Amended Notice.—The original notice appeared in the London Gazette of the 21st May, 1920.

Whitehall, July 14, 1920.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Lt.-Col. (Bt. Col.) Arthur Stedman Cotton, C.M.G., D.S.O., Royal Artillery, in recognition of his gallantry in saving life in the following circumstances:—

On the 14th October, 1919, at Novorossisk, South Russia, an ammunition dump exploded, setting fire to the ss. "War Pike," which was carrying a cargo of munitions, including shells. Colonel Cotton, as explosions were taking place both on the quay and on board the ship, cleared the bystanders from the neighbourhood, and assisted in casting off the hawsers from the vessel. He then organised a small party to follow the steamer in a tug, when it was towed out to sea, in order to render all possible assistance, and, although the vessel was burning fiercely, the hold and bunkers being well alight, he boarded her and endeavoured to get the fire under control. It was not until the fore part of the ship began to settle down that he and his party left the vessel.

Colonel Cotton's prompt action, which was attended by great personal risk, in all probability saved many lives.
