WHEREAS by Part II. of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, provision has been made for the reciprocal enforcement of judgments in the United Kingdom and in other parts of His Majesty's Dominions:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above-recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of May, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 11th day of May, 1922, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate District for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe, partly out of the New Parish (sometime Chapelry District) of Shirley, and partly out of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Luke, Woodside, Croydon, all in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Canterbury:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe, the said New Parish of Shirley, and the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Woodside, Croydon, are Cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe, of the said New Parish of Shirley, and of the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Woodside, Croydon, which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth:

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate District any consecrated Church or Chapel in use for the purpose of Divine Worship:

" And whereas we have agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act a grant of £250 per annum to the Minister of the said proposed separate District so soon as a Minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors:

" And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of £250 will, after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our Common Seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 29th and 30th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 111:

" And whereas a plot of land situate within the said proposed separate District has been conveyed to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as the sites for a permanent Church for such District and for a Parsonage House for the residence of the Minister of the same District, and, in addition to the sum of £1,360 which has been contributed locally towards the cost of the purchase of such sites, there has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of £640 towards the cost of erecting such permanent Church:

" And whereas the said sums of £1,360 and £640 have been contributed as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District, and, when such District shall have become a New Parish, then, of the said New Parish, and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth:

" And whereas the contributors of the said sums of £1,360 and £640 have nominated to us the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being as the person to whom they desire the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District or New Parish shall be assigned:

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, now Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe, of the said New Parish of Shirley, and of the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Woodside, Croydon, which are more particularly described in the Schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the Map or Plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, become and be constituted a separate District for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mildred, Addiscombe.'

" And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of Patronage of the said District so recommended to be constituted and when such District shall have become a New Parish as aforesaid then of such New Parish and of the nomination of an Incumbent thereto, shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted

Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, for ever.

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" The Schedule to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

" The District of Saint Mildred, Addiscombe, comprising:—

" All those contiguous portions of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe, of the New Parish (sometime Chapelry District) of Shirley, and of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Luke, Woodside, Croydon, all in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Canterbury, which, taken together, are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Shirley from the said New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe, at the junction of Addiscombe Road with Shirley Road, and extending thence north-westward along the said boundary (thereby following the middle of Shirley Road) for a distance of 45 chains or thereabouts to the junction of Shirley Road with Lower Addiscombe Road and with the footpath leading to Woodside Road and Elmers Road, and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of 16½ chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such footpath across the Mid Kent Line of the South Eastern and Chatham Railway, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with the Woodside and South Croydon Line of the London Brighton and South Coast and South Eastern and Chatham Joint Railway, and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the middle of the last-mentioned line of railway (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Woodside, Croydon, from the said New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe) for a distance of 64 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Addiscombe Road across such line of railway said County and Diocese, and the said New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe, the New Parish of Saint Matthew, Croydon, in the said County and Diocese, and the said New Parish of Shirley all meet, and extending thence south-eastward along the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Matthew, Croydon, from the said New Parish of Shirley for a distance of 15½ chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the fence which divides the close numbered 553 upon the Ordnance Map of the Civil Parish of Croydon published in the year 1912 upon the scale of 25 inches to a mile and also upon the map or plan which is annexed to this Scheme from the close numbered 477 upon the said maps, and extending thence first north-eastward and then in various directions along the fences which divide the said close numbered 553 and the closes numbered 547, 546, 541, 483 and 488, upon the said maps from the said close numbered 477 and the closes numbered 479, 480, 481 and 482 upon the same maps for a distance of 1 mile or thereabouts to the point where the fence which divides the said close numbered 488 from the said close numbered 482 meets the southern side of Addiscombe Road, and extending thence first northward to and then eastward along the middle of Addiscombe Road for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Shirley Road, upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Shirley from the said New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Addiscombe, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-before mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Cures out of which it is intended that the District recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Canterbury.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to Robert Handford, fireman at the Llanbradach Collieries, Llanbradach, Glamorgan, in the following circumstances:—

On October 25th, 1921, a fall of roof occurred at the Llanbradach Colliery, Glamorgan, and a collier named Carter was partially buried. Some men working near by came to his assistance and began to clear away the rubbish. They had not proceeded far when Handford, the local fireman, arrived, and immediately started to erect wooden sleepers as a protection for Carter's body. A second fall of about 30 tons took place almost immediately, but the few sleepers already erected prevented Carter being crushed. Handford then cleared the rubbish from Carter's head and had succeeded in putting up some more supports when a third fall of about 45 tons took place and the rescue party had to jump clear. Handford persevered with the work of rescue; he gradually made his way over Carter's body, completely protecting it with timber, and succeeded eventually in freeing him from rubbish with the exception of his left leg, which was securely pinned down by a heavy weight of earth. Repeated attempts were made to pull Carter clear, but without success, and it was decided to amputate his leg. Handford, however, made further attempts, at considerable risk of being buried himself, with such success that Carter was eventually extricated without any serious injury to his leg. Handford for four hours was continuously exposed to the danger of being buried; he displayed great promptitude in facing the situation, and his intelligence and bravery undoubtedly saved Carter's life.

If no such route is available, a licence shall not be countersigned.

(5) In the case of every movement of animals authorised by a licence under this Article the licence and veterinary certificate prescribed therein shall accompany the animals throughout the movement, and shall be produced on demand to an Inspector of the Ministry, or of the Local Authority, or a Police Constable. (2) Such licence shall not be available until it has been countersigned by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the city of York in the manner prescribed in Article 2 of this Order.

(2) The railway loading banks or loading docks used at York for the unloading or loading of animals moved to or from the Sale held under this Order shall from time to time be thoroughly sprayed with liquid disinfectant and shall be kept free from dung, litter and other matter during such times as they are being used for animals moved under this Order.
