PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (Session 2), Chapter 26, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 17th day of June, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (Session 2), Chapter 26, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing certain improvements at the Episcopal House of Residence belonging to the See of Worcester, which is known as Hartlebury Castle:

“Whereas the Right Reverend Ernest Harold, now Bishop of Worcester, is desirous that certain improvements should be made at the said Episcopal House of Residence and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements and we have approved the same:

“And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements a sum of Two hundred and Fifty Pounds (being a sum which, together with the outstanding balance of the sum already borrowed upon the same security, does not exceed two years' income of the See) should be provided by the borrowing of the same sum by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishop of Worcester:

Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Ernest Harold, Bishop of Worcester (testified by his having affixed his signature and Episcopal Seal to this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding £250, and that as a security for the same the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by Deed for the term of Fifteen years, or until the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied and that, such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following: that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of Twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly, at the end of the second period of Twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of Twelve months thereafter, pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one tenth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of Twelve months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of Four Pounds per centum, per annum, on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of Forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and shall bind as well the said Ernest Harold, now Bishop of the said Diocese of Worcester, as every succeeding Bishop of the same Diocese until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

“And we further recommend and propose that the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the said Governors and their successors shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the Episcopal House of Residence aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Worcester.

"And whereas none of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments is subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but the same are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed:

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund it is expedient that the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said indenture with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Rochester.

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Salisbury.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of July, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the 3rd day of October, 1895, and made under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, it was (amongst other things) ordered that burials in the Parish of Brightside Bierlow (Sheffield), in the County of York, should be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

Forthwith and entirely in the Wesleyan Chapel, Grimesthorpe, in the Parish of Brightside Bierlow (Sheffield), in the said County of York; and also in the Chapelyard, except as follows:—

(a) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the Chapelyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented;

(b) In such partly walled graves and earthen graves as are now existing in the Chapelyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the said Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to vary any Order in Council made under (amongst others) the Burial Act, 1853, as to

His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the said Parish of Brightside Bierlow (Sheffield), ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, so much of the said Order in Council of the 3rd day of October, 1895, as relates to burials in the Wesleyan Chapel and Chapelyard, Grimesthorpe, in the Parish of Brightside Bierlow (Sheffield) aforesaid, should be varied so as to provide that burials should be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the said Chapelyard in the said Parish:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 1st day of September next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 1st day of September.

House of Lords,

24th July, 1920.

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with section 11 (1) of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that the Rule Committee of the Supreme Court propose to make the following Rules:—

THE RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT (POOR PERSONS), 1920.

ORDER XVI.

Part IV. (Rules 22 to 31 (1), both inclusive) of Order XVI. of the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883, as amended by the Rules of the Supreme Court (Poor Persons), 1914, the Rules of the Supreme Court (Poor Persons), 1915, and the Rules of the Supreme Court (Poor Persons), 1916, is hereby revoked, and the following Rules shall stand in lieu thereof, viz.:—

IV.—Proceedings by and against Poor Persons.

22. Any person may be admitted to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings in the High Court of Justice as a poor person on satisfying the Court or a Judge that he has reasonable grounds for taking or defending or being a party to such proceedings, and that—

- (1) the applicant is not (or in matrimonial causes where the wife is the applicant, the applicant and her husband are not) worth a sum exceeding fifty pounds (excluding wearing apparel, tools of trade and the subject matter of such proceedings) or such larger sum not exceeding one hundred pounds as a Judge personally in special circumstances may direct;
- (2) the usual income from all sources of the applicant (or in matrimonial causes where the wife is the applicant, of the applicant and her husband) does not exceed two pounds a week or such larger sum not exceeding four pounds a week as a Judge personally in special circumstances may direct.

This Rule shall not apply to any bankruptcy proceeding or matter or to any criminal cause or matter except:—

- (a) applications to the Court to order a Justice or Justices to state a case under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts,
- (b) the hearing of cases stated under such Acts, and
- (c) applications for certiorari, mandamus, or prohibition directed to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction.

23. An applicant in a matrimonial cause shall deposit with the prescribed officer, upon making the application, in nullity cases involving medical examination [twenty] pounds, and in other cases five pounds, and if such deposit shall in the course of the case be found insufficient, such further sum as may be directed by the prescribed officer. The sum so deposited shall be paid into court by the prescribed officer, and shall be utilised for the payment of any necessary expenses of the case.

Any amount remaining over after all expenses properly incurred have been paid shall be repaid to the applicant.

Such deposits may be forfeited by order of a Judge upon proof that the applicant has understated his means.

24. The prescribed officers in London shall keep lists:

- (1) of solicitors and of counsel willing to be assigned to enquire into and report upon the application of any person to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings as a poor person;
- (2) of solicitors and of counsel willing to be assigned to assist poor persons, when admitted, in the conduct of the proceedings.

It shall be the duty of such prescribed officers in London to furnish to each prescribed officer in the District Registries, on application, lists of all such solicitors and counsel willing to act within their respective districts. Solicitors and counsel willing to be so assigned may send their names either to the prescribed officers in London or to the prescribed officers in the District Registries.

25. A person desirous of being so admitted as a poor person shall make an application in the form set forth in the Appendix hereto (which may be cited as Form No. 1 J of Appendix K to the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883), stating his means and the names of the parties or of any proposed parties to such proceedings and the nature of the applicant's case, and giving the names and addresses of two persons to whom reference can be made.

Such application shall be made:—

- (a) in matters proceeding or intended to proceed in London to the prescribed officer in London;
- (b) in matters proceeding or intended to proceed in a District Registry to the District Registrar.

26. The application shall be referred for enquiry to one or more solicitors or counsel willing to act in the matter, whether named in the list to be kept pursuant to Rule 24 (1) or not, who shall report to the Court through the prescribed officer whether and upon what terms the applicant ought to be admitted as a poor person. For the purpose of their report the reporters may make such enquiries as they think fit as to the means and the position of the applicant and as to the merits of the case, and may require the attendance of the applicant, and shall, where possible, personally see the applicant, and may hear any other person, and may require facts to be proved by affidavit or statutory declaration, and in making their report they shall have regard to the probable cost of the litigation in relation to the matter in dispute, and shall state that they have personally interviewed the applicant, or shall give their reasons for not having done so. The report and any documents or information obtained for the purposes of the report shall be treated as confidential, and shall not be shown or disclosed to the parties or either of them, nor (except to such extent and upon such conditions as may be directed by the prescribed officer) shall such report or any of the said documents or information be shown or disclosed to any counsel or any solicitor for either of the parties. In matrimonial causes the report shall be open to inspection by the King's Proctor.

27. In matrimonial causes the applicant shall be required by the reporter to swear an affidavit [make a statutory declaration] in accordance with form No. 1 J (1), being the second form set forth in the Appendix hereto (which may be cited as Form No. 1 J (1) of Appendix K to the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883).

Form No. 1 J (1) shall be forwarded to the reporter by the prescribed officer when sending the papers to him for report. The reporter shall have power to administer the oath for this purpose, and no fee shall be charged for taking such oath.

28. Upon the production of the report mentioned in Rule 26 the Court or Judge may, in their or his discretion, and upon such terms, if any, as the Court or Judge may think fit, make an order admitting the applicant to take or defend or be a party to legal proceedings as a poor person, and the prescribed officer shall assign to the applicant a solicitor and counsel willing to act in the matter (whether named in the list kept pursuant to Rule 24 (2) or not) to assist him in the conduct of the proceedings. The prescribed officer may also assign to the applicant a solicitor or solicitors in London or elsewhere willing to act as agent for or to assist the first-named solicitor, and he may also assign additional counsel who may be willing to assist the poor person. No solicitor or counsel who shall have reported on the case shall be so assigned, nor shall any co-partner or clerk or employee of a solicitor who shall have so reported be so assigned. No such solicitor or counsel and no such co-partner or clerk or employee shall act for any other party to the litigation.

29. No person who is outside the jurisdiction of the Court shall be admitted to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings as a poor person without the direction of a Judge in person.

30. The Court or a Judge, in considering whether a person shall be admitted as a poor person under these Rules, shall have regard to such statutory provisions as confer on Inferior Courts concurrent jurisdiction with the High Court, and especially to the provisions of section 1 and section 2 of the County Courts Act, 1919.

31. The Court or a Judge may at any time (and whether or not any application be made by any person for such purpose) discharge any order made under these Rules whereby a person has been admitted to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings as a poor person.

31A. There shall be no appeal against an order refusing to admit a person to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings as a poor person without leave of the Court or a Judge.

31B. (1) No person admitted to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings as a poor person, nor any solicitor or counsel assigned to such poor person under these Rules shall discontinue, settle or compromise such proceedings without the leave of the Court or a Judge.

(2) It shall not be lawful for any person admitted to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings as a poor person to discharge any solicitor or counsel assigned under Rule 28 without leave of the Court or a Judge.

(3) A solicitor or counsel assigned under Rule 28 shall not be at liberty to discontinue his assistance unless he satisfies the prescribed officer or the Court or a Judge that he has some reasonable ground for so discontinuing.

31C. Every solicitor assigned under Rule 28 (hereinafter referred to as the conducting solicitor) shall send a report annually to the prescribed officer in the prescribed form showing the progress and result of all cases assigned to him for conduct.

31D. Should the conducting solicitor discover at any time that the applicant is possessed of means beyond those disclosed by him to the reporter he shall report the matter at once to the prescribed officer.

31E. When a person is applying or is admitted to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings as a poor person he shall not be liable for any court fees nor, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order, to pay costs to any other party, and except as provided by the Rules of this Order, no person shall take or agree to take or seek to obtain any payment, fee, profit or reward, either for inquiry or report or for the conduct of the proceedings, or for out-of-pocket expenses, and any person so doing shall be guilty of a contempt of court.

If any such payment, fee, profit or reward shall be made, given or promised, the application or admission, as the case may be, may be dismissed or struck out, in which case the poor person shall not afterwards be admitted into the same case or any proceedings as a poor person unless otherwise ordered.

Should any out-of-pocket expenses be incurred by a reporter or conducting solicitor he shall send a written statement to the prescribed officer showing the amount of expenses and the purposes for which they have been incurred, and upon receipt of such statement the prescribed officer shall in matrimonial causes pay to the solicitor, from the amount deposited by the applicant under Rule 23, such sum as he shall consider just, and in other causes shall, in writing, request the applicant to forward such sum to the prescribed officer as that officer shall consider just for payment over to the reporter or conducting solicitor, as the case may be.

In paying such out-of-pocket expenses the prescribed officer shall have regard to the following provisions:—

- (a) no fee shall be allowed to the reporter for the report;
- (b) the conducting solicitor shall not be entitled to any payment on account of his office expenses (including charges for stationery or copying done in his office).

31f. In matrimonial causes every petition or answer shall be drawn by a barrister and signed by him, and proofs of the witnesses shall be furnished to him with the instruction to draw the petition or answer.

31g. Special days shall be set apart for the trial of poor persons' matrimonial causes.

31h. Costs ordered to be paid to a poor person shall, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order, be taxed, having regard to Rule 31d, but in the event of the Court or a Judge certifying that the person ordered to pay such costs has acted unreasonably in prosecuting or defending or opposing the proceedings such costs shall include profit costs and charges, but shall not include any fees to counsel.

31i. The Court or a Judge may order to be paid to the conducting solicitor out of any money recovered by the poor person, or may charge in favour of the conducting solicitor upon any real or personal property recovered by a poor person such sum in respect of costs (not including fees of counsel) as would have been allowed to the solicitor on taxation between himself and his client if he had been retained by his client in the ordinary manner (less such amount as may be recovered from any other party) or such other sum in respect of costs as to the Court or Judge may seem fit, provided that the total amount so to be paid out for profit costs or so charged upon the said property for profit costs shall not in either case exceed one-fourth of the amount or value recovered and remaining after the deduction therefrom of all proper disbursements made by the solicitor.

31j. Every notice of motion, summons or petition on behalf of a poor person (except an application for admission to take or defend or be a party to legal proceedings or for the discharge of his solicitor) shall be signed by his solicitor, and it shall be the duty of such solicitor to take care that no application be made without reasonable cause.

31k. There shall be no appeal as a poor person to the Court of Appeal by anyone admitted to take or defend or be a party to any legal proceedings under these rules without leave of the Court or of the Judge before whom the matter is heard or of the Court of Appeal.

31l. If any person who has not taken, defended or been a party to any legal proceedings as a poor person in the High Court shall desire to be admitted on an appeal to the Court of Appeal as a poor person the like procedure shall be followed as is provided by these Rules for the High Court and the application shall be referred by the prescribed officer of the division of the High Court from which the appeal is brought for enquiry, as if it were an application made in that Division, and upon production of the report the Court of Appeal may in their discretion make an order admitting the applicant to be a party to such appeal as a poor person.

Any party to proceedings in a Court other than the High Court from which an appeal lies direct to the Court of Appeal who desires to be so admitted shall make an application for that purpose under these rules to the prescribed officer on the Crown Side except in the case of an appeal from the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster or from the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Durham and Sadberge the application in which shall be made to the prescribed officer in the Chancery Division.

The said application shall be referred and decided in the same manner as an application in an appeal from the High Court.

31m. The prescribed officers shall be (1) in the Chancery Division such one or more of the Masters as the Lord Chancellor shall from time to time nominate for the purpose; (2) in the King's Bench Division (excepting on the Crown side) such one or more of the Masters as the Lord Chief Justice shall from time to time nominate for the purpose; and on the Crown side the Master of the Crown Office for the time being; (3) in the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division such one or more of the Registrars as the President shall from time to time nominate for the purpose; and (4) in a District Registry the District Registrar.

In the case of temporary absence or indisposition the prescribed officer may appoint a deputy with the sanction of the Lord Chancellor.

31n. Nothing in these Rules shall operate as a stay of any proceedings unless so ordered by the Court or Judge or Court of Appeal.

31o. These Rules may be cited as the Rules of the Supreme Court (Poor Persons), 1920, or may be cited by the heading and number thereof with reference to the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883. They shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1921.

Whitehall, July 26, 1920.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Gharib Shah, in recognition of his gallantry in saving life in June of last year.

On the 3rd June, 1919, a large Religious Fair was being held in India at Nariana, on the right bank of the River Beas, and a great many pilgrims were being conveyed across the river by means of a ferry boat. Two boatloads had been taken over successfully, and the boat was crossing a third time when it got out of control. The river was in flood and the rapids very dangerous, and the boat, which was filled to its utmost capacity, entered the rapids and was swamped, all the passengers being precipitated into the rushing water. Gharib Shah, a young waterman, 25 years of age, who was in charge of a timber raft some 30 yards away, managed to get his raft close to the overturned boat, and immediately set to work to save the passengers as they were carried past him. Time after time he plunged into the river, and succeeded in rescuing fifteen drowning persons. Others in the water who had struggled to the raft were pulled on to it by him, and in this manner other lives were saved.

It is estimated that 150 passengers were on board the boat when it started, and of the forty-five saved it is certain that Gharib Shah was responsible for the rescue of at least thirty by his bravery and resourcefulness. The District Magistrate who held an inquiry into the occurrence highly commended Gharib Shah's conduct, and mentioned that this was not the first time that he had saved persons from drowning, for in the year 1914, at the risk of his own life, he had rescued five persons from the same river.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 1181 of the year 1920.

WIRELESS METEOROLOGICAL INFORMATION TO AND FROM SHIPS AT SEA.

General Remarks.

Former Notice.—No. 1000 of 1920; hereby cancelled.

1. It is earnestly hoped that all concerned will assist in making the wireless meteorological service a success. Negotiations are now in hand to extend and unify the system of collecting weather data by wireless from ships at sea all over the world, and at the same time to organise the free transmission of weather bulletins from a sufficient number of wireless stations to admit of ships being constantly supplied with reliable weather reports and forecasts wherever they may be.

2. It should be borne in mind that the needs of ships at sea in regard to information regarding the weather will march hand in hand with the requirements of aircraft. The importance of this service will therefore be constantly increasing, and its success or failure will largely depend upon the co-operation of ships at sea in providing the data without which accurate forecasting is impossible. The matter does not depend solely upon the efforts of the ships selected to furnish the data. The essence of success lies in rapidity in passing such data by wireless from the ship to the coast station, and thence to the central meteorological office. It follows, therefore, that all ships not taking an active part in supplying data should use the greatest care not to interfere with the transmission of the wireless messages to the shore.

3. The following particulars refer to the scheme now being undertaken by the British Meteorological Office. This Notice will, however, be subject to revision from time to time, and endeavours will be made to include in each revision all information available to date of the weather bulletins issued by the wireless stations of the world. Earnest endeavours are being made to obtain international agreement as to the form of these weather bulletins and to the methods and times of transmissions. It is hoped that the messages will eventually all be made in an international code at fixed times, so arranged that a ship with only one wireless operator will be able to read them. A similar scheme for time signals is being evolved.

COLLECTION OF WEATHER DATA FROM SHIPS.

4. Certain ships are being asked to supply data regularly three times a day and in addition to the regular observations, which are taken at 0100, 0700 and 1300 Greenwich time and sent as soon as possible to Malin Head (GMH) or Valentia (GCK) coast stations. These ships may, on request from either of these coast stations, send special data messages at other times.

5. Precise instructions as to the procedure for ships which intend to send a data message, together with the necessary code, will be issued at an early date.

Issue of Weather Bulletins to Ships.

6. A wireless weather bulletin may contain both or either of the following:—

(a) A weather report, which is an official statement of existing weather conditions; and/or

(b) A weather forecast, which is an official opinion of probable future weather conditions.

7. The accompanying schedule of wireless weather bulletins is intended to provide, in a form suitable to give all information required by the wireless operator, a complete and up-to-date list of all weather bulletins transmitted at fixed times by wireless stations throughout the world. The same information will be found in detail in the Sailing Directions and in the International List of Radiotelegraph Stations (the Berne List).

8. The times given in the third column of the schedule are expressed in the 4-figure notation employed for signalling during the war. The term "G.M.T." here means the civil mean time of the meridian of Greenwich, with the day commencing at midnight and the hours reckoned from 00 to 23.

9. Operators are reminded that Article 45 of the International Service Regulations imposes the general obligation of not interfering with reception of weather bulletins by other ships.

10. Certain other stations not shown in the schedule supply weather bulletins on demand, generally at reduced charges. Particulars will be found in the Berne List.
