PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 17th day of December, 1920, in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas under an Order in Council by His late Majesty bearing date the 10th day of August, 1909, we were empowered to award new Store Allowances at our discretion subject to the prior sanction of the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury in each case:

“And whereas we are of opinion that Store Allowances should be regulated in the future according to the responsibilities of the duties involved instead of, as hitherto, according to the seniority of the Officers responsible for such stores:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to empower us to award, at our discretion, Store Allowances for charge of one description of Stores at rates not exceeding 1s. a day, 9d. a day or 6d. a day according to the responsi-

1. In respect of persons aged three years or over, whether able to speak English only, Welsh only, or both.

Note.*—In accordance with sub-section (2) of Section one of the Census Act, 1920, no Order in Council can be made requiring the particulars enclosed in brackets to be stated in the Census returns, unless both Houses of Parliament by resolution have approved their inclusion.

bilities involved, and further to grant additional allowances not exceeding 6d. a day to Officers in charge of more than one description of Stores for which separate accounts are rendered, subject to the provisos that no Officer should receive allowances for more than three descriptions of Stores in all and that no allowance should be paid to any Officer above the rank or relative rank of Lieutenant-Commander.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council, to define the limits of a Dockyard Port for the purposes of that Act, and to make regulations in relation to any Dockyard Port for all or any of the purposes in the said Act particularly mentioned, and for such other purposes as from time to time seem necessary with a view to the proper protection of His Majesty's vessels,
