

low Water was boyed up again, and brought to the Shore: The two Men of War their Convoys, to wit the Deptford and Chatham, with about 40 sail more, were seen yesterday off this Place.

Newcastle, Dec. 1. Part of the East Country Fleet is come to our Bar with one of their Convoys: the rest are at Holy Island; Two Ships of this Fleet were lost this day seven-night in bad Weather, about 10 Leagues to the Northward of this Place, one of them being a Ketch belonging to Hull, put ashore, and has saved her Goods, but the Vessel broke to pieces.

Yarmouth, Dec. 2. This day came into our Road two Ships of this Town from the East Country; they came in Company with the Fleet; some Ships put into Yarmouth, and the Men of War their Convoys lay with the rest of the Fleet off the Bar, for their coming out, so we may hourly expect them in this Road. The Sherne's Frigate is sailed with divers Merchant Ships for the River; and the Milford, with about 20 sail for Holland. Yesterday appeared on the back of these Sands a Fleet of 30 sail, which we take to be the Fleet bound from the Maeße to Hull.

Yarmouth, Dec. 4. Yesterday passed through this Road a Ship from Russia; Mr. Moulton Commander; as also some others of the East Country Fleet. This Afternoon came in the Monke, having received some damage in bad Weather.

Falmouth, Nov. 30. Yesterday morning sailed the Spanish Expedition for Coruma.

Plimouth, Dec. 1. Yesterday came in the Betsy Transport Ship from Portsmouth; as also the Betsy-Galley of London, bound to Lisbon.

Portsmouth, Dec. 4. On the first instant His Majesty's Ship the Pendennis came to Spithead, with several Merchant-ships from the Westward; and the next day they sailed again together with the Sorlingues for the Downes. Seven Dutch Men of War came yesterday to St. Helens.

Deale, Dec. 4. Yesterday arrived in the Downes the Sorlingues, with 12 Merchant Ships from New-England. And this morning came in the York and Portland from the Northward.

Westminster, Dec. 3. His Majesty being come this day to the House of Peers, and in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity; and the House of Commons being sent for up by the Gentleman Usher of the Black-Rod, and attending His Majesty accordingly, His Majesty gave the Royal Assent to
