a matter pending therein, which, if done in relation to a Superior Court in England, or in India, would be punishable as a contempt of such Court, or as a libel on such Court, or the Judges thereof, or the administration of justice therein;

such person shall be liable to be apprehended by order of the Court, with or without warrant, and, on enquiry and consideration and after the hearing of any defence which such person may offer, without further process or trial, to be punished with a fine not exceeding 50 Kashgar taels or with imprisonment not exceeding twenty-four hours.

(2.) A Minute shall be made and kept of every such case of punishment, recording the facts of the offence and the extent of the punishment.

(3.) Provided that, if the Court thinks fit, instead of proceeding under the preceding provisions, it may direct or cause the offender to be tried in a separate criminal prosecution or proceeding, in which the offender shall be liable to any punishment to which he would be liable if the offence were committed in relation to the Court of a Sessions Judge in India.

(4.) Nothing herein shall interfere with the power of the Court to remove or exclude persons who interrupt or obstruct the proceedings of the Court.

26. Any act which if done in British India would be an offence against the law for the time being in force in British India relating to trademarks, merchandise marks, copyright designs, or inventions, shall, if done within the limits of this Order, be an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with a fine which may extend to 500 Kashgar taels or with both.

27.—(1.) If a person to whom this Order applies—

(i.) Smuggles, or attempts to smuggle, out of China any goods which are the property of a person who is not exempt from a duty payable on exportation thereof to the Chinese Government;

(ii.) Imports or exports, or attempts to import or export, into or out of China any goods being the property of a person not exempt from the payment of duty thereon to the Chinese Government, intending and attempting to evade such payment of duty;

(iii.) Imports or exports, or attempts to import or export, into or out of China any goods the importation or exportation whereof, into or out of China, is prohibited by Treaty;

(iv.) Without a proper licence, sells, or attempts to sell, or offers for sale, any goods whereof the Chinese Government has by law a monopoly;

in each of the four cases aforesaid he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, and with or without a fine not exceeding 750 Kashgar taels, or to a fine not exceeding 750 Kashgar taels, without imprisonment.

(2.) Where a person is charged with such an offence as in this Article is mentioned, the Court may seize the goods in relation to which the alleged offence was committed, and may hold the same until after the hearing of the charge.

(3.) If a person so charged is convicted, then those goods, whether they have been so seized or not, shall be forfeited to His Majesty the King, and the Court shall dispose of them, subject to any general or special directions of the Secretary of State, as the Court thinks fit.

28.—(1.) If a person to whom this Order applies—

(i.) Publicly derides, mocks, or insults any religion established or observed within the limits of this Order; or

(iii.) Publicly and wilfully commits any act tending to bring any religion established or observed within those limits, or its ceremonies, mode of worship, or observances, into hatred, ridicule, or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace;

he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof, liable to imprisonment which may extend to two years, with or without a fine not exceeding 250 Kashgar taels, or to a fine alone not exceeding 250 Kashgar taels.

(2.) The Consul-General shall take such precautionary measures as seem to him proper and expedient for the prevention of such offences.

29. Any person being within the limits of this Order may be proceeded against, tried, and punished under this Order for piracy wherever committed.

30. If any person to whom this Order applies violates or fails to observe any stipulation of any Treaty between His Majesty, His Predecessors, Heirs, or Successors, and the President of the Republic of China for the time being in force, and applicable to such persons, in respect of the violation whereof any penalty is stipulated for in the Treaty, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof under this Order shall be liable to a penalty in accordance with the stipulations of the Treaty, or the provisions of this Order.

31. Where a person entitled to appeal to the High Court of the Punjab from any judgment or order passed in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall present his petition of appeal to the Court; and the petition shall with all practicable speed be transmitted by or through the Consul-General to the High Court of the Punjab, with certified copies of the charge (if any) and proceedings, of all documentary evidence admitted or tendered, of the depositions, of the notes of the oral testimony, and of the judgment or order, and any argument on the petition of appeal that the appellant desires to submit to the High Court of the Punjab.

32. The Court may postpone the execution of the sentence pending the appeal, and shall, if necessary, commit the person convicted to prison for safe custody, or detain him in prison for safe custody, or shall admit him to bail, and may take security, by recognizance, deposit of money, or otherwise, for his payment of any fine.

PART IV.—Civil Matters.

33. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Civil Procedure, and the other Indian enactments relating to the administration of civil justice and to insolvency and bankruptcy for the time being applicable and Kashgar, shall have effect as if Kashgar were a district in the Punjab; the Consul-General shall be deemed to be the District Judge, and the Court shall be deemed to be the District Court or Principal Civil Court of Original Jurisdiction in the district; the Chief Court of the Punjab shall be deemed to be the highest Civil Court of Appeal for the district, and the Court authorized to hear appeals from the decisions of the District Court; and the powers, both of the Governor-General in Council and the Local Government, under those enactments, shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council.

34.—(1.) The Court shall endeavour to obtain, as early as may be, notice of the deaths of all British subjects leaving property within the limits of this Order, and all such information as may serve to guide the Court with respect to the securing and administration of their property.

(2.) On receiving notice of the death of such a person, the Court shall put up a notice thereof at the Court-house, and shall keep the same there until probate or administration is granted, or, where it appears to the Court that probate or administration will not be applied for or cannot be granted, for such time as it thinks fit.

(3.) The Court shall, where the circumstances of the case appear so to require, as soon as may be, take possession of the property within the limits of this Order of the deceased, or put it under the Consular seal (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law; perishable articles being disposed of as the Court may consider best in the interests of the estate.

(4.) All expenses incurred on behalf of the Court in so doing shall be the first charge on the property of the deceased, and the Court shall, by sale of part of that property, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of these expenses.

(5.) When a British subject dies within the limits of this Order or elsewhere intestate, his property, or so much thereof as is within those limits, shall, until administration is granted, vest in the Consul-General.

35. If a person to whom this Order applies, being named executor in a will, and to the establishment of whose title, as such, it is necessary to obtain probate of that will, takes possession of and administers, or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, and does not obtain probate within one month after the death, or after the termination of any proceeding respecting probate or administration, he shall be liable to pay double the amount of any fees chargeable on obtaining probate, and shall also be liable to a fine, which may extend to 500 Kashgar taels.

36. If any person to whom this Order applies, other than the person named executor, or the administrator, or a person entitled to represent the deceased without obtaining probate or letters of administration, or an officer of the Court, takes possession of and administers, or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, he shall, as soon as practicable, notify the fact and the circumstances to the Court, and shall furnish to the Court all such information as the Court requires, and shall conform to any direction of the Court in relation to the custody, disposal, or transmission of the property or the proceeds thereof, and, in case of any contravention of this Article, he shall be punished with a fine, which may extend to 500 Kashgar taels.

37.—(1) When the peculiar circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require for reasons recorded in its proceedings, the Court may, if it thinks fit, of its own motion or otherwise, grant letters of administration to an officer of the Court.

(2) The officer so appointed shall act under the direction of the Court and shall be indemnified thereby.

(3) He shall publish such notices, if any, as the Court thinks fit, within the limits of this Order, in the Punjab, the United Kingdom, and elsewhere.

(4) The Court shall require and compel him to file in the proper office of the Court his accounts of his administration at intervals not exceeding three months.

(5) The accounts shall be audited under the direction of the Court.

(6) All expenses incurred on behalf of the Court in execution of this Article shall be the first charge on the estate of the deceased within the limits of this Order; and the Court shall, by the sale of that estate or otherwise, provide for the discharge of those expenses.

38.—(1) Where any person entitled to appeal to the High Court of the Punjab from any decree or order made in the exercise of civil jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall present his memorandum of appeal to the Court, and, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, the Court shall receive the same for transmission to the High Court in manner hereinafter provided.

(2) The appellant shall, within such time as the Court directs, give security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such amount as the Court thinks reasonable, for prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of any costs which may be ordered by the High Court of the Punjab on the appeal to be paid by the appellant to any person.

(3) The appellant shall pay into the proper office of the Court such sum as the Court thinks reasonable to defray the expense of the making up and transmission to the High Court of the Punjab of the record.

39. The appellant may, with his memorandum of appeal, file any argument which he desires to submit to the High Court of the Punjab in support of the appeal.

40.—(1) The memorandum of appeal and the argument (if any) shall be served on such persons as respondents as the Court directs.

(2) A respondent may, within fourteen days after service, file in that Court a memorandum (if any) of cross-appeal, and such arguments as he desires to submit to the High Court of the Punjab against the appeal or in support of the cross-appeal.

(3) Copies thereof shall be furnished by the Court in which they are filed to such persons as the Court thinks fit.

41.—(1) On the expiration of the time for the respondent filing his argument, the Court shall, without the application of any party, make up the record of appeal, which shall consist of the memorandum of appeal and the arguments (if any), and certified copies of the following, namely, the plaint, written statements (if any), all proceedings, all written and documentary evidence admitted or tendered, the notes of the oral evidence, the judgment, and the decree or order.

(2) The several pieces shall be fastened together consecutively numbered, and the whole shall be secured by the Consular seal, and be forthwith forwarded to the High Court of the Punjab.

(3) The Court may, if for special reasons it thinks fit, send any portion of the documentary evidence, in original, to the High Court.

PART V.—Foreign Subjects and Tribunals.

42.—(1) Where a foreigner desires to bring in the Court a suit against a British subject, or a British subject desires to bring in the Court a suit against a foreigner, the Court shall entertain the same, and shall hear and determine it.

(2) Provided that the foreigner, if required by the Court, first obtains and files in the proper office of the Court the consent, in writing, of the competent authority (if any) on behalf of his own nation to his submitting, and that he does submit, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such reasonable amount as the Court thinks fit, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, and damages, and abide by, and perform the decision to be given by the Court or on appeal.

(3) A cross-suit or counter-claim shall not be brought in the Court against a plaintiff, being a foreigner.

(4) Where a foreigner obtains in the Court a decree or order against a defendant being a British subject, and in another suit that defendant is plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the decree or order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount decreed or ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount decreed or ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit.

(5) Where a plaintiff, being a foreigner, obtains a decree or order in the Court against two or more defendants, being British subjects, jointly, and in another suit one of them is a plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subjects, stay the enforcement of the decree or order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount decreed or ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount decreed or ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit, without prejudice to the right of the British subject to obtain contribution from his co-defendants under the joint liability.

(6) Where in a suit a foreigner is co-plaintiff with a British subject who is within the limits of this Order, it shall not be necessary for the foreigner to give security under this Article as regards fees and costs, unless the Court so directs, but the co-plaintiff British subject shall be responsible for all fees and costs.

43.—(1) Where it is proved that the attendance, within the limits of this Order, of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required in a Chinese or foreign Court, the Court may, if it thinks fit, in a case and in circumstances in which the Court would require the attendance of that person before the Court, order that he do attend as required.

(2) If the person ordered to attend, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend accordingly and does not satisfactorily excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, he shall, independently of any other liability, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 500 Kashgar taels, or with both.

44. When a British subject invokes or submits to the jurisdiction of a Chinese or foreign tribunal and engages in writing to abide by the decision of that tribunal, or to pay any fees or expenses ordered by that tribunal to be paid by him, the Court may, on such evidence as it thinks fit to require, enforce payment of such fees and expenses in the same manner as if they were fees payable in a proceeding in the Court, and shall pay over and account for the same when levied to the proper Chinese or foreign authority as the Court may direct.

45.—(1) If a British subject wilfully gives false evidence in a proceeding before a Chinese or foreign Court, or in an arbitration between a British subject on the one hand and a foreigner on the other hand, he shall, on conviction, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 500 Kashgar taels, or with both.

(2) Nothing in this Article shall exempt a person from liability under any other British or British Indian law to any other or higher punishment or penalty.

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

46. If any person subject to the jurisdiction of the Court does, within the limits of this Order, any act in relation to proceedings in a Chinese or foreign Court which, if done in the course of, or in relation to, any proceedings in the Court, would have been punishable as an offence, such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, on conviction, to such punishment as he would have been liable to if the offence had been committed in the course of, or in relation to, proceedings in the Court.

47.—(1) Every Agreement for reference to arbitration between a British subject on the one hand and a foreigner on the other hand may, on the application of any party, be filed for execution in the office of the Court.

(2) The Court shall thereupon have authority to enforce the Agreement, and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the award, in such manner and on such terms as the Court may think fit.

(3) Provided that the foreigner, if so required by the Court, first obtains and files in the proper office of the Court the consent, in writing, of the competent authority (if any) on behalf of his own nation to his submitting, and that he does submit by writing, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and, if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such reasonable amount as the Court thinks fit, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, damages, and expenses, and abide by and perform the award.

PART VI.—Registration.

48.—(1) A register of British subjects shall be kept at the office of the Consul-General.

(2) Every British subject resident within the limits of this Order, being of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, or being married, or a widower or widow, though under that age, shall, if not already registered, register himself within three months of the commencement of this Order, at the office of the Consul-General.

(3) The registration of a man shall comprise the registration of his wife, or wives, if living with him; and the registration of the head of a family shall comprise the registration of all females and minors, being his relatives, in whatever degree, living under the same roof with him at the time of his registration.

Explanation.—Registration under this provision of families and minor relatives who are not British subjects entitles them to consular protection while they remain under the tutelage of the head of the family, but does not of itself confer upon them the status of British subject.

(4) A person arriving within the said limits, and not already registered, must apply for registration within one month after arrival. A person who fails to obtain registration within the time so limited may be registered at any time if he excuses his failure to the satisfaction of the Consul-General.

(5) A person registered in any register of British subjects established under any Order in Council repealed by this Order shall be registered under the provisions of this Order, unless the Consul-General is satisfied, after enquiry, that the previous registration was erroneous, or that such person is not entitled to registration under the provisions of this Order.

(6) Registration under this Order shall be renewed annually in the month of January.

(7) Every person who has not previously been registered applying to be registered under this Order shall, unless excused by the Consul-General, attend personally for that purpose at the office of the Consul-General, but no person applying for the renewal of his registration need attend personally unless directed by the Consul-General so to do.

(8) Every person shall, on every registration of himself, and on every renewal of such registration, pay a fee of 1.5 Kashgar tael, or such other fee as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Treasury, from time to time appoints. The amount of the fee may be uniform for all persons, or may vary according to the position and circumstances of different classes if the Secretary of State from time to time so directs, but may not in any case exceed 1.5 Kashgar tael.

49.—(1) Every person registering himself under this Order may obtain, if he so desire, a certificate of registration in such form as may be prescribed by the Consul-General.

(2) The name of a wife, if her registration is under the provisions of this Order comprised in her husband's, shall be endorsed on the husband's certificate.

(3) The names and descriptions of females and minors, whose registration is under the provisions of this Order comprised in that of the head of a family, shall be endorsed on the certificate of the head of the family.

50. If any British subject neglects to register himself under the provisions of this Order, he shall not be entitled to be recognised or protected as a British subject, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 12.5 Kashgar taels for each instance of such failure, but he shall, although not registered, be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court.

51. A person applying to be registered under this Order must produce such evidence as the Consul-General may think necessary that he is entitled to be registered.

52. Any register kept under any Order repealed by this Order shall continue in force until superseded by a register kept under this Order.

PART VII.—Miscellaneous Provisions.

53. Subject to the control of the Secretary of State, the Consul-General may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General of India in Council, make Rules of Procedure and other Rules, consistent with this Order, for the better execution of the provisions herein contained in respect of any matter arising in the course of any civil or criminal case, including insolvency and bankruptcy proceedings.

54.—(1) Subject to the control of the Secretary of State, acting with the concurrence of the Treasury, the Consul-General may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General of India in Council, make rules imposing fees leviable in respect of any proceedings in, or processes issued out of, the Court.

(2) But the Court may, in any case, if it thinks fit, on account of the poverty of a party, or for any other reason, dispense in whole or in part with the payment of any fees chargeable in respect of such matter.

(3) Nothing in this Order shall affect any Order in Council for the time being in force prescribing a table of fees to be taken by Consular officers; and where a fee is taken under that Order, no fee shall be taken in respect of the same matter under this Order.

55.—(1) All fees, charges, expenses, costs, fines, damages, and other money payable under this Order, or under any law made applicable by this Order, may be enforced under order of the Court by attachment and sale of the movable property of the person by whom they are payable, and in case of deficiency by imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, but such imprisonment shall not operate as a satisfaction or extinguishment of the liability.

(2) Any bill of sale or mortgage, or transfer of property, made with the view of avoiding such attachment of sale, shall not be effectual to defeat the provisions of this Order.

(3) Except as in this Order otherwise provided, all fees, penalties, fines, and forfeitures levied under this Order shall be paid to the public account, and shall be applied in such manner as the Secretary of State with the consent of the Treasury may direct.

56. Whenever an Acting Consul-General has commenced the hearing of any cause or matter, civil or criminal, he may, unless the Consul-General otherwise directs, continue and complete the hearing and determination thereof, notwithstanding that his authority to act as Consul-General has otherwise ceased by reason of the expiration of the time for which he was appointed to act, or by reason of the happening of any event by which his authority is determined.

57. The Consul-General shall, as far as there is proper opportunity, promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way, and without recourse to litigation, of matters in difference between British subjects, or between British subjects and foreigners, within the limits of this Order.

58.—(1) If an officer of the Court, employed to execute a decree or order, loses, by neglect or omission, the opportunity of executing it, then, on complaint of the person aggrieved and proof of the fact alleged, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order the officer to pay the damages sustained by the person complaining, or part thereof.

(2) The order may be enforced as an order directing payment of money.

59.—(1) If a clerk or officer of the Court, acting under pretence of the process or authority of the Court, is charged with extortion, or with not paying over money duly levied, or with other misconduct, the Court may, if it thinks fit, enquire into the charge in a summary way, and may for that purpose summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary persons as in a suit, and may make such order for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the payment over of any money levied, and for the payment of such damages and costs as the Court thinks fit.

(2) The Court may also, as it thinks fit, on the same enquiry, impose on the clerk or officer such fine, not exceeding 25 Kashgar taels, for each offence, as the Court thinks fit.

(3) A clerk or officer punished under this Article shall not, without the leave of the Court, be liable to a civil suit in respect of the same matter; and any such suit, if already or afterwards begun, may be stayed by the Court in such manner and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other British or British Indian law for any act or omission punishable under this Article, or from being liable under that other law to any other or higher punishment or penalty than that provided by this Article:

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

60. The Court shall have jurisdiction from time to time to make an order requiring a person to contribute, in such manner as the Court directs, to the support of his wife, or to the support of his or her child, whether legitimate or not, being, in the opinion of the Court, under the age of 16 years. Any such order may be made in a summary way, as if the neglect to provide for the support of such wife or child were an offence, and any failure to comply with any such order shall be deemed to be an offence, and shall be punishable with a fine not exceeding 5 Kashgar taels for any one default, and the Court may direct any penalty imposed for such offence to be applied for the support of such wife or child in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

61. The Consul-General under this Order shall have power to make and alter Regulations (to be called King's Regulations) for the following purposes (that is to say):—

(a) For the peace, order, and good government of British subjects within any such place in relation to matters not provided for by this Order and to matters intended by this Order to be prescribed by Regulation.

(b) For securing the observance of any Treaty or arrangement, for the time being in force, relating to any place within the limits of this Order, or of any native or local law or custom, whether relating to trade, commerce, revenue, or any other matter.

(c) For applying, amending, modifying, or repealing with respect to Kashgar any Acts or enactments which apply or are made applicable or have been brought into operation in Kashgar by or under any of the provisions of Article 8 of this Order.

(d) For regulating or preventing the importation or exportation by British subjects of arms or munitions of war, or any parts or ingredients thereof, and for giving effect to any Treaty relating to the importation or exportation of the same.

(e) For requiring Returns to be made of the nature, quantity, and value of articles exported from or imported into Kashgar by or on account of any British subject who is subject to this Order, and for prescribing the times and manner at or in which and the persons by whom such Returns are to be made.

(f) For the governance, visitation, care, and superintendence of prisons.

62.—(1) Any Regulations made under the preceding Article may provide for forfeiture of any goods, receptacles, or things in relation to which, or to the contents of which, any breach is committed of such Regulations, or of any Treaty or any native or local law or custom, the observance of which is provided for by such Regulations.

(2) Any person committing a breach of any such Regulations shall, in addition to any forfeiture prescribed thereby, be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or to a fine, or to both.

(3) Any fine imposed for a breach of Regulations shall not exceed 750 Kashgar taels: Provided that in the case of any breach of any native or local law relating to customs law, or under which the importation or exportation of any goods is prohibited or restricted, the fine may extend to a sum equivalent to treble the value of the goods in relation to which the breach is committed.

(4) King's Regulations shall not take effect until they are allowed by a Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council: Provided that in case of urgency declared in any such Regulations the same shall take effect before such allowance, and shall continue to have effect unless and until they are disallowed by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council, and until notification of such disallowance is received and published by the Consul-General, and such disallowance shall be without prejudice to anything done or suffered under such Regulations in the meantime.

(5) All King's Regulations shall be published by the Consul-General in such manner and at such places as he may think proper.

(6) In this Article "breach of the Regulations" includes the breach of any native or local law or custom, the observance of which is required by any King's Regulations.

63. Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order, and of the commencement thereof, and of the appointment of the Consul-General, and of the constitution of the Court, and of Consular seals and signatures, and of any Rules and Regulations made or in force under this Order, and no proof shall be required of any of such matters.

64. Nothing in this Order shall deprive the Consul-General of the right to observe, and to enforce the observance of, or shall deprive any person of the benefit of, any reasonable custom existing within the limits of this Order, unless this Order contains some express and specific provision incompatible with the observance thereof.

65. Nothing in this Order shall—

(i.) Affect any power or jurisdiction conferred by, or referred to in, the Act of the Governor-General of India in Council, entitled "The Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1879" (Act XXI of 1879), or in "The Indian (Foreign Jurisdiction) Order in Council, 1902"; or

(ii.) Affect any jurisdiction for the time being exercisable by the Consul-General under any Imperial Act other than "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890"; or

(iii.) Prevent the Consul-General from doing anything which His Majesty's Consuls in the dominions of any State in amity with His Majesty are for the time being, by law, usage, or sufferance, entitled or enabled to do.

66. If a question arises whether any place is or is not within the limits of this Order for the purposes of this Order, it shall be referred to the Consul-General, and a certificate under his hand and seal shall be conclusive on the question, and shall be taken judicial notice of by the Chief Court of the Punjab and by the Court.

67. Not later than the 31st day of March in each year, or such other day as the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, the Governor-General of India in Council, directs from time to time, the Consul-General shall send to the Governor-General of India in Council, for transmission to the Secretary of State, a report on the operation of this Order up to the 31st day of December in the previous year, or such other date as the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, the Governor-General of India in Council, directs from time to time, showing for the last twelve months the number and nature of the proceedings, criminal and civil, taken under this Order, and the result thereof, and the number and amount of fees received, and containing an abstract of the list of registered British subjects and such other information, and being in such form as the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, the Governor-General of India in Council, from time to time directs.

68.—(1.) A printed copy of this Order, and of all Rules of Procedure and other Rules for the time being in force under this Order, shall be kept open to inspection, free of charge, in the office of the Consul-General.

(2.) Printed copies thereof shall be sold within the limits of this Order at such reasonable price as the Consul-General from time to time directs.

69.—(1.) This Order shall be published in the "Gazette of India" within such time after the passing thereof as the Secretary of State may prescribe, and shall come into force on such day (in this Order referred to as the commencement of this Order) within six months after that publication, as the Governor-General of India in Council may, by notification in the said "Gazette," appoint in this behalf.

(2.) But any appointment under this Order may be made at any time after its passing, and no proof shall, in any proceedings, be required of any of the matters prescribed by this Article.

70.—(1.) As from the commencement of this Order the Orders in Council mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Order shall be repealed within the limits of this Order; but this repeal shall not—

(a.) Affect the past operation of those Orders, or any of them, or any appointment made, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued, or the validity or invalidity of anything done or suffered under any of those Orders, before the making of this Order;

(b.) Interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding or action, criminal or civil, in respect of any offence committed against, or forfeiture incurred or liability accrued under, or in consequence of, any provision of any of those Orders, or any Regulation confirmed by any such Order or made thereunder;

(c.) Take away or abridge any protection or benefit given or to be enjoyed in relation thereto.

(2.) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Orders aforesaid, all Rules and Regulations approved or confirmed by or under any Order so repealed shall continue and be as if this Order had not been made; but so that the same may be revoked, altered, or otherwise dealt with under this Order, as if they had been made under this Order.

(3.) Criminal or civil proceedings begun under any of the Orders repealed by this Order, and pending at the time when this Order comes into operation, shall, from and after that time, be regulated by the provisions of this Order, as far as the nature and circumstances of each case admit.

71. This Order may be cited as "The China (Kashgar) Order in Council, 1920."

And the Earl Curzon of Kedleston and the Right Honourable Edwin Samuel Montagu, two of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

And whereas it has been agreed between the principal Allied and Associated Powers, that the said Islands shall be administered by His Majesty in his government of His Dominion of New Zealand, subject to, and in accordance with the provisions of the said Treaty:

And whereas by Treaty, capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty the King has jurisdiction in the said Islands, and it is expedient to determine the mode of exercising such jurisdiction.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907 (7 Edw. 7, c. 29) as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1914 (4 and 5 Geo. 5, c. 18), and the Patents and Designs Act, 1919 (9 and 10 Geo. 5, c. 80), it is enacted as follows:—

“ 91.—(1) If His Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the Government of any Foreign State for mutual protection of inventions, or designs, or trade marks, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design or trade mark in that State, or his legal representative or assignee, shall be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design, or trade mark under this Act or the Trade Marks Act, 1905, in priority to other applicants; and the patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in the Foreign State.

“ Provided that—

“(a) The application is made in the case of a patent within 12 months, and in the case of a design or trade mark within 4 months, from the application for protection in the Foreign State; and

“(b) Nothing in this Section shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the actual date on which his complete specification is accepted, or his design or trade mark is registered, in this country.

“(2) The patent granted for the invention or the registration of a design or trade mark shall not be invalidated:—

“(a) In the case of a patent, by reason only of the publication of a description of, or use of, the invention; or

“(b) In the case of a design, by reason only of the exhibition or use of, or the publication of a description or representation of, the design; or

“(c) In the case of a trade mark, by reason only of the use of the trade mark; in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man during the period specified in this Section as that within which the application may be made.

“(3) The application for the grant of a patent, or the registration of a design, or the registration of a trade mark under this Section, must be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Act or the Trade Marks Act, 1905:—

And whereas it pleased Her late Majesty Queen Victoria to make an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said Section 103, by and in virtue of a Declaration signed and sealed by Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, on the 17th March, 1884, duly conveying the accession of Great Britain and Ireland to the International Convention and Protocol for the protection of Industrial Property, signed by Representatives of certain Powers, on the 20th March, 1883, and duly ratified on the 6th June, 1884, power being reserved to Her Majesty to accede thereafter to the provisions of the said Convention and Protocol on behalf of the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, and any of Her Majesty's Possessions, which Declaration of Accession was duly accepted by the French Government on behalf of the Signatory powers by and in virtue of a Declaration dated the 2nd April, 1884:

And whereas on the 14th December, 1900, at Brussels, an Additional Act was agreed upon between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the Heads of the Foreign Countries parties thereto for the purpose of modifying certain of the provisions of the said International Convention and the Protocol annexed thereto, the ratification of which Additional Act was duly effected:

And whereas by a Convention signed at Washington on the 2nd June, 1911, His Majesty and the Heads of the Foreign States named therein agreed to make certain modifications in and additions to the said Convention dated 20th March, 1883, as revised at Brussels on the 14th December, 1900, the ratification of which Convention was duly effected by Great Britain and certain other States:

And whereas by various Orders in Council Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and His late Majesty King Edward VII and His present Majesty have been pleased to declare that the hereinbefore mentioned provisions of the said Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883 (as amended), should apply to the several Foreign Countries named in the said Orders parties to the said Convention and Protocols:

And whereas Czecho-Slovakia has acceded to the said International Convention Protocol and Additional Act as revised at Washington on 2nd June, 1911:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers in Him vested by the above-recited provisions, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907, as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1914, and the Patents and Designs Act, 1919, shall apply to Czecho-Slovakia.

2. This Order shall take effect from the 20th October, 1919.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of March, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 5th day of February, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Canon or Prebendary of Dunham, in the Cathedral Church of Southwell, and also of certain other property in the Parishes of Dunham, Fiskerton and Morton, in the County of Nottingham now vested in us:

“Whereas under an Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, and of another Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and by virtue of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the 4th day of September, 1848, and duly published in the London Gazette on the 3rd day of the following month, all lands, tithes, and hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of Patronage and except also the property within the Parish of Morton excluded from the operation of the said Order) then belonging to the said Canonry or Prebend became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us:

“And whereas under and by virtue of the several Indentures, particulars whereof are set forth in the Schedule hereunder written, the lands, tenements and hereditaments situate in the Parishes of Dunham, Fiskerton and Morton aforesaid, and particularly described in the same Indentures and Schedule, became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us:

“And whereas none of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments are subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed:

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund it is expedient that the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable:

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Prebend or Canonry and so in our possession as aforesaid, or all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said several Indentures or any of them, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint; and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 5th day of February, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘the said Benefice’) of Ovingham, in the County of Northumberland and in the Diocese of Newcastle.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Ovingham is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in Hubert John Bigge, of West Hall, Middleton Tyas, in the County of York, subject, together with other hereditaments, to a charge by way of jointure in favour of Ann Elizabeth Bigge, also of West Hall, Middleton Tyas, in the said County of York, Widow.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Herbert Louis, now Bishop of Newcastle, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Herbert Louis, Bishop of Newcastle, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said Benefice of Ovingham, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Ovingham.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Hubert John Bigge (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Ann Elizabeth Bigge, (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Herbert Louis, Bishop of Newcastle, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Ovingham, now vested in him the said Hubert John Bigge, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Herbert Louis, Bishop of Newcastle, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Herbert Louis, Bishop of Newcastle, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in Law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Newcastle.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session 2), chapter 26, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 5th day of February, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session 2), chapter 26, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for authorizing certain improvements at the Episcopal House of Residence belonging to the See of Durham, which is known as Auckland Castle:

"Whereas the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, now Bishop of Durham, is desirous that certain improvements should be made at the said Episcopal House of Residence and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements and we have approved the same:

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements a sum of £150 (being a sum which, together with the outstanding balance of the sums already borrowed upon the same security, does not exceed two years' income of the See) should be provided by the borrowing of the same sum by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of Durham:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham, (testified by his having affixed his signature and Episcopal Seal to this Scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding £150, and that as a security for the same the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments and endowments and emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by Deed for the term of eight years or until the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following: that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of 12 months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly, at the end of the second period of 12 months so computed and at the end of every such like period of 12 months thereafter, pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one fifth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of 12 months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of £4 per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of 40 days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said Handley Carr Glyn, now Bishop of the said Diocese of Durham, as every succeeding Bishop of the same Diocese until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the said Governors and their successors shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Durham.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of March, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 113, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 5th day of February, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 113, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme with reference to the Parish of Burnham Ulph, situate in the County of Norfolk and in the Diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the said Parish of Burnham Ulph is a Parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two Incumbents, each being the Rector of one of the two Medieties into which the Rectory of Burnham Ulph is divided.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, in pursuance of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, has submitted to us a Plan, bearing date the 24th day of December in the year 1919, for consolidating the two Medieties of the said Rectory of Burnham Ulph and for making certain other arrangements which are likely in the opinion of the said Bishop and in our opinion to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in the said Parish of Burnham Ulph.

"And whereas the said Plan (as by the same appears) has the consents of the Patrons of both Medieties of the said Rectory of Burnham Ulph.

"And whereas the said Plan is in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"I, the Right Reverend Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, under and by virtue of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 113, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of The Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting on behalf of His Majesty the King as the Patron of one of the Medieties of the Rectory of Burnham Ulph and also of the Rectory of Burnham Sutton with Burnham Overy in the County of Norfolk and Diocese of Norwich, and with the consent of the Master Fellows and Scholars of Christ's College in the University of Cambridge, the Patrons of the other Medietiy of the said Rectory of Burnham Ulph, have framed the following Plan for consolidating the two Medieties of the said Rectory of Burnham Ulph and for making such arrangements as I judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of parochial duties in the said Medieties; Whereas the said Benefice of Burnham Ulph has from time immemorial been divided into and held in two Medieties and the Incumbents of such Medieties have joint cure of souls in and over the said Parish of Burnham Ulph; And whereas the Parish of Burnham Ulph contains a consecrated Church with a Churchyard or burial ground adjoining or belonging thereto; And whereas one of the Medieties of the said Rectory of Burnham Ulph is at present united to the said Rectory of Burnham Sutton with Burnham Overy; And whereas the other Medietiy is not united to any other benefice; And whereas there is no endowment of the Rectory of either of the said Medieties of Burnham Ulph; And whereas the concurrent jurisdiction of the two Rectories of the two Medieties has been found to be inconvenient and it is desirable that the two Medieties should be consolidated with a view to there being but one Incumbent of the consolidated benefice having the exclusive cure of souls over the whole of the said Parish of Burnham Ulph; And whereas The Reverend Charles Edward Hains, Clerk in Holy Orders, is the present Rector or Incumbent of the said Rectory of Burnham Sutton with Burnham Overy and of the Rectory of the said Medietiy of Burnham Ulph united thereto; And whereas the said Rectory of the other Medietiy of Burnham Ulph is now vacant; and whereas the said Charles Edward Hains is satisfied and admits by his signing this Plan that the same will not prejudice the interests of the existing Incumbent; Now I the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, with the consent as well of the said Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain on behalf of His Majesty the King as of the said Master Fellows and Scholars of Christ's College, Cambridge (testified by their affixing their Common or Corporate seal to this Plan) and of the said Charles Edward Hains (testified by his signing and sealing this Plan), do propose that as and from the date upon which an Order of His Majesty in Council ratifying a Scheme of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England approving this Plan shall have been published in the London Gazette the two Medieties of the Rectory of Burnham Ulph shall be consolidated into one Incumbency under the Rector for the time being of that Medietiy which is at present united to the said Rectory of Burnham Sutton with Burnham Overy who shall have the exclusive cure of souls over the whole of the present parish of Burnham Ulph and also all the emoluments and rights of or belonging to the said two Medieties and shall be subject to the laws provisions and regulations as to presentation and appointment and as to institution collation and induction and as to holding benefices and to all such jurisdiction of the Bishop or other jurisdictions as are by law now applicable to the said two Medieties of the Rectory of Burnham Ulph.

That upon the said consolidation of the said two Medieties of the Rectory of Burnham Ulph taking effect the said Charles Edward Hains or other the Rector for the time being of the Rectory of the said Medietiy which is at present united to the Rectory of Burnham Sutton with Burnham Overy shall become and be the first Rector of the said intended consolidated Rectory without any presentation admission institution or induction or process of law or other process whatsoever subject nevertheless to all engagements and liabilities (if any) affecting him as Rector or Incumbent of such Medietiy of the Rectory and Parish Church of Burnham Ulph which engagements and liabilities (if any) shall attach and belong to him as Rector or Incumbent of the said intended consolidated Rectory in like manner and as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if he had remained Rector or Incumbent of the said Medietiy of the Rectory of Burnham Ulph.

That upon the said consolidation of the said two Medieties of the said Rectory of Burnham Ulph taking effect and in consideration of the fact that the whole right of the patronage of the said Rectory of Burnham Sutton with Burnham Overy as well as of the said Rectory of the Medietiy of Burnham Ulph annexed thereto is now vested in His Majesty and is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and that there is no endowment of the said Rectory of the other Medietiy of Burnham Ulph vested in the Master Scholars and Fellows of Christ's College, Cambridge, the patronage of the said Benefice of Burnham Sutton with Burnham Overy with the consolidated Benefice of Burnham Ulph shall be exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting on behalf of His Majesty.

And whereas the said Plan is to be taken as an integral part of this Scheme with respect to the whole of its contents.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Plan shall as to all the contents thereof be carried into effect as in the same Plan is mentioned.

And we further recommend and propose that nothing in this Scheme or in the said Plan now being part of this Scheme as aforesaid shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Norwich.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of March, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of All Saints, Four Oaks, situate as aforesaid:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Russell, Bishop of Birmingham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said New Parish of Hill, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of All Saints, Four Oaks, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Four Oaks.'

"And with the like consent of the said Henry Russell, Bishop of Birmingham, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of All Saints, Four Oaks, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees or dues to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings, and burials should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

"We, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby Certify to Your Majesty in Council:—

"That The Right Reverend Frederic Edward, Lord Bishop of Salisbury, as Bishop of the Diocese within which are situate the Perpetual Curacy of Cerne Abbas and the Rectory of Upcerne, both in the County of Dorset, having represented unto us that the said Benefices are contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed 650 persons and the net aggregate value does not exceed £298, might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one Benefice, we inquired into the circumstances of the case;

"That on such Inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that Alexander Edward Lane Fox Pitt-Rivers, being the Patron or person entitled to present to the Benefice of Cerne Abbas, and Nathaniel Prygge Batten being the Patron or person entitled to present to the Benefice of Uperne, have consented to the proposed union;

"That 6 weeks and upwards before certifying such Inquiry and Consents to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid Representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the Parish Church of each of the said Benefices, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she or they might, within such 6 weeks, show cause in writing under his, her or their hand or hands, to us the said Archbishop against such union, and no such cause has been shown;

"The Representation of the said Lord Bishop of Salisbury, our Inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the Statement of Circumstances in reply thereto, the Consents in writing of the said Patrons and the copies of the Representation and Notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed;

"And we do hereby Certify the Inquiry and Consents aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said Benefices into one Benefice, with Cure of Souls, for Ecclesiastical purposes only, and we recommend that the course and succession in which the respective Patrons for the time being shall present or nominate to the said Benefices after the same shall be united into one Benefice and come to be holden of the same Incumbent from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall belong to and be vested in the said Alexander Edward Lane Fox Pitt-Rivers, his successors or assigns, and the said Nathaniel Prygge Batten, his successors or assigns, alternately, and that the first right of presentation to the said United Benefice shall belong to and be exercised by the said Nathaniel Prygge Batten.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Rectory of Uperne, situate in the County of Dorset and Diocese of Salisbury, and the Perpetual Curacy of Cerne Abbas, situate in the same County and Diocese, shall be united into one benefice, with Cure of Souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective Patrons for the time being shall present or nominate to the said Benefices, after the same shall be united into one Benefice and come to be holden by the same Incumbent, from time to time as the same shall become vacant, shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall belong to and be exercised by the said Nathaniel Prygge Batten, his successors or assigns and the said Alexander Edward Lane Fox Pitt-Rivers, his successors or assigns alternately, and the first right of presentation shall belong to and be exercised by the said Nathaniel Prygge Batten, his successors or assigns.

Provided that, notwithstanding compliance with the conditions of this Section, a person shall not be deemed to be a learner if he works in a room used for dwelling purposes and is not in the employment of his parent or guardian.

PART III.

Proposed Overtime Rates for certain classes of Male Workers.

SECTION I.

In accordance with Section 3 (1) (c) of the Trade Boards Act, 1918, the Trade Board hereby give Notice that they propose to declare the normal number of hours of work in the trade to be as follows:—

In any week	48
On any day (other than Saturday)	9
On Saturday	5

Provided that all hours worked by a worker on Sundays and on Customary Public and Statutory Holidays shall be regarded as Overtime to which the Overtime Rates shall apply.

SECTION II.

The Trade Board give similar notice that they propose to fix Minimum Rates for Overtime in respect of hours worked by a Male Learner or Worker, of the Classes specified in Part I. of this Schedule, in excess of such normal number of hours, as follows, that is to say:—

(A) For Male Workers employed on Time-Work.

(1) For the First Two Hours Overtime on any day, except Saturdays, Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Time-and-a-quarter, that is to say, one-and-a-quarter times the General Minimum Time-Rate otherwise applicable.

(2) For Overtime After the First Two Hours of Overtime on any day except Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, and for all Overtime on Saturdays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Time-and-a-half, that is to say, one-and-a-half times the General Minimum Time-Rate otherwise applicable.

(3) For all time worked on Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Double Time, that is to say, twice the General Minimum Time-Rate otherwise applicable.

(4) For all hours worked in any week in excess of 48 the Overtime Rate shall be Time-and-a-quarter except in so far as higher Overtime Rates are payable under the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this section. The Overtime Rates shall be payable where on any day (not being a Sunday or a Customary Public or Statutory Holiday) the number of hours worked exceeds nine, or in the case of Saturday, exceeds five, notwithstanding that the number of hours worked in the week does not exceed 48.

Provided that:—

(a) Where it is or may become the established practice of an employer only to require attendance on five days a week, the Overtime Rates shall only be payable where on any day the number of hours worked exceeds 9½.

(b) Where it is or may become the established practice of an employer to require attendance only on alternate Saturdays, the normal number of hours for the week in which attendance on Saturday is required shall be deemed to be 50.

In the application of these Provisos, where the employer requires attendance on any day on which it is not the established practice of the employer to require attendance, all time worked on such day (not being a Sunday or a Customary Public or Statutory Holiday) shall be paid for at time-and-a-quarter for the first two hours and time-and-a-half thereafter.

(B) For Male Workers employed on Piece-Work.

A Male Worker or Learner of the Classes specified in Part I. of this Schedule, employed on piece-work, shall be entitled to receive in respect of each hour of overtime worked, in addition to piece-rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an Ordinary worker not less than the General Minimum Time-Rate applicable as set out in Part I. of this Schedule, a sum equivalent to the appropriate General Minimum Time-Rate, one-half of the appropriate General Minimum Time-Rate, or one-quarter of the appropriate General Minimum Time-Rate, according as the overtime rate which would have been payable under the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Section, if the worker had been employed on time-work, were double time, time-and-a-half, or time-and-a-quarter, respectively.

SECTION III.

Where a worker is of the Jewish Religion, and, subject to the provisions of Section 48 of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1901, is employed on Sunday instead of Saturday, the Minimum Rates for Overtime as set out above shall apply to such worker in like manner as if in the provisions of this Notice as to Overtime the word "Saturday" were substituted for "Sunday" and the word "Sunday" for "Saturday."

NOTE: The hours which young persons are allowed to work are subject to the provisions of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1901.

PART IV.

SECTION I.

The above respective minimum rates of wages shall apply, subject to the provisions of the Trade Boards Acts, to the above-mentioned classes of male workers employed during the whole or any part of their time in any branch of the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Trade in Great Britain as defined in the Regulations made by the Minister of Labour and dated 12th December, 1919, that is to say:

Those branches of men's, women's, boys' and girls' bespoke tailoring in which the tailor supplies the garment direct to the individual wearer and employs the worker direct.

A worker shall be deemed to be employed by the tailor direct, if employed by another worker in the employ of the tailor, to whom a minimum rate of wages fixed under the Trade Boards Acts is applicable, or if employed by a sub-contractor engaged in cutting, making or finishing garments exclusively for the tailor in the tailor's shop or in a building of which the shop forms part or to which the shop is attached;

Including:

(1) (a) The altering, repairing, renovating or remaking of men's, women's, boys' or girls' tailored garments where carried out for the individual wearer by a tailor who employs the worker direct as defined above.

(b) The cleaning of such garments where carried on in association with or in conjunction with the repairing, renovating or remaking of the garments;

(2) The lining with fur of the above-mentioned garments where carried out in association with or in conjunction with the making of such garments;

(3) All processes of embroidery or decorative needlework where carried out in association with or in conjunction with the above-mentioned branches of tailoring;

(4) The packing and all other operations incidental to or appertaining to any of the above-mentioned branches of tailoring;

But excluding:

(1) All or any of the above-mentioned operations where carried on in a factory where garments are made up for three or more retail establishments;

(2) The making of head-gear.

SECTION II.

The above minimum rates of wages shall not apply to any Workers of the Classes specified in the Schedule to the Notice of Proposal issued by the Trade Board and dated 12th February, 1920.

PART V.

SECTION I.

The above minimum rates of wages shall be paid clear of all deductions other than deductions under the National Insurance Act, 1911, as amended by any subsequent enactments or deductions authorised by any Act to be made from wages in respect of contributions to any superannuation or other provident fund.

SECTION II.

Admiralty, S.W.,
12th March, 1920.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Albert Medal to Lieutenant-Commander Richard James Rodney Scott, R.N., for gallantry in endeavouring to save life at sea.

The following is the account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

On the 15th July, 1919, during minesweeping operations in the Baltic, four mines were swept up which H.M.S. "Myrtle," commanded by Lieutenant-Commander Scott, and another vessel were ordered to sink.

During the operations the two vessels were mined, and H.M.S. "Myrtle" immediately began to sink.

So great was the force of the explosion that all hands in the engine room and after boiler room of the ship were killed with one exception, and many others of the crew were wounded.

After the wounded had been successfully transferred to another vessel, the forepart of H.M.S. "Myrtle" broke away and sank.

Lieutenant-Commander Scott, hearing that the fate of one of the crew of the "Myrtle" had not been definitely ascertained, gallantly returned alone to what was left of the ship, which was drifting through the minefield, rolling heavily and burning fiercely, and regardless of the extreme risk which he ran, made a thorough search for the missing man, unfortunately without success.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Albert Medal to Lieutenant Edmund Geoffrey Abbott, R.N., for gallantry in saving life at sea.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

On the 5th August, 1919, an explosion occurred on board the ex-German battleship "Baden," whilst in dry dock at Invergordon.

Lieutenant Abbott immediately proceeded down the hatch to the main deck and saw that smoke was coming from the ladder way tunnel leading down to the shaft passage and after room containing the cooling plant.

Other measures proving ineffectual, he proceeded to the corresponding tunnel on the starboard side, to see whether it was possible to get below and work up to the scene of the explosion from that side.

The starboard tunnel was practically clear of smoke, so he proceeded to the upper deck, collected a party, and descended again through the tunnel to the room containing the cooling plant. He made his way to the port side and found a dockyard workman lying unconscious. Assisted by the party which had accompanied him, Lieutenant Abbott got the body to the upper deck, but life was found to be extinct.

Although greatly affected by the fumes, Lieutenant Abbott called for further volunteers and again proceeded to the rescue of a second man whose groans had been heard, and succeeded in removing him out of danger.

Throughout the proceedings this officer showed an utter disregard for his own safety, and, in spite of the great difficulty occasioned by the absence of light, was the undoubted means of saving the second man's life.
