The Fortifications of the Town and Cittadel of Piguerol are quite demolished, and the French Soldiers, that were in Garison there, are marched away, with the Artillery and Ammunition. Vienna, Feb. 20. The Imperial Forces that returned from tealy, and have their Winter Quarters in the Province of Carinihia, and Parts adjacent, are ordered to march before the end of the next Month towards Germany, where they are to serve under the command of Prince Lewis of Baden, who intends to return thither in 10 days or a Fortnight; and in the mean time is often in Conference with the Ministers of this Court, to regulate Matters for the next Campaign. The Deputies that were lately fent to this Court by the States of Hungary, to defire the Country might not be or Hungary, to denie the Country might not be over-burthened with Winter Quarters, are returned home with Satisfaction. The laft Letters from the Frontiers fay, a Party of Turks had Surprized the Palank of Berza, and carried away the Garison Prisoners: The Germans that are Quartered at Bred and other Places thereabouts, upon the first notice of the Enemies Motion, sent our Detachments to fall upon them, but they did not come time enough to do it, the Turks retiring in great haste to Belgrade. The same Letters give an account, That a Party of Imperialists from Peter-Waradin, had made an Excursion as far as the Save, and had brought back divers Prisoners. The Envoy of Moscowy is upon his Departure from hence, in order to his return home; He has given this Court new Assurances of his Madagin Profession of his Master's Resolution, to prosecute very vigoroully the Wat against the Turks and Tartars.

Francfort, Feb. 27. The Deputies from the Electors on the Rhine, as likewise those from the Circle of the Upper Rhine, continue their Conferences in this City, to settle divers Affairs in relation to the Troops they are to furnish for the Service of the Empire. General Thungen has been Service of the Empire. General Thungen has been to view the Imperial Garisons at Eppingen and other Places, giving every where the necessary Orders to hasten the Preparations for the Campaign.

Cologne, March 1. The advices from the Upper-Rhine fay, the Forces on both fides make Preparations to go early into the Field this Year. Elector Palatin has named the Baron de Wiser to be his Plenipotentiary at the Treaty of a General Leagues from this Place, where he will be visited to morrow by the Foreign Ministers at present residing here. They write from Dresden, That there have been great Entertainments at the Court of Saxony, during the Carneval; and that the Elector would go to Vienna before the end of this month, and from thence to Hungary to command the Imperial Army against the Turks. The Letters from Berlin give an account, That the Elector of Brandenburg intends to set out the third of this Month on his Journey to Prussa. The last advices from Poland say, the Consederated Forces will refused as submits to the Orders of the Conse still refused to submit to the Orders of the Commissioners assembled at Lemberg; being supported underhand by several Great Men.

Paris, March 1. The French Plenipotentiaries for the Treaty of Peace have fent away their Baggage, and greatest pair of ther Equipage, and they themselves intend to set out to day or to morrow. The Abbot de Chasseauncus, Brother to the French Ambassador in Turkey, is named to go Ambassador from this Court to Poland, in the Poland Abbot de Palinnes, who by they in the property of the Abbot de Palinnes, who by they in the property of the Palinnes. Place of the Abbot de Polignac, who, by shewing too great eagerness in promoting the Interests of the Prince of Conti, has much prejudiced them, and is therefore recalled. They go on at Brest with the fitting out of 20 Men of War, and of feveral Ships in other Ports. A Vessel is arrived at Rochelle from the West- Indies; the Master whereof fays, That some French Frigats cruising under the Command of the Sieur d'Augers, had taken a rich Spanish Ship on the Coast of Cartagena; which is look'd upon to be the fame News that was reported here fome time ago. The Cardinal de Furstemberg is arrived here from Tours, and has had a private Audience of the French King; The Occasion of his coming hither at this time is to sollicite this Court to support his Pretensions acthe Treaty of Peace. The Cardinal de Bouillers will very shortly begin his Journey to Rome, where he is to manage the Interests of this Crown. The Difficulties that appear in raising the Tax upon Coats of Arms is so great, and there come fuch grievous Complaints about it from the several Provinces, that the French King has given Orders to lay it aside, for the present at least; But at the same time several other Edicts are published, for laying new Impositions upon the People, who are so Oppressed and Ruined by the War, that the Wishes for a Peace are very universal in this Kingdom.

Bruffells, March 3. The Count de Cauniss, the Emperor's Minister, who came hither lately from the Hague, about the Business of the Ninth Ele-Ctorate, continues still at this Court, with great likelihood of fucceeding in his Negotiation. The advices from the New Conquests say, the French continue their Preparations for an early Cam-Peace.

Peace.
