GEORGE R.I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, to

Our Right Trusty and Well-beloved Cousin and Counsellor Robert Bannatyne, Viscount Finlay, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George;

Sir Algernon Freeman Firth, Baronet;

Sir Arthur Everett Shipley, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire; and

Sir William Henry Peat, Knight Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Greeting!

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to inquire into the admission into the United Kingdom of live stock for purposes other than immediate slaughter at the ports; whether such admission would increase and cheapen the meat supply of the Country, and, if so, to what extent; and whether such admission is advisable, having regard to the necessity of protecting live stock bred in the Country from the introduction of disease and of restoring their numbers after the losses to which they have been subjected during or since the War:

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorized and appointed, and do by these Presents authorize and appoint you, the said Robert Bannatyne, Viscount Finlay (Chairman); George Rankin, Baron Askwith; Sir Algernon Freeman Firth; Sir Arthur Everett Shipley, and Sir William Henry Peat to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents give and grant unto you, or any two or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; to call for information in writing; and also to call for, have access to and examine all such books, documents, registers and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject, and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do by these Presents authorize and empower you, or any one or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any two or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any three or more of you, your opinion upon the matter herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, in the Twelfth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
