FRIDAY, 3 FEBRUARY, 1922.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered amongst other things, by any such Order in Council—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments as far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act: and respect to which the Parliaments of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland have not power to make laws, and in particular to provide for the exercise or performance of any powers or duties in connection with those services by any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or officer of that Government where any such powers or duties are, under any existing Act or by the common law, to be exercised or performed by any department or officer in Ireland who will cease to exist as a department or officer of the Government of the United Kingdom:

And whereas for the purposes of the provisions of the said Act relating to the transfer of services, the twenty-second day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, has been fixed as the appointed day as respects Northern Ireland in relation to (amongst others) Irish services in connection with public loans, the maintenance of law and order and the administration of justice, but no day has as yet been fixed for the purposes aforesaid as respects Southern Ireland:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Adaptation of Enactments) (No. 1) Order, 1922.

(2) In this Order the expression "appointed day" means the twenty-second day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) As from the appointed day the enactments hereinafter mentioned shall have effect subject to the modifications and adaptations set out in this Order, save where inconsistent with the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, or the provisions of any subsequent Order in Council under that Act, and subject as respects matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland to repeal or alteration by Acts of that Parliament.

(2) Subject to the express modifications and adaptations made by this Order the General Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made under the said Act containing adaptations of general application shall, if and so far as they are applicable to the enactments adapted by this Order, apply thereto in like manner as to other enactments.

3.—(1) Section five of the Public Works (Ireland) Act, 1831, as amended by sections four and five of the Public Works (Ireland) (No. 2) Act, 1846, shall be adapted in the manner and to the extent necessary for the purpose of being read as follows:—

"It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant to appoint such number of persons, not exceeding five, as he thinks proper to be Commissioners of Public Works in Northern Ireland, and every Commissioner so appointed shall hold office during the Lord Lieutenant's pleasure."

(2) In section six of the first-mentioned Act the words "in Dublin" shall cease to have effect.

(3) In section nineteen of the Landed Property Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1847, "in Belfast" shall be substituted for "in Dublin."

4.—(1) In the Summary Jurisdiction (Ireland) Acts references to adjoining counties shall be construed as references to counties in Southern Ireland which adjoin one another or to counties in Northern Ireland which adjoin one another.

(2) Any Petty Sessions district which consists of townlands of a county in Northern Ireland and townlands of an adjoining county in Southern Ireland shall, as from the appointed day, be divided into two Petty Sessions districts, one consisting of the Northern Ireland townlands and the other consisting of the Southern Ireland townlands, and the place and times for the holding of Petty Sessions for each such district shall, until a place and times have been fixed pursuant to the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, be such as may be determined by the Lord Lieutenant and until a petty sessions clerk has been appointed for the district, the powers and duties of the petty sessions clerk shall be exercised and performed by a person nominated by the Lord Lieutenant.

(3) The powers and duties of the Inspector General of the Royal Irish Constabulary under the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, or any other enactment in relation to the backing of warrants may, in the case of warrants issued in any county or place in Northern Ireland and requiring to be backed for execution elsewhere in Northern Ireland, be exercised and performed by any officer of the Royal Irish Constabulary who may be designated for the purpose by the Lord Lieutenant, and any such warrants may be certified and transmitted to any officer so designated instead of to the Inspector General.

(4) Paragraph (3) of section thirty of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, shall have effect with the substitution of "Southern Ireland" for "Ireland," and with the addition of the following words at the end thereof, namely, "in Northern Ireland by a Resident Magistrate having jurisdiction in Belfast and."

(5) In the Petty Sessions Clerks (Ireland) Act, 1881, and any other enactment relating to Petty Sessions Clerks or the Registrar of Petty Sessions Clerks references to the Petty Sessions Clerks Fund shall as respects Northern Ireland be construed as references to the Petty Sessions Clerks (Northern Ireland) Fund, and there shall be transferred to the last-mentioned Fund so much of the first-mentioned Fund as may be apportioned to the Government of Northern Ireland.

5.—(1) In the Special Constables (Ireland) Act, 1832, references to Ireland shall be construed as references to Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland, as the case requires, and references to an adjoining county shall be construed as references to a county in Southern Ireland adjoining a county in Southern Ireland or to a county in Northern Ireland adjoining a county in Northern Ireland, as the case requires.

(2) The Special Constables Act, 1914, in its application to Northern Ireland shall have effect subject to the following adaptation, namely: references to His Majesty shall, so far as respects matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland, be construed as references to the Lord Lieutenant.

(3) The Special Constables (Ireland) Order, 1915, in its application to Northern Ireland shall have effect subject to the following adaptations, namely:—

(a) the expression "police authority" shall mean such officer or officers as may be designated by the Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland;

(b) the expression "police fund" shall mean such fund as may be provided by the Parliament or Government of Northern Ireland;

but nothing in this provision shall affect the payment of any expenses incurred before the twenty-second day of November, 1921, in pursuance of the said Order or the grant or payment of any pensions or allowances on account of injuries received before that day.

6. In the application to Northern Ireland of any enactment relating to or affecting Irish services—

(a) references to His Majesty and to His Majesty in Council, where they occur in relation to the presentation of addresses to His Majesty by Parliament or by both or either of the Houses of Parliament or in relation to the annulment of orders, rules or regulations by His Majesty or by His Majesty in Council whether on the presentation of such addresses or otherwise, shall, as respects matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland, be construed respectively from and after the day appointed for the transfer of the services for the administration of those matters to the Government of Northern Ireland as references to the Lord Lieutenant and to the Lord Lieutenant in Council;

(b) the expression "Act of Parliament," save where the context otherwise requires, means, as respects Northern Ireland, an Act either of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

7. Where by any enactment relating to services other than Irish services any order, regulation, notice or other instrument is required or authorized to be published in the Dublin Gazette, the enactment, if the matter in question affects Northern Ireland, shall be construed as requiring or authorizing publication also in the Belfast Gazette.

8. For the purpose of determining the domicile of any person, Northern Ireland shall be deemed always to have been a separate part of the United Kingdom.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered amongst other things, by any such Order in Council—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act; and

(2) to make such adaptation of any enactments as appear to Him necessary or proper with respect to the execution of services with respect to which the Parliaments of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland have not power to make laws, and in particular to provide for the exercise or performance of any powers or duties in connection with those services by any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or officer of that Government where any such powers or duties are, under any existing Act or by the common law, to be exercised or performed by any department or officer in Ireland who will cease to exist as a department or officer of the Government of the United Kingdom:

And whereas for the purposes of the provisions of the said Act relating to the transfer of services, the first day of December, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, has been fixed as the appointed day as respects Northern Ireland in relation to Irish services in connection with Local Government (including Housing), Public Health (not including Health Insurance), Poor Law, Old Age Pensions, Roads, Road Transport (excluding Railways), Ferries and Bridges, Firearms and Explosives, Prisons, Reformatory and Industrial Schools, and Lunatics, but no day has as yet been fixed for the purposes aforesaid as respects Southern Ireland:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Adaptation of Enactments) (No. 2) Order, 1922.

(2) In the Order the expression "appointed day" means the first day of December nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) As from the appointed day the enactments hereinafter mentioned shall have effect subject to the modifications and adaptations set out in this Order, save where inconsistent with the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, or the provisions of any subsequent Order in Council under that Act, and subject as respects matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland to repeal or alteration by Acts of that Parliament.

(2) Subject to the express modifications and adaptations made by this Order the General Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made under the said Act containing adaptations of general application shall, if and so far as they are applicable to the enactments adapted by this Order, apply thereto in like manner as to other enactments.

(3) The adaptations and modifications effected by this Order shall apply to any order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument made or issued under any of the enactments so adapted or modified and in force immediately before the appointed day in like manner as they apply to the enactment under which it was made or issued; and any such order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument shall continue in force in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if it had been made or issued under the said enactment as so modified and adapted.

(4) Article 9 of the General Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, shall have effect as if references to orders, schemes, rules or regulations made under any enactment adapted or modified by that Order included references to instruments issued under any such enactment.

3.—(1) In the application to Northern Ireland of section five of the Poor Relief (Ireland) Act, 1838, and section fourteen of the Municipal Corporations (Ireland) Act, 1840, references to a Minister of Northern Ireland shall be substituted for references to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

(2) The County Surveyors (Ireland) Act, 1862, and the County Surveyors (Ireland) Act, 1900, shall cease to have effect in Northern Ireland after the appointed day.

(3) In the application of section three of the Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872, to Northern Ireland a reference to the Lord Lieutenant shall be substituted for the reference to His Majesty.

(4) In the application of the Alkali, &c., Works Regulation Act, 1906, to Northern Ireland references to the Local Government Board for Northern Ireland shall be substituted for references both to the Local Government Board and to the central authority as in that Act defined.

(5) In any enactment provisions as to the Labourers' Cottages Fund and the Irish Housing Fund shall cease to have effect as respects Northern Ireland after the appointed day, but without prejudice to the apportionment to the Government of Northern Ireland of any part of either of those funds as the share of Northern Ireland therein.

4. The Midwives (Ireland) Act, 1918, in its application to Northern Ireland shall have effect with the following adaptations:—

(a) references to the Privy Council shall be construed as references to the Privy Council of Ireland; the reference to the Lord President of the Council shall be construed as a reference to the Lord Lieutenant; and references to the Central Midwives Board and to the Midwives Roll shall, respectively, be construed as references to the Central Midwives Board for Northern Ireland and to the Midwives Roll for Northern Ireland;

(b) in section three references to Ireland shall be construed as references to Northern Ireland; and the reference to Dublin shall be construed as a reference to Belfast; and in sub-section (1) of the same section "After the first day of December, 1921," shall be substituted for "On the passing of this Act"; "two" shall be substituted for "three"; "one" shall be substituted for "two"; "two registered medical practitioners" shall be substituted for "four registered medical practitioners" and "three women" shall be substituted for "four women";

(c) every woman who immediately before the appointed day is certified under the said Act shall in Northern Ireland be deemed to have been certified under and for the purposes of the said Act in its application to Northern Ireland.

5.—(1) The Nurses Registration (Ireland) Act, 1919, in its application to Northern Ireland shall have effect with the following adaptations:—

(a) references to the General Nursing Council for Ireland shall be construed as references to the General Nursing Council for Northern Ireland, and references to the register shall be construed as references to the Register of Nurses for the Sick in Northern Ireland;

(b) in paragraph 1 of the Schedule "five" shall be substituted for "fifteen";

(c) in paragraphs 2 and 4 of the Schedule "two" shall be substituted for "six" and "three" shall be substituted for "nine";

(d) in paragraph 3 of the Schedule "first day of December, 1921," shall be substituted for "commencement of this Act";

(e) any person who immediately before the appointed day is registered under the said Act shall in Northern Ireland be deemed to have been registered under and for the purposes of the said Act in its application to Northern Ireland.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (3) of section six of the Nurses Registration Act, 1919, sub-section (3) of section six of the Nurses Registration (Scotland) Act, 1919, and sub-section (3) of section six of the Nurses Registration (Ireland) Act, 1919 (which relate to rules for the admission to the register in one part of the United Kingdom of persons registered as nurses in another part of the United Kingdom), Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland shall be treated as separate parts of the United Kingdom, and as respects Northern Ireland the General Nursing Council for Northern Ireland shall, when established, be treated for the purposes of the sub-section first mentioned and the sub-section last mentioned, as a Nursing Council to be consulted in connection with rules proposed to be made by any other Nursing Council.

6.—(1) The enactments hereinafter specified shall, in their application to Northern Ireland, have effect subject to the following adaptations respectively:—

(a) in section six of the Locomotive Act, 1861, the Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland shall be substituted for one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State;

(b) in sub-section (2) of section nine of the Development and Road Improvement Fund Act, 1909, as amended by the Roads Act, 1920, the words "shall consult with the Local Government Board and" shall be omitted;

(c) in sub-section (2) of section twenty-two of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, "seven" shall be substituted for "eleven" and "three" for "five";

(d) in the Roads Act, 1920, references to Orders in Council shall be construed as references to the Lord Lieutenant in Council; references to the Road Fund shall be construed as references to the Road Fund (Northern Ireland), and there shall be transferred to the last-mentioned Fund so much of the first-mentioned Fund as may be apportioned to the Government of Northern Ireland as the share of Northern Ireland therein;

(2) References to the United Kingdom in sub-section (5) of section thirteen of the Finance Act, 1920, shall in the application of that section to Northern Ireland be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in the application of that section to the rest of the United Kingdom be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, but without prejudice to the operation of section thirty of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920.

7.—(1) In sections three, four, fourteen and twenty of the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842, section eight of the Criminal Lunatics Act, 1884, and sections eighty-six, eighty-seven and eighty-eight of the Lunacy Act, 1890, references to Ireland shall be construed as references to Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland or to Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland, as the case requires.

(2) For the purposes of the application of sub-section (5) of section eight of the Criminal Lunatics Act, 1884, to Northern Ireland references therein and in any other enactment therein mentioned to the Central Criminal Lunatic Asylum shall be construed as references to the Belfast District Lunatic Asylum.

(3) The provisions of section eighty-eight of the Lunacy Act, 1890, with respect to the escape of a lunatic detained in Ireland into England or Scotland shall extend to the case of the escape of a lunatic detained in Northern Ireland into Southern Ireland and to the case of the escape of a lunatic detained in Southern Ireland into Northern Ireland, and the notice required to be given under that section shall, in the first case, if the lunatic was detained by order of the Lord Chancellor or of the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland, be given to the Registrar in Lunacy in Northern Ireland, and, if the lunatic was detained otherwise than by such order, to the Inspectors of Lunatics in Northern Ireland; and shall, in the second case, if the lunatic was detained by order of the Lord Chancellor or the Lord Chief Justice of Southern Ireland, be given to the Registrar in Lunacy in Southern Ireland and, if the lunatic was detained otherwise than by such order, to the Inspectors of Lunatics in Ireland; and references to the Registrar in Lunacy or the Inspectors of Lunatics in Ireland shall be construed accordingly.

8. For the purposes of sub-section (3) of section sixty-nine of the Children Act, 1908, Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland shall be treated as separate parts of the United Kingdom, and as respects Northern Ireland the central authority shall be the appropriate Minister of Northern Ireland.

9.—(1) So much of section ten of the Old Age Pensions Act, 1908, as requires provision to be made by regulations for pensions being paid, claims being made and information being obtained through the Post Office shall not apply to Northern Ireland, and accordingly references in that section to the Postmaster-General and the Post Office shall in the application of that section to Northern Ireland be omitted therefrom:

Provided that this provision shall be without prejudice to the making of arrangements under section sixty-three of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, for the exercise and performance by officers of the Post Office on behalf of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland of the powers and duties which before the appointed day were exercised and performed by those officers.

(2) The reference to "Parliament" in section three of the Old Age Pensions Act, 1911, shall not, in the application of that section to Northern Ireland, be construed as a reference to the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered amongst other things, by any such Order in Council—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments as far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act; and

(2) to make such adaptation of any enactments as appear to Him necessary or proper with respect to the execution of services with respect to which the Parliaments of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland have not power to make laws, and in particular to provide for the exercise or performance of any powers or duties in connection with those services by any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or officer of that Government where any such powers or duties are, under any existing Act or by the common law, to be exercised or performed by any department or officer in Ireland who will cease to exist as a department or officer of the Government of the United Kingdom.

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

PART I.

General.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Supreme Court Matters, etc.) Order, 1922.

(2) In this Order the expression "appointed day" means for the purposes of Part II. of this Order, the first day of October, 1921, and for the purposes of Part III. of this Order, the fifteenth day of December, 1921, and for the purposes of Part IV. of this Order, the twenty-second day of November, 1921.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) As from the appointed day the enactments to which the several Parts of this Order hereinafter contained apply shall have effect subject to the modifications and adaptations set out in those Parts respectively, save where inconsistent with the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, or the provisions of any subsequent Order in Council under that Act, and subject as respects matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland to repeal or alteration by Acts of that Parliament.

(2) Subject to the express modifications and adaptations made by this Order the Supreme Court of Judicature (Southern Ireland) Order, 1921, the Supreme Court of Judicature (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made under the said Act containing adaptations of general application shall, if and so far as they are applicable to the enactments adapted by this Order, apply thereto in like manner as to other enactments.

(3) The adaptations and modifications effected by this Order shall apply to any order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument made or issued under any of the enactments so adapted or modified and in force immediately before the appointed day in like manner as they apply to the enactment under which it was made or issued; and any such order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument shall continue in force in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if it had been made or issued under the said enactment as so modified and adapted.

PART II.

Probate Registries, etc.

3. This Part of this Order applies to the Probates and Letters of Administration Act (Ireland), 1857 (in this Part of this Order referred to as "the Act of 1857"), as amended by any subsequent enactment, and the adaptations effected by this Part of this Order shall apply in addition to the adaptations effected by the Government of Ireland (Resealing of Probates, etc.) Order, 1921.

4.—(1) The district registries at Belfast and Armagh shall cease to exist, and the district of the district registry at Londonderry shall consist of the counties of Londonderry, Tyrone and Fermanagh, and the county borough of Londonderry, and shall cease to include the county of Donegal; and Schedule A to the Act of 1857 shall be adapted accordingly.

(2) The counties of Donegal, Monaghan and Louth shall be attached to the principal registry in Dublin, and so much of Northern Ireland as is not included in the district of the district registry at Londonderry as hereinbefore constituted shall be attached to the principal registry in Belfast.

(3) The power of the Lord Lieutenant in Council under section seventeen of the Act of 1857 to alter the districts of district registries shall include power to add the area hereinbefore attached to the principal registry in Dublin or any part thereof to any district or districts in Southern Ireland or to constitute the same or any part thereof a separate district in Southern Ireland, and to fix the place of the district registry for such district.

5. The principal registry of the King's Bench Division (Probate) of the High Court of Justice in Southern Ireland shall be included amongst the offices to which the registrars in Northern Ireland are to cause copies of the calendars to be transmitted pursuant to section seventy-three of the Act of 1857 as it applies to Northern Ireland, and the principal registry of the King's Bench Division (Probate) of the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland shall be included amongst the offices to which the registrars in Southern Ireland are to cause copies of the calendars to be transmitted pursuant to the said section as it applies to Southern Ireland.

6. In the application of the Act of 1857 to Northern Ireland—

(a) section twenty-three shall have effect as if the words "appointed by the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland" were substituted for the words "appointed by the judge, but subject to the approval of the Lord Chancellor";

(b) section twenty-four shall have effect as if the words "removed by the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland" were substituted for the words "removed by the judge, with the sanction of the Lord Chancellor";

(c) section seventy-one shall have effect as if the word "Belfast" were substituted for the word "Dublin";

(d) section one hundred and fourteen shall have effect as if references to the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland were substituted for any reference to the judge of the court.

PART III.

Local Registration of Title.

7.—(1) This part of this Order applies to the Local Registration of Title (Ireland) Act, 1891 (in this Part of this Order referred to as "the Act of 1891"), as amended by any subsequent enactment.

(2) In this Part of this Order the expression "Registrar of Titles in Southern Ireland" means such officer of the Supreme Court of Judicature of Southern Ireland as may be appointed or assigned for the discharge, as respects Southern Ireland, of the duties which immediately before the fifteenth day of December, 1921, were discharged by the Registrar of Titles, and the expression "Registrar of Titles in Northern Ireland" means such officer of the Supreme Court of Judicature of Northern Ireland as may be appointed or assigned for the discharge, as respects Northern Ireland, of the duties which immediately before the said day were discharged by the Registrar of Titles.

8. The Act of 1891 as amended by any subsequent enactment shall be subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) In the application of the said Act to Southern Ireland references to Ireland shall be construed as references to Southern Ireland, and references to the Registrar of Titles shall be construed as references to the Registrar of Titles in Southern Ireland;

(b) in the application of the said Act to Northern Ireland references to Ireland shall be construed as references to Northern Ireland; references to the city of Dublin shall be construed as references to the city of Belfast, and references to the Registrar of Titles shall be construed as references to the Registrar of Titles in Northern Ireland;

(c) so much of section fourteen of the said Act as provides that a decision of the Court of Appeal is to be final and conclusive shall not apply to a decision of His Majesty's Court of Appeal in Southern Ireland or His Majesty's Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland.

9.—(1) For the purpose of forming the registers and duplicate registers to be kept in the Central Office in Belfast under the Act of 1891 as it applies to Northern Ireland, the Registrar of Titles in Southern Ireland shall separate from the registers or duplicate registers kept in the Central Office in Dublin so much thereof as relates to land in Northern Ireland, or, if and so far as such separation is not physically possible in the case of any register or duplicate register, shall cause a copy to be made of so much of the register or duplicate register, and shall certify the same to be a true copy, and shall transmit the part of any register or duplicate register so separated or the copy so certified, as the case may be, to the Registrar of Titles in Northern Ireland, together with any documents in the Central Office in Dublin which relate solely or mainly to land or matters in Northern Ireland.

(2) The Lord Chief Justice of Ireland and the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland shall by order appoint the time or times when any part of a register or duplicate register or the certified copy thereof or any such documents as aforesaid shall be transmitted to the Registrar of Titles in Northern Ireland, and shall determine the procedure to be adopted in carrying out the foregoing provisions of this article, and all questions arising in connection therewith; and in the event of their disagreement the matter in dispute shall be referred to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, whose decision shall be final.

(3) Until the part of a register or duplicate register which relates to registered land in Northern Ireland or the certified copy thereof has been transmitted to the Registrar of Titles in Northern Ireland pursuant to such order as in sub-section (2) of this article is mentioned, the Central Office for the purposes of registration in connection with such land shall be the Central Office established under the Act of 1891 in Dublin; and the Registrar of Titles and the Central Registering authority for such land shall be the Registrar of Titles in Southern Ireland, who shall have all the powers and duties in connection therewith of the Registrar of Titles in Northern Ireland under the said Act as adapted by this Order.

(4) If any questions arise as to whether the separation of a register is physically possible, or as to whether any documents relate solely or mainly to land or matters in Northern Ireland, the same shall be determined by the judges in Northern and Southern Ireland respectively to whom the duties of Land Judge of the Chancery Division are for the time being assigned, or, if they disagree, by the Lord Chancellor of Ireland.

10. The securities and moneys which on the fifteenth day of December 1921, represent the insurance fund established pursuant to section ninety-two of the Act of 1891 shall, together with the rights and liabilities affecting the same, be apportioned as between Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland by the Treasury, and the securities and moneys apportioned to Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland respectively shall be transferred in such manner and to such persons respectively as may be directed by the Treasury, and when transferred shall form part of the insurance fund in Southern Ireland or the insurance fund in Northern Ireland, as the case may be, and the provisions of the said Act with respect to the insurance fund shall be construed distributively as applying to the insurance fund in Southern Ireland or the insurance fund in Northern Ireland, as the case requires.

PART IV.

Court Houses (Ireland) Act, 1840.

11.—(1) This Part of this Order applies to section one of the Court Houses (Ireland) Act, 1840.

(2) The said section in its application to counties in Northern Ireland shall have effect with the substitution of the words "six miles" for the words "one mile."

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered amongst other things, by any such Order in Council—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments as far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act; and

(2) to make such adaptation of any enactments as appear to Him necessary or proper with respect to the execution of services with respect to which the Parliaments of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland have not power to make laws, and in particular to provide for the exercise or performance of any powers or duties in connection with those services by any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or officer of that Government where any such powers or duties are, under any existing Act or by the common law, to be exercised or performed by any department or officer in Ireland who will cease to exist as a department or officer of the Government of the United Kingdom; and

(3) to make provision with respect to the transfer of the right to recover any taxes charged but not paid before the appointed day; and for apportioning as between the Exchequer of the United Kingdom and the Exchequers of Southern and Northern Ireland the proceeds of transferred taxes properly attributable to Ireland and levied in respect of the financial year in which the appointed day falls:

And whereas for the purposes of the provisions of the said Act relating to the transfer of services, the twenty-second day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, has been fixed as the appointed day as respects Northern Ireland in relation to the financial provisions of the said Act, including taxation, but no day has as yet been fixed for the purposes aforesaid as respects Southern Ireland:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

PART I.

GENERAL.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Adaptation of the Taxing Acts) Order, 1922.

(2) In this Order the expression "appointed day" means the twenty-second day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and the expression "transferred tax" means a tax with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has after the appointed day power to make laws.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) As from the appointed day the enactments to which the several Parts of this Order hereinafter contained apply shall have effect subject to the adaptations and modifications set out in those Parts respectively, save where inconsistent with the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, or the provisions of any subsequent Order in Council under that Act, and subject as respect matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland to repeal or alteration by Acts of that Parliament.

(2) Subject to the express adaptations and modifications made by this Order, the General Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made under the said Act containing adaptations of general application apply, if and so far as they are applicable, to the enactments adapted by this Order in like manner as to other enactments.

(3) The adaptations and modifications effected by this Order shall apply to any order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument made or issued under any of the enactments so adapted or modified and in force immediately before the appointed day in like manner as they apply to the enactment under which it was made or issued; and any such order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument shall continue in force in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if it had been made or issued under the said enactment as so modified and adapted.

3. Where before the appointed day any steps have been taken by or under the direction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise in connexion with the charging, levying, or collection of any transferred tax in Northern Ireland, all further steps necessary in connexion with the charging, levying, or collection of the said tax may be taken by or under the direction of the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland.

4. Where before the appointed day any proceedings have been commenced under any enactment relating to any transferred tax or to any matter incidental to the charging, levying, or collecting of any such tax, nothing in this Order shall affect those proceedings, but the proceedings shall be continued, and any penalty or other sum recoverable thereunder shall be recovered, in like manner as if the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, had not come into operation and this Order had not been made.

5. The Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland shall cause accounts to be kept of all transferred taxes collected by him and levied in respect of a year current on the appointed day, and of all repayments of any such tax made by him in respect of tax levied and paid before the appointed day in respect of the said or any preceding year, and such accounts shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be agreed between the Minister and the Treasury, or as may in default of agreement be prescribed by the Joint Exchequer Board.

PART II.

ACTS OF GENERAL APPLICATION.

6. This Part of this Order applies to the Inland Revenue Regulation Act, 1890 (in this Part of this Order referred to as "the Act of 1890"), and the other enactments specifically mentioned in this Part, and the adaptations effected by the other Parts of this Order shall not apply to any enactment adapted by Articles 7 and 8 in this Part of this Order.

7. The Act of 1890 and the enactments amending that Act (including the Excise Transfer Order, 1909) shall have effect subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) Sections one and two of the Act of 1890 shall not apply in relation to Northern Ireland, and section three of that Act in its application to Northern Ireland shall have effect as though the words "shall have their chief office in London and" were omitted therefrom, and as though the section provided that the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland should have his chief office for the purposes of inland revenue in Belfast:

(b) The reference to the United Kingdom in sections four and twenty-seven of the Act of 1890, in relation to the inland revenue of the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, shall be construed as a reference to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, and in relation to the inland revenue of Northern Ireland shall be construed as a reference to Northern Ireland, and the reference to England or Ireland in section thirty-eight of the Finance Act, 1896, in relation to proceedings relating to the inland revenue of the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland shall be construed as a reference to England or Southern Ireland, and in relation to proceedings relating to the inland revenue of Northern Ireland shall be construed as a reference to Northern Ireland:

(c) The reference to the revenue of the United Kingdom shall be construed as including a reference to the revenue arising in the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland from taxes leviable by the Government of the United Kingdom, and in relation to Northern Ireland shall be construed as a reference to the revenue arising in Northern Ireland from transferred taxes:

(d) The references to Ireland in the Act of 1890 and in the Public Accounts and Charges Act, 1891, shall, in the application of those Acts to Northern Ireland, be construed as a reference to Northern Ireland:

(e) The reference to the Bank of Ireland in sub-section (2) of section one of the Public Accounts and Charges Act, 1891, shall, in relation to Northern Ireland, be construed as including a reference to any other bank into which moneys payable to the account of the Exchequer of Northern Ireland are to be paid.

8. The Provisional Collection of Taxes Act, 1913, in its application to transferred taxes shall have effect subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) The expression "the House of Commons" shall mean the House of Commons of Northern Ireland:

(b) The reference to an Act of Parliament where that expression first occurs in section one of the Act and the references to an Act of Parliament in provisos (b), (c), and (d) to sub-section (1) of that section shall be construed as including references to an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland, and the expression "Act of Parliament" where it secondly occurs in the said sub-section shall mean either an Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom or an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland, as the case requires.

9. For the purposes of appeals relating to mineral rights duty and of appeals as to the value of real property under sub-section (3) of section sixty of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, there shall be a separate reference committee for Northern Ireland and a separate panel of referees for Northern Ireland, and sections thirty-three and thirty-four of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, shall have effect accordingly.

The reference committee for Northern Ireland shall consist of the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland and the President of the Surveyors' Institution, but the President of the Surveyors' Institution may, if he thinks fit, appoint any person being a member of the Council of that Institution and having special knowledge of valuation in Northern Ireland to act in his place as a member of the reference committee in Northern Ireland.

10. In the application to Northern Ireland of any enactments relating to the management of inland revenue, any provisions requiring the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to act subject to the control or approval or direction of the Treasury, or any other provisions to a like effect, shall not apply.

11. In the application to Northern Ireland of any enactment relating to any transferred tax or to any matter incidental to the charging, levying, or collecting of any such tax, references to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, or to the predecessors of either of those Commissioners, and their respective officers shall (subject to any special provisions contained in this Order and unless the context otherwise requires) be construed as references to the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland and his officers, and references to particular officers of those Commissioners shall be construed as references to officers of the Minister performing corresponding functions.

In this Order the expression "officer" in relation to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and the Commissioners of Customs and Excise includes the Accountant-General of Inland Revenue and the Solicitor of Inland Revenue and the Accountant and Comptroller-General of Customs and Excise and the Solicitor for the Customs and Excise respectively.

PART III.

DEATH DUTIES ACTS.

12. This Part of this Order applies to the Death Duties Acts, that is to say, the Probate and Legacy Duties (Ireland) Act, 1814, the Probate Duty (Ireland) Act, 1816, the Succession Duty Act, 1853, Part III. of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1881, Part II. of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1889, and Part I. of the Finance Act, 1894, and the enactments amending those Acts or otherwise relating to death duties as defined in section thirteen of the Finance Act, 1894.

13.—(1) Nothing in the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, shall affect any liability for any death duties leviable under the Death Duties Acts on or with reference to deaths occurring before the appointed day, but those Acts shall continue to apply, subject, however, as respects the charging, levying, and collection of those duties, to the provisions of this article.

(2) With respect to all such death duties which have not been paid before the appointed day, the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland and his officers shall in Northern Ireland have all such powers of charging, levying, and collection as are by the existing Acts conferred on the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and their officers, and those Acts shall have effect accordingly, and the fact that any such duties which remain unpaid on the appointed day have been charged or levied by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall not affect the right of the said Minister to collect them.

(3) Any repayments or allowances that may fall to be made by reason of overcharge or otherwise in respect of

(a) death duties which were paid before the appointed day to or for the account of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue but which, if they had been unpaid at that date, would have been collected by the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland under the provisions of this article: or

(b) death duties leviable on or with reference to deaths occurring before the appointed day and collected by the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland, shall be made and granted by that Minister, and that Minister shall be empowered to obtain from the person claiming any such allowance or repayment such evidence as he may require of the payment of any death duties in respect of which the repayment or allowance is claimed and the title of the claimant to any such repayment or allowance.

(4) The Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland shall keep separate accounts of all death duties collected and all repayments and allowances made by him under this article; and all such accounts shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be agreed between him and the Treasury or, in default of agreement, as may be prescribed by the Joint Exchequer Board.

14. As respects death duties leviable in Northern Ireland and in the rest of the United Kingdom respectively on or with reference to deaths occurring on or after the appointed day, the Death Duties Acts shall apply subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) In those Acts, in their application to Northern Ireland—

(i) references to the chief office of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in London shall be construed as references to the chief office of the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland for purposes of inland revenue;

(ii) references to Dublin shall be construed as references to Belfast:

(b) References to the United Kingdom in section four of the Revenue (No. 2) Act, 1864, in section twenty-eight and sub-section

(1) of section thirty-three of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1881, in sub-section (2) of section two, sub-sections (2) and (3) of section seven and sub-section (3) of section twenty of the Finance Act, 1894, and section eight of the Savings Bank Act, 1920, shall, in the application of those provisions to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and, in the application of those provisions to the rest of the United Kingdom, shall be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland:

(c) Except in section thirty-eight of the Stamp Duties (Ireland) Act, 1842, references to Ireland shall in the application of the Acts to Northern Ireland be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in their application to the rest of the United Kingdom be construed as references to Southern Ireland:

(d) Sub-section (2) of section seven of the Finance Act, 1894, shall have effect as if for the words "in the foreign country or British possession" there were substituted the words "in the country";

(e) Section thirty-six of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, shall have effect as if the following paragraph were substituted for paragraph (b) thereof:—

"On the death of a member registered in a colonial register, the shares of the deceased member shall, if he died domiciled in Northern Ireland or in any part of the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, but not otherwise, be deemed, so far as relates to death duties in Northern Ireland and the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, respectively, to be part of his estate and effects which are situate in the country of the principal register and for or in respect of which probate or letters of administration is or are to be granted, or whereof an inventory is to be exhibited and recorded, in like manner as if he were registered in the principal register."

PART IV.

STAMP DUTIES ACTS.

15. This Part of this Order applies to the Stamp Acts, that is to say, the Stamp Act, 1891, the Stamp Duties Management Act, 1891, and any other enactments relating to stamp duties, including fees collected or received by means of stamps.

16. The Stamp Act, 1891, as amended by any subsequent enactment, shall have effect subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) An instrument which, by virtue of sub-section (1) of section twenty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, is not to be deemed to have been duly stamped unless and until stamped with a stamp denoting an amount equal to the excess mentioned in that sub-section, may, notwithstanding anything in section fifteen of the Act, be stamped with such a stamp as aforesaid without payment of any penalty at any time within thirty days after it has been first received in Northern Ireland or in the other part of the United Kingdom, as the case may be:

(b) The reference in section twenty to the admission to the degree of barrister-at-law in

Ireland of a person not previously admitted to that degree in England, or as an advocate in Scotland, shall include a reference to admission to membership of the Bar of Northern Ireland of a person not previously admitted to the degree of barrister-at-law in England or Southern Ireland, or as an advocate in Scotland, and the reference in paragraph (b) of section twenty to duty payable shall include a reference to the duty payable on the admission to membership of the Bar of Northern Ireland of a person who has been previously admitted to the degree of barrister-at-law in England or Southern Ireland or as an advocate in Scotland:

(c) References in the Act to the Society of King's Inns in Dublin shall include a reference to any corresponding society which may be established at Belfast, and if any such society is so established the references in sections twenty and twenty-eight of the Act to the treasurer of the Society of King's Inns shall, so far as relates to sums payable in Northern Ireland, be construed as references to the treasurer of the society so established.

(d) References to a public department or a public department of the State shall be construed as including references to a public department of the Government of Northern Ireland:

(e) References to Ireland in sections forty-five, forty-six, forty-seven, and forty-eight, and in the headings "Admission," "Certificate," and "Faculty," in the First Schedule to the Act, shall be construed as references to Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland, and the expression "in Ireland in the City of Dublin" in the heading "Certificate" in the said Schedule means in the application of the Act to Northern Ireland "in Northern Ireland in the City of Belfast":

(f) In the application of the Act to Northern Ireland, sub-section (2) of section one hundred and fourteen shall not apply:

(g) The reference to Government or parliamentary stocks or funds, wherever it occurs, shall be construed as including a reference to stocks or funds of the Government or Parliament of Northern Ireland, and the reference to parliamentary taxes or duties in the heading "Receipt" in the First Schedule to the Act shall be construed as including a reference to taxes or duties imposed by the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

17. The Stamp Duties Management Act, 1891, as amended by any subsequent enactment, shall have effect subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) In sections one and twenty-seven of the Act the expression "chargeable by law" shall mean, in the application of the Act to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, chargeable by law in that part of the United Kingdom, and, in the application of the Act to Northern Ireland, chargeable by law in Northern Ireland:

(b) In the application of the Act to Northern Ireland references to the chief office shall be construed as references to the chief office of the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland for the purposes of inland revenue, and references to the head offices shall not apply:

(c) The expression "stamp" shall mean, in the application of the Act to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, a stamp provided or to be provided by a department of the Government of the United Kingdom, and, in the application of the Act to Northern Ireland, a stamp provided or to be provided by the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland:

(d) The reference in section twenty-two of the Act to the London, Edinburgh and Dublin Gazettes shall be construed as including a reference to the Belfast Gazette.

18. The enactments hereinafter in this article specified shall, in their application to Northern Ireland, have effect subject to the following adaptations respectively:—

(a) The references to duties in section sixty-four of the Civil Bill Courts (Ireland) Act, 1851, and in section eight of the Manor Courts Abolition (Ireland) Act, 1859, shall be construed as references to duties chargeable in Northern Ireland:

(b) The references in the Petty Sessions Clerks (Ireland) Act, 1858, and in the Dogs Regulation (Ireland) Act, 1865, to petty sessions clerks in Ireland shall be construed as references to petty sessions clerks in Northern Ireland:

(c) The reference to the Queen's printer of Acts of Parliament in section twelve of the Finance Act, 1895, shall in relation to Acts of the Parliament of Northern Ireland be construed as a reference to the Government Printer of Northern Ireland, and the references to the London Gazette in section fourteen of that Act and in section twelve of the Finance Act, 1899, shall be construed as references to the Belfast Gazette:

(d) The reference in section thirty-nine of the Solicitors (Ireland) Act, 1898, to the head office of inland revenue in Dublin shall be construed as a reference to the chief office of the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland for the purposes of inland revenue, and section fifty-eight of that Act shall have effect as if the reference to a person appointed to be solicitor to the Treasury included a reference to a person appointed to be solicitor to the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland:

(e) The reference to inland revenue in section nine of the Revenue Act, 1898, shall be construed as a reference to the revenue arising in Northern Ireland from transferred taxes:

(f) The reference to British stamp duty in paragraph (a) of section thirty-six of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, shall be construed as a reference to stamp duty chargeable in Northern Ireland.

19. References to the United Kingdom in section eight of the Finance Act, 1899, in the application of that section to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland shall be construed as references to that part of the United Kingdom, and in the application of that section to Northern Ireland shall be construed as references to Northern Ireland.

20. The powers to be exercised and the duties to be performed by the Postmaster-General under the Inland Revenue and Post Office (Powers and Duties) Order, 1914, shall cease to be exercised or performed by him in so far as those powers and duties relate to or are connected with duties chargeable in Northern Ireland and stamps for denoting such duties

PART V.

EXCISE DUTIES ACTS.

21. This Part of this Order applies to the Excise Acts, that is to say, the Acts relating to the duties of excise and the management of those duties.

22. The Excise Acts, so far as they relate to such duties of excise as are transferred taxes and matters incidental thereto, shall be subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) In those Acts in their application to Northern Ireland—

(i) references to officers of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise or their predecessors shall, except where they occur in sections thirty-eight and one hundred and seven of the Excise Management Act, 1827, and section twenty-eight of Excise Management Act, 1834, be construed as references to the officers of the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland;

(ii) the references to Dublin in section sixty-nine of the Excise Management Act, 1827, and section four of the Finance Act, 1907, shall be construed as references to Belfast;

(iii) references to Orders by His Majesty in Council shall be construed as references to Orders by the Lord-Lieutenant in Council:

(b) References to the United Kingdom, except where they occur in section nine of the Excise Licences Act, 1825, section seventy-four of the Excise Management Act, 1827, section seven of the Excise Management Act, 1841, and paragraph 2 of section nineteen of the Excise Act, 1860, shall, in the application of the Acts to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in the application of the Acts to the rest of the United Kingdom, be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland:

(c) References to Ireland shall, in the application of the Acts to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in the application of the Acts to the rest of the United Kingdom, be construed as references to Southern Ireland:

(d) The special provisions applicable within the limits of the chief office of excise and the chief office of excise at Dublin shall not apply to Northern Ireland:

(e) The provisions of section seven of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1890, section seventeen of the Finance Act, 1907, and section seventeen of the Revenue Act, 1911, shall not apply to Northern Ireland.

23.—(1) The Commissioners of Customs and Excise may certify that any powers of the Commissioners and their officers under the Excise Acts are necessary for preventing the evasion of the excise duties the levying of which is reserved to the Commissioners, and any powers so certified shall remain exercisable by the Commissioners, and the provisions relating thereto shall continue to have effect as if the adaptations made by this Part of this Order had not been made:

Provided that nothing in this article shall prevent the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland and his officers from exercising any such powers if and so far as their exercise is, in his opinion, necessary for the charging, levying, or collection of the duties of excise transferred to the Government of Northern Ireland.

(2) Where the Commissioners of Customs and Excise certify that it is necessary, with a view to preventing the evasion of any excise duty the levying of which is reserved to them, that they should continue to have control over some specified class of excise traders, the Minister of Finance in Northern Ireland shall not grant an excise licence to a trader of that class without the consent of the Commissioners.

24. The Commissioners of Customs and Excise shall cause a copy to be made as on the appointed day of so much of the register kept by them in pursuance of section forty-four of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, as relates to premises in Northern Ireland, and shall transmit such copy to the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland, and the copy so transmitted shall form the register under the said section as on the appointed day in Northern Ireland.

25. Where any excise duty has become due but has not been paid before the appointed day, and the duty is one which if it had become due after the appointed day would have been collected by the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland, that Minister shall have power to collect and enforce payment thereof in like manner as if it had become due after the appointed day, and where any such duty has been paid before the appointed day and any repayment or allowance in respect thereof falls to be made after the appointed day, the repayment or allowance shall be made or granted by that Minister, and that Minister shall be empowered to obtain from the person claiming any such repayment or allowance such evidence as he may require of the payment of the duty in respect of which the repayment or allowance is claimed and of the title of the claimant to any such repayment or allowance.

26. Until a Government of Southern Ireland has been established and has had transferred to it the power of levying excise duties, the reference in section thirty of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, to an excise licence granted by the Government of Southern Ireland shall be construed as a reference to an excise licence granted by the Government of the United Kingdom issued in Southern Ireland.

PART VI.

INCOME TAX ACTS.

27. This Part of this Order applies to the Income Tax Acts, that is to say, the Income Tax Act, 1918 (in this Part referred to as the Act of 1918), and any other enactments relating to income tax.

28. The Income Tax Acts shall be subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) References to Acts of Parliament, except in sections thirty-five and two hundred and ten of the Act of 1918, shall be construed as including references to Acts of the Parliament of Northern Ireland:

(b) References to each or either House of Parliament, except in section two hundred and thirty-six of the Act of 1918, shall be construed as including references to each or either House of the Parliament of Northern Ireland:

(c) Schedule E. in the Act of 1918 shall have effect as if after the words "public revenue of the United Kingdom" there were inserted the words "or of Northern Ireland":

(d) References to the Irish Insurance Commissioners and the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland shall, in relation to Northern Ireland be construed as references to the corresponding departments of the Government of Northern Ireland.

PART VII.

CORPORATION PROFITS TAX ACTS.

29. This Part of this Order applies to the Corporation Profits Tax Acts, that is to say, Part V of the Finance Act, 1920, as amended by any subsequent enactment.

30. The Corporation Profits Tax Acts shall be subject to the following adaptation:—

The reference in the definition of "British company" contained in sub-section (3) of section fifty-two of the Finance Act, 1920, to the United Kingdom shall be construed as a reference to the United Kingdom or any part thereof.

PART VIII.

CUSTOMS ACTS.

31. This Part of this Order applies to the Customs Acts, that is to say, the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, and any other enactment amending that Act, or otherwise relating to duties of customs.

32. The Customs Acts in their application to Northern Ireland shall have effect subject to the following modifications:—

(a) In section one hundred and thirty-six of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, the reference to "other Government officers" shall be construed as including officers of the Government of Northern Ireland:

(b) In section two hundred and sixty-four of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, the reference to "Dublin" shall be construed as a reference to Belfast.

Almeric FitzRoy..

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council..

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council (which Orders are in that Act and hereinafter referred to as Irish Transfer Orders) to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered amongst other things, by any such Order in Council, to make such adaptations of any enactments as far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act:

And whereas by sub-section (5) of section twenty-eight of the said Act it is provided that any Irish Transfer Order providing for the adaptation of the enactments relating to the resealing or certification in one country of probate or letters of administration or confirmation of executors granted in another country, may provide that the court or officer before resealing or certifying the probate or letters of administration or confirmation shall be satisfied that estate duty, or duty in the nature of estate duty, has been paid in respect of so much, if any, of the estate as is liable to that duty in the country in which the resealing or certification takes place, and for requiring the resealing or certification of probate, letters of administration, or confirmation of executors, in cases where, by virtue of section forty-eight of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1915, such resealing or certification is not required:

And whereas by section forty-one of the said Act it is provided that, subject to the provisions of that Act and any modifications or adaptations made by Irish Transfer Orders under that Act, all enactments relating to the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland and the judges and officers thereof shall apply to the Supreme Court of Judicature in Southern Ireland and to the Supreme Court of Judicature in Northern Ireland respectively, and the judges and officers thereof, as they apply to the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland and the judges and officers thereof:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Resealing of Probates, &c.) Order, 1922.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,

The expression "the Act of 1857" means the Probates and Letters of Administration Act (Ireland), 1857, including any enactments, rules and regulations by which that Act has been extended, amended or applied.

The expression "the Act of 1858" means the Confirmation of Executors (Scotland) Act, 1858, including any enactments, rules and regulations by which that Act has been extended, amended or applied.

2.—(1) Section ninety-four of the Act of 1857 shall extend and apply to the resealing in Southern Ireland of Probates and Letters of Administration granted in Northern Ireland, and to the resealing in Northern Ireland of Probates and Letters of Administration granted in Southern Ireland, in like manner as it applies to the resealing in Ireland of Probates and Letters of Administration granted in England.

(2) References in the Act of 1857 or in the Act of 1858 to Ireland shall be construed as references to Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland as the case may be.

3.—(1) Where in pursuance of the provisions of section ninety-four or ninety-five of the Act of 1857, or of Article 2 of this Order, Probate or Letters of Administration granted by the Court in Northern Ireland are deposited for the purpose of being resealed under those provisions in England or Southern Ireland, or Probate or Letters of Administration granted by the court in England or Southern Ireland are deposited for the purpose of being resealed under those provisions in Northern Ireland, then in lieu of a certificate showing that estate duty has been paid on the issue of the original grant in respect of the assets situate in the country in which the grant is to be resealed there shall be delivered to the authority charged with resealing, together with the grant to be resealed, an affidavit accounting for the estate duty, or duty in the nature of estate duty (if any) in respect of the assets situate within the jurisdiction of the resealing authority in like manner as upon an application for an original grant of representation to such authority.

(2) Where in pursuance of section thirteen of the Act of 1858 Scottish confirmation is produced for the purpose of being sealed in Northern Ireland, then before the confirmation is so sealed an affidavit shall be filed and the Northern Irish estate duty, or duty in the nature of estate duty (if any), payable in respect of the assets situate in Northern Ireland shall be paid in the same manner as if an application was being made for an original grant.

(3) Where in pursuance of section fourteen of the Act of 1858 a Northern Ireland grant of representation is produced for the purpose of being certified in Scotland, then before the grant is so certified an inventory shall be filed and British estate duty (if any) payable in respect of the assets situate in Scotland shall be paid in the same manner as if an original application was being made for confirmation.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of section forty-eight of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1915, grants of representation by any court in Great Britain or Southern Ireland shall not have effect with respect to Government stock in Northern Ireland, and grants of representation in Northern Ireland shall not have effect with respect to Government stock outside Northern Ireland, unless sealed or certified in the country where the stock is situate, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of 1857 and 1858 as modified by this Article.

(5) This Article does not apply where the person in respect of whom the representation is granted died before the twenty-second day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments

and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered, amongst other things, by any such Order in Council to make provision with respect to the transfer and apportionment of any property, assets, rights, and liabilities in connexion with Irish services:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Transfer and Apportionment of Property) Order, 1922.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purposes of the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) Any property or assets held by or in trust for any department or authority of the Government of the United Kingdom, if held solely for the purposes of the administration of Irish services in Northern Ireland, shall be transferred to the Government of Northern Ireland, and if held partly for those purposes and partly for the purposes of the administration of—

- (a) Irish services in Southern Ireland, or
- (b) public services which are not Irish services, or
- (c) Irish services in Southern Ireland and public services which are not Irish services, shall be apportioned as between the Government of Northern Ireland and the Government of the United Kingdom in such shares or parts as may be determined by the Joint Exchequer Board, and the share or part apportioned to the Government of Northern Ireland shall be transferred to that Government.

(2) The Joint Exchequer Board may make such adjustments of property, assets, rights, and liabilities as appear to them to be necessary and proper for the purposes of any transfers or apportionments under this Order.

3. Any property or assets to be transferred to the Government of Northern Ireland in pursuance of this Order shall be transferred to such department, authority, or officer of that Government as may be specified in an Order of the Joint Exchequer Board, and shall be transferred to, and vest in, that department, authority, or officer on the date fixed by the Order without the necessity of any transfer, assignment, or other instrument, but subject to any liabilities mentioned in the Order.

4. The Joint Exchequer Board may hold or cause to be held such inquiries as they consider necessary for the purpose of the execution of their duties, and the chairman or any other member of the board designated by the board in that behalf, or any person appointed by the board to hold such inquiry shall, in relation to witnesses and their examination, the production of papers and accounts, and the inspection of places and matters, have similar powers to those conferred upon poor law inspectors by the Poor Law Acts in their application to Southern Ireland and to Northern Ireland respectively.

5. Every document purporting to be an Order made by the Joint Exchequer Board and to be signed by the chairman or deputy chairman of the board shall be received in evidence and be deemed to be such an Order without further proof, unless the contrary is shown.

6. The provisions of this Order as to apportionment shall not apply to any land or the contents or equipment of any public buildings (including the premises of any public department).

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection (3) of section nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920 (in this Order referred to as "the Act"), that the general subject-matter of the Acts relating to land purchase in Ireland shall be a reserved matter, but that the said reservation shall not include the powers of the Irish Land Commission with respect to holdings subject to purchase annuities and the apportionment and consolidation of such annuities except to such extent as may be provided by Irish transfer orders:

And whereas it is provided by section sixty-nine of the Act that His Majesty may by Orders in Council (in the Act referred to as "Irish transfer orders") make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for any matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any provisions of the Act:

And whereas the twenty-second day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, has been fixed as the appointed day, as respects Northern Ireland, for the transfer of Irish services in connection with purchase annuities:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as the Reservation of Land Commission Powers (Northern Ireland) Order, 1922.

2. The powers of the Irish Land Commission under or for the purposes of the enactments specified in the schedule to this Order, so far as they are powers with respect to holdings subject to purchase annuities and the apportionment and consolidation of such annuities, shall, as respects Northern Ireland, be included in the reservation of the general subject-matter of the Acts relating to land purchase in Ireland to the extent mentioned in the said schedule.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 20th day of October, 1921, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Saint John, Devoran, in the County of Cornwall and in the Diocese of Truro:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint John, Devoran, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Right Honourable Thomas Charles, Viscount Clifden:

"And whereas the said Thomas Charles, Viscount Clifden, is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint John, Devoran, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Truro for the time being:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Frederic Sumpter Guy, now Bishop of Truro, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Frederic Sumpter Guy, Bishop of Truro, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Saint John, Devoran, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the New Parish of Saint John, Devoran:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Charles, Viscount Clifden (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederic Sumpter Guy, Bishop of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint John, Devoran, now vested in him the said Thomas Charles, Viscount Clifden, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Frederic Sumpter Guy, Bishop of Truro, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Sumpter Guy, Bishop of Truro, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Truro.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 15th day of December, 1921, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of two neighbouring Benefices, that is to say, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Wakes Colne both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Essex and in the Diocese of Chelmsford:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel and Wakes Colne duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Chelmsford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Chelmsford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report, but with the assent of the said Bishop of Chelmsford embodies certain modifications thereof:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel and Wakes Colne are now full, the Reverend Alfred Werninck being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel, and the Reverend Maurice Frederick Orlando Bridgman being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Wakes Colne:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel and the said Benefice of Wakes Colne shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Wakes Colne with Chappel' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith and if the said Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Wakes Colne, and the then Incumbent of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice; and if the said Benefice of Wakes Colne only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel; and if neither of the said two Bene-ices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Wakes Colne shall have been instituted to Wakes Colne subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice; but if he shall have been instituted to Wakes Colne before that date, and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the Benefice of Wakes Colne following such avoidance of the Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel and the then Incumbent of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

" 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Wakes Colne shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, and that the net proceeds of such sale shall constitute and form part of the fund created by the 13th Section of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919.

" 4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the Patron of the said Benefice of Wakes Colne shall have the first turn of presentation the Patrons of the said Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel shall have the second turn of presentation and that thereafter in each series of three successive turns of presentation the said Patron of the said Benefice of Wakes Colne shall have the first and second turns of presentation and the said Patrons of the said Benefice of Pontisbright otherwise Chappel shall have the third turn of presentation.

" Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been published locally in the manner prescribed in the Statutory Rules made under the said Act and also transmitted in the manner so prescribed to the Patrons affected together with a Notice in each case requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Chelmsford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, against the said Scheme, or any part thereof, by any person who has made objection as aforesaid, to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas neither of the two Benefices affected by the said Scheme is situate in a City or Municipal Borough:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme, and to order that the two Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chelmsford.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 15th day of December, 1921, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of two neighbouring Benefices, that is to say, the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Chalvington and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Ripe both of which Benefices are situated in the County of Sussex and in the Diocese of Chichester:

" Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Winfrid Oldfield, Bishop of Chichester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Chalvington and Ripe duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Chichester and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Chichester signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report, but with the assent of the said Bishop of Chichester embodies certain modifications thereof:

"And whereas each of the said Benefices of Chalvington and Ripe is now full, the Reverend Charles Graham McElroy being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Chalvington, and the Reverend Frank Clifford Fox being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Ripe:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Winfrid Oldfield, Bishop of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Chalvington and the said Benefice of Ripe shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefices of Ripe with Chalvington' and that the Parishes of the said Benefices shall also be united into one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Act provided.

"2. That the Church of the Parish of Ripe shall be the Parish Church of the United Benefice and that the Table of Fees for the said Parish of Ripe shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the Table of Fees for the United Parish.

"3. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith, and if one only of the said two Benefices shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the other of the said two Benefices, and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of that one of the said two Benefices which shall last be avoided after the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme.

"4. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Ripe shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice, and so soon as conveniently may be the House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Chalvington and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, and that the net proceeds from such sale shall be applied as follows, that is to say (a) we shall first appropriate out of the said proceeds a sum sufficient to defray the cost of such improvements to the Parsonage House now belonging to the said Benefice of Ripe and intended to be the Parsonage House of the United Benefice as aforesaid as to us shall seem sufficient, and (b) that the remaining part of the said proceeds shall constitute and form part of the fund created by the 13th Section of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919.

"5. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present and nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in each series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination for ever thereafter the Patrons of the said Benefice of Ripe shall have the first and second turns and the Patrons of the said Benefice of Chalvington shall have the third turn.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been published locally in the manner prescribed in the Statutory Rules made under the said Act and also transmitted in the manner so prescribed to the Patrons affected together with a Notice in each case requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make certain alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Chichester has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, against the said Scheme, or any part thereof, by any person who has made objection, as aforesaid, to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas neither of the two Benefices affected by the said Scheme is situate in a City or Municipal Borough:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the two Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 15th day of December, 1921, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of two neighbouring Benefices, that is to say, the Benefice of Itchen Stoke with Abbotstone and the Benefice of Ovington, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Southampton and in the Diocese of Winchester:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of Winchester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Itchen Stoke with Abbotstone and Ovington duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Winchester, and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Winchester signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Ovington is now full, the Reverend Hugh Frederick La Mothe Stowell being the present Incumbent thereof, and the said Benefice of Itchen Stoke with Abbotstone is at present vacant:

"And whereas the said Hugh Frederick La Mothe Stowell has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Edward, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Itchen Stoke with Abbotstone and the said Benefice of Ovington shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Itchen-stoke with Abbotstone and Ovington,' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect, and the said Hugh Frederick La Mothe Stowell if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Ovington shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Ovington shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice, and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Itchen Stoke with Abbotstone and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be applied as follows, that is to say:—(a) we shall first appropriate out of such proceeds a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds towards the cost of structural alterations and improvements to the Parsonage House now belonging to the said Benefice of Ovington and intended to become the Parsonage House of the United Benefice as aforesaid, and (b) that the balance or a portion of the balance of such proceeds sufficient in our opinion to raise the net income of the proposed United Benefice to Five hundred and fifty pounds per annum shall be set aside by us and be held and invested by us for such purpose, (c) that the balance if amounting to £1,000 or less or a portion not exceeding £1,000 of the balance of such net proceeds remaining after providing for the structural alteration and improvement as aforesaid of the house which is intended to become the Parsonage House of the United Benefice and for the augmentation as aforesaid of the proposed United Benefice shall be set aside by us and be held and invested by us for the benefit of the Benefice of Swarraton with Northington in the said Diocese of Winchester, and (d) that the remaining part (if any) of the said proceeds shall constitute and form part of the fund created by the 13th Section of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919.

"4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in each series of three successive turns of presentation for ever thereafter the Patron of the said Benefice of Itchen Stoke with Abbotstone shall have the first and third turns and the Patron of the said Benefice of Ovington shall have the second turn.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been published locally in the manner prescribed in the Statutory Rules made under the said Act and also transmitted in the manner so prescribed to the Patrons affected, together with a notice in each case requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have with the consent of the Bishop of Winchester deemed right to make certain alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme, and the consent thereto in writing of the said Bishop of Winchester, has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, against the said Scheme, or any part thereof, by any person who has made objection, as aforesaid, to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas neither of the two Benefices affected by the said Scheme is situate in a City or Municipal Borough:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the two Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Winchester.

*Privy Council Office,
3rd February, 1922.*

The following Statute, made by the University of Oxford, on the 31st day of January, 1922, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD.

Statute approved by Convocation on Tuesday, January 31, 1922.

Whereas it is expedient to amend Sections I, VIII, IX, X, XII of Titulus V of the Statutes of the University of Oxford, so as to discontinue the use of the title of "University Demonstrator" as defined in Section I of that Title, and to make certain alterations in the general conditions of appointment of "University Lecturers" as defined in the same Section:

Now the said University, in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred upon it by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and of all other powers enabling it, enacts subject to the approval of His Majesty in Council as follows.

1. In Statt. Tit. V. Sect. I. cl. 1 (p. 156, ed. 1921) the words from "The words 'University Demonstrator' shall" to "subjects of the Faculty" shall be struck out.

2. Ibid., Sect. I. cl. 2 (p. 156) the words "University Lecturers and University Demonstrators" shall be struck out in both places where they occur and the words "and University Lecturers" shall be substituted.

3. Ibid., Sect. VIII. (p. 163) the words "and University Demonstrators" shall be struck out.

4. Ibid., Sect. IX. cl. 1 (p. 163) the words "and University Demonstrator" shall be struck out.

5. Ibid., Sect. IX, in cl. 8 (p. 164), cl. 9 (p. 164), and cl. 11 (p. 165) the words "University Demonstrator" shall be struck out.

6. Ibid., Sect. X (p. 165), the whole section shall be struck out and the following shall be substituted for it:—

"SECTIO X.—OF UNIVERSITY LECTURERS.

§ 1. Of the general conditions of appointment of University Lecturers.

1. The Board of any Faculty may appoint as University Lecturer in any of the subjects of the Faculty any person, subject to the provisions of this and of the following subsections.

2. No member of the University shall be eligible for appointment unless he is at least a Master of Arts, or a Bachelor of Civil Law or of Medicine, or a Doctor of Letters or of Science.

3. A University Lecturer shall be appointed for a period of not more than seven years, and subject to such requirements as to lecturing as the Board which appoints him may specify; and on the expiration of his period of office he shall not be immediately reappointed, unless elected by a majority of two-thirds of the votes given at a meeting of the Board at which not less than one-half of the members of the Board have voted.

4. Before appointing or reappointing any person to be a University Lecturer the Board shall satisfy itself of his special fitness to be so appointed.

5. The appointment or reappointment, including the period and conditions of the appointment as specified by the Board, shall be subject to the approval of the General Board of the Faculties and of Convocation.

6. University Lecturers shall receive such payment out of the Faculties Fund as the General Board of the Faculties shall determine in accordance with the provisions of Sect. XII. § 2. cl. 3 (c) of this Title.

7. Notice of the appointment or reappointment of any University Lecturer, together with the conditions of the appointment specified by the Board and approved by the General Board and by Convocation, and the payment determined by the General Board, shall be published in the usual manner.

8. The General Board shall have power to give leave of absence for a period not exceeding one Term to any University Lecturer appointed under the provisions of this Section on account of ill health or other urgent cause, and, during such period of absence, either to pay the Lecturer his stipend in whole or in part, or to employ it, or any part of it, in paying a substitute: provided that if an application for leave of absence is made on any ground other than that of ill health it must be made through the Board of the Faculty which appointed the Lecturer.

9. If the Board of any Faculty has satisfied itself that any University Lecturer appointed by it has neglected the duties of his office, it may report the circumstances to the General Board of the Faculties, which shall have power to admonish the Lecturer or to deprive him of any part of the emoluments of his office paid out of the Faculties Fund, not exceeding his stipend for one year, or, subject to the approval of Convocation, to deprive him of his office.

10. No fee, unless provided for by Statute or Decree, shall be charged for attendance at the lectures of any University Lecturer, except under the authority of the General Board of the Faculties, provided that when a University Lecturer is appointed to lecture under the direction of one of the Professors enumerated in the Schedule annexed to Statt. Tit. IV. Sect. II. E. § 18, the Professor may charge, for attendance at such lectures, a fee not exceeding £1 per Term, subject to the conditions set forth in Statt. Tit. IV. Sect. II. E. § 18. cl. 3 and cl. 4.

7. Ibid., Sect. XII. § 2. cl. 3 (c) (p.171) the words "and University Demonstrators" and the words "or University Demonstrator" shall be struck out.

The Common Seal of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford was hereunto affixed in the presence of

D. L. Chapman, Senior Proctor.

J. E. H. Weaver, Junior Proctor.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Buckingham Palace.

3rd February, 1922.

The KING has been graciously pleased to appoint the Reverend Thomas Wentworth Pym, D.S.O., M.A., to be a Chaplain to His Majesty, in the room of the Reverend Percy Mark Herbert, M.A., appointed to be Bishop Suffragan of Kingston-on-Thames.

TENDERS FOR LOANS ON TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office at the Bank of England on Friday, the 10th February, 1922, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877; the National Debt Act, 1889; and the War Loan Acts, 1914 to 1919, to the amount of £25,000,000.

2 The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any date from Monday, the 13th February, to Saturday, the 18th February, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than two o'clock (Saturday twelve o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 26 of the Finance Act, 1915, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

GOLD AND ALUMINIUM BRONZE POWDERS.

COMMITTEE UNDER PART II OF THE SAFEGUARDING OF INDUSTRIES ACT, 1921.

The Board of Trade give notice that they have received a complaint by Metal Powders, Limited, supported by Radiant Products, Ltd., and the Aluminium Corporation, Limited, that Gold (brass) Metal Powders in various shades, and Aluminium Powder, manufactured in Germany, are being sold or offered for sale in the United Kingdom at prices which, by reason of the depreciation in the value in relation to sterling of German currency, are below the prices at which similar goods can be profitably manufactured in the United Kingdom, and that by reason thereof employment in the industry manufacturing similar goods in the United Kingdom is being, or is likely to be, seriously affected. The Board of Trade, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Part II of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921, have referred the matter for inquiry to a Committee, constituted for the purposes of that part of the Act, and consisting of:—

Dr. J. H. Clapham, C.B.E. (Chairman),
Mr. F. J. Blakemore, F.G.I.,
Mr. J. T. Brownlie, C.B.E.,
Mr. J. W. Murray, D.L., and
Mr. Owen Parker, C.B.E., J.P.

The Committee are directed, after ascertaining the facts, to report to the President of the Board of Trade

(a) whether the conditions specified in Section 2, Sub-section (1), of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921, are fulfilled;

(b) on the effect which the imposition of a duty under Part II. of the Act on goods of the class or description covered by the complaint would exert on employment in any other industry being an industry using goods of that class or description as material; and

* Has served in His Majesty's Forces.

† Re-admission to British Nationality.

* Has served in His Majesty's Forces.

(c) whether in the opinion of the Committee production in the industry manufacturing similar goods in the United Kingdom is being carried on with reasonable efficiency and economy.

The Committee propose to hold their first sitting for the taking of evidence at 11.30 a.m. on Tuesday, the 21st of February, 1922, at 5, Old Palace Yard, Westminster, London, S.W. 1.

The Secretary to the Committee is Mr. D. Haigh, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W. 1, to whom all communications should be addressed.

SECTION II.

(a) In the case of classes of whole-time workers employed by the week or longer period, whose customary working week consists of a number of hours less than 48 but not less than 40 a “week” means a week of the number of hours customarily worked by the class in question;

(b) In all other cases a “week” means a week of 48 hours.

SECTION III.

For the purpose of calculating the hourly rate applicable in respect of each hour of employment, the rates set out above must be divided:—

(a) In the case of the workers referred to in Section II. (a) above by the number of hours per week customarily worked by the class in question;

(b) In all other cases by 48.

SECTION IV.

Payment at not less than the hourly rate, calculated as described in Section III., must be made for all hours of employment (not merely for those constituting a “week” as described in Section II), except in so far as higher rates are payable under Part II. below.

PART II.

OVERTIME RATES (AS VARIED) FOR MALE AND FEMALE WORKERS.

(All Ages.)

SECTION I.—In accordance with Section 3 (1) (c) of the Trade Boards Act, 1918, the Trade Board have declared the normal number of hours of work in the trade to be as follows:—

In any week, 48.

On any day other than Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, 7.

On Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, 6.

SECTION II.—The Minimum Rates for Overtime in respect of hours worked by a worker in excess of the declared normal number of hours of work in the trade shall be as follows:—

A.—As respects all workers other than Shop Assistants (as defined in Section I (c) of Part III of this Schedule) and Clerks:—

(a) For the second hour of Overtime on any day except the day which constitutes the usual weekly half-holiday, Sundays, and Customary Public Holidays and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to One-and-a-Quarter times the General Minimum Time-Rate otherwise applicable, i.e., TIME-AND-A-QUARTER.

(b) For Overtime after the first two hours of Overtime on any day except Sundays and Customary Public Holidays and Statutory Holidays, and for all Overtime after the first hour of Overtime on the day which constitutes the usual weekly half-holiday, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to One-and-a-Half times the General Minimum Time-Rate otherwise applicable, i.e., TIME-AND-A-HALF.

(c) For all Overtime after the first hour of Overtime worked on Sundays and Customary Public Holidays and Statutory Holidays the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Twice the General Minimum Time-Rate otherwise applicable, i.e., DOUBLE-TIME.

Provided that where it is or may become the established practice of an employer only to require attendance on 6 days in the week:—

The Overtime Rates shall be payable only where on any day (except Sundays and Customary Public Holidays and Statutory Holidays) the number of hours worked exceeds eight; and in the case of Sundays and Customary Public Holidays and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rates shall be payable only where on any of these days the number of hours worked exceed six.

NOTE.—During the first hour in excess of 7 hours on any day other than Sundays, and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, and during the first hour in excess of 6 hours on Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, the minimum rate applicable shall be the appropriate General Minimum Time-Rate as set out in Part I above.

B.—As respects Shop Assistants (as defined in Section I (c) of Part III of this Schedule) and Clerks:—

(a) For all hours in excess of 6 hours on Sundays and on Customary Public Holidays and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Twice the General Minimum Time-Rate otherwise applicable, i.e., DOUBLE-TIME.

(b) For all hours in excess of 6 hours of Overtime in any week the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to One-and-a-Half times the General Minimum Time-Rate otherwise applicable, i.e., TIME-AND-A-HALF, except in so far as a higher Overtime Rate may be payable under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Sub-section B (except as respects Overtime on Sundays and on Customary Public Holidays and Statutory Holidays, no Overtime Rates shall be payable in any week until 54 hours have been worked).

NOTE.—During the first 6 hours in excess of 48 in any week, the minimum rate applicable shall be the appropriate General Minimum Time-Rate as set out in Part I above, except in so far as a higher rate may be payable under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Sub-section B.

PART III.

DEFINITIONS OF CLASSES OF WORKERS AND AREAS.

SECTION I.—For the purpose of this Schedule the following definitions shall apply:—

(a) A FOREMAN is a person who is employed in any branch of the trade specified in the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1920, and to whom is deputed the duty of exercising supervising authority over workers exceeding 5 in number (exclusive of the foreman) working in any shop, department, or other branch of the trade.

(b) A ROUNDSWOMAN is a female person in charge of a round or rounds.

(c) A SHOP ASSISTANT is a male or female person wholly or mainly employed in a shop in serving customers and/or in checking in and out.

SECTION II.—The minimum rates set out in the respective Scales A, B and C in Part I of this Schedule shall apply as follows:—

SCALE A.—(a) To all areas administered by Rural District Councils and (b) to all areas administered by Municipal Borough Councils and Urban District Councils which according to the most recent Census had a population of less than 10,000; but so as in neither case to apply to any area within the Metropolitan Police District.

SCALE B.—To all areas other than those to which Scales A and C apply.

SCALE C.—To the area comprising the City of London and the Metropolitan Police District.

Provided that the rate applicable to a roundsman or roundswoman shall be determined by reference to the area in which the greater part of his or her round of distribution lies.

PART IV.

SECTION I.—The above Minimum Rates of wages shall apply, subject to the provisions of the Trade Boards Acts, to all workers in England and Wales in respect of all time during which they are employed in any branch of the trade specified in the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1920.

SECTION II.—The Trade as specified in the above-mentioned Order is as follows:—

1.—(a) The wholesale or retail sale of fresh milk when carried on as a main or distinct business or as a distinct branch or department of a business.

(b) The sale of food or drink for consumption on the premises, or of other goods, when any such sale is carried on in association with and as a subsidiary part of such business, branch or department as aforesaid, if such sale involves the employment of workers who are principally employed in the sale specified in (a) above.

2.—(a) the following operations when incidental to the sales specified in 1 above:

(i) boxing, parcelling, labelling, weighing, measuring, checking, bottling, unpacking, packing;

(ii) collecting, delivering, despatching, horse-keeping, cleaning vehicles;

(iii) portering, lift or hoist operating, time-keeping, storing, stock-keeping, warehousing, cleaning premises;

(iv) Pasteurising, cooling, separating of milk;

(v) cleaning utensils or receptacles;

(vi) blending, testing, sampling;

(vii) other incidental operations;

(b) clerical work or canvassing when incidental to and carried on in conjunction with the work specified in 1 above.

but excluding any operations in:—

(a) the transport of goods by common carriers;

(b) any industry or trade concerned exclusively with carting and operations incidental thereto;

(c) Post Office business;

(d) Agriculture within the meaning of the Corn Production Act, 1917.

PART V.

SECTION I.—The above General Minimum Time-Rates and Overtime Rates shall be paid clear of all deductions other than deductions under the National Insurance Act, 1911, as amended by any subsequent enactments or deductions authorised by any Act, to be made from wages in respect of contributions to any Superannuation or other Provident Fund.

SECTION II.—The above Minimum Rates of Wages are without prejudice to workers who are earning higher rates of wages, to workers of greater skill or length of experience, or to Agreements made or that may be made between employers and workers for the payment of wages in excess of these Minimum Rates of Wages.

Signed by Order of the Trade Board and in pursuance of an Order of the Minister of Labour confirming the Minimum Rates as varied by the Trade Board and set out above and specifying the 1st day of February, 1922, as the date from which they should become effective.

This Thirty-first day of January, 1922.

SALFORD.

Whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Salford (hereinafter called the Corporation), being the Urban Sanitary Authority for the said Borough, have made application to the Minister of Health for the issue of a Provisional Order under Sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, to partially repeal, alter or amend the Salford Corporation Act, 1920, so as:—

(1) To extend the application of Section 131 of the Act, which enables the Corporation to make bye-laws for preventing the removal from slaughter-houses provided by them of any carcase or any part thereof until after inspection by an officer of the Corporation, to all slaughter-houses within the said Borough;

(2) To alter Section 95 of the Act so as to enable the Corporation to make bye-laws for securing the cleanliness of any vehicle or receptacle in which meat or other articles intended for the food of man are conveyed through or along any street, and of any material covering, or used on, any such vehicle or receptacle, and for preventing persons driving, or riding in such vehicles from sitting or standing on, or supporting themselves by, any such meat or other articles; and

(3) For the several purposes of the Application or for purposes connected with, incidental to, or consequent on those purposes to make any such alteration or amendment of the said Local Act or of any other Local Act or of any Act confirming a Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the Sanitary Acts or of the Public Health Act, 1875, and in force in the said Borough as may be necessary or desirable:

And whereas it is proposed that a Provisional Order should be issued in compliance with the said Application:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, LL.D., Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Ministry of Health, will attend at the Town Hall, Salford, on Friday, the Seventeenth day of February, 1922, at Ten o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

As witness my hand this Twenty-eighth day of January, 1922, at the office of the Ministry of Health, Whitehall, London, S.W. 1.

Charles Knight,
Assistant Secretary.

OLDHAM.

Whereas the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Oldham (hereinafter called the Corporation), being the Urban Sanitary Authority for the said Borough, have made application to the Minister of Health for the issue of a Provisional Order under Sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, to partially repeal, alter or amend the Oldham Borough Improvement Act, 1865, so as:—

(1) To increase certain of the tolls, stallages and rents which the Corporation are entitled to demand and receive in their Covered Provision and Vegetable Market and Open Markets, as set forth in the Sixth Schedule to the said local Act, in the following manner, viz.:—

Shops.

From the occupier of every enclosed shop or stall, whether for sale of butcher's meat, game, poultry, fish, vegetables, fruit, china, glass, earthenware, baskets, hardware, or other commodities, articles or things, according to the size and dimensions of such shop, namely, for each superficial foot or fractional part thereof, if let by week, any weekly sum not exceeding 3d. instead of 1½d.

Butchers' Stalls.

From every person occupying or using any butcher's stall or standing, or any ground space for the sale of meat, according to the size and dimensions of the same; namely, for each superficial foot or fractional part thereof of every such stall, standing or ground space occupied or used by him, if let by the week, any weekly sum not exceeding 3d. instead of 1½d. And if let by the day a proportionate part of such weekly charge.

Tolls at Fairs.

From any person carrying or exposing for sale any provisions, vegetables, goods, articles, commodities or things whatsoever in any market or market-place or places for Fairs in the Borough, or in any lands connected therewith, and who shall not be otherwise chargeable under this Schedule as occupying any stall, standing, or ground space, any sum not exceeding for each day 2s. 6d. instead of 6d.

(2) For the several purposes of the Application or for purposes connected with, incidental to, or consequent on those purposes to make any such alteration or amendment of the said Local Act, or of any other Local Act or Act confirming a Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the Sanitary Acts or of the Public Health Act, 1875, in force in the said Borough as may be necessary or desirable:

And whereas it is proposed that a Provisional Order should be issued in compliance with the said Application:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, LL.D., Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Ministry of Health, will attend at the Town Hall, Oldham, on Wednesday, the Fifteenth day of February, 1922, at Ten o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

As witness my hand this Twenty-eighth day of January, 1922, at the Office of the Ministry of Health, Whitehall, London, S.W. 1.

Charles Knight,
Assistant Secretary.

WARRINGTON.

Whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warrington (hereinafter called the Corporation), being the Urban Sanitary Authority for the said Borough, have made application to the Minister of Health for the issue of a Provisional Order under Sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, to partially repeal, alter or amend the Warrington Improvement and Market Act, 1854, the Warrington Corporation Lighting and Improvement Act, 1879, the Warrington Order, 1896, which was confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 20) Act, 1896, and the Warrington Corporation Act, 1899, so as:—

(1) To empower the Corporation to abolish the present Improvement Rate and General Sewers Rate, and to provide for the payment of all expenses of the Corporation out of the Borough Fund; and

(2) For the several purposes of the application or for purposes connected with, incidental to, or consequent on those purposes to make any such alteration or amendment of the said Local Acts or of any other Local Act or of any Act confirming a Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the Sanitary Acts or of the Public Health Act, 1875, and in force in the said Borough, as may be necessary or desirable:

And whereas it is proposed that a Provisional Order should be issued in compliance with the said Application:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, LL.D., Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Ministry of Health, will attend at the Town Hall, Warrington, on Thursday, the Sixteenth day of February, 1922, at Ten o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

As witness my hand this Twenty-eighth day of January, 1922, at the office of the Ministry of Health, Whitehall, London, S.W. 1.

Charles Knight,
Assistant Secretary.

GAS REGULATION ACT, 1920.

Notice of Application by the Mid-Kent Gas Light and Coke Company for an Order under Section 1 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mid-Kent Gas Light and Coke Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Undertakers") have applied to the Board of Trade under the provisions of Section 1 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920, for an Order providing for—

(a) the repeal of any enactments or other provisions requiring the Undertakers to supply gas of any particular illuminating value and the substitution therefor of power to charge for thermal units supplied in the form of gas; and

(b) The modification of the statutory or other provisions affecting the charges which may be made by the Undertakers by substituting for the standard price per 1,000 cubic feet now authorised with an addition to meet increases in the costs and charges of and incidental to the production and supply of gas by the Undertakers since 30th June, 1914, a standard price per therm (i.e., 100,000 British Thermal Units).

The standard price now authorised in respect of the supply of gas by the Undertakers is four shillings per 1,000 cubic feet, and the price which the Undertakers have asked the Board of Trade to substitute for this price in accordance with paragraph (b) above is 1s. 7.6d. per therm.

It is also proposed that additional charges per therm should be authorised in respect of gas supplied through a prepayment meter varying according to whether such meters are with or without fittings or with a cooker and fittings.

A copy of the application made to the Board of Trade and of all the documents submitted therewith may be inspected, free of charge, at the offices of the Undertakers at Snodland, Kent, at any time during office hours.

Any local authority or person desiring to make representations with regard to the application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Power Transport and Economic Department, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W. 1, and posted not later than 1st March prox.

A copy of such representations must at the same time be sent to the undersigned.

Dated this 3rd day of February, 1922.

ALRESFORD WATER COMPANY,
LIMITED.

WATER UNDERTAKINGS (MODIFICATION OF CHARGES) ACT, 1921.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Alresford Water Company, Limited, have made application to the Minister of Health under the above Act for an Order amending an Order made by the Board of Trade, under the Statutory Undertakings (Temporary Increase of Charges) Act, 1918, dated 30th June, 1920, so as to enable them to make the increased charges for water supply authorised by such Temporary Increase of Charges Order for purposes in the water limits within which they are empowered to supply water, for a further period of five years after the date fixed for the expiration of the said Temporary Increase of Charges Order.

The scale of charges at present authorised for domestic supply is as follows:—

Under Alresford Water Order, 1913.

House not exceeding £5 gross estimated rental, 8s. 8d. per annum.

House exceeding £5 and not exceeding £100 gross estimated rental, 7½ per cent. of such gross estimated rental.

House exceeding £100 gross estimated rental, 5 per cent. of such gross estimated rental.

Every water closet beyond the first, 5s. per annum.

Baths not exceeding 50 gallons, 10s. per annum.

Meter supplies, 2s. per 1,000 gallons.

Under Alresford Water (Temporary Increase of Charges) Order, 1920.

The above charges, with an additional increase of 30 per cent. of such charges.

The Order of 1920 authorises the Temporary Increased Charges to continue until two years after the end of the war, viz., 31st August, 1923.

A copy of the application and of all documents submitted to the Minister in connection therewith may be inspected and extracts thereof made free of charge at the registered office of the Company, East Street, Alresford, Hants, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, and between the hours of 9 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturdays. Copies of the documents may be purchased from the undersigned Solicitors for the Company, East Street, Alresford, at the usual charges made for copying.

Any person desiring to make any representation or objection with reference to the application may do so by letter addressed to the Secretary, Ministry of Health, Whitehall, London, S.W. 1, not later than the 8th day of March, 1922. A copy of any such representation or objection must be sent at the same time to the registered office of the Company or to the undersigned Solicitors.

Dated 30th January, 1922.

Signed on behalf of the Board of Directors.

REGINALD V. HEWITT, Secretary.

SHIELD AND MACKARNES, Solicitors to the Company, East Street, Alresford, Hants.

H.M. OFFICE OF LAND REGISTRY.

(State Guaranteed Title.)

Land Transfer Acts, 1875 and 1897.

NOTICE.—The following persons are about to be registered as Proprietors of the following Properties with Absolute or Good Leasehold Title:—

Plans of the several properties can be seen at the Land Registry, Lincoln's Inn Fields. Any person may, by notice in writing, signed by himself or his Solicitor, and delivered at the Registry before the expiration of one month from the appearance of this Notice, object to the registration. The Notice must state concisely the grounds of the objection, and give the address in the United Kingdom of the person delivering the Notice, and, if it is delivered by a Solicitor, must give the name and address of the person on whose behalf it is given.

Information as to registration and the mode and cost of application for it can be obtained at the Registry.
