INCREASE OF RENT AND MORTGAGE INTEREST (RESTRICTIONS) ACT, 1920.

The Lord Chancellor has, in accordance with Section 17 of the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (Restrictions) Act, 1920, made Rules with reference to the said Act which will come into operation on the 15th day of July, 1920.

Copies may be obtained on application at H.M. Stationery Office, at the following addresses:—Imperial House, Kingsway, London, W.C.; 28, Abingdon Street, London, S.W.; 37, Peter Street, Manchester; 1, St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; 23, Forth Street, Edinburgh; or from E. Ponsonby, Ltd., 116, Grafton Street, Dublin.

Lord Chancellor's Office, 12th July, 1920.

Notice is hereby given under the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that the Rule Committee of the Supreme Court propose to make the following Rules:—

1. The following Rule shall be added in Order XXXVI immediately after Rule 9, viz.:—

9A.—(1) All jury precepts, warrants, writs, lists and returns required to be issued or made under the Juries Acts, or any of them, shall include all women qualified and liable to serve as jurors, and the jurors' books shall be made up accordingly.

(2) All persons qualified and liable to serve as jurors shall be summoned to serve on juries without distinction of sex, but otherwise as heretofore; provided that a husband and wife shall not both be summoned to serve on the same occasion.

(3) The number of women appearing upon any panel of jurors shall be in the same proportion, as near as may be, to the number of men appearing thereon as the total number of women is to the total number of men in the jurors' books or other list of jurors from which the panel is drawn.

Provided that it shall be the duty of the Under-Sheriff or other person upon whom is cast the duty of summoning jurors to secure that, wherever possible, there shall not be less than fourteen women upon the jury panel.

Provided also that this Rule shall not apply to Grand Juries.

(4) On every trial by jury, the jury shall be selected from the panel by ballot in manner prescribed by Section 26 of the Juries Act, 1825; provided that this Rule shall be without prejudice to the power of the Court under Sec. 17 of the Juries Act, 1870, to order that a Special Jury be struck according to the practice then prevailing; provided also that this Rule shall not apply to Grand Juries.

(5) Upon every jury summons served upon a woman there shall appear a notice that she may apply to the Summoning Officer for exemption from attendance as a juror on account of pregnancy or other feminine condition or ailment provided that such application is received by the Summoning Officer within three days of the receipt of the Jury Summons by the applicant.

(6) The Under-Sheriff or other person upon whom is cast the duty of forming the Jury Panels may in his discretion exempt from attendance any woman who has been summoned to serve as juror, if he is satisfied by medical certificate or otherwise that on account of pregnancy or some other feminine condition or ailment she is, or will be, unfit to serve.

(7) In any civil cause, matter or issue to be tried in the High Court of Justice in London or at the Assizes with a Jury, an application under Section 1 (b) of the Sex Disqualification (Removal) Act, 1919, that the jury shall be composed of men only or of women only shall be made whenever possible by summons to be served not less than one clear day before the hearing of the application to the judge in whose list the case stands for hearing or to whom the case has been definitely assigned for trial; or, if such application by summons is not practicable, may be made to the judge at the trial.

2. These Rules may be cited as the Rules of the Supreme Court (Women Jurors), 1920.

Copies of the above draft Rules may be obtained from the Lord Chancellor's Office, House of Lords, S.W. 1.

Notice is further given, that the said Rule Committee has made Provisional Rules to come into operation on the 15th July, 1920, in the same terms as the above draft Rules, and to continue in force until Rules have been made in accordance with the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893.

of (a) The Proposed General Minimum Piece-Rates set out in Part I. of the Schedule to the Trade Board's Notice of Proposal dated 10th May, 1920;

Where no General Minimum Piece-Rates applicable to the work on which the apprentice is engaged have been made effective; or

(b) Piece-Rates, each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an Ordinary worker, not less than 1s. 5½d. an hour.

months of employment in a section of the Trade other than that in which the Apprentice commences his apprenticeship, a Guaranteed Time-Rate not less than the General Minimum

Time-Rate appropriate to a worker other than an apprentice, notwithstanding that his earnings on Piece-work are less than such rate.

Provided also that the Minimum Rates set out in this section shall only apply in cases where a Journeyman Instructor has responsibility for the work of the Apprentice during the first 12 months and supervision of the Apprentice during the remainder of the apprenticeship in the journeyman's own section of the trade, and where during the first nine months of employment in any branch of the trade a Journeyman is paid by the employer in respect of the instruction of and responsibility for the Apprentice, a sum each week equivalent to the difference between the earnings of the Apprentice on the above Minimum Piece-Rates and the sum which the Apprentice would have earned if he had been employed at the General Minimum Piece-Rates set out

During the 4th year of their apprenticeship, two-thirds of

During the 5th year of their apprenticeship, three-quarters of

Provided that the Minimum Rates set out in this Section shall only apply in cases where a Journeyman Instructor has responsibility for the work of an Apprentice throughout the apprenticeship and where during the first three years of apprenticeship the journeyman is paid by the employer in respect of the instruction of and responsibility for the Apprentice a sum each week equivalent to the difference between the appropriate Minimum Time-Rates under the above scale and the sum which the Apprentice would have earned on Piece-work had he

During the 1st year of their apprenticeship, one-half of

During the 2nd year of their apprenticeship, one-half of

During the 3rd year of their apprenticeship, seven-twelfths of

During the 4th year of their apprenticeship, two-thirds of

During the 5th year of their apprenticeship, three-quarters of

Provided that during the first 12 months of apprenticeship the Apprentice shall receive a Guaranteed Time-Rate of not less than 12s. per week of 48 hours, notwithstanding that his earnings on piece-work are less than such rate.

Provided also that the Minimum Rates set out in this Section shall only apply where a Journeyman Instructor has responsibility for the work of the Apprentice during the first twelve months and supervision of the Apprentice during the remainder of the apprenticeship in the Journeyman's own branch of the trade, and where:—

(a) During the first two years of apprenticeship the Apprentice is taught sash tool making and during the first eight months of in the Trade Board's Notice dated 10th May, 1920, or where no General Minimum Piece-Rates applicable to the work in which the Apprentice is engaged have been made effective, at Piece-Rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, not less than 1s. 5½d. an hour to an Ordinary worker.

SECTION II.—Male Apprentices who are apprenticed to:—

(i) Hand Finishing (Common and Toilet), or

(ii) Hand Finishing (Common or Toilet) and Hand Boring, shall receive:

During the 1st year of their apprenticeship, 12s. per week of 48 hours.

During the 2nd year of their apprenticeship, 16s. per week of 48 hours.

PART II.

Proposed Overtime Rates and Proposed Variation of Overtime Rates for Male Apprentices.

(As defined in Part III. of this Schedule.)

SECTION I.—In accordance with Section 3 (i) (c) of the Trade Boards Act, 1918, the Trade Board declare the normal number of hours of work in the trade to be as follows:—

In any week, 48.

On any day (other than Saturday), 9.

On Saturday, 5.

Provided that all hours worked on Sundays and on Customary Public and Statutory Holidays shall be regarded as Overtime to which the Overtime Rates shall apply.

SECTION II.—Overtime Rates for Male Apprentices employed on Time-Work.

The Minimum Rates for Overtime in respect of hours worked by an Apprentice employed on Time-work (so far as is allowed under the Factory and Workshop Acts), in excess of the declared normal number of hours shall be as follows, that is to say:—

(a) For the first two hours' Overtime on any day, except Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Time-and-a-quarter, that is to say, One-and-a-quarter times the Minimum Rates otherwise applicable.

(b) For Overtime after the first two hours of Overtime on any day, except Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Time-and-a-half, that is to say, One-and-a-half times the Minimum Rate otherwise applicable.

(c) For all time worked on Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Double Time, that is to say, Twice the Minimum Rate otherwise applicable.

(d) For all hours worked in any week in excess of 48, the Overtime Rate shall be Time-and-a-quarter, except in so far as higher Overtime Rates are payable under the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) above.

SECTION III.—Overtime Rates for all Male Apprentices employed on Piece-Work.

The Minimum Rates for Overtime in respect of all hours worked by all Male Apprentices employed on Piece-work (so far as is allowed under the Factory and Workshop Acts) in excess of the number of hours declared by the Trade Board to be the normal number of hours of work in the trade, shall be as follows:—

(a) For the first two hours' Overtime on any day, except Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be the General Minimum Piece-Rate applicable, as set out in Part I. of this Schedule, or, where no General Minimum Piece-Rate has been made effective, a Piece-Rate which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker at least the same amount of money as the General Minimum Time-Rate, with the addition in both cases of One-Quarter of the General Minimum Time-Rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were employed on Time-work.

(b) For Overtime after the first two hours of Overtime on any day, except Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be the General Minimum Piece-Rate applicable as set out in Part I. of this Schedule, or, where no General Minimum Piece-Rate has been made effective, a Piece-Rate which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker at least the same amount of money as the General Minimum Time-Rate, with the addition in both cases of One-Half of the General Minimum Time-Rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were employed on Time-work.

(c) For all time worked on Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays the Overtime Rate shall be the General Minimum Piece-Rate applicable as set out in Part I. of this Schedule, or, where no General Minimum Piece-Rate has been made effective, a Piece-Rate which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker at least the same amount of money as the General Minimum Time-Rate, with the addition in both cases of the General Minimum Time-Rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were employed on Time-work.

(d) For all hours worked in any week in excess of 48 the Overtime Rates shall be as set out in paragraph (a) above, except in so far as higher Overtime Rates are payable under the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) above.

Provided that where it is or may become the established practice of an employer only to require attendance on five days a week the Overtime Rates shall only be payable where on any day the number of hours worked exceeds 9½.

Provided also that where it is or may become the established practice of an employer to require attendance only on alternate Saturdays, the normal number of hours of work for the week in which attendance on Saturday is required shall be deemed to be 50.

PART III.

For the purpose of the application of the Minimum Rates, a Male Apprentice is defined as being a Male Worker who:—

(a) Is employed during the whole of his time in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule under an indenture (duly stamped) for a period of five years (except in the case of Apprentices to the branches of bone brush-making specified in Section IV. of Part I. of this Schedule, in which case the period shall be four years), in the form prescribed by the Trade Board as set out in Part IV. of this Schedule.

(b) Has been registered with the Trade Board in accordance with rules from time to time laid down by the Trade Board, or has made an application for such registration which has been duly acknowledged and is still under consideration.

Provided that:—(i.) The Registration may be cancelled if the other conditions of apprenticeship are not complied with.

(ii.) An employer may employ a worker at the special rates and under the special conditions for Apprentices without registration for a probation period not exceeding four weeks; but in the event of such worker being continued thereafter at his employment as an Apprentice the probation period shall be included in his period of apprenticeship.

(iii) In cases where the number of Journeymen who have been in the service of the employer in the branch or branches of trade to which the Apprentice is bound, throughout the period of 12 months prior to the date of application for Registration has been:—

5 and under
From 6 to 10

And, thereafter, two additional Apprentices may be employed for every additional five or fewer than five such Journeymen.

PART IV.

Form of Indenture of Apprenticeship.

For the purpose of the application of the Minimum Rates set out in Parts I and II of this Schedule an Apprentice shall be employed under an Indenture of Apprenticeship in the following form:—

This Indenture made the _____ day of _____ between _____ of _____ a minor of the age of _____ years (hereinafter called the "Apprentice") of the first part, of the parent or guardian of the Apprentice (hereinafter called the "Guardian") of the second part, and of (hereinafter called the "Employer") of the third part:

Witnesseth as follows, that is to say:—

1. The Apprentice of his own free will and with the consent of the Guardian hereby binds himself to serve the Employer as his Apprentice in his trade of for the term of five/four* years from the date of these presents.

2. In consideration of the covenants and agreements entered into by the Guardian and the Apprentice, the Employer hereby covenants with the Guardian and the Apprentice and with each of them severally as follows:—

(a) That he will keep the Apprentice as his Apprentice during the said term and to the best of his power, skill and knowledge instruct the Apprentice or cause him to be instructed in the section or sections of the Brush and Broom Trade known as

(b) That he will keep the Apprentice under his own supervision or place him under a fully qualified Journeyman (or Journeymen).

(c) That he will pay to the Apprentice every week during the said term wages in accordance with the appropriate scale of wages as fixed and as varied from time to time for Male Apprentices by the Trade Board.

(d) That if the employer shall die or become permanently incapacitated through illness or injury (to be certified by a duly qualified Medical Practitioner) or cease to carry on the said trade of before the expiration of the said term of apprenticeship, then, and in any such case, the Employer or his Executors or his Administrators, as the case may be, shall, subject to the consent and approval of the Guardian and of the said Apprentice being first obtained, find another suitable Employer for the Apprentice to take over this Indenture.

(e) That he will not hold the Apprentice liable to make good the value of any work which he may spoil whilst learning his trade, except in the case of wilful or malicious damage.

(f) That he will cause the Apprentice to attend during the term of this Indenture such approved technical classes as may be agreed by the parties concerned in the Indenture, the Apprentice to suffer no loss of wages by reason of such attendance, or by reason of his attendance at school in accordance with the Education Act, 1918, and the time so spent to be reckoned as an equivalent part of the usual working hours and not extra thereto.

(g) That he will supply the Apprentice forthwith, upon its execution, with a true copy of this Indenture.

3. In consideration of the premises, the Guardian and the Apprentice respectively severally covenant with the Employer as follows:—

(a) That the Apprentice shall truly and faithfully during the said term serve the Employer as his Apprentice and his secrets keep and shall diligently attend to the said trade and at all times willingly obey the lawful and reasonable commands of the Employer, and shall not absent himself from the Employer's service without leave.

(b) That the Apprentice shall not do any damage or knowingly suffer any damage to be done to the goods, moneys or other property of the Employer.

(c) That the Apprentice shall willingly perform all such shop duties as are usually done by Apprentices.

(d) That the Apprentice shall attend such continuation classes between the hours of 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. as the Employer desires provided that the Apprentice suffer no loss of wages by reason of such attendance.

(e) That in case the Apprentice shall at any time during the said term be wilfully disobedient to lawful orders or commands of the said Employer, or be slothful or negligent or shall otherwise grossly misbehave himself towards the Employer, then it shall be lawful to discharge the said Apprentice.

In witness whereof the said parties to these presents have hereunto set their hands and seals this day of , in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and PART V.—GENERAL.

SECTION I.—The General Minimum Time-Rates and Guaranteed Time-Rates set out in this Schedule are weekly rates based on a week of 48 hours and shall be subject to a proportionate deduction according as the number of hours worked is less than 48.

SECTION II.—The Minimum Rates set out in this Schedule shall be paid direct to the Apprentice by the Employer and not by the Journeyman.

SECTION III.—The Minimum Rates set out in this Schedule shall be paid clear of all deductions other than deductions under the National Insurance Act, 1911, as amended by any subsequent enactments, or deductions authorised by any Act to be made from wages in respect of contributions to any superannuation or other provident fund.

SECTION IV.—Nothing in this Schedule shall apply to Indentured Apprentices or Unbound Learners employed under an indenture or written agreement respectively entered into prior to 1st January, 1920, and providing for the proper instruction of the apprentice or learner in one or more of the following operations or branches of work, that is to say:—

"Pan" (Hair and Bass), "Hairs," "Finishing" (i.e., the work of all wood-workers employed in finishing or part-finishing brushes or brooms by hand or machine), "Boring" (Hand and Machine Boring), "Drawing," "Bone Brush Cutting," "Bone Brush Fashioning," "Bone Brush Drilling," "Bone Brush Profiling," the manufacture of Artists, Medical, Painting, Whitewash and Tar Brushes, and Brushes not otherwise specified; and

(a) The Drafting, Dressing (including Cutting), or mixing of Animal Hair, Bass, Whisk or other Fibre where the Operative performs the aforesaid operations singly or in combination by hand or partly by hand and partly by machine.

(b) The Working of Ivory or Celluloid.

(c) The Turning of Bone.

Where all or any of the operations specified in (a), (b) or (c) are carried on in association with or in conjunction with the manufacture of brushes (other than feather brushes) or brooms;

and the Provisions of this Schedule shall not prevent such Apprentices and unbound learners receiving their due proportions under their contracts of the Piece-Rates arranged from time to time.

The Trade Board will consider any Objections to the above Proposals which may be lodged with them within two months from the 9th July, 1920. Such Objections should be in writing, and signed by the person making the same (adding his or her full name and address), and should be sent to The Secretary of the Brush and Broom Trade Board (Great Britain), 5, Chancery Lane, London, W.C. 2.

It is desirable that the Objections should state precisely, and so far as possible with reasons, what is objected to.

Dated this Eighth day of July, 1920.

Signed by Order of the Trade Board.

F. Popplewell,

Secretary.
