In Parliament.—Session 1922.

YORKSHIRE ELECTRIC POWER (H.L.).

(Petition for Additional Provision.)

(Increase of Capital and Borrowing Powers of Yorkshire Electric Power Company; Debenture Stock; Calls on Shares; Provisions as to Rights of Holders of Shares, Debenture Stock and Mortgages; Redeemable Debenture Stock; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts.)

THE Yorkshire Electric Power Company (in this Notice called "the Company") intend to apply to Parliament by Petition for additional provision for leave to introduce into the Bill promoted by the Company and now pending in Parliament, under the title of "The Yorkshire Electric Power Bill," provisions for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

To increase the capital and borrowing powers of the Company and to authorize them to raise additional moneys by the creation and issue of ordinary and preference shares or of shares of either of such classes, and by borrowing or by the creation and issue of debenture stock.

To make provisions as to the calls to be made on shares issued after the passing of the intended Act, whether under the existing powers of the Company or under the powers to be conferred by the intended Act.

To define the rights and priorities of the holders of such new shares or debenture stock, and of the mortgagees of the Company inter se and in relation to the existing shares, debenture stock and mortgages of the Company.

To provide, if thought fit, that the holders of such of the said new shares as shall be created and issued as preference shares shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof, and that the dividends thereon shall be cumulative, and to prescribe the maximum rate of dividend on such new preference shares.

To extend and apply to any Debenture Stock to be created under the powers of the intended Act the existing powers of the Company of issuing Redeemable Debenture Stock and to provide that all or any of the Redeemable Debenture Stock issued, or to be issued, under the said existing powers, or under the powers to be conferred by the intended Act, shall rank pari passu as regards principal, as well as interest.

The Additional Provision will incorporate or apply, with or without modification, or render inapplicable to the Company all or any of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, and any Act amending or extending the same, and will amend, alter, or repeal the provisions or some of the provisions, of the
