2. River-keeper on a private estate;
3. Attendant at a museum to open and close the galleries, and to dust and keep tidy the objects exhibited;
4. Trainer of greyhounds, by the owner of a private kennel of greyhounds;
5. Game-keeper on a private estate;
6. Huntsman, first whip, second whip and stableman, and kennelman, all employed by the Master of a Hunt on behalf of the Hunt Committee;
7. Porter, to take charge of the entrance lodge at a Hospital and to record the names of all visitors to the patients;

10. Dairymaid on the home farm of a large private estate;

11. Green-keeper of a members' golf club; were or were not employed persons within the meaning of the Act of 1920.

The Judge held that the first nine persons employed as indicated above were excepted from liability to insurance as being employed in domestic service within the meaning of paragraph (b) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920, and that the employment of the green-keeper was excepted as being employment in horticulture within the meaning of paragraph (a) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920. The employment of the dairymaid was held by the Judge to be employment in domestic service and in agriculture and therefore excepted under both paragraphs (a) and (b) referred to above.

Consequently no contributions under the Act are payable in respect of any of the persons so employed.

Contributions Payable.

On the same date the Minister also referred for decision the question whether persons employed as:—

The Judge held that the employment of the motor lorry driver was not employment in agriculture, and was therefore not excepted under paragraph (a) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920; and that the employment of the secretary, painter, and cobbler was not employment in domestic service, and was therefore not excepted under paragraph (b) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920.

Consequently contributions under the Act are payable in respect of the persons so employed.
