Whitehall, March 12, 1920.

The KING has been pleased to issue a Commission under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

GEORGE R.I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, to

Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Archibald Geikie, Member of the Order of Merit, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Member of the Royal Society;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Counsellor Sir John Ross, Baronet, Judge of the Chancery Division of Our High Court of Justice in Ireland; and

Our trusty and well-beloved:—

Arthur Everett Shipley, Esquire, Doctor of Science, Fellow of the Royal Society, Master of Christ's College, Cambridge;

John Sealy Edward Townsend, Esquire, Fellow of the Royal Society, Wykeham Professor of Physics, and Fellow of New College, Oxford; and

John Joly, Esquire, Fellow of the Royal Society, Professor of Geology and Mineralogy in the University of Dublin;

Greeting!

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to consider the application which has been made by the University of Dublin for financial assistance from the State and for this purpose to inquire into the financial resources of the University and of Trinity College, Dublin, into the administration and application of those resources, into the constitution of the University, and the College, and to make recommendations:

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorized and appointed, and do by these Presents authorize and appoint you the said Sir Archibald Geikie (Chairman); Sir John Ross; Arthur Everett Shipley; John Sealy Edward Townsend and John Joly to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject; and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do by these Presents authorize and empower you, or any of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time, proceed in the execution thereof and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any three or more of you, your opinion upon the matters herein submitted for your consideration.

And for the purpose of aiding you in your inquiries We hereby appoint our trusty and well-beloved Gilbert Waterhouse, Esquire, Doctor of Letters, Professor of German in the University of Dublin, to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Tenth day of March, 1920, in the tenth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.
