1920, H. No. 081.

In the Matter of HAWKSWORTH EYRE & COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 2nd July, 1920, presented to the High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm the alterations of the provisions of the memorandum with respect to the said Company's objects, proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the said Company, unanimously passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 28th May, 1920, and subsequently unanimously confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 25th June, 1920, and which Resolution is as follows, viz.:—

1. That the memorandum of the Company be altered by inserting in lieu of sub-clause (b) of paragraph 3 of the said memorandum the following sub-clause (b) and the following clauses.—

(b) To carry on in England and abroad the business of manufacturers of and dealers in silver and electro-plated goods or any branch thereof.

(c) To carry on in England and abroad all or any of the following businesses:—The business of manufacturers of and dealers in all manner of lamps, vessels, receptacles and apparatus used directly or indirectly for the purpose of producing, supplying or conveying illumination, and the machinery and tools incidental to such manufacture. The business of engineers, founders and workers in metals and of manufacturers of and dealers in hardware, of whatsoever material made or composed. The business of manufacturers of and dealers in all kinds of machinery, tools and plant, and the supply or application of motive power thereunto. The business of general merchants. As incidental to the objects and purposes hereby declared, to carry on or be engaged or interested in any other businesses of a like nature which may seem to the Board of Directors of the Company capable of being conveniently carried on for the benefit of the Company.

(d) To sell, mortgage, assign, convey, let on lease or otherwise dispose from time to time of all or any of the concessions, rights, interests, lands, roads and premises, plant, machinery or apparatus, and other property of the Company, or such part or parts thereof as may be considered expedient.

(e) To borrow, or raise, or secure the payment of money for the purposes of the Company in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital.

(f) To purchase, subscribe for or otherwise acquire and to hold the shares, stocks or obligations of any company or corporation in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and upon a distribution of assets or division of profits to distribute any such shares, stocks or obligations amongst the members of the Company in specie.

(g) To advance and lend money and assets of all kinds upon such terms as may be arranged, and to receive moneys on deposit repayable at fixed times or on demand and generally on such terms as may be arranged.

(h) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concession, joint adventure or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or
