At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the late King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the 19th March, 1908, His Majesty was pleased to order (amongst other things), that, where any property belonging to or held for the benefit of a unit of Volunteers or Yeomanry mentioned in the first column of the Schedule to that Order was vested in or held by any Trustees other than the Commanding Officer of such unit, those Trustees should, until otherwise directed by Order in Council under Section 29 of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, be appointed in regard to the property so vested in or held by them to be special Trustees, to the exclusion of the Association, and should continue to hold such property in trust for the corresponding unit of the Territorial Army (then known as the Territorial Force) in like manner in all respects as they previously held it for the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry, and that the corresponding unit should, notwithstanding any trust, limitation, or condition affecting any such property, continue entitled to the benefit thereof in like manner as the unit was entitled thereto before it became a unit of the said Territorial Army:

And whereas by virtue of the above-recited provisions of the said Order in Council the Trustee named in the first column of the Schedule to this Order holds the property described and set opposite to his name in the second column of that Schedule in trust for the unit of the Territorial Army mentioned in the third column of that Schedule, and it is expedient that such property should be transferred from that Trustee to the County Association mentioned in the fourth column of that Schedule:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that as from the date of this Order the said property shall be by virtue of this Order transferred from the said Trustee to and vested in the said County Association, subject to any charges thereon and to any liabilities in or towards the discharge of which the said property is properly applicable, and shall be held by the said County Association for the benefit of the said unit of the Territorial Army or for such other purposes as the Association with the consent of the said unit (to be ascertained in manner prescribed by regulations of the Army Council) shall direct, but so that the interest of any beneficiary other than the said unit or the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry with which it corresponds shall not without the consent of such beneficiary be affected.

Almeric FitzRoy.
