*Board of Trade,
Great George Street,
Westminster, S.W. 1.
26th April, 1920.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Decoration of the Albert Medal upon Mr. Thomas Stratford Knill, Master of the steamship "War Pike," of London.

At Novorossisk on the 14th October, 1919, when the steamship "War Pike," laden with stores and several hundred tons of explosives, took fire, Captain Knill, although deserted by most of his crew, and in spite of the intense heat and frequent explosions, remained on board his ship, casting off hawsers from the quay and making fast others to a tug, only abandoning ship by order of the Captain of His Majesty's Ship "Grafton" as his vessel was being towed out of the entrance of the harbour. He then boarded a tug, stood by his ship after she had grounded; and later, though the bridge, boats and starboard coal bunker were a mass of flames, boarded her and assisted in getting hoses to work, successfully preventing the fire from spreading aft, where there were still large quantities of explosives. The vessel was then towed towards shallow water, where she grounded. By his gallantry and devotion to duty Captain Knill undoubtedly averted an explosion, and thus probably saved many lives.
