4.—(1) His Majesty may, by a Commission under His Sign Manual and Signet, appoint a fit person to administer the Government of the Territory under the designation of Governor and Commander-in-Chief, or such other designation as His Majesty thinks fit, and the person so appointed is hereinafter referred to as the Governor.

(2) The said Governor is hereby authorized, empowered, and commanded to do and execute all things that belong to his said office, according to the tenour of any Orders in Council relating to the Territory, and of such Commission as may be issued to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or by Order in Council, or by His Majesty through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and to such laws as are now or shall hereafter be in force in the Territory.

(3) Every person appointed to fill the office of Governor shall, with all due solemnity, before entering on any of the duties of his office, cause the Commission appointing him to be Governor to be read and published in the presence of a Judge of His Majesty's High Court or, if there be no Judge of the said Court who is able to attend, in the presence of such other His Majesty's Officers in the Territory as can conveniently attend, which being done, he shall then and there take before him or them the Oath of Allegiance in the form provided by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Thirty-first and Thirty-second years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Promissory Oaths": and likewise the usual oath for the due execution of the

Every such Deputy shall conform to and observe all such instructions as the Governor shall from time to time address to him for his guidance. Provided nevertheless that by the appointment of a Deputy as aforesaid the power and authority of the Governor shall not be abridged, altered, or in any way affected otherwise than His Majesty may at any time think proper to direct.

5. The Governor shall have an Official Seal, bearing the style of his office, and such device as a Secretary of State from time to time approves, and such seal shall be deemed the Public Seal of the Territory, and may be kept and used by the Governor for the sealing of all things whatsoever that shall pass the Public Seal. (2) If a question arises whether any place is or is not within the Territory, or within any province, and such question does not appear to be determined by any such Proclamation, or other evidence, it shall be referred to the Governor, and a certificate under his hand and seal shall be conclusive on the question, and judicial notice shall be taken thereof.

8.—(1) All rights in or in relation to any public lands shall vest in and may be exercised by the Governor for the time being in trust for His Majesty, or if the Secretary of State at any time with respect to all or any such lands by Order under his hand so directs, in such other trustee or trustees for His Majesty as the Secretary of State may appoint.

(2) The Secretary of State may, when he thinks fit, by a like Order remove any trustee so appointed, and may appoint any new or additional trustee or trustees.

(3) All mines and minerals being in, under or on any lands, in the occupation of any native tribe, or any members thereof, or of any person not possessed of the right to work such mines and minerals, shall vest in the Governor, or such trustee or trustees, in like manner as the mines and minerals in, under or on any public lands.

(4) The Governor, or such other trustee or trustees, may make grants or leases of any such public lands or minerals as aforesaid, or may permit such lands to be temporarily occupied on such terms and conditions as he or they may think fit, subject to the provisions of any Ordinance.

(5) Subject as aforesaid, the Governor, in His Majesty's name and on His Majesty's behalf, may make and execute, under the Public Seal, grants and dispositions of any lands within the Territory which may be lawfully granted or disposed of by His Majesty: Provided that every such grant or disposition be made in conformity either with some Order in Council or law now or hereafter in force in the Territory, or with some Instructions which may be addressed to the Governor under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or through a Secretary of State.

10. The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, suspend from the exercise of his office any person holding any office within the Territory, whether appointed by virtue of any Commission or Warrant from His Majesty or in His Majesty's name or by any other mode of appointment. (2) In the making of any Ordinances, the Governor shall conform to and observe all rules, regulations and directions in that behalf contained in any Instructions under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet.

(3) The Governor shall observe any general or special instructions of the Secretary of State with respect to the previous submission to the Secretary of State of draft Ordinances, to the making of Ordinances for particular purposes, to the amendment of Ordinances or draft Ordinances, and to other matters in relation thereto; but nothing in this provision shall affect the validity of any Ordinance.

(4) In making Ordinances, the Governor shall respect existing native laws and customs except so far as the same may be opposed to justice or morality.

(5) The Governor shall sign every Ordinance made by him, and shall, at the first available opportunity, transmit two authenticated copies thereof to the Secretary of State.

(6) The Secretary of State may disallow any Ordinance, wholly or in part, and upon such disallowance being publicly notified in the Gazette, the provisions so disallowed shall thereupon cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done or suffered thereunder.

(7) The Ordinances of each year shall be numbered consecutively and each may be cited by its number and year or by its short title if any.

(10) The Governor shall, at the first available opportunity after any rules or regulations are made under any Ordinance by any person or body authorized, transmit two authenticated copies thereof to the Secretary of State.

(11) An Ordinance shall not be repealable by any rules or regulations made under an Ordinance.

(2) For the purpose of this Article a certificate by the Governor that any act, matter or thing was done under the authority of a person so holding office or so employed as aforesaid shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated in the certificate, and any such act, matter or thing done by or under the authority of a person so holding office or so employed as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been done in good faith unless the contrary is proved.

30. Any sentence passed, judgment given, or order made before the date of this Order in the territories comprised in the Territory, by any military Court (other than a Court Martial constituted in pursuance of any Statute) in connection with the said war, or by any Court established for the administration of justice in the said territories shall be deemed to be and always to have been valid, and to be and always to have been within the jurisdiction of the Court.

31. All laws, proclamations and other legislative acts made, issued or done before the date of this Order by the authority for the time being administering the said territories for the peace, order or good government thereof shall be deemed to be and always to have been valid and of full effect, notwithstanding that any such legislative act may have repealed or been inconsistent with the law previously in force in the said territories.

Removal and Deportation.

32. Where an offender convicted before any Court is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Governor, proceeding under Section 7 of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, authority in that behalf being hereby given to him, considers it expedient that the sentence should be carried into effect outside of the Territory the place shall be a place in some part of His Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

33.—(1) Where it is shown by evidence on oath, to the satisfaction of the Governor, that any person is conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order in the Territory, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of the Territory and His Majesty, or is intriguing against His Majesty's power and authority in the Territory, the Governor may, if he thinks fit, by order under his hand and official seal order that person to be deported from the Territory to such place as the Governor may direct.

(3) An appeal shall not lie against an order of deportation made under this Article.

(4) If any person deported under this Order returns to the Territory without the permission in writing of the Secretary of State (which permission the Secretary of State may give) he shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for any period not exceeding three months with or without a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees or florins; and he shall also be liable to be again deported forthwith.

(5) The Governor, by order under his hand and official seal, may vary or rescind any order of deportation under this Article.

(6) The Governor shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State every order made by him under this Article, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

34.—(1) Where, under this Order, a person is to be removed or deported from the Territory he shall, by warrant of the Governor under his hand and seal, be detained, if necessary, in custody or in prison, until a fit opportunity for his removal or deportation occurs, and then, if he is to be deported beyond sea, be put on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or, if none is available, then on board some other British or other fit vessel.

(2) The warrant of the Governor shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution, and to the commander or master of the vessel to receive and detain the person therein named, in the manner therein prescribed, and to remove and carry him to the place therein named, according to the warrant.

(3) In case of removal for any purpose other than deportation, the warrant of the Governor shall be issued in duplicate, and the person executing it shall, as soon as practicable after his arrival at the place therein named, deliver, according to the warrant, with one of the duplicates of the warrant, to a constable, or proper officer of police or keeper of a prison, or other proper authority or person there, the person named in the warrant, to be produced on the order of the proper Court or authority there, or to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

35. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, all expenses of removal of prisoners and others, and the expenses of deportation, and of the sending of any person to any part of His Majesty's dominions or Protectorates, including expenses of maintenance, shall be defrayed in such manner as the Secretary of State directs.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of July, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 17th day of June, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called the said Benefice) of Great Addington, in the County of Northampton and in the Diocese of Peterborough:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Great Addington is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Sidney Ernald Ralph Lane, of the Manor House, Great Addington, Thrapston, in the said County of Northampton, Esquire:

"And whereas the said Sidney Ernald Ralph Lane is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Great Addington now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said Diocese of Peterborough:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Frank Theodore, now Bishop of Peterborough, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said Frank

Theodore, Bishop of Peterborough, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Great Addington which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the Parish of Great Addington:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Sidney Ernald Ralph Lane (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Frank Theodore, Bishop of Peterborough, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Great Addington now vested in him the said Sidney Ernald Ralph Lane, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Frank Theodore, Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frank Theodore, Bishop of Peterborough, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Peterborough.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of July, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 8th day of July, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Durnford, in the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, and also of certain other property in the parishes of Durnford, Woodford and Stapleford, in the county of Wilts, and now vested in us:

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Prebend, which occurred on the 28th day of September, 1848, by the death of the Reverend Arthur Edward Howman, the then Prebendary, all the lands, tithe rentcharges and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said Prebend (except rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us:

"And whereas under and by virtue of the several indentures, particulars whereof are set forth in the schedule hereunder written, the lands, tenements and hereditaments situate in the parishes of Durnford, Woodford and Stapleford aforesaid, and particularly described in the same indentures and schedule became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us:

"And whereas none of the said lands, tithe rentcharges, tenements and hereditaments is subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but the same are now in our possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed:

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithe rentcharges, tenements and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tithe rentcharges, tenements and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tithe rentcharges, tenements and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rentcharges, tenements or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The Schedule to which the foregoing Scheme has reference:—

"Dates of the Indentures.	Names and Descriptions of the Parties thereto.	Parish.	Description of Property.	Area

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Salisbury.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of July, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Mary's Hay, in the County of Brecknock, 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, did, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, make a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new Burial Ground in the Civil Parish of Hay Urban, in the said County of Brecknock, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 11th June, 1920, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 20th July, 1920, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new Burial Ground shall be opened in the said Civil Parish of Hay Urban save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, and that burials shall be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

HAY URBAN.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church and Churchyard of St. Mary's Hay, in the said Parish. Provided that in the walled grave in the said Churchyard belonging to the Hincks family the burial may be allowed of the cremated remains of any member of that family.

STATUTE I.

The Constitution and Government of the College.

1. The Visitor of the College shall be, as heretofore, the Crown acting through the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

2. The College consists of a Master, Fellows and Scholars. The Government of the College shall be vested in the Master and Fellows.

3. There shall be one College Meeting in the Michaelmas term in every year, on a day to be fixed by the Master, of which fourteen days' notice in writing shall be given to each of the Fellows. If any of the Fellows be absent from the Meeting in any year, he shall be fined a sum of Five pounds, and such fine shall be applied to such purposes as the Master and Fellows think fit.

The Master shall call meetings of the Master and Fellows whenever he may think it necessary and when a majority of the Fellows shall require him to do so, such requisition to be made in writing.

No Fellow shall be absent without sufficient reason from a College Meeting duly called.

No business shall be done at a College Meeting unless at least one-half of the whole body of Master and Fellows be present; but the Master and Fellows may delegate to any Committee or Committees of the whole body the transaction of such business as may seem to them fit.

No Fellow in statu pupillari shall be allowed to vote at any meeting until the expiration of one year from the date of his admission as Fellow.

4. Every Fellow shall leave with such person as the Master and Fellows may appoint the name of the place of address to which, when he is absent from College, notices intended for him should be sent; and in all cases in which notice is required to be given to any Fellow, it shall be sufficient that the notice be sent to such address by post or otherwise.

5. The College seal shall be kept in a box secured by two locks of different patterns, the keys of which shall be kept by the Master and the Bursar respectively.

Before the seal is affixed to any document it shall be copied into the College Register and shall be produced for inspection at a meeting of the Master and Fellows called for the purpose.

All deeds of importance affecting the property or interests of the College shall be copied into the College Register, and be kept in the Treasury, nor shall they be taken therefrom except for the defence of the rights of the College or other grave cause approved as sufficient by the Master and Fellows.

STATUTE II.

The Master, President and Vice-Master.

1. There shall be in the College a Master or Keeper, of good life and conversation, well qualified by learning and experience of business, of at least thirty years of age, and a Master of Arts or of some equal or superior degree in the University of Cambridge or Oxford.

He shall exercise a general superintendence over the affairs of the College, as a place of education, religion, learning and research, and shall, whenever possible, take part in the College teaching and administration.

The Master shall receive in every year out of the revenues of the College as hereinafter provided a sum equal to two dividends of a Fellow, but if he shall hold not the Canonry at Norwich he shall receive four dividends in lieu of two.

He shall not be absent from the College more than one hundred and eighty days in any year except on account of illness or other grave cause, nor shall he be absent from the College more than one-third of any term except on account of illness or other grave cause. If the Master being a Canon of Norwich resigns such Canonry without the leave of at least two-thirds of the Fellows, he shall ipso facto vacate the office of Master.

2. When the office of Master becomes vacant, the Senior resident Fellow shall, within three days after the vacancy is made known to him, give notice of the vacancy to all the other Fellows, whether present in College or absent, and summon them in writing to meet for the election of a new Master on some day not less than fourteen days nor more than thirty days after the date of such notice.

If, however, the vacancy of the office of Master is first made known to the said Senior Fellow in the vacation after the Easter Term and before the sixteenth day of September in any year, the meeting for the election of a new Master shall be held on some day in the first week of the ensuing Michaelmas Term.

On the day appointed for the election the Fellows shall meet together at noon in the College Chapel. The prayers "Veni creator" and "Deus qui corda" shall be said; and the Fellows shall proceed severally to nominate and elect a duly qualified person for the office of Master.

If upon a first scrutiny there shall be no person nominated and elected by a majority of the whole body of existing Fellows, they shall proceed to nominate and elect a second time, and the process of nominating and electing shall be repeated as often as the Fellows think proper within forty-eight hours after the commencement of the first scrutiny. If at the end of the said forty-eight hours there be no person nominated and elected by a majority of the whole body of existing Fellows, the appointment of a Master for that turn shall be vested in the Visitor.

The person nominated or elected or appointed shall make the following declaration before he acts as Master, "Ego N. do fidem quod collegium sive aulam divae catharinae virginis, terras et tenementa, possessiones, redditus temporales et ecclesiasticos, jura et bona quaecunque collegii sive aulae praedictae regam, defendam, custodiam et gubernabo, et per alios regi, custodiri et gubernari faciam quantum potero. Item statuta ejusdem collegii edita, et in posterum edenda, firmiter observabo. Item collegium sive aulam praedictam cum omnibus bonis ejusdem contra omnes adversarios ejus quantum potero tuebor et defendam. Et quantum in me fuerit, correctiones, punitiones, et reformationes justas et debitas faciam et exercebo ac per alios fieri et exerceri, quantum in me est, curabo."

3. The Master shall appoint in writing from time to time one of the Fellows of the degree of Master of Arts, or of some equal or superior degree, to represent him in his absence.

Such Fellow shall be called the President, and shall have the authority of the Master when absent in all college business.

The President shall receive out of the revenues of the College a yearly stipend determined by the Master and Fellows, and shall hold the office until such time as the Master shall appoint in writing some other of the Fellows in his stead.

4. If the Master shall have been convicted by a Court of competent jurisdiction of any crime, the Visitor may, if he think fit, proceed to enquire into the fact of such conviction, and if it be established may deprive the Master of his office.

If any three or more of the Fellows shall prefer to the Visitor a charge against the Master of disgraceful conduct, or of malversation in his office, or of gross neglect of duty whereby he has in their judgment become unfit to preside over the College, the Visitor shall with all convenient speed proceed to inquire into the facts of the case, and if the charge be established, may deprive the Master of his office.

5. If the Master shall at any time become incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Visitor on being satisfied thereof shall, upon the application of a majority of the Fellows, present at a meeting convened for the purpose of taking the matter into consideration, such majority consisting of at least a moiety of the whole number of Fellows, or upon the application of the Master himself, have power to appoint one of the Fellows to act in the Master's place during his incapacity and to assign to the person so appointed such portion as the Visitor shall think fit, not exceeding one-third, of the income assigned to the Master by these Statutes.

It shall be incumbent upon the Senior Fellow in residence to convene the meeting of the Fellows for the purpose mentioned in the foregoing paragraph, upon the request of any three or more of the Fellows, and to cause notice of such meeting to be sent to each of the Fellows.

The Fellow who shall be appointed by the Visitor to act in the Master's place shall be called Vice-Master. He shall retain his office, and receive the portion of the Master's income which shall have been assigned to him, until the Master shall be reinstated in his functions and powers, or shall cease to be Master. He shall exercise and perform all the functions and duties, and shall have all the powers and authorities of the Master except the power of consenting to any change of the Master's emoluments, and shall be bound to residence in the same manner, and be liable to deprivation for the same causes and in like manner as the Master.

If the Vice-Master shall die or resign his office, or vacate his Fellowship or become incapable of discharging his duties, the Visitor shall have the like power upon the like application of appointing another of the Fellows to be Vice-Master in his room, and of assigning an income limited as aforesaid, to such Vice-Master.

If the Master shall at any time after the appointment of a Vice-Master again become capable of performing his duties, the Visitor on being satisfied thereof, shall have power to reinstate him in his functions and powers and in receipt of all his emoluments.

STATUTE III.

The Fellows.

1. Besides the Master there shall be in the College six Fellows, or more than six if the revenues of the College are sufficient to provide for the maintenance of more than six.

One of the Fellowships shall be deemed to be and shall be a Professorial Fellowship, and shall be held according to the terms and conditions prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Professorial Fellowships made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

2. Fellows shall be graduates of some University of recognised standing and shall be chosen for their learning, teaching ability, or administrative powers.

The Master and Fellows may elect to a Fellowship any specially qualified person whether or not he be a graduate of some University, provided that the election be made by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the whole body of Master and Fellows, and provided also that not more than one Fellowship be held under this provision at the same time.

3. A Fellowship is held in the first instance for three years.

Every ordinary Fellow except the Professorial Fellow must either (a) hold a College office or Lectureship or (b) be engaged in research approved by the College or (c) perform such duties or do such work for the College as the College shall from time to time require. He shall also (d) reside in Cambridge during full term unless he be engaged in research which in the opinion of the College necessitates absence from Cambridge, or unless he receives leave of absence from the College on account of illness or other grave cause. The Master and Fellows shall have power to determine from time to time what shall be held to constitute residence for the purpose of this statute.

A Fellowship may be renewed from time to time, but each renewal shall be for a period not exceeding seven years.

4. In addition to the ordinary Fellows there may be in the College not more than four supernumerary Fellows. Such Fellows shall exercise all the rights of Fellows except that they shall receive no dividend, but the Master and Fellows may make them a small allowance for travelling expenses and for residence in Cambridge during the College Meetings. They shall not necessarily be subject to any conditions, but the Master and Fellows may at any time attach any condition to a supernumerary

Fellowship, and at any time vary or revoke any such condition. A supernumerary Fellowship shall be held for as many years as the Master and Fellows shall determine in each case. A supernumerary Fellow may at any time be elected to an Ordinary Fellowship, in which case his supernumerary Fellowship shall become vacant. An ordinary Fellow, other than the Professorial Fellow, may declare his intention in writing of becoming a supernumerary Fellow, and if the Master and Fellows think fit, he shall be made a supernumerary Fellow at a meeting specially called for the purpose. The expression Master and Fellows includes the supernumerary Fellows but does not include Honorary Fellows.

5. During full term at least two Fellows, one of whom shall if possible be the Dean, shall reside in College, and during the Long Vacation Term at least one Fellow shall reside in College. The Master and Fellows shall determine which Fellows shall so reside and shall from time to time define what is meant by residence in College; they shall also assign a reasonable stipend for such residence, which shall be larger in the case of a Fellow who ordinarily lives outside the College.

6. The Fellows shall receive out of the revenues of the College during residence a moderate sum for commons, to be determined by the Master and Fellows, and the Master shall receive during residence twice the amount allowed to each Fellow. The Master and Fellows shall have power to determine from time to time what shall be held to constitute residence for the purpose of this statute.

The Master shall assign rooms in College to the Fellows severally, having regard to their seniority.

The use of rooms may be allowed to other members of the College by the Master and Fellows at their discretion, and the rents of such rooms shall be fixed by the Master and Fellows, and shall be paid as income to the College.

No Fellow shall be allowed to bring his wife or family to reside in College, unless special provision be made for that purpose and permission given by the Master and Fellows at a meeting called for the purpose of considering the question.

7. Every vacant Fellowship shall be filled within one year from the date of vacancy unless the same is suspended or unless the majority of the Master and Fellows, for reasons to be set forth in a College order, defer the election for a further period not exceeding one year.

The election of a Fellow shall be made by a majority of the Master and Fellows, and the Master shall give not less than fourteen days' notice in writing to all the Fellows, whether present in College or absent, of the day and hour appointed for election.

If upon a first scrutiny there be no person for whom a majority of the Master and all existing Fellows have voted, the scrutiny shall be repeated as often as the Master and Fellows think fit.

The Fellow elect shall make the following declaration before admission:

"Ego N. do fidem quod omnia statuta et ordinationes collegii sive aulae divae catharinae virginis, quatenus me concernunt, pro viribus observabo, et quantum in me est ab aliis sociis faciam observari; magistro seu praefecto dicti collegii sive aulae qui pro tempore fuerit, in iis quae ad officium ipsius et statuta collegii praedicti pertinent obtemperabo; bonorum, terrarum, possessionum ac reddituum ejusdem collegii conservationem et amplificationem, quantum in me est, procurabo."

The seniority of the Fellows in College shall be determined by the dates of their admission as Fellows, and not by the times of graduation.

Fellows who are Bachelors in Arts, or Law or Surgery shall proceed in due course to the degree of Master in Arts or Law or Surgery, and Fellows who are Bachelors in Medicine shall proceed in due course to the degree of Doctor in Medicine, unless prevented by illness, or other cause approved by the Master and Fellows as sufficient.

8. The Master and Fellows may elect any person, whom they consider it desirable so to distinguish, to be an Honorary Fellow.

Such Honorary Fellow shall not have any voice or authority in the affairs of the College nor be entitled to any dividend or presentation to a Benefice, but he shall enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Master and Fellows may from time to time determine.

The Master and Fellows may at any time terminate the tenure of an Honorary Fellowship.

9. If any Fellow shall pertinaciously disturb the concord or discipline of the College, or shall wilfully violate or neglect to comply with any of the Statutes, it shall be the duty of the Master and Fellows at a College Meeting, on proof of such misconduct, to admonish such Fellow; and if, notwithstanding such admonition, he shall contumaciously persist in such misconduct, the Master may, with the concurrence of the majority of such Fellows, other than the Fellow whose conduct is impugned, as are present at a College Meeting to which all the Fellows shall have been summoned, suspend such Fellow from the enjoyment of his Fellowship for such time as they shall think fit, or deprive him altogether of his Fellowship.

If any Fellow shall be convicted by a Court of competent jurisdiction of any crime, the Master shall, with all convenient speed, summon a Meeting of all the Fellows, exclusive of such Fellow. The Master and Fellows assembled at such meeting may, if they think fit, proceed to investigate the case, and if the fact of such conviction be established, the Master shall, if the majority of those present so determine, deprive such Fellow of his Fellowship and expel him from the College.

If the Master shall in any case think it proper to cause an inquiry to be instituted as to whether or not the conduct of any Fellow has been disgraceful and such as to render him unfit to be a Fellow of the College, or if any two Fellows shall prefer before the Master against any Fellow a charge of disgraceful conduct rendering him unfit in their judgment to be a Fellow of the College; the Master shall summon a meeting of all the Fellows other than the accused and the Fellows, if any, preferring such charge, the Master and Fellows assembled at such meeting shall proceed to investigate the case, giving the accused person an opportunity of being heard in his defence, and if such disgraceful conduct be proved, the Master shall, if the majority of those present so determine, deprive the offending Fellow of his Fellowship and expel him from the College.

In any case of a sentence or suspension or deprivation and expulsion of a Fellow there shall be a right of appeal to the Visitor, who shall have power to annul the sentence or vary it at his discretion.

10. If a Fellow become the Head or a Fellow of any University or of any other College in any University, and if any stipend be attached to such Headship or Fellowship, his Fellowship shall thereupon become ipso facto vacant.

If a Fellow be admitted Master of the College his Fellowship shall thereupon become ipso facto vacant.

If a Fellow be instituted to a benefice in the gift of the College, the clear annual value of which after deducting all legal charges other than the pension if any of a previous incumbent is not less than £400, his Fellowship shall become vacant at the end of one year from the date of presentation.

If a Fellow accept a Professorship to which a Fellowship at another College is attached his Fellowship shall thereupon become ipso facto vacant.

A Fellowship shall also become vacant if the Master and Fellows decide at a meeting called for considering the question that this Fellow has without due cause failed to comply with the conditions attached to his Fellowship.

STATUTE IV.

The Scholars.

1. The Scholars shall be elected by the Master and Fellows without regard to their place of birth or school of education from among the students of the College or of the University, or according to the results of examinations instituted for the purpose from among persons who have not been admitted to the College or to the University; provided that in the case of the latter persons they are not more than nineteen years of age at the time of examination, and that the scholarships awarded to them be not tenable for a longer period than for two years certain, and that the annual value of each of such scholarships do not exceed eighty pounds inclusive of rent of rooms and all allowances.

Every Scholarship, including the Scholarship on Bishop Sherlock's Foundation in connection with the Library, shall become vacant when the holder of it is of sufficient standing for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, unless the Master and Fellows shall think fit in cases of special merit to prolong the tenure for a further period not exceeding the time when the holder is of sufficient standing for the degree of Master of Arts.

The Master and Fellows may promote a deserving student from one scholarship to another and in cases of special merit may give two scholarships to the same person and may at their discretion award gratuities out of the Scholarship Fund to poor and deserving students.

The Master and Fellows may deprive a student of his Scholarship or suspend his receipt of the emoluments for a definite time in case of neglect of study, or in case of failure in any University or College examination, or in case of unbecoming or disgraceful conduct, or of absence from residence in College without the permission of the Master and Fellows.

2. The Fund known as the Scholarship Fund shall continue to provide scholarships for open competition.

Scholarships and Exhibitions shall whenever possible be known by the name of the donor or of the person in whose honour the Scholarship or Exhibition is founded.

STATUTE V.

The Tutor, Lecturers, and College Officers.

1. There shall be a Tutor, Bursar, Dean and such additional College Officers and Lecturers as the Master and Fellows shall from time to time deem necessary or useful. Their duties and stipends shall be fixed by the Master and Fellows from time to time.

The election to these offices shall be made by the Master and Fellows at the end of the Easter Term, to take effect at the beginning of the following Michaelmas Term, but in cases of emergency and at the election of a new Fellow a vacancy can be temporarily filled until the proper time for the next election.

Such temporary service shall not be counted in fixing dates for retirement or pension.

2. A Tutor shall in the first instance be appointed for a period of three years, at the end of which period the Master and Fellows may prolong his term from time to time, but no prolongation shall be for more than seven years at a time.

3. Any other College Officer or Lecturer may be appointed for a period not exceeding seven years, at the end of which period the Master and Fellows may prolong his term from time to time, but no prolongation shall be for more than seven years at a time, and no person shall hold any office or series of offices under the College for more than thirty-five years in all.

4. The Master and Fellows shall determine the fees to be paid by the students of the College for tuition, and shall determine in what proportion the aggregate sum shall be distributed.

STATUTE VI.

Retirement and Pensions.

1. The Master, Tutor, Lecturers and all other College Officers shall retire at the age of sixty-five years, unless the Master and Fellows shall prolong such tenure for a further period which may not in the case of the Master exceed fifteen years, or in other cases exceed five years, and in any event a Tutor shall retire when he has held such office for a period of twenty years (unless the Master and Fellows shall otherwise determine in any special case) and any Lecturer or other College Officer shall retire when he has served the College in one or more capacities for a period of thirty-five years.

2. A pension scheme shall be arranged with an Insurance Company of good repute, and the Master, Tutor, Lecturers and College Officers shall become entitled to pensions under it when they respectively have to retire under the foregoing clause or on account of ill health. The amounts of the pensions shall be fixed by the Master and Fellows acting under the advice of such Insurance Company. To provide the funds for such pensions there shall be deducted from the stipends and dividends such sum as the Master and Fellows, acting upon such advice, may from time to time determine, and in addition the whole or part of the Burrell Fund shall be applied for this purpose. A pensioner may commute his pension for a lump sum to be determined by the Master and Fellows acting on the advice of the Insurance Company.

This statute does not apply to a Professorial Fellow.

STATUTE VII.

College Finances and Audit.

1. Subject to any special directions of the Master and Fellows the moneys payable to the Tuition Fund and the Caution Fund shall be received by the Tutor and these Funds shall be managed by him. The Master and Fellows shall from time to time determine what sums students shall contribute to these funds.

All other moneys shall, subject to any special directions of the Master and Fellows, be received by the Bursar, and placed to an account at some Bank at Cambridge. The Bursar or such other persons as may be appointed by the Master and Fellows shall make the proper payments out of the various funds. The revenues of specific trust funds shall be kept separate from the revenues which contribute to the College Stock or are applicable for maintaining the establishment.

2. Before declaring the dividend in any year, all things shall be done and paid which are required to be done and paid by the Statutes of the College, or by the Statutes of the University or by the ancient and approved customs of the College, or by the unrepealed ordinances contained in wills, indentures, or writings of what kind soever, or by any other lawful ordinance; and a sufficient sum of money shall be applied or reserved for repairing, rebuilding, enlarging or ornamenting the buildings of the College, for defraying the expenses of managing the College property, and for any other purpose which the Master and Fellows may deem to be necessary or advantageous to the College as a place of education, religion, learning and research. The sums payable to the University and administrative expenses shall so far as possible be debited pro rata against the various revenues and incomes in relation to which it is assessed.

Subject as aforesaid the yearly income of the College shall be divided and distributed among the Master and Fellows as follows, viz., to every Fellow such sum as the Master and Fellows shall fix for the dividend of the year being not greater than two hundred and fifty pounds free of income tax, exclusive of rooms and commons, and to the Master a sum equal to twice such dividend; unless he shall not hold the Canonry at Norwich, in which event the Master shall receive a sum equal to four times such dividend. Both the dividend and also the stipend and other fixed pecuniary emoluments of the Master, Fellows, and College Officers, shall be considered as accruing from day to day and shall be apportionable accordingly.

3. The College shall pay in every year to the University the sum authorized by the Statutes of the University made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, to be levied from the College.

4. If at any time it shall appear to the Master and Fellows that the revenues of the College are greater than the amount required to afford to every Fellow a dividend of two hundred and fifty pounds a year free of income tax, exclusive of rooms and commons, they may submit to the Visitor a scheme, approved by a majority of the whole body of Master and Fellows, for increasing the number of Fellowships or Scholarships or for providing a Fund for granting gratuities to poor and deserving members of the College in statu pupillari, or for applying the surplus in some other way for the benefit of the College or of the University, and the said Scheme, if approved by the Visitor shall thenceforth have the same force and effect as if it formed part of these statutes.

The Visitor shall not approve any scheme for diminishing the number of Fellowships below the minimum number prescribed by these statutes.

5. There shall be an annual audit of all the College accounts on a date as near as possible to St. Catharine's day. Prior to this the accounts shall be audited by two Auditors, one of whom shall be a Fellow and the other a Professional Accountant appointed by the Master and Fellows. The Auditors shall inspect all books and vouchers, ascertain the balances due, and shall be given all such information and explanations they may require, and shall make a report stating that they have examined the accounts and whether they are correct, and calling attention to any matters which they think should be considered by the Master and Fellows. An abstract of the accounts in a form approved by the Master and Fellows together with a copy of the Auditors' report shall be circulated to the Master and Fellows at least seven days before the College Meeting at which the audit is to be held. At such meeting the Master and Fellows shall consider the accounts and if satisfactory approve them, but they may if they think fit require the production of any books or vouchers and further information and explanation from the Bursar or any other accountable party.

6. An abstract of the several accounts of the College relating to funds administered for general purposes, or in trust, or otherwise, shall be sent on or before the 31st day of December in each year to the Vice-Chancellor of the University for publication. The abstract shall be made as nearly as practicable in the form contained in the Schedule attached to these Statutes. An account of the receipts and disbursements of money, if any, raised under the borrowing powers of the College shall be sent yearly at the same time to the Vice-Chancellor for publication.

7. No alteration in the specific sums mentioned in these Statutes shall be made in consequence of any change in the value of money or for any other reason, except by Statute made in accordance with the provisions of the fifty-fourth and fifty-fifth sections of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

STATUTE VIII.

Divine Services, Presentation to Benefices and Sale of Advowsons.

1. Whereas by the fifth and sixth sections of the Universities Tests Act, 1871, it is enacted as follows:—

"The Governing Body of every College subsisting at the time of the passing of this Act in any of the said Universities shall provide sufficient religious instruction for all members thereof in statu pupillari belonging to the Established Church.

"The morning and evening prayer according to the order of the Book of Common Prayer shall continue to be used daily as heretofore in the Chapel of every College subsisting at the time of the passing of this Act in any of the said Universities, but notwithstanding anything contained in the statute thirteenth and fourteenth Charles the Second, chapter four, or in this Act, it shall be lawful for the Visitor of any such College, on the request of the Governing Body thereof, to authorize from time to time in writing the use on weekdays only of any abridgement or adaptation of the said morning and evening prayer in the Chapel of such College instead of the order set forth in the Book of Common Prayer."

The Master and Fellows shall, if necessary, provide stipends from the revenues of the College for persons whom they may appoint to carry out these provisions, and shall also make such regulations as they may deem expedient for the due celebration of Divine Service and for the due maintenance of religious worship and discipline.

2. In presenting to the several Benefices in the patronage of the College the Master and Fellows shall have regard, in the first instance, to the Master and Fellows, the Officers, former Fellows and Officers, and former Scholars of the College, but it shall not be necessary to present any of these persons, and none of them shall have any claim to the presentation to any such benefice on the ground of seniority or on any other ground whatsoever.

3. Any advowson may be sold if a majority of the Master and Fellows present at a College Meeting so resolve, and so that as regards the safety and protection of the purchaser the recital in the deed of conveyance of a resolution in that behalf having been duly made at a College Meeting shall be conclusive that the sale was in fact authorized. The net purchase money arising from the sale of any advowson shall be placed to the credit of the Pension Fund.

STATUTE IX

Preservation of Interests and Repeal.

1. The interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of such of the Master and Fellows as were elected before the 21st day of June 1920 shall be regulated by the Statutes in force before the approval of these Statutes by the King in Council, provided that any of such Master and Fellows may within one year after the said approval of these Statutes signify to the Master and Fellows by writing under his hand that he wishes to be placed under the operation of these Statutes, and his interests and the conditions of tenure of his emolument shall be thenceforth governed by these Statutes, and shall accordingly be the same as if these Statutes had been in operation at the date of his election to such emolument, and his past services, if any, in the College or University office shall be of the same avail as if they had been services under these Statutes, but so that in no case shall his rights in respect of a pension be diminished.

2. The Statutes of the College confirmed by Order of the Queen in Council, May 3rd 1882 are hereby repealed, save and except so far as regards the interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of any person who before the confirmation of these Statutes became a member of the College, or before the 21st day of June 1920 was elected to a University or College emolument within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, but the repeal of the said Statutes shall not be taken to revive the provisions of any former Statutes of the College which were repealed by the said Statutes.

A Female Learner is a worker who

(i) Is employed by an employer who provides such Learner with reasonable facilities for practically and efficiently learning the branch or branches of the trade in which the Learner is for the time being employed; and

(ii) Has received a certificate or has been registered in accordance with rules from time to time laid down by the Trade Board, or has made application for such certificate or registration, which has been duly acknowledged and is still under consideration. Provided that the certification or registration of a Learner may be cancelled if the other conditions of learnership are not complied with.

Provided that an employer may employ a Female Learner on her first employment without a certificate or registration for a probation period not exceeding eight weeks, but the probation period shall be included in her period of learnership.

Provided also that notwithstanding compliance with the conditions contained in this Section, a person shall not be deemed to be a Learner if she works in a room used for dwelling purposes, and is not in the employment of her parent or guardian.

SECTION III.—The expression "Homeworker" shall be held to mean a worker who works in her own home or in any other place not under the control or management of the employer.

PART VI.

The above proposed Minimum Rates of Wages shall apply, subject to the provisions of the Trade Boards Acts, to all workers in Great Britain in respect of all time during which they are employed in any branch of the trade specified in the Trade Board's (Paper Bag Trade) Order, 1919, that is to say, the manufacture from paper (including gauzelined or cloth-lined paper) of any bag or container without a gummed flap, including the operations of packing, parcelling, warehousing, receiving, store-keeping, despatching, time-keeping, lift-operating and cleaning, when these operations are carried on in connection with paper-bag manufacture and including the printing of paper bags when the printing apparatus is attached to the making apparatus, but excluding the manufacture of bags or containers with ungummed flaps (for use in the transmission of printed matter or samples) when made by the same process as gummed envelopes and excluding the manufacture of receptacles from cardboard, such as boxes, cartons or skillets.

PART VII.

SECTION I.—The above proposed Minimum Rates of Wages shall be paid clear of all deductions under the National Insurance Act, 1911, as amended by any subsequent enactments, or deductions authorised by any Act to be made from wages in respect of contributions to any Superannuation or other Provident Fund.

SECTION II.—The above proposed general minimum time rates are without prejudice to workers who are earning higher rates of wages.

The Trade Board will consider any Objections to the above Proposals to Vary which may be lodged with them within two months from the 26th July, 1920. Such Objections should be in writing and signed by the person making the same (adding his or her full name and address), and should be sent to the Secretary, The Paper Bag Trade Board (Great Britain), 5, Chancery Lane, W.C. 2.

It is desirable that the Objections should state precisely, and so far as possible with reasons, what is objected to.

Dated this twenty-fourth day of July, 1920

Signed by Order of the Trade Board.

Secretary.
