DECISIONS OF THE HIGH COURT ON THREE APPEALS AND FOUR REFERENCES MADE UNDER SECTION 10 (1) OF THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT, 1920.

Club Servants.

On the 30th June, 1921, the High Court allowed an appeal by the Junior Carlton Club against the decisions of the Minister under Section 10 of the Act that servants employed in various capacities in that Club were employed persons within the meaning of the said Act. The Judge held that the employment of the servants in question fell within the terms of the exception laid down in paragraph (b) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act, which excepts employment in domestic service except where the employed person is employed in any trade or business carried on for the purposes of gain, and that contributions were not, therefore, payable in respect of them.

Servants employed in Schools.

On the 10th of October, 1921, the High Court allowed appeals against the decisions of the Minister under Section 10 of the Act that persons employed as follows were employed persons within the meaning of the said Act:—

1. At Rugby School—

(1) Butler, employed by the Headmaster in the School Boarding House.

(2) Cook, employed by a Housemaster to cook for his whole household, including 50 schoolboys.

(1) Lady Housekeeper.

(2) Matron.

(3) Dormitory Maid.

(4) Laundryman.

(5) Pantrymaid.

(6) Cook.

The Judge held that the employment of all these servants fell within the terms of the exception laid down in paragraph (b) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act, being employment in domestic service and not in a trade or business carried on for the purposes of gain, and that consequently they were not required to be insured.

On the same date the Minister referred to the High Court for decision the questions whether persons employed—

3.—(1) as a cook at a Boarding House carried on in connection with Brigg Grammar School, a Secondary School grant-aided by the Board of Education, the conduct of the Boarding House in question forming one of the terms of the Head Master's engagement, and the fees being fixed by the Governing Board, the Board of Education and the County Council;

(2) As housemaid at a Boarding House carried on by a branch of the Y.M.C.A., where a profit is made, such profit being devoted to the work of the branch, were, or were not, employed in a business carried on for the purposes of gain within the meaning of paragraph (b) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act.

The Judge held that the persons in question were not employed in a business carried on for the purposes of gain within the meaning of the Act, and that, consequently, the employment, being employment in domestic service, fell within the terms of the exception laid down in paragraph (b), and no contributions under the Act were accordingly payable in respect of such employment.

Agriculture.

On the 10th and 11th October, the Minister referred to the High Court for decision the question whether persons employed:—

(1) As a repairer of fences, gaps in hedges, posts and rail fencing and iron fencing upon a private agricultural estate, the greater part of which is let out to tenants;

(2) As a carter employed by the owner of an agricultural estate to haul home-grown timber, quarried stone tiles, and other materials for repairs to agricultural buildings on the estate, and to haul stone quarried on the estate for the repair of accommodation roads to the farms, were employed in agriculture within the meaning of paragraph (a) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act.

The Judge held that the employment of the persons in question fell within the terms of the exception laid down in paragraph (a) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act, being employment in agriculture, and, consequently, no contributions under the Act were payable in respect of such employment.
