

Office, might be printed containing the principal regulations and the supplemental regulations, and that in such print the supplemental regulations other than the Second Schedule should be inserted after regulation 66 of the principal regulations, and should be numbered accordingly:

And whereas the Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations have been printed and numbered in the manner authorized and directed by the said regulations:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that owing to the present state of disorder in Ireland the ordinary law is inadequate for the prevention and punishment of crime and the maintenance of order:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments shall be made in the said Regulations:—

1. Regulation 9AA shall be amended as follows:—

(a) The words "motor spirit" shall be inserted after the word "ammunition" wherever that word occurs; and

(b) the following new subsection shall be inserted at the end of the regulation—

"(5) In this regulation the expression 'motor spirit' has the same meaning as in Part VI of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910."

2. The following new regulation shall be inserted after Regulation 80:—

"80A.—(1) The competent naval or military authority may, where it appears to him to be necessary so to do, with a view to the restoration or maintenance of order in Ireland, make orders regulating, requiring, restricting or prohibiting the carriage of passengers and articles on railways in Ireland.

"(2) An order under this regulation may be made so as to apply either generally in relation to all railway undertakings in Ireland or in relation to any, or any part of a, railway undertaking in Ireland specified in the order, and so as to apply either generally as respects the carriage of all passengers and articles or as respects the carriage of passengers or articles of any class or description specified in the Order.

"(3) For the purpose of enforcing or securing compliance with the provisions of any order made under this regulation the competent naval or military authority may take possession of any railway undertaking or any part thereof, and may take such further or other steps as may in his opinion be necessary or expedient for the said purpose.

"(4) If any person acts in contravention of or fails to comply with the provisions of an order under this regulation he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations."

3. Copies of the Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations, printed under the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office after the date of this Order, may be printed with the additions directed to be made by this Order and with the paragraphs and regulation numbered in accordance with such direction, and those Regulations shall be construed as if they had, at the date of this Order, been made with such additions.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of November, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Representation of the People Acts, 1918 to 1920, power is conferred on His Majesty to make provision for various matters by Order in Council:

And whereas by the Representation of the People Order His Majesty was pleased by Order in Council to make provision for various matters under those Acts:

And whereas by section 40 (2) of the Representation of the People Act, 1918, any Order in Council made thereunder may be revoked or varied as occasion requires by any subsequent Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him by those Acts and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The following Rule shall be substituted for Rule 39 of the Representation of the People Order:—

"39. As respects constituencies in Great Britain—

(a) The Autumn Register for 1920 shall remain in force unless otherwise ordered until the 15th day of April, 1921, and shall be kept published until the coming into force of the next succeeding register;

(b) The Spring Register for 1921 shall come into force on the 15th day of April, 1921, and shall remain in force unless otherwise ordered until the 15th day of October, 1921, and in connection with that register the registration dates shall be, as respects England and Wales, the dates specified in the third column, and as respects Scotland, the dates specified in the fourth column, of Part I. of Schedule X. to this Order."

2. In Rule 41 of the Representation of the People Order the words "the Spring Register, 1921," shall be substituted for the words "the Autumn Register, 1920," and after the word "specified" where it first occurs there shall be inserted the words "as respects England and Wales" and after the word "column" where it first occurs there shall be inserted the words "and as respects Scotland the third column."
