

of £100 payable under clause 5 below to Tutors or Lecturers holding Official Fellowships) or such part of them as the College may from time to time decide, may, if the College so determine, be paid into the Tuition Fund so long as such Official Fellowships are vacant, provided that the total number of Official Fellowships held or treated as vacant under this Clause be not more than 13."

Pensions.

These Statutes are supplementary to the existing Statutes of the College and nothing therein provided shall be affected save in so far as it is necessary to give effect to the following enactments, that is to say:

1. Clause I (c) is hereby repealed and in its stead the following is hereby enacted:—

"No pension payable to a Tutor, Lecturer, or Domestic Bursar shall exceed the sum of £500 a year, and no pension payable to a Bursar of Estates shall exceed £600. Notwithstanding any of the conditions as to assessment and qualification set forth in this Statute or elsewhere the President and Fellows may at a General Meeting specially summoned, by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the votes of those present and voting, authorize payment to the ex-Tutors who are under the Statute of 1915 in receipt of pensions at the time of this Supplementary Statute of a further sum equivalent to 25 per cent. of the pensions payable to them under that Statute and to the ex-Bursar who is under the Statute of 1915 in receipt of a pension at the time of this Supplementary Statute of a further sum equivalent to 50 per cent. of the pension payable to him under the Statute of 1915."

2. In Clause I (h), instead of the words "£1,000 a year" shall be substituted the words "£1,500 a year."

3. In Clause I (i), after the words "Corporate Revenue of the College" shall be inserted the words "also to include, if the College shall so determine, any annual remuneration paid to him by another College in respect of services rendered by him as Tutor or Lecturer at that College with the sanction of the Tutorial Board, provided that such services do not qualify him for any pension provided by that College."

4. In Clause II (a), for the words "£200 a year" shall be substituted the words "£250 a year."

Grammar Schools.

1. In the clause numbered 3 of the Statutes of 1881 as to Grammar Schools the words "and no Fee shall be payable by them, or by the College on their behalf, for such instruction" shall be struck out.

2. The clause numbered 4 of the Statutes of 1881 as to Grammar Schools shall be repealed and the following new clause shall be substituted:—

"4. The appointment and dismissal of the Master and the Usher shall be vested in the President and Fellows upon the recommendation of the School Committee."

The Common Seal of the President and Scholars of the College of St. Mary Magdalen, in the University of Oxford, was hereunto affixed in the presence of
