

Gazette and the Board of Trade shall thereupon cause such advertisement to be inserted in the two following issues of the Illustrated Official Journal (Patents).

(e) Except with the leave of the Judge in Chambers no affidavit shall be filed by the applicant between the appearance of his advertisement in the London Gazette as aforesaid and the appointed day other than an affidavit or affidavits to prove compliance with the directions given as to advertisement.

(f) Any person desirous of opposing the relief sought by the originating summons shall at least 7 days before the appointed day lodge at the chambers of the Judge a notice stating that he intends so to oppose and giving an address within the United Kingdom for service of any document requiring service under this rule. Such person shall at the same time serve upon the applicant a copy of such notice. After lodgment of such notice the opponent shall be entitled to be supplied on the usual terms with copies of the originating summons and of any affidavit filed by the applicant in support.

(g) Upon the appointed day and on any adjournment directions shall be given for the delivery by any opponent of particulars of objection and for the filing of any affidavits and the matter shall in general proceed and be heard and dealt with in the like manner as an originating summons in the Chancery Division in which the applicant is Plaintiff and the Comptroller and any opponents are Defendants.

(h) The Court may excuse applicants and opponents from compliance with any of the requirements of these rules and may give such directions in matters of procedure and practice under Section 7 of the Amending Act as it shall consider to be just and expedient.

(i) The Comptroller if he elects or is directed to appear upon the question of the relief sought by any originating summons under Section 7 of the Amending Act shall not be required to give notice of the grounds of any objection he may think fit to take or of any evidence he may think fit to place before the Court.

(j) The Court may in cases where opposition has been entered to the relief sought by the originating summons under Section 7 of the Amending Act give costs to or against the opponents.

(k) In the event of the Court refusing the relief sought by the originating summons the Court shall not except under special circumstances give more than one set of costs amongst all the opponents.

(l) The Comptroller and the Board of Trade shall not be entitled to any costs on or in relation to their appearance opposition or intervention in the matter of any such originating summons as aforesaid.

(m) Service of any document requiring service under this rule may be made by enclosing such document in a prepaid registered letter and posting such letter to the person required to be served at his address for service.

(n) In the event of any person desiring to obtain relief under Section 7 of the Amending Act together with relief under Section 18 of the Act it shall not be necessary for him to take out a separate originating summons but he shall be at liberty to make a combined application by a Petition headed in the Matter of both Acts. And in that event his application shall conform to and be regulated by the more elaborate procedure prescribed by Rule 3 of this Order and not by the procedure presented by the foregoing sub-heads of this Rule.

3. These Rules may be cited as the "Rules of the Supreme Court (No. 2), 1920."

Copies of the above draft Rules may be obtained from the Lord Chancellor's Office, House of Lords, S.W. 1.
