And whereas by Section 4 of the Excess Profits Amendment Ordinance, 1920, of the Island of Grenada it was provided that in the said sub-section (1) of Section 2 of the Excess Profits Ordinance, 1919, of the Island of Grenada the words "of an amount equal to forty per cent. of that excess" should be repealed and that the following words should be substituted therefor:—"of an amount in the case of an accounting period which ended before the first day of January, nineteen hundred and nineteen, equal to forty per cent. of that excess and in the case of an accounting period which ended on or after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and nineteen, equal to forty per cent. of that excess":

And whereas the Island of Grenada is one of His Majesty's Possessions:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Finance Act, 1917, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered and declared that under the law in force in the Island of Grenada excess profits duty was chargeable for any accounting period which ended on or after the first day of January, 1918, and before the first day of January, 1920, in respect of profits in respect of which excess profits duty was also payable in the United Kingdom and that arrangements have been made with the Government of the Island of Grenada whereby in respect of any such profits only the duty which is higher in amount is to be payable and that the amount of such duty is to be apportioned between the respective Exchequers in proportion to the amount of duty which would otherwise have been payable in the United Kingdom and in the Island of Grenada respectively.

And the Right Honourable Winston Spencer Churchill, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
