

1900, shall cease to have effect in Northern Ireland after the appointed day.

(3) In the application of section three of the Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872, to Northern Ireland a reference to the Lord Lieutenant shall be substituted for the reference to His Majesty.

(4) In the application of the Alkali, &c., Works Regulation Act, 1906, to Northern Ireland references to the Local Government Board for Northern Ireland shall be substituted for references both to the Local Government Board and to the central authority as in that Act defined.

(5) In any enactment provisions as to the Labourers' Cottages Fund and the Irish Housing Fund shall cease to have effect as respects Northern Ireland after the appointed day, but without prejudice to the apportionment to the Government of Northern Ireland of any part of either of those funds as the share of Northern Ireland therein.

4. The Midwives (Ireland) Act, 1918, in its application to Northern Ireland shall have effect with the following adaptations:—

(a) references to the Privy Council shall be construed as references to the Privy Council of Ireland; the reference to the Lord President of the Council shall be construed as a reference to the Lord Lieutenant; and references to the Central Midwives Board and to the Midwives Roll shall, respectively, be construed as references to the Central Midwives Board for Northern Ireland and to the Midwives Roll for Northern Ireland;

(b) in section three references to Ireland shall be construed as references to Northern Ireland; and the reference to Dublin shall be construed as a reference to Belfast; and in sub-section (1) of the same section "After the first day of December, 1921," shall be substituted for "On the passing of this Act"; "two" shall be substituted for "three"; "one" shall be substituted for "two"; "two registered medical practitioners" shall be substituted for "four registered medical practitioners" and "three women" shall be substituted for "four women";

(c) every woman who immediately before the appointed day is certified under the said Act shall in Northern Ireland be deemed to have been certified under and for the purposes of the said Act in its application to Northern Ireland.

5.—(1) The Nurses Registration (Ireland) Act, 1919, in its application to Northern Ireland shall have effect with the following adaptations:—

(a) references to the General Nursing Council for Ireland shall be construed as references to the General Nursing Council for Northern Ireland, and references to the register shall be construed as references to the Register of Nurses for the Sick in Northern Ireland;

(b) in paragraph 1 of the Schedule "five" shall be substituted for "fifteen";

(c) in paragraphs 2 and 4 of the Schedule "two" shall be substituted for "six" and "three" shall be substituted for "nine";

(d) in paragraph 3 of the Schedule "first day of December, 1921," shall be substituted for "commencement of this Act";

(e) any person who immediately before the appointed day is registered under the said Act shall in Northern Ireland be deemed to have been registered under and for the purposes of the said Act in its application to Northern Ireland.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (3) of section six of the Nurses Registration Act, 1919, sub-section (3) of section six of the Nurses Registration (Scotland) Act, 1919, and sub-section (3) of section six of the Nurses Registration (Ireland) Act, 1919 (which relate to rules for the admission to the register in one part of the United Kingdom of persons registered as nurses in another part of the United Kingdom), Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland shall be treated as separate parts of the United Kingdom, and as respects Northern Ireland the General Nursing Council for Northern Ireland shall, when established, be treated for the purposes of the sub-section first mentioned and the sub-section last mentioned, as a Nursing Council to be consulted in connection with rules proposed to be made by any other Nursing Council.

6.—(1) The enactments hereinafter specified shall, in their application to Northern Ireland, have effect subject to the following adaptations respectively:—

(a) in section six of the Locomotive Act, 1861, the Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland shall be substituted for one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State;

(b) in sub-section (2) of section nine of the Development and Road Improvement Fund Act, 1909, as amended by the Roads Act, 1920, the words "shall consult with the Local Government Board and" shall be omitted;

(c) in sub-section (2) of section twenty-two of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, "seven" shall be substituted for "eleven" and "three" for "five";

(d) in the Roads Act, 1920, references to Orders in Council shall be construed as references to the Lord Lieutenant in Council; references to the Road Fund shall be construed as references to the Road Fund (Northern Ireland), and there shall be transferred to the last-mentioned Fund so much of the first-mentioned Fund as may be apportioned to the Government of Northern Ireland as the share of Northern Ireland therein;

(2) References to the United Kingdom in sub-section (5) of section thirteen of the Finance Act, 1920, shall in the application of that section to Northern Ireland be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in the application of that section to the rest of the United Kingdom be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, but without prejudice to the operation of section thirty of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920.

7.—(1) In sections three, four, fourteen and twenty of the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842, section eight of the Criminal Lunatics Act, 1884, and sections eighty-six, eighty-seven and eighty-eight of the Lunacy Act, 1890, references to Ireland shall be construed as references to Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland or to Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland, as the case requires.

(2) For the purposes of the application of sub-section (5) of section eight of the Criminal
