

Indemnification and Validation.

29.—(1) No action or other legal proceeding whatsoever, whether civil or criminal, shall be instituted in any Court for or on account of or in respect of any act, matter or thing done in the Territory during the war with Germany, or between the termination of such war and the date of this Order if done in good faith and done or purported to be done in the execution of his duty or for the public safety, or for the enforcement of discipline, or otherwise in the public interest, by a person holding office under or employed in the service of the Crown in any capacity, whether naval, military, air-force, or civil, or by any other person acting under the authority of a person so holding office or so employed; and if any such proceeding has been instituted, whether before or after the date of this Order, it shall be discharged and made void.

(2) For the purpose of this Article a certificate by the Governor that any act, matter or thing was done under the authority of a person so holding office or so employed as aforesaid shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated in the certificate, and any such act, matter or thing done by or under the authority of a person so holding office or so employed as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been done in good faith unless the contrary is proved.

30. Any sentence passed, judgment given, or order made before the date of this Order in the territories comprised in the Territory, by any military Court (other than a Court Martial constituted in pursuance of any Statute) in connection with the said war, or by any Court established for the administration of justice in the said territories shall be deemed to be and always to have been valid, and to be and always to have been within the jurisdiction of the Court.

31. All laws, proclamations and other legislative acts made, issued or done before the date of this Order by the authority for the time being administering the said territories for the peace, order or good government thereof shall be deemed to be and always to have been valid and of full effect, notwithstanding that any such legislative act may have repealed or been inconsistent with the law previously in force in the said territories

Removal and Deportation.

32. Where an offender convicted before any Court is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Governor, proceeding under Section 7 of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, authority in that behalf being hereby given to him, considers it expedient that the sentence should be carried into effect outside of the Territory the place shall be a place in some part of His Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

33.—(1) Where it is shown by evidence on oath, to the satisfaction of the Governor, that any person is conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order in the Territory, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of the Territory and His Majesty, or is intriguing against His Majesty's power and authority in the Territory, the Governor may, if he thinks fit, by order under his hand and official seal order that person to be deported from the Territory to such place as the Governor may direct.

(2) The place shall be a place in some part (if any) of His Majesty's dominions to which the person belongs, or the Government of which consents to the reception of persons deported under this Order, or to some place under the protection of His Majesty, or in the country out of His Majesty's Dominions to which that person belongs.

(3) An appeal shall not lie against an order of deportation made under this Article.

(4) If any person deported under this Order returns to the Territory without the permission in writing of the Secretary of State (which permission the Secretary of State may give) he shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for any period not exceeding three months with or without a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees or florins; and he shall also be liable to be again deported forthwith.

(5) The Governor, by order under his hand and official seal, may vary or rescind any order of deportation under this Article.

(6) The Governor shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State every order made by him under this Article, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

34.—(1) Where, under this Order, a person is to be removed or deported from the Territory he shall, by warrant of the Governor under his hand and seal, be detained, if necessary, in custody or in prison, until a fit opportunity for his removal or deportation occurs, and then, if he is to be deported beyond sea, be put on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or, if none is available, then on board some other British or other fit vessel.

(2) The warrant of the Governor shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution, and to the commander or master of the vessel to receive and detain the person therein named, in the manner therein prescribed, and to remove and carry him to the place therein named, according to the warrant.

(3) In case of removal for any purpose other than deportation, the warrant of the Governor shall be issued in duplicate, and the person executing it shall, as soon as practicable after his arrival at the place therein named, deliver, according to the warrant, with one of the duplicates of the warrant, to a constable, or proper officer of police or keeper of a prison, or other proper authority or person there, the person named in the warrant, to be produced on the order of the proper Court or authority there, or to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

35. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, all expenses of removal of prisoners and others, and the expenses of deportation, and of the sending of any person to any part of His Majesty's dominions or Protectorates, including expenses of maintenance, shall be defrayed in such manner as the Secretary of State directs.

Supplementary.

36. All His Majesty's Officers, Civil and Military, and all other the inhabitants of the Territory are hereby required and commanded to be obedient, aiding and assisting unto the Governor and to such person or persons as may from time to time, under the provisions of this Order, administer the Government of the Territory.

37. In this Order the term "the Governor," unless inconsistent with the context, shall in-
