"10. The amount of prepaid bonus for any unexpired period of service of men discharged for misconduct, &c., or deserting to be met as far as possible out of any balance of pay, &c.

"11. No recoveries to be made in the case of men discharged dead or invalided.

"12. The final instalment not to be due to any man who fails to complete time for pension; but payment may be granted in deserving cases at Admiralty discretion.

"13. The scheme not to apply to men likely to be invalided but in cases of special hardship the Admiralty to be able to award reduced amounts.

"14. The scheme to apply to Hydraulic Engine Room Artificers of satisfactory character in the Royal Navy on the 23rd February, 1921, and to Ordnance Artificers transferred from Hydraulic Engine Room Artificer on or before that date, or within a period of three months thereafter."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of December, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by sub-section (2) of section 4 of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, that that section shall come into operation on the date on which the Grand Juries (Suspension) Act, 1917, expires or, if His Majesty by Order in Council so directs, on such earlier date as may be specified in the Order, and that if any Order is so made the Grand Juries (Suspension) Act, 1917, shall cease to have effect on the date so specified:

And whereas the Grand Juries (Suspension) Act, 1917, will, by virtue of the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 2 thereof and of an Order in Council made on the 10th day of August, 1921, under the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, expire on the 28th day of February, 1922:

And whereas it is expedient that section 4 of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, should come into operation on the 23rd day of December, 1921, and that the Grand Juries (Suspension) Act, 1917, should cease to have effect on that date:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in Him by section 4 of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to direct, and it is hereby directed, that the said section 4 shall come into operation on the 23rd day of December, 1921.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of December, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, under and by virtue of the provisions in that behalf contained in the Medical Acts, 1858 and 1886, to re-nominate Sir Edward Coey Bigger, M.D., to be, for a period of five years from the 24th day of January, 1922, a member of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom, for Ireland.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of December, 1921.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 20th day of October, 1921, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate District for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint John, Blackpool, in the County of Lancaster and in the Diocese of Manchester:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said New Parish of Saint John, Blackpool, is a New Parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said New Parish of Saint John, Blackpool, which is hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate District in the manner which is hereinafter set forth:

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate District any consecrated Church or Chapel in use for the purpose of Divine Worship:

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed District there has been contributed a sum of £5,049 15s. 8d. Local Loans £3 per centum Stock and the same has been transferred into our name to be held in trust by us towards the endowment of the said proposed District and so soon as the said District shall have become a New Parish under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act then of
