WHEREAS by the Restoration of Order in Ireland Act, 1920, it is provided that where it appears to His Majesty in Council that owing to the existence of a state of disorder in Ireland the ordinary law is inadequate for the prevention and punishment of crime or the maintenance of order, His Majesty in Council may issue regulations under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the restoration and maintenance of order in Ireland, and as to the powers and duties for that purpose of the Lord Lieutenant and the Chief Secretary and of members of His Majesty's Forces and other persons acting on His Majesty's behalf, and in particular regulations for the special purposes thereinafter mentioned:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 13th day of August, 1920, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations under the said Act:

And whereas it was provided by the regulations so made that the principal regulations and the supplemental regulations therein mentioned might be cited collectively as the Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations:

And whereas it was provided by the regulations so made that copies of the Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations, printed under the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office, might be printed containing the principal regulations and the supplemental regulations, and that in such print the supplemental regulations other than the Second Schedule should be inserted after Regulation 66 of the principal regulations, and should be numbered accordingly:

And whereas the Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations have been printed and numbered in the manner authorized and directed by the said regulations:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that owing to the present state of disorder in Ireland the ordinary law is inadequate for the prevention and punishment of crime and the maintenance of order:

And whereas the Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations have been amended by Order in Council made on the 9th day of November, 1920:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said regulations in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments shall be made in the said regulations:—

1. Regulation 9AA shall be amended as follows:—

(a) The words "motor or other cycle" shall be substituted for the words "motor cycle" wherever those words occur, and the words "motor or other cycles" shall be substituted for the words "motor cycles" wherever those words occur.

2. The following new regulation shall be inserted after Regulation 71:—

71A. (1) Where a person charged before a court-martial with a crime or with an offence against these regulations is found guilty and is adjudged to pay a fine but no other penalty is imposed or, whether found guilty or not, is required only to enter into his own recognisances and to find sureties (both or either) then, if permission in that behalf is given by instructions of the Army Council under section fifty-two of the Army Act, the sentence or requirement may, notwithstanding that it has not been confirmed, be pronounced in open court, and in that event the person may be discharged from custody.

(2) When the accused is ordered to be discharged from custody in pursuance of this regulation it shall be the duty of the president of the court to inform him that the sentence or requirement is subject to confirmation, that notice in writing of the confirmation will be sent to him by post, and that the obligation to pay the fine or comply with the requirement will take effect at the time at which the notice would be delivered in the ordinary course of post, and that he will be liable to re-arrest on failure to fulfil such obligation.

79A. (1) If it appears to the competent naval or military authority that for securing the restoration or maintenance of order in Ireland it is expedient so to do, he may by order require any person who is suspected of acting or of having acted or being about to act in a manner prejudicial to the restoration or maintenance of order in Ireland to enter into recognisances with sureties to keep the peace and be of good behaviour before the competent naval or military authority, or other person named in the order, at such time and place as may be specified therein.

(2) Any person who neglects or fails to comply with the requirement of an order under this regulation shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

(3) Any recognisance entered into in pursuance of an order under this regulation shall be deposited with the competent naval or military authority, and the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) of Regulation 71 of these regulations shall apply in the case of any breach of any of the conditions thereof in like manner as they apply in the case of a breach of a condition of a recognisance entered into in pursuance of that regulation.

(a) The following new sub-section shall be inserted after sub-section (2):—

“3. Where an order has been made under this regulation as respects any local authority then until the order has been revoked no appointment of an officer of the local authority shall be made, and no officer of the local authority shall be suspended from duty or removed from office, nor shall the conditions of his employment be altered, without the concurrence of the Local Government Board for Ireland; and for the purposes of this provision an officer of any committee, the members of which are appointed in whole or in part by the local authority, shall be deemed to be an officer of the local authority:

“Provided that in the case of any officer for whose appointment or removal from office the consent or concurrence of the Lord Lieutenant or of any Government Department, other than the Local Government Board for Ireland, is by law required, the foregoing provision shall have effect with the substitution of the Lord Lieutenant or other department, as the case may be, for the Local Government Board for Ireland.

“The requirements of this sub-section shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, the requirements of any other enactment with respect to the appointment, suspension from duty, or removal from office of officers of local authorities.”

(b) Sub-section (3) shall be numbered as sub-section (4).

5. Copies of the Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations printed under the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office after the date of this Order, may be printed with the additions and variations directed to be made by this Order and with the paragraphs and regulations numbered in accordance with such direction, and those regulations shall be construed as if they had at the date of this Order been made with such additions and variations.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 20th day of January, 1921 (N.P. (1) 6651/19), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are, from time to time, directed by Order in Council:

“ And whereas by Your Majesty’s Proclamation of the 3rd August, 1914, pursuant to the Naval Enlistment Act, 1853, Seamen and Marines whose period of engagement, or term of enlistment, had expired, or might expire while the Proclamation remained in force were required to continue serving as Active Service ratings:

“ And whereas we are of opinion that men who completed the qualifying period of Service for the award of a Long Service Pension or an extended term of engagement or of enlistment after the outbreak of war or who continued in Service although due for pension from a date prior to the outbreak of the War, should be allowed to receive their pensions from the date of completion of such qualifying period, re-engagement or re-enlistment or from 2nd August, 1914, whichever may be the later:

“ And whereas we have had under our consideration the Regulations governing the award of Long Service Pensions to Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men of Your Majesty’s Royal Navy and Royal Marines, and are of opinion that they should be amended in certain particulars:

“ And whereas since the outbreak of the War several changes in these Regulations have from time to time been deemed desirable, and have, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury, been introduced:

“ And whereas we are of opinion that, owing to the altered economic conditions arising from the War, and for other reasons, the scale of Long Service Pensions should be substantially increased, and that Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men of Your Majesty’s Royal Navy and Royal Marines should be pensioned on the same scale:

“ And whereas by Her late Majesty’s Order in Council of 28th June, 1892, it was ordained that the number of Greenwich Hospital Age and Increased Age Pensions of £7 12s. and £13 12s. a year, respectively, in force at any one time shall be such a number as may be expedient, having regard to the funds available for the purpose:

“ And whereas the funds of Greenwich Hospital are insufficient to provide for every deserving Naval life pensioner on reaching the prescribed ages, and we are of opinion that these funds should be supplemented from Naval funds in order that every eligible life pensioner of good character may be granted the Age and Increased Age Pension on reaching the qualifying ages, irrespective of the period he may have been borne on the Pension Rolls:

“ We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorize us to award pensions and gratuities at the rates and subject to the conditions specified in the Schedule annexed hereto.

“ The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.

“ SCHEDULE.

“(1) Award of Long Service Pensions.

“ Seamen, men of the Coast Guard and Marines who, since the outbreak of the War, have completed the necessary qualifying period of Service, or a third or subsequent engagement, or term of enlistment, may, if they so desire, be allowed to receive payment of the pension earned up to the date of such completion, provided that such date be not earlier than 2nd August, 1914, and subject to the recovery of any detained or extension pay that may have been issued during the period for which payment of the pension is allowed.

“ The pension in question to be payable in addition to Active Service rates of pay, and the provision of Article 1934 of the King’s Regulations and Admiralty Instructions making the award of the pension dependent on discharge to be regarded as inoperative.

“(2) Increased basic rate and abolition of maximum rates as from 1st October, 1917.

“(a) The basic rate of pension allowable to Seamen on completion of 22 years’ pensionable service to be increased from tenpence to elevenpence per day as from 1st October, 1917, and the limitation of maximum rate for service, badges, medal and character to one shilling and twopence per day to be removed as from the aforesaid date. These advantages to be also applicable, as from the same date, to all Seamen pensioners then on the Pension Rolls who had been required to render 22 years’ service for the award of a Long Service Pension.

“(b) The maximum rates of pension allowable to Marines under Articles 1197 and 1198 of the Regulations for the Government of Your Majesty’s Naval Service to be removed as from 1st October, 1917, and, when more advantageous than the previous scale, increases of pension in respect of pensioner service during the War may be granted as from that date at the following rates:—

“ Classes V. and VI.—One halfpenny a day for each year, up to a maximum of fivepence.

“ Classes I. to IV.—One penny a day for each year, up to a maximum of ninepence.

“ These concessions, in so far as they are applicable, may also be granted to Marine Pensioners who were on the Pension Rolls on the aforesaid date.

“(c) The grant of the advantages laid down in Clauses (a) and (b) hereof to be subject to the condition that pensioner service rendered subsequent to 30th September, 1917, and while drawing pay and pension concurrently, shall not confer any claim to further increase of pension.

“ Provided always that pensioners who have served during the War may retain any rights to which they were entitled under Regulations hitherto in force, in lieu of those arising from the foregoing concessions, when that course would be to their advantage.

“(3) Improved Pension Scale as from 1st April, 1919.

“ As from 1st April, 1919, Seamen and Marines to be pensioned on the same scale: Colour Sergeants and above counting time as Chief Petty Officers: Sergeants as Petty Officers: Corporals and Bombardiers, also Gunners, Privates, Musicians and Buglers after five years’ service on the recognised establishment of a Divisional or Depot Band, as leading Seamen: other Marines as Able Seamen.

“ The basic rate of a Long Service Pension to be three halfpence a day for each complete year of service: the allowance for Good Conduct Badges to be increased to one penny a day for each, up to a maximum of three: and the addition for Good Conduct Medal to be twopence a day instead of the one penny hitherto allowed. The rate for a continuous record of 'V.G.' character throughout service, and the Petty time allowances for Chief Petty Officer, Petty Officer, and leading rate service to be on the same scale as heretofore. All service in leading rate to reckon as inferior Petty time, and Officers' Stewards and Cooks to be allowed to count time for Pension and Medal from the age of 18, instead of 20.

"As from the aforesaid date, the pensions of men who have served during the War, or who, being under the age of 55 on the outbreak of hostilities and, therefore, liable for service, were exempted from mobilisation for the purpose of continuing in their civilian employment under the Government, to be reassessed on the foregoing scale. This concession to be subject to the condition that mobilised pensioner service subsequent to 31st March, 1919, will not reckon towards further increase of pension. Men whose pensions have been assessed or reassessed under the conditions of Section 2 of this Schedule may, when to their advantage, be allowed to count time served subsequent to 30th September, 1917, and prior to 1st April, 1919, for purposes of re-assessment under this increased scale, subject to the recovery of the sum paid between the foregoing dates in excess of the amount that would have been payable under the Regulations previously in force.

"(4) Greenwich Hospital Age and Increased Age Pensions.

"The Greenwich Hospital funds available for the payment of these pensions may be supplemented from Naval funds with a view to all eligible pensioners being granted these pensions as from the date on which the prescribed ages are attained, or from 1st April, 1919, if later. The men eligible for these pensions to be those referred to in Article 1961 of the King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, and the conditions therein laid down, so far as they are applicable, to still apply, with the exception of the proviso requiring men to have been on the Pension Rolls for certain periods of time, and also of that suspending payment when men are in workhouses.

"(5) Long Service and Good Conduct Medal.

"The Regulations which admit of the award of the Medal on the completion of fifteen years with continuous 'Very Good' character, and with previous character not inferior to 'Good,' in service reckoning for pension, to be so amended as to admit of the grant on the completion of 18 years of continuous 'Very Good' character, when men are disqualified for the award under the ordinary Regulations.

"(6) Good Conduct Gratuity.

"The new scale of Gratuity introduced by Your Majesty's Order in Council of 17th May, 1920, to be applicable subject to the conditions therein laid down, to all ratings who are eligible for, and are awarded, the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal, with the following exceptions:—

(b) Men entered prior to 1st January, 1885, who were awarded the Medal without Gratuity under former Regulations.

"(7) Payment of Good Conduct Gratuity on promotion, to Commissioned or Warrant rank.

"Notwithstanding any provision to the con-

"This concession to be granted to all men promoted on or after 2nd August, 1914, and retrospective effect to be given in the cases of all Commissioned and Warrant Officers who have served during the War and are in possession of the Good Conduct Medal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein according to:

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st day of January, 1921 (N.P. (4) 1432/20), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service preclude time served by men in the various branches of the Home Naval Reserve forces from counting for Naval or Marine Pension, except as regards men of the Royal Fleet Reserve, who are allowed to count mobilised service under the Royal Fleet Reserve Regulations if they re-enter the Royal Navy or Royal Marines:

"And whereas we are of opinion that former members of the Royal Naval Reserve, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve and Royal Naval Auxiliary Sick Berth Reserve who may be allowed to enter the Royal Navy or the Royal Marines as Active Service ratings should also be allowed, at our discretion, to count their previous mobilised service as Reservists for all Naval purposes:

"And whereas we are also of opinion that provision should be made for previous service in Your Majesty's Royal Air Force to count towards Naval or Marine Pension, and towards the acquisition of Good Conduct Badges, in the event of ex-members of that force being allowed to join the Royal Navy or Royal Marines:

"And whereas the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Royal Naval Reserve provide for the counting of mobilised service of members of that Reserve as double time for purposes of Royal Naval Reserve Pension, which is a privilege not extended to any other branch of Your Majesty's Naval Service:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction:—

"(1) The counting for all Naval purposes, at our discretion, of mobilised war service rendered by members of the Royal Naval Reserve, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve and Royal Naval Auxiliary Sick Berth Reserve, who may be allowed subsequently to engage for service in the Royal Navy or Royal Marines, subject generally to former service being acknowledged on joining the Royal Naval or Royal Marines and entry taking place within five years of discharge from active service, and as regards pension to the conditions governing the counting of previous Army Service as prescribed in Your Regulations for the Government of Your Naval Service, except that no restriction be placed on the period of actual mobilised service that may be allowed to count, and with the proviso that the mobilised service of ex-members of the Royal Naval Reserve shall not count double for this purpose.

"(2) The counting towards Naval or Marine Pension and towards the acquisition of Good Conduct Badges, in the event of subsequent entry into the Royal Navy or Royal Marines, of previous service in the Royal Air Force under the conditions applicable to the reckoning of previous Army Service, as laid down in the Regulations for the Government of Your Majesty's Naval Service.

"(3) The application of these provisions to all men affected thereby who may have entered the Royal Navy or Royal Marines since the outbreak of the Great War.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 2nd day of February, 1921 (C.W. 20617/20), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 11th day of February, 1913, to approve of Sub-Lieutenants on the Emergency List of the Royal Navy being promoted to the rank of Lieutenant at our discretion after attaining three years' seniority, and further, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 5th day of July, 1918, to approve of Sub-Lieutenants on the Retired List of the Royal Navy being eligible for the rank of Lieutenant on completing two years' service after being 'called out' including previous service as Sub-Lieutenant:

"And whereas, by His late Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 7th day of March, 1904, it is provided (inter alia) that Paymaster Lieutenant-Commanders retired from that rank for causes other than that of misconduct with not less than four years' seniority at the time of retirement (then styled Staff Paymasters) may be granted at our discretion one step in rank from a date not earlier than that on which they would have been advanced had they remained on the active list:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Schedule V, Section I of Your Order in Council bearing date the 22nd day of January, 1920, to approve (inter alia) of the following alterations in the rules regarding promotion with effect from 1st July, 1919:—

(i) Paymaster Sub-Lieutenants to be promoted to Paymaster Lieutenants on attaining 2 years' seniority instead of 4, if their service has been satisfactory.

Paymaster Lieutenants, whose service has been satisfactory, to be automatically promoted to Paymaster Lieutenant-Commander on attaining 8 years' seniority, subject to passing the necessary examination where required to do so under the regulations.

(ii) Surgeon Lieutenants to be eligible for promotion after 6 years instead of 8 as at present.

(iii) Instructor Lieutenants to be promoted to Instructor Lieutenant-Commander after 6 years instead of 8 as at present.

"And whereas we consider that the principle of assimilating as far as possible the conditions of service and advancement of the various Branches, which was laid down in that Order in Council, should be extended by laying down one rule for the grant of a step in rank after retirement or resignation to Sub-Lieutenants on both the Retired and the Emergency Lists, by providing that Paymaster Sub-Lieutenants placed on the Retired and Emergency Lists shall be eligible for advancement under similar conditions, by making provision for the grant of a step in rank to all Paymaster Lieutenant-Commanders on the Retired List, irrespective of their seniority on retirement, under the conditions at present prescribed for Paymaster Lieutenant-Commanders of four years' seniority and upwards, and by providing for the grant to Paymaster Lieutenants, Surgeon Lieutenants and Instructor Lieutenants placed on the Retired and Emergency Lists after the 1st July, 1919, of a step in rank under the conditions introduced with effect from that date for the advancement of Officers of similar ranks on the Active List:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to approve the Regulations contained in the attached Schedule.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.

" SCHEDULE.

" Advancement of Officers of the Royal Navy on the Retired and Emergency Lists.

" 1. Sub-Lieutenants (including Acting Lieutenants) on the Retired and Emergency Lists to be eligible, at the discretion of the Admiralty, for promotion to the rank of Lieutenant:

(a) on completion of two years' service after being called out, including service prior to retirement or resignation, or

(b) on attaining three years' seniority, whichever is the earlier date.

" 2. The above rule to have retrospective effect to cover the cases of Sub-Lieutenants who have been retired or placed on the Emergency List since the beginning of the war, but no promotion or antedating of promotion granted under this provision to carry any increase of pay or allowances in respect of re-employment prior to the 17th November, 1920.

" 3. All Paymaster Lieutenant-Commanders on the Retired List with less than four years' seniority on retirement to be eligible equally with Paymaster Lieutenant-Commanders of four years' seniority and upwards for promotion to the rank of Paymaster Commander at the discretion of the Admiralty, provided that such step in rank be not granted sooner than it would have been obtainable on the Active List.

" 4. Paymaster Sub-Lieutenants placed on the Retired and Emergency Lists subsequently to 1st July, 1919, to be eligible at the discretion of the Admiralty, for promotion to the rank of Paymaster Lieutenant under the conditions laid down for Sub-Lieutenants in Clause I.

" 5. Paymaster Lieutenants placed on the Retired and Emergency Lists subsequently to 1st July, 1919, to be eligible at the discretion of the Admiralty, for promotion to the rank of Paymaster Lieutenant-Commander on attaining 8 years' seniority if their records are satisfactory, subject to their having passed the necessary examination for the corresponding rank on the Active List where required to do so by the Regulations.

" 6. Surgeon Lieutenants placed on the Retired and Emergency Lists subsequently to the 1st July, 1919, to be eligible, at the discretion of the Admiralty, for promotion to the rank of Surgeon Lieutenant-Commander on attaining 6 years' seniority, if they are recommended by the Director-General of the Medical Department of the Navy and have served two years at sea.

" 7. Instructor Lieutenants placed on the Retired and Emergency Lists subsequently to the 1st July, 1919, to be eligible at the discretion of the Admiralty for promotion to the rank of Instructor Lieutenant-Commander on attaining 6 years' seniority."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 4th day of February, 1921 (No. 15 N.P. (1) 393), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the 20th day of November, 1905, it is directed that all Retired Pay and Pensions of any Commissioned, Commissioned Warrant, or Warrant Officer shall be held only during good behaviour, and that the Admiralty may forfeit the same (if not already forfeited under the Forfeiture Act, 1870), or may suspend the same, conditionally, or unconditionally, and for such time as they may think fit, for any misconduct on the part of such Commissioned, Commissioned Warrant, or Warrant Officer or for any act or habit rendering him in their opinion unworthy to receive the same; such misconduct, act or habit to be judged of solely by the Admiralty; and that the Admiralty shall be empowered at their discretion to restore the said Retired Pay or Pension in whole or part, and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and whether the same has been forfeited under the Forfeiture Act, 1870, or under this Order; and that the above restrictions, conditions and provisions shall apply to all descriptions of such pensions not being pensions for wounds, injuries or disability, of such Commissioned, Commissioned Warrant, and Warrant Officers, including Naval, Travers, and Good Service Pensions and Greenwich Hospital Pensions, Gratuities and Allowances:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council of the 27th day of September, 1918, to authorize us to administer the grant of Pensions for Wounds and Disabilities in the case of Officers of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines under such scales as may be laid down from time to time:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the powers conferred on us by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the 20th day of November, 1905, should be extended to pensions for wounds, injuries or disability granted to Commissioned Officers, Warrant Officers and Subordinate Officers of Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force:

"And whereas Your Majesty's Army Council is similarly empowered in the case of Officers and Men of the Army:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to grant us powers to forfeit, suspend or restore the pensions for wounds, injuries, or disability of all Officers of Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force in all respects similar to those conferred on us in regard to the retired pay and all other descriptions of pensions of such officers.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 1 of the Roads Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted that—

(a) the duties on licences for mechanically-propelled vehicles imposed by Section 13 of the Finance Act, 1920, and the excise duties on carriages imposed by Section 4 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, shall, as from the 1st day of January, 1921, be levied by county councils in accordance with provisions to be made for the purpose by Order in Council; and

(b) subject to the provisions of the Act and of any Order in Council made under the said Section 1 every county council and their officers shall, as from the said 1st day of January, 1921, have within their county for the purpose of levying the duties aforesaid the same powers, duties, and liabilities as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise and their Officers have with respect to duties of excise, and to the issue and cancellation of licences on which duties of excise are imposed, and other matters under the Acts relating to duties of excise and excise licences, and all enactments relating to those duties and to punishments and penalties in connection therewith shall apply accordingly; and

(c) every county council shall, subject to the provisions of any Order in Council made under the said Section 1, have as respects the said duties and licences the powers given by the said Acts relating to duties of excise and excise licences to the Treasury for the restoration or remission of any forfeiture and the mitigation or remission of any penalty or any part thereof:

And whereas by the Act it is further enacted that there shall be paid into the Exchequer in such manner and in accordance with such directions as may be contained in any Order in Council under the Act—

(a) the duties levied by a county council under the said Section 1;

(b) all sums received by a county council

by way of fees for licences granted under Section 3 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, and all penalties recovered in respect of offences under the Motor Car Acts, 1896 and 1903;

(c) all penalties and forfeitures recovered under or in pursuance of the Act whether by a county council or by any other person:

And whereas by the Act it is further enacted that provision may be made by Order in Council under the said Section 1 for enabling the Minister of Transport to give such directions to county councils as he thinks necessary for securing uniformity of administration and otherwise for carrying the provisions of the Act and of any such Order into effect, and that it shall be the duty of county councils to comply with any directions so given:

And whereas by the Act it is further enacted that the expression "county" includes a county borough, and in Scotland a royal, parliamentary, or police burgh containing within its boundaries, as ascertained, fixed, or determined for police purposes, a population according to the census for the time being last taken of and exceeding fifty thousand, and that the expression "county council" shall be construed accordingly:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Him by the said recited enactments, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. (1) This Order may be cited as "The Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Order, 1921."

(2) In this Order expressions have the same meaning as in the Act, and the Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. For the purpose of the exercise and performance by county councils of their powers, duties and liabilities in relation to levying the said duties, the enactments so applied as aforesaid in relation to the said duties shall have effect and shall be deemed as from the 1st day of January, 1921, to have had effect, subject to the following modifications and exceptions:—

(a) Every county council may delegate to such of their officers as they may select any of the powers and duties now exercised or performed by officers of Customs and Excise in relation to duties of excise and excise licences, and any officer so selected shall be subject to the same liabilities as an officer of Inland Revenue or of Customs and Excise, and a county council shall not in relation to the exercise and performance of any of those powers and duties be subject to the authority, direction, or control of the Treasury.

(b) The power to recover duties by means of a warrant of distress or commitment under the Revenue Act, 1869, shall not be exercised by a county council or any officer of a county council.

(c) Any person who is subject to any liability by reason of the failure to comply with any demand or request which may be made by an officer of Customs and Excise in relation to duties of excise and excise licences, or by reason of obstructing, molesting, or hindering any such officer, shall be subject to the same liability in the case of his failure to comply with a similar demand or request made by any officer selected by a county council in relation to the said duties, or in the case of his obstructing, molesting, or hindering an officer so selected.

(d) The notices as to duties and declarations required to be placed and kept affixed under Section 20 of the Revenue Act, 1869, shall, instead of being placed and kept affixed as provided in that Section, be placed and kept affixed by every county council in such places ordinarily used for posting public notices as the council think desirable for the purpose of giving notice to all persons interested.

(e) A county council may as respects the duties levied and licences issued by the council exercise the powers given to the Treasury for the restoration of any forfeiture and the mitigation or remission of any penalty or any part thereof.

(f) Applications for a licence to which this Order refers in respect of any vehicle shall be made to the county council of the county in which such vehicle is ordinarily kept and used or in the case of vehicles not ordinarily kept in any one area to the county council of the county in which the principal place of business of the owner of the vehicles is situate, and the licence for the vehicle shall be issued only by some officer authorized by such county council. Provided that the owner of any vehicle in respect of which a licence has been issued to him may, not later than 14 days after the expiration of such licence, apply for a further licence to, and such further licence may be issued by, such officers of the Post Office as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

3. (1) The duty on any licence for carriages (not being mechanically-propelled vehicles) in respect of which an allowance and repayment is required to be made under the proviso to Section 23 of the Revenue Act, 1869, shall be allowed and repaid by the council of the county in which the further duty therein referred to is paid.

(2) The county council shall if so directed by the Minister make any other repayment in connection with the said duties, and any such directions may apply either generally to all county councils or to particular county councils, and either generally to any class of claims or to particular classes of such claims.

(3) Subject as aforesaid, all repayments in connection with the said duties whether under paragraph 6 of the Second Schedule to the Finance Act, 1920, or otherwise shall be made by the Minister.

(4) The county council by which any such repayment has been made shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the Minister the sums properly expended by the council in respect of the repayment.

4. (1) Every county council shall forthwith pay the proceeds of the said duties and all other sums received by the council, whether in composition for any penalty or forfeiture or otherwise, which are payable into the Exchequer by virtue of the Act, to the credit of an account to be opened under the title "Motor Tax Account" in the name of the Minister at the Bank at which the council keeps its other accounts, and all sums standing to such account shall on the instructions of the Minister be remitted from time to time to the "Motor Tax Account" at the Bank of England hereinafter referred to.

(2) An account under the title "Motor Tax Account" shall be opened in the name of the Minister at the Bank of England. For the purpose only of paying to the Minister such sums as he may from time to time certify as being required for the satisfaction of claims for repayment in connection with the said duties or any of them including the sums required for the reimbursement to county councils of the amounts paid by them in connection with such repayments, payments may be made out of the said account on the joint signature of two officers authorized by the Minister and the Treasury respectively.

(3) The Postmaster-General shall pay the amount of the duties received by him in respect of licences for carriages and vehicles issued at Post Offices to the credit of the Motor Tax Account at the Bank of England at such convenient times as may be arranged by him with the Minister, and shall from time to time certify to the Minister the total amount of duties collected in respect of each description of licence and the amounts due and paid by him to the Motor Tax Account. The Postmaster-General may if he thinks fit vary such certificate. Any certificate of the Postmaster-General shall, subject to any variations which may be made by a subsequent certificate, be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

(4) Any sums received by a Justice's Clerk or Clerk of petty sessions in respect of penalties or forfeitures which by the Act are to be paid into the Exchequer shall be remitted to the Secretary of State for the Home Department in England and Wales, or the King's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer in Scotland, or the Registrar of Petty Sessions Clerks in Ireland (with a return in such form as may from time to time be directed by the Treasury), and shall be transferred by those officers to the Motor Tax Account at the Bank of England.

(5) At such times in each year as the Treasury and the Minister may direct the Bank of England shall transfer to the Exchequer Account the balance standing to the credit of the Motor Tax Account fractions of one thousand pounds being for this purpose neglected and carried forward in the Motor Tax Account.

5. Every county council shall keep such accounts and make such returns in relation to the said duties and other sums payable into the Motor Tax Account in such form and at such times and verified in such manner, and shall submit the same to audit in such manner and at such times as the Minister may direct.

6. (i) The Minister may give such directions to county councils as he thinks necessary for securing uniformity of administration and otherwise for carrying out the provisions of the Act and this Order, and may from time to time vary or revoke such directions, and county councils shall conform to any directions so given.

(ii) The Minister shall cause to be printed and provided the forms of licences and of applications for the same, and of declarations, notices, returns, books of account and other documents required by regulations under the Act, or otherwise by law required with respect to any matter to which this Order relates.

7. The Order in Council, dated the 19th day of October, 1908 (Statutory Rules and Orders, 1908, No. 844), and made under the Finance

Act, 1908, so far as the same relates to duties on carriages, and the Motor Car Licence Duties (Ireland) Collection Order, 1910 (Statutory Rules and Orders, 1910, No. 843), and made under the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, shall cease to have effect on and from the 1st day of January, 1921.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 2nd day of December, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Heworth in the County of Durham and in the Diocese of Durham:

"Whereas one moiety of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Heworth is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Walter Henry, Baron Northbourne, (hereinafter called 'the said Lord Northbourne') and the other moiety of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the same Benefice is vested in Alfred Chaytor, of Iridge Place, Hurst Green, in the County of Sussex, Esquire:

"And whereas the said Lord Northbourne and the said Alfred Chaytor are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Heworth, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said Diocese of Durham:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Herbert Hensley, now Bishop of Durham, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Herbert Hensley, Bishop of Durham, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

" And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Heworth which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same Benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Heworth:

" Now, therefore, with the consents of the said Lord Northbourne and of the said Alfred Chaytor (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Herbert Hensley, Bishop of Durham, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Heworth, now vested in them the said Lord Northbourne and the said Alfred Chaytor as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Herbert Hensley, Bishop of Durham, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Herbert Hensley, Bishop of Durham, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in

" Whereas under and by virtue of the several Indentures particulars whereof are set forth in the Schedule hereunder written, the lands, tenements and hereditaments situate in the Parish of Echinswell aforesaid and particularly described in the same Indentures and Schedule became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us:

" And whereas none of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments is subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but the same are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed:

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said several indentures or any of them, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (Session 2), Chapter 26, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 2nd day of December, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (Session 2), Chapter 26, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for providing the Bishop of Chester and the Dean of Chester with more convenient houses of residence:

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Henry Luke, now Bishop of Chester, and it has been made to appear to us that the Episcopal House of Residence at Chester belonging to the See of Chester and known and hereinafter referred to as The Palace, is expensive to maintain and undesirable for use as such episcopal residence:

"And whereas in the circumstances hereinbefore set forth it appears to us to be expedient and likely to conduce to the permanent benefit of the See of Chester that the sale of The Palace with the appurtenances thereto belonging should be effected in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chester and the said Henry Luke, Bishop of Chester, have represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the house and premises now known as No. 9, Abbey Square, Chester, belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Chester should be made the Deanery or Decanal House of Residence for the Dean of the said Cathedral Church and that the house and premises heretofore occupied in the Deanery should be sold and conveyed so as to become the new Episcopal House of Residence for the See of Chester in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Henry Luke, Bishop of Chester, (in testimony of which consent he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chester, (in testimony whereof they have caused their common or corporate seal to be affixed to this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

"That The Palace with its appurtenances may be sold for such price or prices and at such time or times and in such manner as shall be approved by us and be transferred and conveyed to any purchaser or purchasers by an assurance or assurances to be made in manner and form approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our Common Seal and that all moneys received by or on account of the said house and premises and the appurtenances thereto belonging or of any part thereof shall be paid over to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall be held by us and applied for the purposes and in the manner next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, first, in defraying all costs charges and expenses of and incidental to the sale of The Palace, Secondly in paying off the balance of a principal sum of £500 and the interest thereon secured by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty by a Mortgage dated the 7th July, 1909, and made by the then Bishop of Chester in respect of improvements at The Palace, and Thirdly in defraying the cost of providing in such manner and at such times as shall be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, another episcopal residence with the appurtenances thereto for the Bishop of Chester.

"And we further recommend and propose that the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Chester be authorized to make the said house and premises known as No. 9, Abbey Square, Chester, the Deanery or Decanal House of Residence of the Dean of the said Cathedral Church and to sell the house and premises heretofore occupied as the Deanery for the purpose of its being constituted the new Episcopal Residence for the Bishop of Chester upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the said Dean and Chapter and the said Henry Luke, Bishop of Chester, or other the Bishop of Chester for the time being and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the proceeds of sale of the said Deanery after the payment thereof of the costs charges and expenses of and incident to the sale and the provision thereof of such sum as may be approved by us for expenditure upon improvements effected at the house known as No. 9, Abbey Square, Chester, upon its being so constituted the Decanal House of Residence as aforesaid, be held by us on behalf of the said Dean and Chapter of Chester upon the trusts and for the purposes upon and for which the said house No. 9, Abbey Square, Chester, is now held by the said Dean and Chapter.

"And we further recommend and propose that as soon as the above mentioned new Episcopal residence shall have been provided the said Henry Luke, Bishop of Chester, or his successors, shall at his or their personal charge and expense insure and keep insured from loss or damage by fire the same residence with the outbuildings and appurtenances, such insurance being effected in one of the public offices of Assurance in London or Westminster for such a sum as may be determined by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that such Bishop shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become payable deliver to us the receipt for the same and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said residence any, and every, sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied and we recommend and propose that the same together with any interest and accumulations thereof shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said residence or any part thereof which may have so suffered loss and damage in such manner as shall be determined on by us with the concurrence of the said Bishop of Chester for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 18th day of November, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Stevington, in the County of Bedford and in the Diocese of Saint Albans:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Stevington is vested for an estate in fee simple in certain Trustees upon trust in the first place for the Right Honourable Arthur Oliver Villiers, Baron Amptill, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., during his life and the said Arthur Oliver Villiers, Baron Amptill, is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Arthur Oliver Villiers, Baron Amptill, is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Stevington should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Michael Bolton, now Bishop of Saint Albans, and his successors in the same Bishopric:

"And whereas the said Michael Bolton, Bishop of Saint Albans, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Michael Bolton,

Bishop of Saint Albans, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Stevington which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same Benefice more eligible for augmentation out of Funds under our control, and this circumstance will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the Parish of Stevington:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Arthur Oliver Villiers, Baron Ampthill, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106 (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Michael Bolton, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Stevington shall be transferred to the said Michael Bolton, Bishop of Saint Albans, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Michael Bolton, Bishop of Saint Albans, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of St. Albans.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if one only of the said two Benefices shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the united Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of his Benefice and the then Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall be the first Incumbent of the united Benefice; and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of either of the said two Benefices if the Incumbent at that time of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the united Benefice; but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his Benefice and the then Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall become the first Incumbent of the united Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Wallington shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the united Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Rushden and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds to arise from such sale shall constitute and form part of the fund created by the thirteenth section of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"All which we do hereby certify and do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been published locally in the manner prescribed in the Statutory Rules made under the said Act and also transmitted in the manner so prescribed to the patrons affected, together with a Notice in each case requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sneinton is vested in the Right Honourable Charles William Sydney, Earl Manvers (hereinafter called 'the said Lord Manvers'), during his life, and the said Lord Manvers is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Lord Manvers is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sneinton should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edwyn, now Bishop of Southwell, and his successors in the same Bishopric:

"And whereas the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Sneinton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the Parish of Sneinton:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Lord Manvers, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106, (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sneinton shall be transferred to the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwell.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late

Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 16th day of December, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘the said Benefice’) of Wormhill, in the County of Derby and in the Diocese of Southwell:

“Whereas by virtue of an Order of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, dated the 4th day of April, 1919, the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Wormhill is vested in the Southwell Diocesan Finance Association as Trustees, and by the same Order it is provided that the said Southwell Diocesan Finance Association shall forthwith take all proper steps for transferring the Advowson of the said Benefice of Wormhill so that the same shall become vested in the Lord Bishop of Southwell and his successors:

“And whereas the Right Reverend Edwyn, now Bishop of Southwell, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

“And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Wormhill which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Wormhill:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Southwell Diocesan Finance Association (in testimony whereof they have caused their corporate or common seal to be affixed to this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Wormhill now vested in them, the said Southwell Diocesan Finance Association as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwell.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 16th day of December, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a new Archdeaconry within the Diocese of Worcester, for endowing such new Archdeaconry, and for re-arranging the Rural Deaneries within the same Diocese:

“Whereas the said Diocese of Worcester now comprises one Archdeaconry and no more, namely, the Archdeaconry of Worcester:

“And whereas the Right Reverend Ernest Harold, Bishop of Worcester, has represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that a new Archdeaconry should be constituted within the said Diocese of Worcester, and should comprise the Rural Deaneries which are hereinafter mentioned and which are at present within the said Archdeaconry of Worcester and within the said Diocese of Worcester, that such new Archdeaconry should be endowed in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed, and that certain new arrangements (being the arrangements hereinafter recommended and proposed) should be made with respect to the Rural Deaneries within the said Diocese of Worcester:

“And whereas it appears to us to be undesirable that procurations, synodals, visitation fees and induction fees should be received by the Archdeacon of the said proposed new Archdeaconry:

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the discontinuance of the collection of the said fees there will be no annual income available for the said proposed Archdeaconry from fees, dues and emoluments, and that the grant hereinafter recommended and proposed will not be such as to raise the annual income of the said proposed Archdeaconry to an amount exceeding £200:

“Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Ernest Harold, Bishop of Worcester (testified by his having signed and sealed this Scheme), humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order one new Archdeaconry shall be created within the said Diocese of Worcester, that such Archdeaconry shall be named ‘The Archdeaconry of Dudley,’ and that each of the said Archdeaconries of Dudley and Worcester shall comprise and consist of those Rural Deaneries, the names of which are set down in order under its name and are numbered consecutively in the Schedule to this Scheme annexed, and that the name which in such Schedule is given to any Rural Deanery shall be the name thereof and that every Parish or Cure or Church the name of which is set down in numbered order under the name of any Rural Deanery in the first column of the said Schedule shall belong to and be a part of the Rural Deanery and of the Archdeaconry under the name of which it so appears as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean and Archdeacon thereof and shall not any longer belong to or be a part of any other Rural Deanery or of any other Archdeaconry or be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other Rural Dean or of any other Archdeacon.

“And we further recommend and propose that the Rural Deans and other the Clergy and the inhabitants generally of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Dudley shall be under and subject to the archidiaconal jurisdiction authority and control of the Archdeacon of such proposed Archdeaconry for the time being and that such Archdeacon shall have and exercise all the rights, powers, and duties of an Archdeacon within the limits of his Archdeaconry.

“And we further recommend and propose that we be authorized to pay by half-yearly instalments on the 1st day of January and the 1st day of July in every year out of the Common Fund created by the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act to the Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Dudley and to his successors in the same Archdeaconry the yearly sum of £200, the instalment so first becoming due being an apportioned part only of the said sum of £200 in respect of the period between the date of the collation of the first Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Dudley and the first half-yearly day of payment next ensuing: Provided always that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum of £200 shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the Archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous 12 calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law and that he has not collected procurations, synodals, visitation fees, or induction fees during the same period.

“And we further recommend and propose that whenever any Archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of £200 shall resign or otherwise avoid his Archdeaconry such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such Archdeacon or his representatives (as the case may be) and the Archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same Archdeaconry.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Provided that, in any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Almeric FitzRoy.

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to vary any Order in Council made under the Burial Act, 1853, as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the said Parish of Kenilworth ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, so much of the said Order in Council of the 13th May, 1887, as relates to the Parish of Kenilworth aforesaid, should be varied so as to provide that, except as hereinafter provided, burials should be discontinued forthwith and entirely in that part of the Kenilworth Parish Churchyard which was added in 1885: Provided that burials may be allowed in the earthen graves now existing in the said part of the said Churchyard, subject to the condition that not more than three bodies are buried in any one grave and that no part of any coffin shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave:

The standard price which the Undertakers have asked the Board of Trade to substitute for this price in accordance with paragraph (b) above is one shilling and sevenpence per therm for gas supplied by the Undertakers within so much of the said borough as is within one mile and a half of Hemel Hempstead parish church, and for gas supplied by them within any part of their limits of supply which is not within one mile and a half of Hemel Hempstead parish church a price not exceeding the price for the time being charged by the Undertakers to consumers under like circumstances within one mile and a half of Hemel Hempstead parish church by more than the following respective amounts, namely: within any part of the said borough which is not within one mile and a half of Hemel Hempstead parish church, eight-tenths of a penny per therm; and within any part of the limits of supply which is not within the borough, one and six-tenths of a penny per therm; with a proviso that the Undertakers may charge in any part of the said borough which is not within a mile and a half of Hemel Hempstead parish church or in any one or more parishes or places outside the said borough a price or prices less than the prices which they are authorised to charge in such part of the said borough or in such parishes or places, provided that the reduced price in any such parish or place shall not at any time be less than the highest price charged during the same time to ordinary consumers within the said borough.
