UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT, 1920.

Whereas application has been made to the Minister for a decision on the question whether the employment of a person to attend to the heating and lighting apparatus of a mansion house and to work in the garden attached to the said mansion house is such employment as to make that person an employed person within the meaning of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920:

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the power conferred on him by Section 10 of the said Act, decides that the said employment is not such as to make the said person an employed person within the meaning of the said Act.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Labour, this Tenth day of December, in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty.
