

Lieut.-Colonel Alan Hughes Burgoyne, M.P.

M.P. for North Kensington since 1910. Director of P. B. Burgoyne & Co., Ltd. Has written much upon naval questions and founded the Navy League Annual in 1907, which he edited for seven years.

James William Bulmer, Esq.

Head of the Firm of Smith, Bulmer & Co., Worsted Spinners, of Halifax. Served on the Wool Statistical Committee and on the Wool-Textile Control Board. Chairman of Executive of Yorkshire National Liberal Council. For public services.

Herbert Atkinson Barker, Esq.

Specialist in manipulating surgery.

Robert Appleby Bartram, Esq., J.P.

One of the Senior J.P.'s of Sunderland. Leading educationalist from 1870. A generous benefactor to charitable, religious and educational bodies in Sunderland.

William Maddock Bayliss, Esq., M.A., D.Sc., F.R.S., LL.D.

Professor of General Physiology in University College, London. Is recognised as one of the leading physiologists of the world. His researches in the War afforded the scientific basis of treatment which resulted in conspicuous benefit to the troops and the saving of many lives.

Thomas Brodrick, Esq., J.P.

General Secretary and Accountant of the Co-operative Wholesale Society, Ltd. Celebrates his Jubilee in the service of the Co-operative movement this year.

Walter Herbert Cockerline, Esq.

Ex-Sheriff of the City of Hull. Member of the Council of the North of England Shipowners' Association. Has devoted much time to the public service.

Edward Thomas Frederick Crowe, Esq., C.M.G.

Commercial Counsellor at His Majesty's Embassy at Tokio. A senior Member of the Commercial Diplomatic Service.

Henry Fielding Dickens, Esq., K.C.

Treasurer of the Inner Temple. Common Serjeant since 1917.

Ernest John Fawke, Esq.

A Director of the Central and Western Corporation. Has interested himself regarding Smoke and Noxious Vapours abatement reported upon by Lord Newton's Committee.

Charles Harding Firth, Esq., LL.D.

Regius Professor of Modern History at Oxford since 1904.

Robert Septimus Gardiner, Esq.

Editor of the "Near East," a publication much valued in Egypt, Palestine and the East. Manager of important Colliery and Shipping undertakings in the North of England.

Charles Tyrrell Giles, Esq., K.C., D.L.

M.P. North Cambridge 1895-1900. Chairman Wimbledon Conservative Association for 20 years. High Sheriff of Surrey 1915-16. Deputy Lieutenant Surrey 1915.

Dan Godfrey, Esq.

Director of Music to the Corporation of Bournemouth since 1893. For valuable services to British Music.

Major Collingwood George Clements Hamilton, M.P.

M.P. for the Altrincham Division of Cheshire since 1913. Director of Enrolment National Service, 1917. Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Minister of Pensions, 1919-20.

Ernest Montague Hughman, Esq.

Late Partner in Pyne, Hughman & Co., Engineers and Shipbuilders. Member of Council of Institution of Engineers, India, and Hon. Sec., Indian Council, English Institution of Electrical Engineers. For public services.

Edward Mauger Iliffe, Esq., C.B.E.

Director of Iliffe & Sons, Publishers. Controller of Machine Tool Department of the Ministry of Munitions. President of Coventry Chamber of Commerce. Devoted much time to hospital, municipal and local public work.

Alderman William Kay.

Twice Lord Mayor of Manchester. For public services.

Professor Frederick William Keeble, C.B.E., F.R.S., Sc.D.

Sherardian Professor of Botany and Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford.

John Arthur Levy, Esq.

Adviser to the Government in regard to diamond trading during the war.

Maurice Lowe, Esq.

For services rendered at Washington in connection with the Press.

John Macpherson, Esq., C.B., M.D., F.R.C.P. (Edin.)

Professor of Psychiatry in the University of Sydney, N.S.W. Medical Commissioner in Lunacy for Scotland, 1899. Has rendered excellent service in connection with Scottish Lunacy administration.

Robert McCracken, Esq.

Chairman of the firm of Steel Brothers & Company, Fenchurch Street. Represented Burmah in London Chamber of Commerce for many years. Generous contributor to London charities.

William Mills, Esq.

Inventor of the Mills Hand Grenade, used exclusively and successfully by the British and other Allies throughout the war, and of which seventy-five millions were supplied. Member of the Council of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce. Member of the Imperial Mineral Resources Bureau.

John Ashley Mullens, Esq.

Government Broker.

Alfred James Rice-Oxley, Esq., C.B.E., M.D., M.R.C.S., M.R.C.P., J.P.

Three times Mayor of Kensington.

Albert Lindsay Parkinson, Esq., M.P.

M.P. for Blackpool since 1918. Mayor of Blackpool from 1916-19, and was conspicuously energetic and successful in all work connected with the war during that period.

Edward James Pollock, Esq.

Official Referee since 1897.

Samuel Murray Power, Esq., C.B.

Chief Clerk, Irish Office, 1909-1922.

Charles Thornton Pulley, Esq., D.L.

Late M.P. for Hereford, and formerly Chairman of the Hereford Division of the Unionist Association. Chairman during the war of the South Herefordshire Joint Parliamentary Recruiting Committee, and Chairman of many other Committees formed to carry on war work in Herefordshire.

Henry Norman Rae, Esq., M.P.

M.P. for Shipley Division of Yorkshire. For public services during and after the war.