The following Address was presented to the KING on Saturday, the 24th instant, on the occasion of the opening by His Majesty of the King Edward Memorial Park, Shadwell:—

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Council of the Administrative County of London.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY:

We, the Chairman, Aldermen and Councillors of the London County Council representing the people of the capital of Your Majesty's Empire humbly desire that Your Majesty will be pleased to dedicate the park in which we are now assembled to the use of the public and in ever grateful memory of His late Majesty King Edward VII, King of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the seas and Emperor of India.

London looks back with the utmost pride and satisfaction to the work and achievements of Your Majesty's revered Father, whose influence was consistently and powerfully exerted to the preservation of peace through the world. Outstanding amongst services within His Majesty's own Empire was the strengthening of the ties of interest and affection between India and the Dominions and the Mother Country. Of the manifold services rendered to London we venture to recall those referring particularly to His Majesty's care for the poorer citizens, evinced in His Majesty's long and anxious work for the provision of better housing conditions and His Majesty's constant devotion to the welfare of the London Hospitals.

It is indeed fitting that the King Edward Memorial Committee should have decided, with Your Majesty's assent, that King Edward's work, and particularly His work for the poor, should be commemorated by the formation of a park for the enjoyment, recreation and rest of the people of the densely populated East End of London.

Your Majesty will remember that the Committee, whilst securing the provision of the equestrian statue in Waterloo Place, have devoted to the establishment of this park by far the greater proportion of the sum contributed for the memorial. The provision of the park has been beset with many difficulties, mainly occasioned or accentuated by the Great War, but the goodwill shown by the Memorial Committee, the City Corporation and the Port of London Authority has made it possible to invite Your Majesty to open the major portion of the park to-day.

May we express to Your Majesty the feelings of gratification with which we respectfully welcome the presence of Her Majesty the Queen.

We are further sensible of our privilege in being permitted also to welcome Her Majesty Queen Alexandra to the inauguration of this memorial scheme, which, we learn from the Memorial Committee, has had from the outset Her Majesty's full support and sympathy. Ever since Her Majesty first visited these shores, Her Majesty, as bride, wife and widow, has been associated with countless works of public utility and beneficence. We trust that the Queen Mother may long be spared to receive the loyal respect and affection of the inhabitants of London.

May it please Your Majesty to unveil the bronze plaque and drinking fountain, which has been designed by Sir Bertram Mackennal, K.C.V.O., A.R.A., to dedicate the King Edward Memorial Park, in commemoration of Your beloved Father, and to declare it open for the use and enjoyment of the public for ever.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I have much pleasure in complying with the request of the London County Council to dedicate this Park to the memory of my beloved Father and to open it for the perpetual use and enjoyment of the people of London.

The Queen and I are deeply gratified by the warm and loyal welcome which you have given us. I especially appreciate the terms in which your Address refers to my dear Mother; her sympathy with all King Edward's efforts for the welfare of his people, and to the affection with which she has ever been regarded by the citizens of London.

Nearly a year has passed since I unveiled the statue of my Father in Waterloo Place. This Park where we meet to-day is the consummation of the scheme inaugurated in his memory by the City of London. I am well aware of the difficulties due to the war in carrying out their design. I congratulate the Memorial Committee and the Local Authorities on the energy and goodwill which have enabled these difficulties to be triumphantly overcome. The people of London have good cause to be grateful to the City Corporation, to the Port of London Authority for their generous contribution towards the provision of this Park, and to the London County Council for undertaking its completion and future maintenance.

His statue stands conspicuously in the central area of London—a testimony of the undying love of the citizens for King Edward. The very position of the King Edward Memorial Park, far from those districts frequented by visitors, will lead the people to regard it as a more intimate and personal possession, to be enjoyed by them as a part of their every-day life.

That the greater part of the Fund raised in honour of his memory should be devoted to secure an open space and recreation ground in a part of London where it is so urgently needed was indeed a happy decision, and one which would have especially commended itself to my Father. His interest in the conditions of the capital and his zeal for the welfare of its people were deep-rooted and of long standing. As Prince of Wales he gave public proof of this interest by his work on the Royal Commission on the Housing of the Working Classes, and evinced his sense of the special requirements of the East End by opening the Whitechapel Recreation Ground in 1880 and laying the Foundation Stone of the People's Palace a few years later.

The site of the Park has been selected with admirable judgment. This densely crowded neighbourhood is in grievous need of more open spaces, for, unfortunately, large areas of London east of the Tower, though quite close to the river, are separated from it for all practical purposes of daily life. Mediæval London had its port and shipping at its very door, and used the Thames as the main highway. Modern London turns its back on the Thames, and its millions, though living within a few hundred yards of the shores, hardly realise that they are citizens of a great seaport.

I trust that the King Edward Memorial Park, by the splendid pageant of shipping visible from the upper terrace, will help to correct this modern blindness, and open a window through which the people of the neighbourhood may enjoy a breath of sea air and a glimpse of a wider life. I am glad to learn that these sentiments are shared by the Local Authority, and that the Borough Council, with a most laudable desire to commemorate the maritime glories of old Stepney, have erected in this Park a memorial to Willoughby, Frobisher, and the other sixteenth century navigators who made the district famous in the history of Polar exploration. May the children who play in the King Edward Memorial Park be inspired by the vision of the passing ships to follow the example of their forefathers, who set sail from Ratcliffe and Blackwall in the heroic age of English seamanship!

I dedicate this Park to the memory of King Edward VII, and I declare it for ever open for the use and enjoyment of the public.

Whitehall, June 26, 1922.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Captain George Hubert Bland, M.C., 105th Mahratta Light Infantry, in recognition of his gallantry in saving life at Moghal Kot in August of last year.

On the 31st August, 1921, at Moghal Kot, a Stokes Mortar shell fused prematurely, and Captain Bland, with great presence of mind and disregard for his own safety—for a few seconds only would elapse before the shell exploded—at once rushed forward and threw the shell over the parapet. But for his courageous action there would in all probability have been loss of life, and it is unlikely that casualties would have been confined to the Trench Mortar Section, for many Officers and men were in the near vicinity.

Whitehall, June 28, 1922.

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to confer the dignity of a Baron of the said United Kingdom upon Sir Robert Hudson Borwick, Baronet, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, style and title of Baron Esthwaite, of Hawkshead, in the County of Lancaster.

The Home Secretary gives notice that, in pursuance of Section 2 (1) of the Employment of Women, Young Persons and Children Act, 1920, he has made an Order authorising the employment on two day-shifts of women and young persons of 16 years of age and over in the Chenille Twining Department at the works of the Morton Sundour Fabrics, Ltd., Lorne Street, Carlisle, subject to the conditions that no worker shall be employed in the afternoon shift in consecutive weeks and that suitable messroom accommodation shall be provided.

SECTION III.—Notwithstanding anything contained in Sections I and II of this Part of this Schedule:

(a) Where it is or may become the established practice of an employer only to require attendance on five days a week, the Overtime Rate shall only be payable on such days after 9½ hours have been worked.

Civil Service Commission,
June 30, 1922.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING OPEN COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF TYPIST IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

 These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. The limits of age for this situation are 18 and 28. If an Examination begins in one of the first four months of any year Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the 1st day of January in that year. If an Examination begins in one of the second four months of any year Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the 1st day of May in that year. If an Examination begins in one of the last four months of any year Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the 1st day of September in that year.

In reckoning age for competition, persons who have served in any civil situation to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service.

Persons transferred to situations in the Post Office from a Telephone Company or Municipal Telephone Undertaking, on the absorption of such Company or Undertaking by the Post Office, may reckon, as if it were service in a situation to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, their continuous service in the Post Office, as well as so much of their previous continuous service in the Telephone Company or Undertaking (or in any Telephone Company or Municipal Telephone Undertaking previously absorbed by it) as was rendered in situations for which a Civil Service Certificate is ordinarily required.

2. At each Examination the number of Candidates to be selected will be such as may from time to time be fixed.

3. Candidates will be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

(a) That they are unmarried or widows.
(b) That they are duly qualified in respect of health and character.

No person will be eligible who is not a natural-born British subject, and the child of a father also a natural-born British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of a person serving in a civil situation to which she was admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate eduation authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

5. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz.:—

1. English.
2. Arithmetic.
3. Typewriting.
4. One of the following:—French, German, Shorthand.

No Candidate will be regarded as qualified who does not pass to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commissioners in English and in Typewriting.

The Civil Service Commissioners may, at their discretion, restrict the Examination in Typewriting to such a number of Candidates at the head of the list resulting from the marks awarded for the work in the other subjects as they may think fit. The marks awarded for Typewriting to the Candidates examined in that subject will be added to the marks awarded to those same Candidates for their work in the three other subjects. The Examination in Typewriting, as well as the Examination in the other subjects, will be held at such times and places as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

6. It will rest with the Civil Service Commissioners to determine the Departments to which the successful Candidates shall be assigned. In making the assignments the Commissioners will be guided by the requirements of the public service and will consult, so far as possible, the wishes of Departments for the assignment of particular Candidates who have served under them. Subject to these conditions, the wishes of Candidates will, where possible, be respected.

7. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners.

8. A fee of ten shillings will be required from every Candidate attending the Examination.

The Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination will be held in London and Edinburgh under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 21st September, 1922.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 3rd August, an application, in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
