By the KING, A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM R.

Whereas We have been Informed, That a False, Scandalous and Seditious Libel, and Disturbance to the Freedom and Liberties of Parliament, Intituled, An Account of the Proceedings of the House of Commons in Relation to the ReCoining of the Clipp'd Money, and Raising the Price of Guineas, has been Printed and Dispersed; And whereas the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled, have humbly besought Us to Issue Our Royal Proclamation for Discovery of the Author of the said Libel, We therefore (with the Advice of Our Privy Council) have thought fit to Issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby Requiring and Commanding all Our Loving Subjects whatsoever, to Discover the Author of the said Libel, in the end he may be Dealt withal, and Proceeded against according to Law. And We do hereby Promise and Declare, That whatsoever shall Discover the Author of the said Libel, shall Have and Receive, as a Reward for such Discovery, the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds; which said Sum of Five Hundred Pounds the Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby Required and Directed to Pay accordingly. And We do also further Promise and Declare, That if any Person (other than the Author himself) who was any ways Privy to, or Instrumental in, the Printing or Dispersing the said Libel, shall Discover the Author thereof, the Person making such Discovery shall not only have the said Sum of Five Hundred Pounds, as aforesaid, but also Our gracious Pardon for his Offence. And We do hereby strictly Charge and Command all Our Loving Subjects, (as they will answer the contrary at their Perils) that they do not any ways Conceal, but Discover the Author of the said Libel, to the end he may be Proceeded against with the utmost Severity, according to Law.

Given at Our Court at Kensington, the Fifth Day of November, 1696. In the Eighth Year of Our Reign.

By the KING, A PROCLAMATION,

For Apprehending Cardell Goodman.

WILLIAM R.

Whereas Cardell Goodman was Accused of High Treason, in Conspiring the Death and Destruction of His Majesty, and thereupon Apprehended; and afterwards, upon some Information and Evidence given by him against several of the Conspirators, was permitted by His Majesty to be Discharged out of Prison, upon Bail; And whereas the said Cardell Goodman, intending to Suppress the Information which he hath formerly given, and to Prevent the further Prosecution of such Traitors, in order to bring them to Justice, hath lately absconded from his usual Place of Abode, and is fled from Justice: His Majesty therefore (with the Advice of His Privy Council) hath thought fit to Issue this His Royal Proclamation, hereby Commanding all His Loving Subjects to Discover, Take and Apprehend the said Cardell Goodman, where-ever he may be found, and to Carry him before the next Justice of Peace, or Chief Magistrate, who is hereby Required to Commit him to the next Gaol, there to Remain until he shall be thence Delivered by due Course of Law; And His Majesty doth hereby Require the said Justice, or other Chief Magistrate, immediately to give Notice thereof to His Privy Council, or to one of His Principal Secretaries of State. And His Majesty doth hereby Publish and Declare, That whatsoever shall Conceal the said Cardell Goodman, shall be Proceeded against with the utmost Severity, according to Law. And whatsoever shall Discover and Apprehend the said Cardell

Goodman, and Bring him before such Justice of Peace, or Chief Magistrate, shall Receive as a Reward the Sum of One Thousand Pounds; which said Sum of One Thousand Pounds the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby Directed to Pay accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Kensington, the Fifth Day of November, 1696. In the Eighth Year of Our Reign.

Messina, Octob. 1. N. S. This morning arrived here the Canterbury, with 4 other English Men of War, under the Command of Capt. Lake, in 23 days from Cadiz; and having stop'd only to Water, proceeded this evening on their Voyage towards the Levant. The Alme Galley, Capt. Cromer, is arrived here from Scanderoon, in Company of 3 Dutch Ships, the Golden Rock from Scanderoon, and the Fame and Concord from Smirna: Capt. Broom, Commander of the Philip and Mary Privateer, is come into this Port, from cruising in the Levant, where he has taken several French Prizes. They write from Malta, that two French Men of War were seen lately cruising off that Port.

Milan, Octob. 27. On the 21th Instant died here the Count de Lowigny, Marechal de Camp General of the Spanish Forces in the Service of this State; aged 73 years. The Imperial Troops have begun their March towards Germany, being to pass through the Territories of the Republick of Venice. Prince Eugene of Savoy and the Prince de Commercy are now in this City, and intend to depart in few days for Vienna. Our Governor, the Marquis de Leganez, is at present ill of an Ague.

Turin, Octob. 28. The German Forces having received the first Payment for their Winter-Quarters, and Security given for the Remainder, are now marching in small Bodies out of the Milaneze: The French march from their Camp at Candia in the same Proportions, and by the 7th of the next month all their Troops will have left the Milaneze; part of the Horse are to go to Winter-Quarters in Lorraine, and another part in Champagne. The French work still on the Demolishing of Pigneroi; but at the same time are going to build another Fortress not far from thence, to awe the Duke of Savoy. Most of the Persons of Quality that accompanied the Princes of Savoy from hence to Pont Beauvoisin, are come back.

Warsaw, Octob. 27. Several Expresses are arrived here within these 3 or 4 days, with Advice of the March of a great Body of Tartars (some report their number to be 30000) towards the Frontiers of this Kingdom; and the last Letters said, they were advanced within 8 Leagues of the City of Lemberg; which occasioned a great Alarm in those Parts: Our Troops quartered thereabouts had been engaged in Skirmishes with some of the Enemy's Parties, and had taken about 100 Prisoners, and several Horses; but they were not strong enough to make a Stand against their Main Body: And Orders have been hereupon sent, to draw a greater Force together, to oppose them. We have an Account from Lithuania, that part of the Forces of that Dutchy had confederated together against the Prince Sapieha, their General; who has assembled 2000 Horse and Dragoons, to bring them back to their Duty.

Fluend.

Vienna, Octob. 31. The Letters from Hungary speak now of nothing else but the marching of the Troops to their Winter-Quarters; and confirm the Grand Visier's Return towards Adriavople. The German Forces that are coming back from Italy, will have Winter-Quarters assigned them in the Emperor's Hereditary Countries; and the next Summer part of them will be employed on the Rhine, and the rest in Hungary. The Envoy of Moscow; residing at this Court, having made Overtures for a new Alliance between the Emperor, the Czar, and the Republick of Venice, against the Turks, His Imperial Majesty has appointed Commissioners to treat with him; and the Venetian Ambassador has received a Power and Instructions for the same purpose. The last Letters from Effek say, that the Governor of Brod had sent out a Party of Hussars, who had made an Incursion into the Turkish Territories, and brought back a good Booty. The Imperialists have Thoughts of re-fortifying Moravitz, which was lately taken and demolished by the Enemy.

Frankfort, Novemb. 7. Prince Lewis of Baden intends to go suddenly to Vienna, to concert at that Court the Preparations for the next Campaign: And we are assured that the States of Franconia and Suabia intend to augment their Forces. The Winter-Quarters between the Hessen and Palatin Troops are not yet quite settled.

Hamburg, Novemb. 9. The Conferences are continued about the Differences between Denmark and Holstein; and one of the main Points that employs the Ministers at present, is, to adjust the Dispute concerning the Holstein Troops that served on the Rhine this Summer, and are now returning home, and which the Danes will not allow to Winter in Holstein. Several Expedients have been propoied by the Mediators, but none is yet agreed to.

Paris, Novemb. 9. The French King returned the 5th Instant to Fontainebleau, with the Princess of Savoy, now called Duchess of Burgundy, whom he met the day before at Montargis. The Letters from the French Camp at Candia, in the Milaneze, of the 31th past, tell us, that the March of the Troops had been delayed for several days, by reason of some Difficulties arising in the Business of the Winter-Quarters; but the same being adjusted, the Forces were marching off on both sides. They continue to sit out at Bress the Squadron to be commanded by the Sieur de Poincy. We have yet no News from Monsieur de Chastelleraunt. The Marschals de Villeroi and Boufflers are daily expected from Flanders; and the Marschal de Choiseul, from Germany.

Brussel, Novemb. 11. The young Princess of Bavaria was Christen'd this evening by the Archbishop of Malmes, with much Solemnity; at which assisted the Elector of Cologne, and all the Persons of Quality of this Court. The Forces in these Parts are all gone into their Winter-Quarters. We hear the French are making great Magazines on the Frontiers.

Hague, Novemb. 13. N. S. By Letters from Madrid, of the 25th of the last month, we have an Account, that the King of Spain had been ill again, his Fever returning, and he having had several Fits: But the last was on the 17th; and when the Letters came away, His Catholic Majesty was so well, that he intended to appear in publick the next day. The Queen was perfectly recovered, and had received the Compliments of all the Ladies of the Court. Several Spanish Men of War were sailed from Cadix, to cruise for the Flota that is expected from the West-Indies.

Turkey, Novemb. 6. This day passed through our Read a Fleet of about 30 Sail of Merchant-ships, bound to Holland, under Convey of two Dutch Men of War.

Perthmouth, Nov. 6. On the third Instant His Majesty's Ship the Nerwich brought in a French Privateer of 6 Guns, belonging to Drep. The Pendennis came in with 40 or 50 Sail from the Downes, and failed again the same day to the Wellward. The 4th being His Majesty's Birth-day, all the English and Dutch Men of War at Spithead, under the Command of Sir Chudley Shovel, put out their Flags and Colours, and fired all their Guns.

London, Novemb. 6. The Admiralty Sessions being Adjourn'd to this day, it was held accordingly; and 6 of the Pirates of Essex's Crew, who were convicted on the 31th past, were Tried upon two other Indictments for Robbing the Subjects of the King of Denmark, and of the Great Belgion, and were found Guilty of the same.

after having been brought to his Trial, upon an Indictment of High Treason; for that he, being one of His Majesty's Subjects, had taken a Commission from the French King, as Commander of a Privateer, called the Royal Grandee; and with the same Privateer did cruise, in order to rob and carry the Ships of His Majesty, and his Subjects: On which he was found Guilty; and Judgment of Death passed upon him, as in Cases of High Treason.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, That any Person having Bank-Cash-Notes, may at any time change them for Bank-Serjeants-Bills, payable with Interest, at the Rate of 6 per Cent. per Annum.
