

part, or to employ it, or any part of it, in paying a substitute: provided that if an application for leave of absence is made on any ground other than that of ill health it must be made through the Board of the Faculty which appointed the Lecturer.

9. If the Board of any Faculty has satisfied itself that any University Lecturer appointed by it has neglected the duties of his office, it may report the circumstances to the General Board of the Faculties, which shall have power to admonish the Lecturer or to deprive him of any part of the emoluments of his office paid out of the Faculties Fund, not exceeding his stipend for one year, or, subject to the approval of Convocation, to deprive him of his office.

10. No fee, unless provided for by Statute or Decree, shall be charged for attendance at the lectures of any University Lecturer, except under the authority of the General Board of the Faculties, provided that when a University Lecturer is appointed to lecture under the direction of one of the Professors enumerated in the Schedule annexed to Statt. Tit. IV. Sect. II. E. § 18, the Professor may charge, for attendance at such lectures, a fee not exceeding £1 per Term, subject to the conditions set forth in Statt. Tit. IV. Sect. II. E. § 18. cl. 3 and cl. 4."

7. Ibid., Sect. XII. § 2. cl. 3 (c) (p.171) the words "and University Demonstrators" and the words "or University Demonstrator" shall be struck out.

The Common Seal of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford was hereunto affixed in the presence of

TENDERS FOR LOANS ON TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office at the Bank of England on Friday, the 10th February, 1922, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877; the National Debt Act, 1889; and the War Loan Acts, 1914 to 1919, to the amount of £25,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any date from Monday, the 13th February, to Saturday, the 18th February, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than two o'clock (Saturday twelve o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 26 of the Finance Act, 1915, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.
