The KING has been pleased to issue a Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

GEORGE R.I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, To

Our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir Alfred Tristram Lawrence, Knight, one of the Judges of Our High Court of Justice;

Our Trusty and Well-beloved William Hunter, Esquire (commonly called the Honourable Lord Hunter);

Our Right Trusty and Well-beloved Counsellor Sir Dunbar Plunket Barton, Baronet; and

Our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir William Francis Kyffin Taylor, Knight Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, one of Our Counsel learned in the Law, Greeting!

WHEREAS by an Act passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Our Reign intituled "An Act to restrict the taking of legal proceedings in respect of certain acts and matters done during the War, and provide in certain cases remedies in substitution therefor, and to validate certain proclamations, orders, licences, ordinances, and other laws issued, made, and passed, and sentences, judgments, and orders of certain courts given and made during the War," it is amongst other things enacted in respect of claims for payment or compensation under the said Act that the tribunal for assessing payment or compensation shall in certain cases be the Defence of the Realm Losses Commission, and that "a Judge of the High Court of Justice, or, in cases where the claim is in respect of interference with property or business in Scotland, a Judge of the Court of Session, shall be president of the Defence of the Realm Losses Commission, which Commission shall hereafter be styled and known as the War Compensation Court":

And whereas vacancies have occurred in the said Commission which We deem it fitting to supply:

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorized and appointed and do by these Presents authorize and appoint you the said Sir Alfred Tristram Lawrence to be President of the Defence of the Realm Losses Commission, hereafter to be known as the War Compensation Court; you the said William Hunter (commonly called Lord Hunter) to be President of the said Commission or Court in cases where the claim is in respect of interference with property or business in Scotland; and you the said Sir Dunbar Plunket Barton and Sir William Francis Kyffin Taylor to be members of the said Commission or Court, in addition to the members of the Commission who still hold office in virtue of their appointment by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual bearing date the Eighteenth day of December, One thousand nine hundred and eighteen.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral the Eighth day of September, 1920, in the Eleventh Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.
