"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the 15th day of January, 1842, and published in the London Gazette on the 12th day of April, 1842, part of the Parish of Lambeth, in the said County of Surrey and at that time in the Diocese of Winchester but now in the said Diocese of Southwark, was assigned as a District Chapelry to the consecrated Chapel of Saint Mary, situate in the said Parish of Lambeth, and the said District Chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth':

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said New Parish of Saint Mary (the Less), Lambeth, and of the said District of Saint Anselm, Kennington Cross, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned:

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"And whereas drafts of the said Scheme or Representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such Scheme or Representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto:

vested in the Bishop of Bath and Wells for the time being:

"And whereas the Right Reverend St. John Basil Wynne, now Bishop of Bath and Wells, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said St. John Basil Wynne, Bishop of Bath and Wells, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefices of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, and Saint Andrew, Rowbarton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parishes or Districts in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the New Parishes of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, and Saint Andrew, Rowbarton:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Arthur Lionel Smith (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said St. John Basil Wynne, Bishop of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Saint John the Evangelist, Bishops Hull, and Saint Andrew, Rowbarton, now vested in him, the said Arthur Lionel Smith as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said St. John Basil Wynne, Bishop of Bath and Wells, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said St. John Basil Wynne, Bishop of Bath and Wells, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

INSTITUTION ALLOWED BY THE LORDS OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL.

SECTION I.

OBJECTS.

1. "THE SURVEYORS' INSTITUTION" is established—

(1) To secure the advancement and facilitate the acquisition of that knowledge which constitutes the profession of a Surveyor, viz.—the art of determining the value of all descriptions of landed, mineral and house property, and of the various interests therein; the practice of managing and developing estates; the science of measuring and delineating the physical features of the earth, and of measuring and estimating artificers' work.

(2) To promote the general interests of the profession and to maintain and extend its usefulness for the public advantage.

SECTION II.

CONSTITUTION.

2. THE MEMBERS OF THE SURVEYORS' INSTITUTION shall consist of four classes, viz., FELLOWS, PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATES, ASSOCIATES, and HONORARY MEMBERS, and there shall be classes of PROBATIONERS and STUDENTS attached to the Institution. Membership of the Institution shall be open to both sexes.

FELLOWS.

3. Every Fellow shall be more than thirty years of age, and shall have acquired a practical knowledge of surveying in one or other of its branches as above defined.

No person shall be eligible for election as a Fellow or for transfer to the Fellowship unless he shall have passed the Direct Fellowship Examination, or the Intermediate and Final Examinations, or such other examination, in lieu of the Intermediate or Final Examination respectively, as may be approved by the Council as necessary to qualify for that class. Nevertheless, it shall be in the power of the Council, by a vote, in person or by proxy, of not less than three-fourths of the whole Council, to dispense with the aforesaid Examination—

(A) In favour of any Candidate of exceptional standing and experience as a Surveyor.

(B) In favour of any Candidate holding an official appointment as a Surveyor in the United Kingdom or in any of the British Colonies or Dependencies who shall have passed such other Examination as the Council may accept in lieu of the Examination appertaining to the class of Fellows.

(C) Wholly or partially in the case of any Professional Candidate or Candidates (other than Surveyors actually practising in England or Wales) whose admission would, in the opinion of the Council, promote the objects of the Institution.

(D) In favour of a Professional Associate of not less than twenty-five years' standing, who has not passed the Final Examination, but who has attained a position of such standing in the profession that his transfer to the higher class of membership would in the opinion of the Council promote the objects of the Institution.

Every Fellow shall be eligible for election on the Council, for election or appointment to all offices of the Institution, and entitled to all its rights and privileges.

4. Any person not practising in the United Kingdom shall be eligible for election as a Colonial Fellow provided he is more than 30 years of age, and has acquired a practical knowledge of surveying. 5. Every Professional Associate shall be more than twenty-one years of age, and shall have acquired a practical knowledge of surveying in one or other of its branches as above defined.

10. Students shall be persons not under eighteen years of age, who are or have been pupils of Surveyors, or, who are studying, with a view to entering the Profession, at such places of professional instruction as the Council may approve, and such persons may continue Students until the end of the calendar year in which they attain the age of twenty-one.

SECTION III.

EXAMINATIONS.

11. The Council shall cause to be held examinations for candidates seeking to be elected or transferred to the class of Professional Associates or to the class of Fellows of the Institution, and for the admission of Probationers and Students; and shall frame and publish rules regulating such examinations and defining the cases and circumstances under which the said examinations shall severally apply, the periods at which they shall be held, the subjects which they shall comprise, the fees (if any) which shall be paid or deposited by candidates in respect of such examinations, and the nature of the certificate to be granted to successful candidates, and shall have power from time to time to vary or rescind any such rules, or to make any other such rules as may appear to them to be necessary or desirable.

12. The Council may accept the examinations of Universities or other bodies in lieu of those of the Institution when they are satisfied that the standard thereof is not less than that of the Institution's examinations and where the subjects covered thereby are approved by the Council.

SECTION IV.

THE ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

THE SUSPENSION OF MEMBERS.

THE EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

13. The election of persons to all classes of the Institution, except Probationers or Students, shall be by ballot, and the proportion of votes required for election shall be at least four-fifths of the numbers voting; nevertheless, the Council, if they think fit, may recommend any person as an Honorary Member at any Ordinary General Meeting, and such person may be elected by a majority of votes of Members present and entitled to vote and voting at such Meeting.

14. Any person desirous of being admitted into the Institution (excepting to the class of Probationers or Students) shall be proposed and recommended according to the Form A in the Appendix, in which the full name, place of business (if any), usual residence, and qualifications of the candidate, shall be distinctly specified. This form shall be subscribed by him and signed by at least six Fellows or four Fellows and two Professional Associates or Associates, certifying a personal knowledge of the candidate, or by four members of the Council, of whom the President shall be one, after careful enquiry into the antecedents of the applicant.

15. The proposal so made, according to Form A, shall be delivered to the Secretary, who, provided he shall have received from the candidate the engagement Form D in the Appendix, with his signature attached, shall submit the proposal to the Council, who, if they shall find the candidate qualified according to the regulations, shall declare the class for which he is to be presented for ballot. The Secretary on the instructions of the Council shall thereupon sign the proposal, and the name of the candidate together with those of his proposers shall be placed upon the balloting list.

The balloting list shall specify the name and address of each candidate whose proposal shall have been so signed by the Secretary, and also the names of those by whom he is proposed and seconded. Such voting paper so sent shall be returned to the Secretary within a period to be determined by the Council, being not less than seven nor more than fourteen days from the date of sending, in the official envelope, which shall be opened only in the presence of the Council or a Committee thereof, on a day appointed by the Council for the purpose, and the name or names of those elected shall be declared at the next following Ordinary General Meeting.

18. The proposal for transferring any person from the class of Professional Associate to that of Fellow shall be according to Form B in the Appendix. This form, being subscribed by at least six Fellows, certifying a personal knowledge of the candidate, or by four members of the Council, after careful enquiry into the antecedents of the applicant, shall be submitted to the Council, who, if they see fit, may make the proposed transfer.

19. Any person duly elected into the Institution shall be informed thereof without delay by a letter, according to Form E, enclosing a promise (Form F) to abide by the By-Laws of the Institution which promise the person elected shall sign and return to the Secretary; and he shall pay the admission fee and annual subscription for the current year within two months after the date of his election, which otherwise shall become void; but the Council may in special cases extend the time.

20. Any person whose application for transfer from the class of Professional Associate to that of Fellow has been approved by the Council, shall be informed by letter from the Secretary that on payment of his annual subscription and entrance fee as a Fellow (or the difference between the annual subscription and entrance fee of a Professional Associate and a Fellow where the former has already been paid) his transfer to the higher class will be completed; and on the necessary payment being made the transfer to the Fellowship shall be carried out accordingly.

21. Every person elected shall forthwith sign Form F in the Appendix and make the payments prescribed by the By-Laws and shall thereupon be entitled to the rights and privileges of his particular class. He shall within twelve months of his election attend a meeting of the Institution or of his County Branch for formal admission to membership, and shall sign the Register. Any person who fails to attend a meeting for formal admission during that period shall be debarred from making use of the rights and privileges attaching to his class until he has complied with this requirement. Nevertheless, the Council for reasons which appear to them to be sufficient, shall be empowered to relieve a Member from his obligation under this By-Law.

The method to be adopted for the formal admission of a Member at a meeting of the Institution or of a County Branch shall be such as the Council may from time to time direct.
