BRITISH NATIONALITY AND STATUS OF ALIENS ACTS, 1914 AND 1918.

In the Matter of Steve Krotoschinski.

Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

Whereas I am satisfied that the certificate of naturalization numbered 15611, granted to Steve Krotoschinski, on the 11th February, 1907, is revocable under the provisions of Section 7 (2) (d) of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, and that the continuance of the certificate is not conducive to the public good,

Now, therefore, by this Order made in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Section 7 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, I revoke the said certificate; and I direct such revocation to have effect from the date hereof; and I further order the said certificate to be given up and cancelled.

(Signed) E. Shortt,

One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Whitehall,
23rd June, 1921.

Whitehall, July 14, 1921.

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to confer the dignity of a Viscount of the said United Kingdom upon the Right Honourable William James, Baron Pirrie, K.P., and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, style and title of Viscount Pirrie, of the City of Belfast.

Whitehall, July 14, 1921.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Lieutenant Ian William Galbraith, M.C., 19th Lancers (Fane's Horse), and to Subadar-Major Ellaya, 1/88th Carnatic Infantry, in recognition of their gallantry in saving life at St. Thomas' Mount Arsenal, Madras, in June of last year.

On the night of June 18th, 1920, a dangerous fire broke out at the Arsenal at St. Thomas' Mount, and the flames, 20 ft. high, had reached a spot within 5 yards of which a large quantity of aerial bombs were stacked. Lieutenant Galbraith superintended the removal
