At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of March, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920. His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered, amongst other things, by any such Order in Council—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments as far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act; and

(2) to make such adaptation of any enactments as appear to Him necessary or proper with respect to the execution of services with respect to which the Parliaments of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland have not power to make laws, and in particular to provide for the exercise or performance of any powers or duties in connection with those services by any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or officer of that Government where any such powers or duties are, under any existing Act or by the common law, to be exercised or performed by any department or officer in Ireland who will cease to exist as a department or officer of the Government of the United Kingdom:

And whereas for the purposes of the provisions of the said Act relating to the transfer of services, the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, has been fixed as the appointed day as respects Northern Ireland in relation to (amongst others) Irish services in connection with the matters dealt with by this Order, but no day has as yet been fixed for the purposes aforesaid as respects Southern Ireland:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

PART I.

General.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Companies, Societies, etc.) Order, 1922.

(2) In this Order the expression "appointed day" means the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) As from the appointed day the enactments to which the several Parts of this Order hereinafter contained apply shall have effect subject to the modifications and adaptations set out in those Parts respectively, save where inconsistent with the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, or the provisions of any subsequent Order in Council under that Act, and subject as respects matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland to repeal or alteration by Acts of that Parliament.

(2) Subject to the express modifications and adaptations made by this Order the General Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made under the said Act containing adaptations of general application shall, if and so far as they are applicable to the enactments adapted by this Order, apply thereto in like manner as to other enactments.

(3) The modifications and adaptations effected by this Order shall apply to any order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument made or issued under any of the enactments so adapted or modified and in force immediately before the appointed day in like manner as they apply to the enactment under which it was made or issued; and any such order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument shall continue in force in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if it had been made or issued under the said enactment as so modified and adapted.

PART II.

Companies, Partnerships, &c.

5. The officer appointed by the Government of Northern Ireland to perform in Northern Ireland the functions of the registrar of companies shall, in Northern Ireland, have all the powers of the registrar under the enactments to which this Part applies, and references in those enactments and in any other enactments to the registrar of companies or the registrar of joint stock companies shall, in their application to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to that officer.

6.—(1) For the purpose of forming registers of companies, partnerships and persons so deemed to be registered in Northern Ireland as aforesaid, the assistant registrar of companies and the registrar of business names for Ireland shall separate from any register kept by them so much thereof as at the appointed day relates to such companies, partnerships and persons, or if the register is not capable of such sub-division, shall cause a copy to be made as at the appointed day of so much thereof as relates to them.

(2) The parts so separated, or the copies so made, shall be transmitted by the said assistant registrar and registrar to the officer so appointed as aforesaid, together with any documents deposited or filed with them relating to such companies, partnerships and persons as aforesaid, and the part or copy so sent shall, as respects the companies, partnerships and persons entered therein, become the register in Northern Ireland as at the appointed day of the companies, partnerships, or persons to whom the original register related.

Provided that this provision shall be without prejudice to the power of the Government of Northern Ireland to cause registers to be compiled in cases where by reason of there being no registers existing at the appointed day in Ireland such parts or copies thereof cannot be so transmitted as aforesaid.

7. The Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, shall, in addition to the adaptations effected therein by the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Order, be subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) References to Ireland shall be construed as references to Northern Ireland or Southern Ireland or to Northern Ireland and Southern Ireland as the case may require, and Northern Ireland and Southern Ireland shall be deemed to be separate parts of the United Kingdom;

(2A) Any order made by the court in Southern Ireland for the purpose of or in course of winding up a company shall be enforced in Northern Ireland in the court that would have jurisdiction in respect of that company if registered in Northern Ireland, and in the same manner in all respects as if the order had been made by that court, and any order made by the court in Northern Ireland for the purpose of or in course of winding up a company shall be enforced in Southern Ireland in the court that would have jurisdiction in respect of that company if registered in Southern Ireland, and in the same manner in all respects as if the order had been made by that court.

(e) In section two hundred and seventy-four as extended by section nineteen of the Assurance Companies Act, 1909, and section one of the Companies (Particulars as to Directors) Act, 1917, references to the United Kingdom wherever they occur shall, in the application of the Act to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in the application of the Act to the rest of the United Kingdom, be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland, and paragraph (2) (b) of section two hundred and seventy-six shall be construed accordingly.

Provided that the first-mentioned section as so adapted shall not apply to a company registered or constituted in any part of the United Kingdom before the appointed day.

(f) The power to hold land conferred by section sixteen shall include power to hold land in any part of the United Kingdom whether the company was registered before or after the appointed day, and whether the company was registered in Northern Ireland or in some other part of the United Kingdom.

8. References to the United Kingdom in sub-section (2) of section two of the Companies (Particulars as to Directors) Act, 1917, wherever they occur, shall in the application of that Act to Northern Ireland be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in the application of that Act to the rest of the United Kingdom shall be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland.

(b) Section fifteen shall have effect as if for that section the following section were substituted:

"The registrar of companies shall be the registrar of limited partnerships, and the office for the registration of companies in Belfast shall be the office for the registration of limited partnerships."

10. The Registration of Business Names Act, 1916, shall, in addition to the adaptations effected therein by the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Order, be subject to the following adaptations:

(a) References to the United Kingdom in sections one and two shall, in the application of the Act to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in the application of the Act to the rest of the United Kingdom, be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland:

Provided that where a firm, individual, or corporation has been registered before the appointed day in any part of the United Kingdom, then—

(i) if by virtue of this Order the firm, individual or corporation is deemed to be registered in Northern Ireland, it shall not be necessary to register it in any other part of the United Kingdom; and

(ii) if not so deemed to be registered in Northern Ireland, it shall not be necessary to register it in Northern Ireland.

(b) In the application of the Act to Northern Ireland—

(ii) Section six shall have effect as if the words "in that part of the United Kingdom in which the aforesaid particulars are registered" were omitted therefrom.

(iii) Section fifteen shall have effect as if the following section were substituted therefor:

11. This Part of this Order applies to the Assurance Companies Act, 1909.

12. References to the United Kingdom in section one of the First Schedule to the Act shall, in the application of the Act to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and in the application of the Act to the rest of the United Kingdom, be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland:

Provided that where an assurance company has before the appointed day made a deposit in accordance with the Act in respect of any class of assurance business, then—

(a) if the company is by virtue of this Order deemed to be registered in Northern Ireland, or if not being a registered company it has its head office in Northern Ireland, it shall not be necessary for the company to make a deposit in respect of that class of business in any other part of the United Kingdom; and

(b) if the company is not deemed to be so registered, or if not being a registered company it has its head office in a part of the United Kingdom other than Northern Ireland, it shall not be necessary for the company to make a deposit in respect of that class of business in Northern Ireland.

13.—(1) The Act, in its application to assurance companies registered or having their head office in Northern Ireland, shall be subject to the following adaptations:—

PART IV.

Friendly Societies, Trade Unions, &c.

14. This Part of this Order applies to the enactments relating to societies and trade unions and branches thereof (hereinafter referred to as societies) with respect to which the registrar of friendly societies has powers, that is to say, the Friendly Societies Acts, 1896 and 1908, the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 to 1913, the Building Societies Acts, 1874 to 1894, the Scientific Societies Act, 1843, and the Trade Union Acts, 1871 to 1917, and other enactments relating to the registrar of friendly societies:

Provided that this Part of this Order does not apply to any enactment relating to any reserved matters or matters with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has not power to make laws.

15. Any society registered at the appointed day in Ireland under any of the enactments to which this Part of this Order applies whose registered or chief office is situate in Northern Ireland shall be deemed for the purposes of the said enactments to be registered in Northern Ireland, and any society which has at the appointed day obtained a certificate in Ireland under the Scientific Societies Act, 1843, shall, if any property belonging to the society either as tenant or owner and occupied by it for the transaction of its business is situate in Northern Ireland, be deemed to have obtained a certificate in Northern Ireland.

16.—(1) The officer appointed by the Government of Northern Ireland to perform in Northern Ireland the functions of registrar of friendly societies shall, in relation to societies registered or applying for registration in Northern Ireland, and in relation to unregistered societies whose chief office or principal place of business is in Northern Ireland, and in relation to societies to which the Scientific Societies Act, 1843, applies who have property in Northern Ireland, have all the powers both of the assistant registrar of friendly societies for Ireland and of the chief registrar and of the central office, except so far as those powers relate to reserved matters or matters with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has not power to make laws, and may exercise those powers notwithstanding that the society is not a society which does business exclusively in Northern Ireland; and, except as aforesaid, references in those Acts or in any other enactment to the chief registrar, the registrar of friendly societies, the assistant registrar of friendly societies for Ireland, and the central office shall, in their application to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to the officer so appointed as aforesaid:

Provided that—

(b) any enactment requiring the assistant registrar of friendly societies for Ireland to act subject to the control or approval or direction of the chief registrar, or providing an appeal from the decision of such assistant registrar to the chief registrar, shall not apply to Northern Ireland.

(2) The provisions of the Friendly Societies Act, 1896, as to the qualifications to be possessed by the person appointed registrar or assistant registrar shall not apply to the person so appointed as aforesaid.

17.—(1) For the purpose of forming registers of societies so deemed to be registered in Northern Ireland as aforesaid, the assistant registrar of friendly societies for Ireland shall separate from any registers kept by him so much thereof as at the appointed day relates to such societies, or if the register is not capable of such subdivision, shall cause a copy to be made as at the appointed day of so much thereof as relates to them.

(2) The parts so separated or copies so made shall be transmitted by the assistant registrar to the officer so appointed as aforesaid, together with any documents deposited or filed with him relating to such societies as aforesaid, and the part or copy so sent shall as respects societies entered therein become the register in Northern Ireland as at the appointed day of the societies to whom the original register related:

Provided that this provision shall be without prejudice to the power of the Government of Northern Ireland to cause registers to be compiled in cases where by reason of there being no registers existing at the appointed day such parts or copies thereof cannot be so transmitted as aforesaid.

18. The assistant registrar of friendly societies for Ireland shall furnish to the Ministry of Commerce for Northern Ireland a list of all records made by him of the deposit with him of documents deposited by societies registered in England or Scotland but carrying on business in Ireland, and the documents the deposit of which is so recorded shall be deemed to have been deposited and the deposit thereof recorded in Northern Ireland; but this provision shall not continue in force for more than six months after the appointed day unless in the meantime the society has deposited with the officer appointed as aforesaid to be recorded by him a copy of the documents in question.

19.—(1) Northern Ireland and Southern Ireland shall be deemed to be separate parts of the United Kingdom for the purposes of sections fourteen, seventeen and eighteen of the Friendly Societies Act, 1896, and of section five of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1893, and to be separate countries for the purposes of section six of the Trade Union Act Amendment Act, 1876.

(2) It shall be the duty of the assistant registrar of friendly societies for Ireland to inform every society which at the appointed day is registered in Ireland and carries on business in Northern Ireland of the effect of this Article, and no such society shall be entitled to continue to carry on business in Northern Ireland after the expiration of six months from the appointed day unless before such expiration it has deposited with the officer appointed as aforesaid a copy of its rules and of any amendments of its rules and they have been recorded by him.

20. References in the Friendly Societies Acts, 1896 and 1908, to Treasury regulations shall, in the application of those Acts to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to regulations of the Ministry of Commerce for Northern Ireland.

21. The functions which were before the appointed day performed by the Treasury under the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 to 1913, shall as from that day, in so far as those functions relate to Irish services in Northern Ireland, be performed by the Ministry of Commerce for Northern Ireland, and references in those Acts to the Treasury shall, in the application thereof to Northern Ireland, be construed accordingly.

22. Subject to compliance with the provisions of the Acts relating to the deposit of documents in the case of a society carrying on business in a part of the United Kingdom other than that in which it is registered, a society registered in Northern Ireland shall have the status of a registered society in the other parts of the United Kingdom, and a society registered in any part of the United Kingdom other than Northern Ireland shall have the status of a registered society in Northern Ireland; and the Acts, both in their application to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland and in their application to Northern Ireland, shall have effect accordingly.

23. Where under any enactment relating to matters with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has not power to make laws anything is required or authorized to be done by the assistant registrar of friendly societies for Ireland, the duty or power shall in Northern Ireland be performed or exercised by the chief registrar of friendly societies, or a deputy appointed by him.

References to weights and measures shall be construed as including references to weighing machines, weighing instruments, and measuring instruments.

6. The Acts in their application to Northern Ireland shall have effect subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) Except where the context otherwise requires, references to the Board of Trade shall be construed as references to the Ministry, and references to the Treasury shall be construed as references to the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland:

(b) The references to the commencement of the Act of 1878 in section nine of that

Act shall be construed as references to the appointed day:

(c) The references in sections thirty-nine and sixty-three respectively of the Act of 1878 to the London Gazette and the London, Edinburgh and Dublin Gazettes shall be construed as references to the Belfast Gazette:

(d) References to orders made or to be made, and to approval given or to be given, by His Majesty in Council shall be construed as references to orders made or to be made, and to approval given or to be given, by the Lord Lieutenant in Council.

7. Unless the context otherwise requires, references to Ireland shall, in the application of the Acts to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to Northern Ireland, and, in the application of the Acts to Southern Ireland, be construed as references to Southern Ireland.

8. The following provisions shall have effect with respect to primary and secondary standards of measure and weight for the purposes of the Acts in Northern Ireland:—

(1) If the Ministry by order so direct, there shall be primary standards of measure and weight for Northern Ireland for determining the Imperial standard yard and the Imperial standard pound respectively, and for the purpose of providing such primary standards for Northern Ireland the Ministry shall cause accurate copies to be made of the Imperial standard of weight and the Imperial standard of measure of the same form and material as the Imperial standards, and the copies so made shall, when approved by the Lord Lieutenant in Council, be the primary standards for Northern Ireland.

Provision may be made by order under this paragraph for applying in relation to the primary standards for Northern Ireland any of the provisions of the Acts relating to the Parliamentary copies of the Imperial standards.

(2) The Ministry shall, as soon as may be after the appointed day and thereafter from time to time, cause to be provided and verified such secondary standards of measure and weight (being standards of such denominations as the Board of Trade have power to cause to be made under section eight of the Act of 1878 as amended and extended by any other enactment contained in the Acts), as appear to the Ministry to be required for the purposes of the Acts in Northern Ireland.

(3) If at the date of verification primary standards have been provided for Northern Ireland, the Ministry may, if they think fit, by order direct that the secondary standards made under the foregoing paragraph shall be duly verified by comparison with those standards.

(4) If at the date of verification no order has been made by the Ministry under the last preceding paragraph, the Ministry shall cause the secondary standards made as aforesaid to be duly verified by comparison with the Board of Trade standards, and the Board shall from time to time, on being so required by the Ministry and at their expense, verify any standards submitted to the Board by the Ministry for verification:

Provided that, if the Ministry so think fit, any of the secondary standards aforesaid, other than the standards for determining the Imperial standard yard and the Imperial standard pound respectively, may be verified by comparison with those other standards and with each other, instead of by comparison with the Board of Trade standards.

(5) The secondary standards provided and verified under the foregoing provision shall, when approved by the Lord Lieutenant in Council, be the secondary standards for Northern Ireland, and shall be called the Northern Ireland secondary standards, and references in the Acts to the Board of Trade standards shall, in the application of the Acts to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to the Northern Ireland secondary standards.

(6) The Northern Ireland secondary standards, and the Northern Ireland primary standards (if any), shall be in the custody of the Ministry.

9.—(1) All local standards of measure and weight (including local sub-standards and working standards) provided and verified, and all weights and measures verified and stamped, under the Acts before the appointed day shall, for the purposes of those Acts in their application to Northern Ireland, be deemed to have been provided and verified, or verified and stamped, as the case may be, under those Acts as applying to Northern Ireland and as adapted by this Part of this Order, and all indentures, accounts, statements and other documents relating to the verification or re-verification of any standards in Northern Ireland shall be deemed to have been made, issued, signed and kept under the said enactments as so applying and adapted as aforesaid.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 6 of the Finance Act, 1908, it was enacted that as from a date to be fixed by Order in Council the power to levy the duties on Local Taxation licences to which that Section applied should be transferred in England and Wales to the Councils of Counties and County Boroughs, and that His Majesty might by Order in Council fix the date for such transfer, and make any such further provisions as might appear necessary or expedient in order to give full effect to the transfer:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 19th day of October, 1908, a date was fixed for the said transfer and Article IV of the Order provided that no licences to which Section 6 of the Finance Act, 1908, applied should be issued in England and Wales except by such Officers of the Post Office as should be authorized by the Postmaster-General:

And whereas by the Roads Act, 1920, and the Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Order, 1921, made thereunder, such of the provisions of the Order in Council of the 19th day of October, 1908, as related to duties on carriages were rescinded:

And whereas the Postmaster-General has, by arrangement with the Councils of certain Counties and County Boroughs, appointed officers of those Councils to be officers for the issue of licences to which Section 6 of the Finance Act, 1908, applied and such officers are to be deemed for that purpose to be officers of the Post Office:

And whereas it is desirable that the practice of making such appointments should continue, but that provision should be made for the supervision of such officers, for the accounts and returns in relation to the licences and the audit of those accounts:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Him by the said Section and of every other power enabling Him in that behalf, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as "The Local Taxation (Licence Officers) Order, 1922," and shall come into operation on the 1st day of April, 1922.

(2) In this Order,—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health;

"County" and "County Council" respectively include a county borough and the council of a county borough;

"Licence Officer" means an officer of a County Council appointed by the Postmaster-General as an officer of the Post Office for the issue of the Local Taxation licences to which the Order in Council, dated the 19th day of October, 1908, applied or applies.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) The Postmaster-General may, upon the representation of any County Council, appoint any officer of such Council to be an officer of the Post Office for the issue of the Local Taxation licences to which the Order in Council dated the 19th day of October, 1908, applies, not being licences for carriages or mechanically-propelled vehicles.

(2) Any such appointment may be made subject to such conditions as the Postmaster-General may impose.

3. Where a Licence Officer has been appointed by the Postmaster-General (whether before or after the commencement of this Order) upon the representation of a County Council—

(1) The County Council shall arrange for the supervision of the Licence Officer in the performance of his duties as Licence Officer, and shall take adequate security for the faithful discharge of those duties;

(2) The County Council and the Licence Officer shall keep such accounts and make such returns, in relation to the duties on Local Taxation licences receivable by the Licence Officer, as the Minister (with the concurrence of the Postmaster-General) may direct;

(3) The receipts and expenditure of the Licence Officer shall be deemed to be receipts and expenditure of an officer of the County Council, and the accounts of the Licence Officer shall be audited as part of the general accounts of that Council:

Provided that if the Minister is satisfied that a special audit of the accounts of any such Licence Officer (whether an officer of a County Council or of the Council of a County Borough) is desirable, he may at any time require the Licence Officer to submit his accounts for audit to such person, in such manner and at such time, as the Minister may direct.

4. The provisions of this Order as to accounts and returns and the audit of accounts shall extend to the receipts and expenditure in relation to the duties on Local Taxation licences receivable during the year ending on the 31st day of March, 1922, and during any subsequent year.

5. Nothing in this Order shall affect the Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Order, 1921.

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘the said Benefice’) of the Holy Trinity, New Charlton, in the County of Kent, and in the Diocese of Southwark:

“Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of the Holy Trinity, New Charlton, stands limited to the use of certain Trustees for a term of years and subject thereto to the use of Sir Spencer Pocklington Maryon Maryon-Wilson, Baronet, of Eastborne, of Bury Hill, Dorking, in the County of Surrey, during his life and the said Sir Spencer Pocklington Maryon Maryon-Wilson, Baronet, is the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

“And whereas the said Sir Spencer Pocklington Maryon Maryon-Wilson, Baronet, is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of the Holy Trinity, New Charlton, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Cyril Forster, now Bishop of Southwark, and his successors in the same Bishopric:

“And whereas the said Cyril Forster, Bishop of Southwark, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Cyril Forster, Bishop of Southwark, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

“And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of the Holy Trinity, New Charlton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the New Parish of the Holy Trinity, New Charlton:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Sir Spencer Pocklington Maryon Maryon-Wilson, Baronet, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106 (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Cyril Forster, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of the Holy Trinity, New Charlton, shall be transferred to the said Cyril Forster, Bishop of Southwark, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Cyril Forster, Bishop of Southwark, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of March, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 19th day of January, 1922, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Mary the Virgin, West Moors, situate within the Parish of Verwood and Westmoors, in the County of Dorset and in the Diocese of Salisbury:

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said Parish of Verwood and Westmoors and of the Parish of Gussage All Saints, in the said County and Diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such Parishes:

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said Parish of Verwood and Westmoors and of the said Parish of Gussage All Saints should be formed into a Consolidated Chapelry for all Ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said

Church of Saint Mary the Virgin, West Moors, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend St. Clair George Alfred, Bishop of Salisbury, as such Bishop and also as the Patron, in right of his See, of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Verwood and Westmoors, and with the consent of the Venerable Charles Leslie Dundas, Archdeacon of Dorset, as the Patron, in right of his Archdeaconry, of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Gussage All Saints (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said Parish of Verwood and Westmoors and of the said Parish of Gussage All Saints, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of Saint Mary the Virgin, West Moors, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary the Virgin, West Moors.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The Schedule to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary the Virgin, West Moors, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the Parish of Verwood and Westmoors, in the County of Dorset and in the Diocese of Salisbury, which is included in and forms part of the Civil Parish of West Parley.

"II. All that contiguous portion of a certain detached part of the Parish of Gussage All Saints, in the said County and Diocese, which is bounded upon the west by the New Parish of Saint James, Holt, in the said County and Diocese, upon the south partly by the said New Parish of Saint James, Holt, and partly by the said Parish of Verwood and Westmoors, upon the east by the said Parish of Verwood and Westmoors, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Verwood and Westmoors from the said detached part of the Parish of Gussage All Saints at the point where the fence forming the south eastern boundary of the wood known as Barewood Copse crosses the middle of the stream which flows past the north side of Mannington Farm to the stream known as Udders Water, and extending thence in a straight line due west for a distance of 11 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said detached part of the Parish of Gussage All Saints from the said New Parish of Saint James, Holt."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.
