

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Sampson, otherwise Golant, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Frank Parkyn, of Penquite, Par, in the said County of Cornwall, Esquire:

"And whereas the said Frank Parkyn is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Sampson, otherwise Golant, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said Diocese of Truro:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Frederic Sumpter Guy, now Bishop of Truro, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Frederic Sumpter Guy, Bishop of Truro, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Saint Sampson, otherwise Golant, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same Benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the Parish of Saint Sampson, otherwise Golant:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frank Parkyn (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederic Sumpter Guy, Bishop of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Sampson, otherwise Golant, now vested in him, the said Frank Parkyn, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Frederic Sumpter Guy, Bishop of Truro, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Sumpter Guy, Bishop of Truro, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Truro.
