

faciam observari; magistro seu praefecto dicti collegii sive aulae qui pro tempore fuerit, in iis quae ad officium ipsius et statuta collegii praedicti pertinent obtemperabo; honorum, terrarum, possessionum ac reddituum ejusdem collegii conservationem et amplificationem, quantum in me est, procurabo."

The seniority of the Fellows in College shall be determined by the dates of their admission as Fellows, and not by the times of graduation.

Fellows who are Bachelors in Arts, or Law or Surgery shall proceed in due course to the degree of Master in Arts or Law or Surgery, and Fellows who are Bachelors in Medicine shall proceed in due course to the degree of Doctor in Medicine, unless prevented by illness, or other cause approved by the Master and Fellows as sufficient.

8. The Master and Fellows may elect any person, whom they consider it desirable so to distinguish, to be an Honorary Fellow.

Such Honorary Fellow shall not have any voice or authority in the affairs of the College nor be entitled to any dividend or presentation to a Benefice, but he shall enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Master and Fellows may from time to time determine.

The Master and Fellows may at any time terminate the tenure of an Honorary Fellowship.

9. If any Fellow shall pertinaciously disturb the concord or discipline of the College, or shall wilfully violate or neglect to comply with any of the Statutes, it shall be the duty of the Master and Fellows at a College Meeting, on proof of such misconduct, to admonish such Fellow; and if, notwithstanding such admonition, he shall contumaciously persist in such misconduct, the Master may, with the concurrence of the majority of such Fellows, other than the Fellow whose conduct is impugned, as are present at a College Meeting to which all the Fellows shall have been summoned, suspend such Fellow from the enjoyment of his Fellowship for such time as they shall think fit, or deprive him altogether of his Fellowship.

If any Fellow shall be convicted by a Court of competent jurisdiction of any crime, the Master shall, with all convenient speed, summon a Meeting of all the Fellows, exclusive of such Fellow. The Master and Fellows assembled at such meeting may, if they think fit, proceed to investigate the case, and if the fact of such conviction be established, the Master shall, if the majority of those present so determine, deprive such Fellow of his Fellowship and expel him from the College.

If the Master shall in any case think it proper to cause an inquiry to be instituted as to whether or not the conduct of any Fellow has been disgraceful and such as to render him unfit to be a Fellow of the College, or if any two Fellows shall prefer before the Master against any Fellow a charge of disgraceful conduct rendering him unfit in their judgment to be a Fellow of the College; the Master shall summon a meeting of all the Fellows other than the accused and the Fellows, if any, preferring such charge, the Master and Fellows assembled at such meeting shall proceed to investigate the case, giving the accused person an opportunity of being heard in his defence, and if such disgraceful conduct be proved, the Master shall, if the majority of those present so determine, deprive the offending Fellow of his Fellowship and expel him from the College.

In any case of a sentence or suspension or deprivation and expulsion of a Fellow there shall be a right of appeal to the Visitor, who shall have power to annul the sentence or vary it at his discretion.

10. If a Fellow become the Head or a Fellow of any University or of any other College in any University, and if any stipend be attached to such Headship or Fellowship, his Fellowship shall thereupon become ipso facto vacant.

If a Fellow be admitted Master of the College his Fellowship shall thereupon become ipso facto vacant.

If a Fellow be instituted to a benefice in the gift of the College, the clear annual value of which after deducting all legal charges other than the pension if any of a previous incumbent is not less than £400, his Fellowship shall become vacant at the end of one year from the date of presentation.

If a Fellow accept a Professorship to which a Fellowship at another College is attached his Fellowship shall thereupon become ipso facto vacant.

A Fellowship shall also become vacant if the Master and Fellows decide at a meeting called for considering the question that this Fellow has without due cause failed to comply with the conditions attached to his Fellowship.

STATUTE IV.

The Scholars.

1. The Scholars shall be elected by the Master and Fellows without regard to their place of birth or school of education from among the students of the College or of the University, or according to the results of examinations instituted for the purpose from among persons who have not been admitted to the College or to the University; provided that in the case of the latter persons they are not more than nineteen years of age at the time of examination, and that the scholarships awarded to them be not tenable for a longer period than for two years certain, and that the annual value of each of such scholarships do not exceed eighty pounds inclusive of rent of rooms and all allowances.

Every Scholarship, including the Scholarship on Bishop Sherlock's Foundation in connection with the Library, shall become vacant when the holder of it is of sufficient standing for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, unless the Master and Fellows shall think fit in cases of special merit to prolong the tenure for a further period not exceeding the time when the holder is of sufficient standing for the degree of Master of Arts.

The Master and Fellows may promote a deserving student from one scholarship to another and in cases of special merit may give two scholarships to the same person and may at their discretion award gratuities out of the Scholarship Fund to poor and deserving students.

The Master and Fellows may deprive a student of his Scholarship or suspend his receipt of the emoluments for a definite time in case of neglect of study, or in case of failure in any University or College examination, or in case of unbecoming or disgraceful conduct, or of absence from residence in College without the permission of the Master and Fellows.
