War Office,

21st April, 1921.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned rewards for distinguished services in the Field with the Waziristan Force, India:—

Awarded the Distinguished Service Order.

Lieut. Walter Henry Clulee Jones, 2/127th Baluch. L.I., I.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty near Sorarogha on the 14th January, 1921. When the road protection troops were attacked by Mansuds, he continued to command his men for over three hours, although three times wounded.

Awarded the Military Cross.

Capt. John Stewart Falconer Hodson, 48th Pns., I.A.

For conspicuous gallantry on the 4th January, 1921. His company was caught under a heavy fire from three directions whilst road-making. He returned the fire, but, as he had no cover, ordered his men to retire by sections. He remained until the last, and then himself carried a badly wounded man 300 yards to cover, in the performance of which he himself was wounded. He continued in command of his company till the end of the day, refusing to go to the ambulance. His conduct throughout the day was most praiseworthy.

Lieut. Lewis Wensley Bond Jennings, 64th (attd. 48th) Pns., I.A.

For conspicuous gallantry, on the 4th January, 1921, near Jandola, when he held on to an advanced sangar which had been vacated by the covering troops, thus enabling the wounded to get away, and, though heavily fired on from three directions, he continued to hold his position until severely wounded in the face. He then brought in the remainder of his party.

Lieut. Frederick Gordon Sherriffe Thomas, R.G.A. (S.R.), attd. 35th Pack Bn., I.A.

During the advance from Dargai-Oba to Karab Kot on the 19th December, 1920, when this officer's section was about to come into action on the top of a hill against a party of the enemy, it came under heavy fire from a hill 600 yards on the right flank. By coolness and personal gallant example under this fire he got his mules under cover and one gun into action, thus driving off the enemy and clearing the way for the advancing infantry.

War Office,
21st April, 1921.
