TUESDAY, 4 APRIL, 1922.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 1st day of April, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Article 17 of certain Articles of Agreement for a Treaty between Great Britain and Ireland dated the 6th day of December, 1921, it is provided as follows:—

"By way of provisional arrangement for the administration of Southern Ireland during the interval which must elapse between the date hereof and the constitution of a Parliament and Government of the Irish Free State in accordance therewith, steps shall be taken forthwith for summoning a meeting of members of Parliament elected for constituencies in Southern Ireland since the passing of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, and for constituting a provisional Government, and the British Government shall take the steps necessary to transfer to such provisional Government the powers and machinery requisite for the discharge of its duties, provided that every member of such provisional Government shall have signified in writing his or her acceptance of this instrument. But this arrangement shall not continue in force beyond the expiration of twelve months from the date hereof: "

And whereas by the Irish Free State (Agreement) Act, 1922, it is provided that the said Articles of Agreement shall have the force of law as from the date of the passing of that Act, and that for the purpose of giving effect to the said Article 17, Orders in Council may be made transferring to the Provisional Government established under that Article (in this Order referred to as the Provisional Government) the powers and machinery therein referred to, and that as soon as may be and not later than four months after the passing of the said Act, the Parliament of Southern Ireland shall be dissolved and such steps shall be taken as may be necessary for holding, in accordance with the law now in force with respect to the franchise number of members and method of election and holding of elections to that Parliament, an election of members for the constituencies which would have been entitled to elect members to that Parliament, and the members so elected shall constitute the House of the Parliament (in this Order referred to as the Provisional Parliament) to which the Provisional Government shall be responsible, and that Parliament shall, as respects matters within the jurisdiction of the Provisional Government have power to make laws in like manner as the Parliament of the Irish Free State when constituted, and that any such Order in Council may contain such incidental consequential or supplemental provisions as may appear to be necessary or proper for the purpose of giving effect to the foregoing provisions of the said Act.

And whereas the departments of the Provisional Government mentioned in Part I of the Schedule to this Order have been constituted by that Government to discharge the functions therein mentioned as assigned to them respectively:

And whereas the Exchequer of the Provisional Government has been constituted subject to regulations which have been made by the Provisional Government and are set out in Part II of the Schedule to this Order.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The functions in connection with the administration of public services in Southern Ireland heretofore performed by existing Government Departments and officers, shall, as from the day of transfer, be transferred to and become exercisable by the departments and officers of the Provisional Government to which the functions are severally so assigned as aforesaid, but without prejudice to the power of the Provisional Government to redistribute those functions amongst its departments and officers as it thinks proper.

2.—(i) Nothing in this Order shall affect the enactments passed or to be passed relating to the imposition, assessment or collection of taxes, except that all functions heretofore performed by existing Government departments and officers in connection with the assessment, levying and collection of taxes, so far as leviable in Southern Ireland, shall as from the day of transfer be transferred to and become exercisable by the departments and officers of the Provisional Government to whom such functions are so assigned, as aforesaid.

(ii) The powers of the departments and officers of the Provisional Government with respect to the assessment, levying and collection of taxes shall as from the day of transfer extend to the assessment, levying and collection of taxes leviable in Southern Ireland which were chargeable or have been charged but not paid before the day of transfer, subject to the liability to make any repayments or allowances that may fall to be made in Southern Ireland by reason of overcharge or otherwise, and those departments and officers shall be empowered to obtain from the person claiming any such allowance or repayment such evidence as they may require of the payments of the taxes in respect of which the repayment or allowance is claimed and the title of the claimant thereto.

(iii) For the purposes of this Article super-tax payable by a person in Southern Ireland shall be deemed to be a tax leviable in Southern Ireland.

3.—(i) As from the day of transfer and subject to the provisions of this Order or any arrangement made thereunder and without prejudice to any ultimate financial settlement, the proceeds of all such taxes so collected as aforesaid and all such other sums collected or received by or on behalf of departments and officers of the Provisional Government as would but for this Order have been payable into the Exchequer of the United Kingdom shall be paid into the Exchequer of the Provisional Government, and out of that Exchequer there shall, subject to the regulations contained in Part II of the Schedule to this Order, be defrayed the cost of the administration of public services by the Provisional Government, including the repayment to the Exchequer of the United Kingdom of any sums paid out of that Exchequer on account of public services in Southern Ireland after the date when the power of collecting taxes is transferred to the Provisional Government.

(ii) Except as provided by this Order, or as may be hereafter provided by Parliament, any charge on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom for public services in Southern Ireland, and any grant or contribution out of monies provided by the Parliament of the United Kingdom so far as made for those services, shall as from the day of transfer cease, and any money for loans in Southern Ireland shall cease to be advanced out of the Local Loans Fund.

4.—(i) All sums collected by the Provisional Government after the day of transfer on account of—

(a) purchase annuities payable in respect of land situated in Southern Ireland, including any existing arrears thereof; and

(b) sums due on account of existing loans made to authorities and persons in Southern Ireland out of the Local Loans Fund, the Development Fund, the Road Improvement Grant or Road Fund, or other similar public fund;

shall be paid into their Exchequer.

(ii) Subject to any arrangements which may be made under this Order there shall from time to time be paid out of the Exchequer of the Provisional Government into the Irish Land Purchase Fund or account, or other appropriate fund or account, such sums as may after the day of transfer be required to discharge the liabilities of those funds and accounts in respect of interest on stock or advances issued or made in connection with land purchase in Southern Ireland and to meet the corresponding sinking fund charges.

(iii) Subject as aforesaid there shall be paid from time to time out of the Exchequer of the Provisional Government into the appropriate fund such sums as are equal to the amounts due in respect of such loans as aforesaid, subject to the deduction of such sums as may be determined to be proper to cover the cost of collection and such loss as may be anticipated to result from the payment on account of any such loans proving to be irrecoverable.

(iv) Any question which may arise as to the amounts to be so paid out of the said Exchequer, or as to the times at which payments are to be made, shall be determined by agreement between the Provisional Government and the British Government.

(v) The administration of the Land Purchase Account established under the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1891, shall be transferred from the Land Commission to the National Debt Commissioners immediately before the transfer of the functions of the Land Commission to the Provisional Government.

5.—(1) The British Government shall pay into the Exchequer of the Provisional Government an amount equivalent to the proceeds of any taxes collected in Great Britain, or collected by them in Northern Ireland, but agreed between the British Government and the Provisional Government to be properly attributable to Southern Ireland, and the Provisional Government shall pay into the Exchequer of the United Kingdom an amount equivalent to the proceeds of taxes collected in Southern Ireland but agreed as aforesaid to be properly attributable to Great Britain or Northern Ireland, provided that proceeds of taxes so collected by the Provisional Government shall not be treated as attributable to Great Britain or Northern Ireland by reason only of the fact that they were charged before the day of transfer.

(2) For the purpose of ascertaining the extent to which the proceeds of any taxes are attributable to any particular country—

(a) The Commissioners of Inland Revenue and the Commissioners of Customs and Excise and the Minister of Finance of the Provisional Government may require any taxpayer in any return made by him under any enactment imposing the tax to furnish such information as may be necessary for the purpose; and

(b) Any articles which are brought into Great Britain or the Isle of Man from Ireland, or into Ireland from Great Britain or the Isle of Man, shall be deemed to be articles exported or imported for the purposes of the forms to be used, and the information to be furnished under the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, or any Act amending that Act, but not for any other purpose, and parcels posted in Great Britain or the Isle of Man and sent to Ireland, or posted in Ireland and sent to Great Britain or the Isle of Man, may, for the purposes of the forms to be used and the information to be furnished under the Post Office Acts or Regulations, be treated as foreign parcels in Great Britain, the Isle of Man and Northern Ireland if so directed by order of the Treasury, and in Southern Ireland if so directed by order of the Minister of Finance of the Provisional Government.

6.—(i) The functions of existing Government departments to be transferred under this Order to the several departments of the Provisional Government to which the same are assigned respectively, shall be so transferred on such day (in this Order referred to as the day of transfer) as may be agreed between the British Government and the Provisional Government, and different days may be agreed for the purpose as respects different departments or different functions, so, however, that the day for the transfer of the powers as to the assessment and collection of taxes shall, unless otherwise agreed, be the first day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

(ii) For the purpose of this Order "existing" means existing at the day of transfer.

(iii) Nothing in this Order shall affect the administration of any service before the day of transfer, or the manner in which, or the fund out of which, the cost of the administration of that service before the day of transfer is to be provided.

7.—(i) All officers who are on the day of transfer engaged or employed in the discharge of functions transferred under this Order to the Provisional Government shall be transferred to and become officers of the Provisional Government.

Provided that—

(a) where any such officers, being officers employed on services which in Northern Ireland are within the jurisdiction of the Government of Northern Ireland, have been allocated to the Government of Northern Ireland, or it is agreed between the Provisional Government and the Government of Northern Ireland that they shall be so allocated, or if any such officers have signified their wish to be transferred to the Government of Northern Ireland and the Provisional Government and the Government of Northern Ireland consent to such transfer, they shall not be transferred to or become the officers of the Provisional Government;

(b) where any such officers are officers employed on services which in Northern Ireland are not within the jurisdiction of the Government of Northern Ireland, or are officers who, though engaged on services which in Northern Ireland are within such jurisdiction, form an integral part of a staff not solely engaged on Irish services, the existing departments under which they are employed shall prepare a scheme for determining which of the members of their staff are to be transferred to the Provisional Government, and such scheme, when approved by the British Government and the Provisional Government, shall determine which of those officers are to be treated as transferred to the Provisional Government under this Article.

(ii) Where an officer is transferred to the Provisional Government under this Order, he shall hold office by a tenure corresponding to his previous tenure, and if he is discharged by the Provisional Government, or if he retires in consequence of the change of Government effected by this Order he shall be entitled to receive compensation from the Provisional Government and the terms of such compensation shall not be less favourable to him than such as are accorded in the like circumstances by the Government of Ireland Act, 1920.

Provided that nothing in this Order shall affect prejudicially the rights or claims under paragraphs (ii) and (iii) of sub-section (1) of section seven of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, or any agreements made thereunder, of any person to whom those paragraphs apply.

Provided also that no transfer of officers in pursuance of this Article shall affect prejudicially any claim in respect thereof on the part of the Irish Free State on the ultimate financial settlement.

8. Nothing in this Order shall affect the tenure rights, or payment of salaries and pensions of judges of the Supreme Court and County Court in Southern Ireland or officers holding on the same tenure as such judges, or the fund out of which such salaries and pensions are payable.

9. Nothing in this Order shall affect the control or administration of any of the existing naval, military or air forces of the Crown; or transfer to any department of the Provisional Government any of the powers of any existing department in relation to any of those forces (including powers and duties with respect to pensions and allowances payable to persons who have been members of or in respect of service in any such force or their widows or dependants, and provision for the training, education and assistance for the reinstatement in civil life of persons who have ceased to be members of any such force), but nothing in this Article shall be construed as prejudicing the exercise by the Provisional Government in respect of any military defence force which may, in accordance with Article 8 of the said Agreement, be raised in pursuance of an Act of the Provisional Parliament of such powers as may be conferred on the Provisional Government by such Act.

10.—(i) Nothing in this Order shall transfer to the Provisional Government the Royal Irish Constabulary or the administration or control of that force.

(ii) The Dublin Metropolitan Police and the administration and control of that force shall be transferred to the Provisional Government; but if any member of that force is discharged by the Provisional Government, or retires in consequence of the change of government effected by this Order, he shall be entitled to receive from the Provisional Government compensation and the terms of such compensation shall not be less favourable to him than such as are accorded in like circumstances by the Government of Ireland Act, 1920.

11. Nothing in this Order shall affect the collection of any moneys payable under the German Reparation (Recovery) Act, 1921, or the account into which sums so collected are to be paid; or affect services in connection with wireless stations for communication with places outside Ireland, or in connection with submarine cables to places outside the British Islands.

12. Any property, assets, rights and liabilities connected with the functions transferred under this Order shall, if connected solely with those functions be transferred to the Provisional Government, and if connected partly with those functions and partly with other functions shall be apportioned in such manner as may be agreed between the Governments concerned.

13.—(i) Subject to any Act of the Provisional Parliament and to the provisions of this Order and any other Order made under the Irish Free State (Agreement) Act, 1922, all existing laws, institutions and authorities in Southern Ireland, whether judicial, administrative or ministerial, shall continue as if this Order had not been made, subject to the modifications necessary for adapting them to this Order and in particular to the modifications hereinafter set forth.

(ii) In their application to Southern Ireland the enactments relating to or affecting functions transferred under this Order shall, save where inconsistent with the said Act or this Order or the provisions of any subsequent Order in Council under the said Act, have effect, in relation to anything done or to be done on or after the day of transfer, with the following modifications and adaptations:—

(a) References to any department or officer of the United Kingdom Government, if they occur in relation to functions which under this Order are transferred as respects Southern Ireland to any department, branch of a department, or officer of the Provisional Government shall be construed as references to the department, branch, or officer to which they are transferred, or by which they are for the time being exercisable; and references to the Chief Secretary, or to the Under-Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, if they occur in relation to any such functions, shall be construed as references to the appropriate Minister of the Provisional Government.

(b) References to Parliament and to each, either or both of the Houses of Parliament shall be construed as references to the Provisional Parliament and to the House of the Provisional Parliament respectively, and the expression "parliamentary" shall be construed accordingly.

Provided that references to matters or things authorised or constituted by Act of Parliament shall be construed as references to matters or things authorised or constituted by Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or the Provisional Parliament as the case may be.

(c) References to the Consolidated Fund, to the Exchequer, and to the Comptroller and Auditor-General shall be construed respectively as references to the Consolidated Fund of the Provisional Government, to the Exchequer of the Provisional Government and to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of the Provisional Government.

Provided that nothing in this Order shall affect prejudicially without the consent of the person entitled thereto, the right of any person to the benefit of a charge on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom in respect of any sums due to him.

(d) References to the Attorney-General or Solicitor-General for Ireland or Southern Ireland shall be construed as references to the Law Officer of the Provisional Government appointed to discharge functions corresponding to the functions previously discharged by these officers.

(iii) Where a provision or expression occurring in any of the said enactments has been amended, altered, or adapted by or in pursuance of any subsequent enactments, this Article shall be read as referring to the provision or expression as so amended, altered or adapted.

(iv) The adaptations and modifications set out in the foregoing provisions of this Article shall apply to any order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument made or issued under any of the said enactments and in force immediately before the day of transfer in like manner as they apply to the enactment under which it was made or issued and any such order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument shall continue in force in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if it had been made or issued under the said enactment as so modified and adapted.

(v) There shall be made in every local and personal Act such adaptations and modifications as may be required to bring it into conformity with the provisions of this Article.

(vi) In the construction and for the purposes of any deed or contract made before the transfer of functions to a department or officer of the Provisional Government from any existing Government department or officer under this Order, but so far only as may be necessary for the purpose of such transfer, the name of the department or officer of the Provisional Government shall, as from the day of transfer, be substituted for the name of the existing Government department or officer, and where anything has been commenced by or under the authority of any existing Government department or officer before the day of transfer and such thing is in relation to functions transferred to a department or officer of the Provisional Government under this Order, such thing may, after the day of transfer, be carried on and completed by or under the authority of the department or officer of the Provisional Government.

14.—(i) Arrangements may be made by any department of the Provisional Government for the discharge on behalf of that department of any of its functions by officers of any existing Government department, or by any existing department for the discharge on behalf of that department of any of its functions in Southern Ireland by Officers of a department of the Provisional Government, as the case may be, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed, but no such arrangements shall diminish in any way the responsibility of the department by which the arrangement is made.

(ii) Where any such arrangement is made for the continuance of the discharge by an existing department of its functions in Southern Ireland the transfer to the Provisional Government of Officers in connection with those functions shall be postponed so long as the arrangement continues.

15.—(i) This Order may be cited as the Provisional Government (Transfer of Functions) Order, 1922.

(ii) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purpose of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

force of law, and that for the purpose of giving effect to Article 17 of the said Agreement Orders in Council may be made transferring to the Provisional Government established under that Article the powers and machinery therein referred to, and that any Order in Council made under that section may contain such incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions as may appear to be necessary or proper for the purpose of giving effect to the foregoing provisions of that section:

And whereas the provisions of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, with respect to the powers of the Council of Ireland have been modified by the said Articles of Agreement, and the Council of Ireland cannot be established before the Parliament of the Irish Free State has been constituted in pursuance of the said Articles:

And whereas by the Provisional Government (Transfer of Functions) Order, 1922, being an Order in Council made under the Irish Free State (Agreement) Act, 1922, the administrative powers in relation to certain matters which under the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, would have been exercisable by the Council of Ireland have been transferred to the Provisional Government as respects Southern Ireland:

And whereas it is necessary to make provision for postponing the coming into operation of the provisions of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, as so modified with respect to the powers of the Council of Ireland and for the exercise of certain of those powers in Northern Ireland in the meantime:

And whereas the said powers include powers which are now exercisable in Northern Ireland by the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The appointed day for the purposes of the provisions of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, with respect to the powers of the Council of Ireland shall, as respects Northern Ireland, be such day as may hereafter be fixed by Order in Council, not being earlier than the day of the first meeting of the Parliament of the Irish Free State.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 1st day of April, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered, amongst other things, by any such Order in Council:—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act; and

(2) To make provision with respect to the transfer and apportionment of any property, assets, rights, and liabilities in connection with Irish services:

And whereas for the purposes of the provisions of the said Act relating to the transfer of services, the first day of February, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, has been fixed as the appointed day as respects Northern Ireland in relation to Irish services in connection with Education, Science and Art, and Technical Instruction, but no day has yet been fixed for the purposes aforesaid as respects Southern Ireland:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(2) Subject to the express modifications and adaptations made by this Order, the General Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made under the said Act containing adaptations of general application shall, if and so far as they are applicable to the enactments adapted by this Order, apply thereto in like manner as to other enactments.

(3) The modifications and adaptations made by this Order shall apply to any order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument made or issued under any of the enactments so modified or adapted and in force immediately before the appointed day, in like manner as they apply to the enactment under which it was made or issued, and any such order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument shall continue in force in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if it had been made or issued under the said enactment as so modified and adapted.

3. The National School Teachers (Ireland) Act, 1879, in its application to Northern Ireland shall be subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) A reference to a fund to be called the Pension Fund (Northern Ireland) shall be substituted for any reference to the Pension Fund, and there shall be transferred to the first-mentioned fund so much of the last-mentioned fund as may be apportioned to the Government of Northern Ireland as the share of Northern Ireland therein.

(b) In lieu of the payments directed to be made by section three of the said Act there shall be paid to the Pension Fund (Northern Ireland) such moneys as may be directed by the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

(c) A reference to the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland shall be substituted for any reference to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and the said Ministry of Finance may invest the Pension Fund (Northern Ireland) in any securities in which trustees are by law authorized to invest trust funds.

(d) Section three, section five (except so much thereof as relates to accounts and balance sheets), and sections seven and eight of the said Act shall cease to have effect.

4.—(1) Any orders, schemes, rules, regulations, or instruments made or issued by the Commissioners of National Education in Ireland in the exercise of powers conferred upon them otherwise than by enactment, and in force immediately before the appointed day, shall, so far as they relate to Irish services in Northern Ireland, continue in force in Northern Ireland in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if they had been made or issued by the Ministry, and the adaptations and modifications made by this Order shall so far as applicable apply to any such order, scheme, rule, regulation, or instrument in like manner as if it had been made or issued under an enactment.

(2) In any deed, contract or other document relating to a National School in Northern Ireland, references to the Commissioners of National Education in Ireland shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as references to the Ministry.

5. The enactments hereinafter in this Article mentioned shall, in their application to Northern Ireland, be subject to the following adaptations respectively:—

(a) In section five of the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Act, 1878, and in section one of the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Act, 1914, there shall be substituted for the words "in Ireland" the words "in Northern Ireland";

Northern Ireland, and a separate Register of Intermediate School Teachers in Northern Ireland:

(c) Every Intermediate School Teacher who immediately before the appointed day is registered or provisionally registered under the last-mentioned Act shall in Northern Ireland be deemed to have been registered or provisionally registered, as the case may be, in the Register of Intermediate School Teachers in Northern Ireland:

(d) References in the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Acts, 1878 to 1914, and in section ten of the Irish Universities Act, 1908, to funds at the disposal of the Intermediate Education Board for Ireland shall be construed as referring to any funds which may be placed at the disposal of the Ministry by the Parliament or Government of Northern Ireland:

(e) Section three of the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Act, 1900, and section two of the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Act, 1913, shall cease to have effect.

6. Where any scheme framed under the Educational Endowments (Ireland) Act, 1885, contains, in pursuance of section eighteen of that Act, provisions for the alteration of the scheme from time to time by the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests for Ireland, the scheme may, in so far as it relates to matters with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has power to make laws, be altered by the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland after consultation with the Ministry.

7.—(1) The Agriculture and Technical Instruction (Ireland) Act, 1899, in its application to Northern Ireland shall be subject to the following adaptations:—

(a) References to the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, other than references in sections two and twenty-nine of the said Act, shall be construed as references to the Ministry:

(b) The definition of the expression "technical instruction" contained in section thirty shall be construed as if the words "out of moneys provided by the Parliament of Northern Ireland" were substituted for the words "by the Department":

(c) Sections one, four, six, seven, ten, thirteen, fifteen and sixteen, sections twenty to twenty-four, section twenty-seven, and (except so far as it relates to rules and regulations) section twenty-eight, shall cease to have effect.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 31ST MARCH 1922.)

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1899 to 1914, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

*Authorisation of Sales of Pedigree Bulls at

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Foot-and-Mouth Disease (Control of Movement) Order of 1920, or in the Foot-and-Mouth Disease (Great Britain) Order of 1922 (No. 15) Sales of Pedigree Bulls may be held by Messrs. Macdonald and Fraser at their Auction Mart, in the City of Perth, on the fifth and sixth and the twelfth and thirteenth days of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, if such sales are authorised by the Local Authority of the City, and subject to the conditions hereinafter specified.

Movement of Animals to Sales.

2. (1) No animal shall be moved to a Sale authorised under this Order unless it is accompanied (a) by a licence authorising such movement granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the City of Perth, and (b) by a certificate of a duly qualified veterinary surgeon certifying that he has examined the animals referred to in the licence and all other animals on the premises from which the animals are moved, within twenty-four hours before the movement of the animals, and found them free from any symptom of contagious or infectious disease.

(2) A licence granted under this Article shall not be available for the movement of the animals referred to therein unless and until it is countersigned by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District from which the animals are to be moved.

(3) No licence shall be granted or countersigned for movement of cattle to a sale authorised under this Order from the county of Berwick or from any premises situate within a radius of three miles from any place which is for the time being declared to be a place infected with Foot-and-Mouth Disease.

(4) An Inspector countersigning a licence under this Order shall specify the route to be taken by the cattle during movement from the premises to the railway station for conveyance to Perth, and the route to be so specified shall be such that at no point shall the cattle be moved within a radius of three miles of any place which is for the time being declared to be a place infected with Foot-and-Mouth Disease.

If no such route is available, a licence shall not be countersigned.

(5) In the case of every movement of animals authorised by a licence under this Article the licence and veterinary certificate prescribed therein shall accompany the animals throughout the movement, and shall be produced on demand to an Inspector of the Ministry, or of the Local Authority, or a Police Constable. On arrival at the Auction Mart, the licences and veterinary certificates shall be delivered up to an Inspector of the Local Authority.

(6) Animals moved with a licence under this Article shall, so far as is practicable, be moved by rail and be kept separate from all animals which are not being so moved. When being moved by road the animals shall be moved without unnecessary delay to the place of destination and by the route specified in the licence. In the case of animals moved by rail the animals shall not be untrucked for any purpose until they reach the destination station from which they are to be moved to the premises specified in the licence.

Veterinary Examination of Animals before Entry to Sales.

3. The Local Authority shall cause a Veterinary Inspector to attend each sale held under this Order and examine all animals before admittance into such sale.

Removal of Animals from Sales.

4.—(1) Animals shall not be removed from a sale unless they are accompanied by a movement licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the district in which the premises to which the animals are intended to be moved are situate, which licence the Local Authority are hereby empowered to grant in respect of movement to any premises in their district, notwithstanding the provisions of the Orders referred to in Article 1.

(2) Such licence shall not be available until it has been countersigned by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the city of Perth in the manner prescribed in Article 2 of this Order.

(3) The provisions of Article 2 (6) of this Order shall apply to animals moved with a licence from a sale held under this Order.

Disinfection of Railway Trucks.

5.—(1) Every railway truck or other railway vehicle used for the conveyance of any animals moved with a licence under this Order shall, not earlier than twenty-four hours before any such animal is placed in it, be thoroughly sprayed or soused with liquid disinfectant.

(2) The railway loading banks or loading docks used at Perth for the unloading or loading of animals moved to or from a sale held under this Order shall from time to time be thoroughly sprayed with liquid disinfectant and shall be kept free from dung, litter and other matter during such times as they are being used for animals moved under this Order.

(3) The liquid disinfectant to be used for the purposes of this article shall be:—

(a) A one per cent. (minimum) solution of chloride of lime containing not less than thirty per cent. of available chlorine; or

(b) a five per cent. (minimum) solution of carbolic acid (containing not less than ninety-five per cent. of actual carbolic acid); or

(c) a disinfectant equal in disinfective efficiency to the above-mentioned solution of carbolic acid.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall interfere with the operation of the provisions of the Animals (Transit and General) Order of 1912 as to the cleansing and disinfection of railway trucks and other railway vehicles used for the conveyance of animals on a railway.

Offences.

6. If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of this Order, the owner and the person for the time being in charge of the animal, or, in respect of Article 5, the railway company loading the animals or owning the loading banks in respect of which, as the case may be, the same is done or omitted to be done, shall each according to and in respect of his or their own acts or omissions, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

To relieve the Corporation from the obligation to supply gas for all or any purposes from any main of which the capacity is insufficient or so as to interfere with the sufficiency of the gas required for lighting or domestic purposes.

To authorize the Corporation to charge and recover a minimum annual sum in respect of a supply of gas laid on for stand-by purposes to premises having a separate supply of electricity or gas.

To confer powers upon the Corporation with reference to cutting off supplies of gas in cases where they are authorized to discontinue a supply, and to authorize the Corporation to disconnect service pipes at the meter, and to prohibit the reconnection of such service pipes without the consent of the Corporation, and to confer upon the Corporation for such purposes all necessary powers of entry on premises.

quirements of the Corporation the Corporation may cease to supply gas to such consumer.

To prescribe in the case of defective meters the period or periods over which such meters shall be deemed to have been defective.

To empower the Corporation and any local and other authorities, bodies, companies and persons within or beyond the limits of supply of the Corporation to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements with reference to the supply of gas in bulk to or by the Corporation.

To authorize the Corporation to acquire, hold, use and exercise patent rights or licences and authorities under letters patent for the use of inventions and apparatus relative to the production, storage, distribution and supply of gas and the manufacture or utilisation of residual products.

To empower the Corporation to execute and grant mortgages and other charges and securities and to create and issue debentures and debenture and other Corporation stock and securities redeemable or otherwise.

To make such other financial provisions as may be necessary or expedient for enabling the Corporation to carry on and develop the gas undertaking and for the purposes of giving effect to the provisions of the Order.
