

table of fees used in the Church which will become the Church of the United Benefice shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the united Parishes.

"4. That, if upon the union taking effect Miss Mary Ann Abel, who is now the Sextoness of the Church of Saint Catherine Coleman shall hold office, her service shall be dispensed with and by way of compensation for the loss of her office she shall, out of any moneys to be received by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under the provisions of Part V of this Scheme, receive for the remainder of her life a yearly sum or pension of £38 16s. 0d. Provided always that it shall be lawful for us, if we shall see fit, to advance the said yearly sum or pension, or any part thereof, out of the fund created by the 22nd section of the said Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 142.

"5. That upon the final closing of the Church of Saint Catherine Coleman, the register books of baptisms, marriages, and burials of the Parish of Saint Catherine Coleman shall be transferred to the Church of the United Benefice, a safe being provided for their custody out of the moneys to be received by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under the provisions of Part V of this Scheme, and any monuments in Saint Catherine's Church which may not be claimed by those, who, under the said Union of Benefices Act, 1860, have a right to claim them, shall be re-erected in the Church of the United Benefice or placed in some suitable position in the Churchyard of Saint Catherine Coleman.

" PART III.

"As to the endowments of the United Benefice we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

"That upon the union taking effect all the properties, revenues and income constituting the endowments (present and future) of the Rectory of Saint Olave, Hart Street, with All Hallows Staining and of the Rectory of Saint Catherine Coleman shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice, subject to the payments which are contemplated and recommended by Part IV of this Scheme.

" PART IV.

"Upon the subject of Patronage and of a certain new District or Districts, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

"1. That the Patronage of the said United Benefice shall be vested in the said Trustees of the Advowson of Saint Olave, Hart Street.

"2. That one or, if the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the Bishop of London so decide, two ecclesiastical districts within the limits of the Metropolis or its vicinity as defined by the said Union of Benefices Act, 1898 (such district or districts then having been or then being about to be formed or legally constituted under some or one of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, authorizing the formation or constitution of such districts) shall be selected by the Bishop of London as the district or districts for which a Church or Churches shall be built out of the proceeds of the sale or sales hereinafter recommended.

"3. That the Patronage of such new district or districts shall be vested in the Bishop of London for the time being.

"4. That the first or as the case may be the one Church built out of the proceeds of the sale or sales hereinafter recommended shall be consecrated by the name and style of Saint Catherine.

"5. That as an endowment for the first of the said new districts there shall be paid to the Minister or Incumbent of such new district by the Incumbent of the said United Benefice by quarterly payments upon the usual quarter days in each year an annual sum equal year by year to the amount of that part of the income of the United Benefice arising in the year from the present endowments of the said Rectory of Saint Catherine Coleman after the payment of all charges upon those endowments and after the deduction of an annual sum of £50 to be retained by the Incumbent of the said United Benefice as an augmentation of the income of his Benefice in view of the expenses to be incurred by him in connection with the collection and disbursement of such endowments; and until such new district shall have been constituted, the payment hereby directed to be made to the Incumbent of such new district shall be made to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to be accumulated by us towards the endowment of such new district.

" PART V.

"As to the Church of Saint Catherine Coleman and the site and appurtenances thereof, and as to the proceeds of any sale or sales of the materials, site, furniture or fittings of the same Church, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

"1. That as soon as conveniently may be after the union has taken effect the Church of Saint Catherine Coleman be taken down.

"2. That subject to the provisions contained in clause 2 of Part II. of this Scheme the furniture or fittings (other than the font, communion table and sacramental plate) and the materials and site of the said Church, together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use or enjoyment thereof, but exclusive of the Churchyard, which is at present used as an open space and is intended to continue to be so used, shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, subject to the provisions contained in the 17th section of the said Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 142.

"3. That the net proceeds to arise from the sale or sales to be made by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as aforesaid, of the site and materials and furniture, or fittings of the said Church, shall form one aggregate fund and shall be applied as follows, that is to say:—

"(a) for the payment of the gratuity which is contemplated by Clause 4 of Part II of this Scheme, and for the provision of a safe for the custody of the register books of baptisms, marriages and burials of the Parish of Saint Catherine Coleman, as mentioned in Clause 5 of Part II of this Scheme,

"(b) for the payment to the Churchwardens of the United Benefice of a sum of £100 per annum for the maintenance of the Churchyard of Saint Catherine Coleman as an open space, the provision of seats, and the payment of an attendant,

"(c) for the payment to the Church-
