We, the Master or Keeper and Fellows and Scholars of the said College in exercise of the powers given to us by the 54th Section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do hereby alter and amend the existing Statutes of our said College in manner following:—

By repealing in Chapter III. intituled "Of the Fellows," Section 21, and substituting therefor the following Section to form an Amended Section 21:—

21. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, a Fellow holding any of the College offices next hereinafter mentioned shall be entitled to retain his Fellowship so long as he shall continue to hold any of those offices, and for that purpose the continuity shall not be deemed to be broken by mere transference from one of those offices to another. The offices lastly hereinbefore referred to (which are hereinafter designated privileged College offices) are those of Principal Tutor, Dean and Treasurer, and also such other College offices (including at least two lectureships) as a majority of all the members for the time being of the Society may at a General College Meeting, if they deem it expedient, pronounce privileged (during the tenure of the Member of the Society then holding such office) for any period not exceeding five years, provided that the number of members of the Society holding privileged offices at one time shall not exceed six.

In any exceptional case in which the operation of the foregoing Section would entail special hardship on any Member of the Society the Society is empowered, with the consent of the Visitor, to increase temporarily the number of privileged offices.
