NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 20th day of January, 1921, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects, proposed to be effected by Special Resolutions of the said Company, passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, held on the 18th day of October, 1920, and confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, held on the 3rd day of November, 1920, and which Resolutions are in the words and figures following:—

Resolutions.

I.—That the provisions of Clause 3 of the memorandum of association of the Company with regard to the objects of the Company be altered in manner following, namely:—

1. By inserting therein, next after sub-clause (a) thereof, the following sub-clauses, namely:—

(a) (1) To carry on the business of life assurance in all its branches, and to grant, procure and effect assurances on contingencies related or connected with human life or survivorship.

(a) (2) To grant annuities of all kinds, whether dependent on human life or otherwise, and whether perpetual or terminable, and whether immediate or deferred, and whether contingent or otherwise.

(a) (3) To purchase, deal in and lend on life, reversionary and other interests in property of all kinds, whether absolute or contingent or expectant, and whether determinable or not, and to acquire, lend money on, redeem, cancel or extinguish, by purchase, surrender or otherwise, any policy, security, grant or contract issued, made or taken over or entered into by the Company.

(a) (4) To contract with leaseholders, borrowers, lenders, annuitants and others for the establishment, accumulation, provision and payment of sinking funds, redemption funds, depreciation funds, renewal funds, endowment funds and any other special funds, and that either in consideration of a lump sum or of an annual premium or otherwise, and generally on such terms and conditions as may be arranged.

(a) (5) To accumulate capital for any of the purposes of the Company, and to appropriate any of the Company's assets to specific purposes, either conditionally or unconditionally, and to admit any class or section of those who insure or have any dealings with the Company to any share in the profits thereof, or in the profits of any particular branch of the Company's business, or to any other special rights, privileges, advantages or benefits, provided always that nothing in this clause contained shall be construed as authorizing any dealing with the receipts in respect of the life assurance and annuity contracts of the Company so as to interfere with the accumulation of the Company's life assurance fund as required by the Assurance Companies Act, 1909, or as authorizing any act or thing which might render the life assurance fund liable for any contracts of the Company for which such fund would not have been liable had the business of the Company been only that of life assurance.

(a) (6) To establish and support, or to aid in the establishment and support of, associations, institutions and conveniences calculated to benefit employees of the Company or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general or useful object.

(a) (7) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, and to obtain from any such Government or authority all rights, concessions and privileges that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them.

(a) (8) To register the Company, or constitute or incorporate it as an anonymous or other Society, or to procure it to be recognised in the United States of America or any other foreign country or place, and to make any deposit required for that purpose.

II.—By making the following additions to the undermentioned sub-clauses of the said Clause (3), namely:—

(1) Sub-clause (J) : By adding at the end thereof the words following:—

"Provided that no charge shall be created on or affecting the receipts from the life assurance and annuity contracts of the Company, nor any act or thing be done under or by virtue of this clause so as to prevent the accumulation of the life assurance fund of the Company as directed by section 3 of the Assurance Companies Act, 1909, or so as to make such fund liable for any contracts or obligations of the Company for which it would have been liable had the business of the Company been only that of life assurance."

(2) Sub-clause (s) : By inserting therein, next after the word "Company" in the first line thereof, the words "other than the life assurance fund."

III.—By deleting from sub-clause (b) of the said Clause 3, and from sub-clause (13) of such sub-clause (b) the words "except the issuing of policies of insurance on human life."
