THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE (BENEFIT) (AMENDMENT) REGULATIONS, 1921,* MADE BY THE MINISTER OF LABOUR UNDER THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT, 1920.

Whereas by the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, the Minister of Labour is empowered to make Regulations for prescribing the manner in which claims for Unemployment Benefit may be made.

And whereas the Minister of Labour has made the Unemployment Insurance (Benefit) Regulations, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Regulations), for regulating the manner in which such claims are to be made.

And whereas it is desirable to amend the said Principal Regulations.

Now, therefore, the Minister of Labour, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by the said Act and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations for amending the said Principal Regulations:

1. In Part II of the Principal Regulations, after proviso (c) to paragraph (1) of Regulation 4, of the said Principal Regulations, there shall be inserted as an additional proviso the words following:—

(d) Where in the opinion of the Minister an exceptional amount of unemployment exists either generally or in any particular district and it is expedient that all or any specified class of insured contributors should be excused from personal attendance and signature of the Register on any days on which they would under these Regulations have been liable to attend and sign the Register, an insured contributor shall, if he complies with such conditions (if any) as may be imposed by the Minister, be excused either from personal attendance or from signing the Register or from both as the Minister may direct, and shall not be disqualified from receipt of benefit by reason only of the fact that he has not so attended or signed as the case may be.

2. Where by these Regulations any words are directed to be inserted in the Principal Regulations, copies of the Principal Regulations printed under the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office after these Regulations come into force may be printed with the words inserted as these Regulations require, and the Principal Regulations shall be construed as if they had at the time these Regulations come into force been made with such additions.

3. These Regulations may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (Benefit) (Amendment) Regulations, 1921.

Signed by Order of the Minister of Labour this twenty-seventh day of May, 1921.

J. E. Masterton Smith,
Secretary of the Ministry of Labour.

*These Regulations although Statutory are provisional only. Permanent Regulations will be made later.
