TUESDAY, 4 JULY, 1922.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of December, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Earl of Lytton.
Mr. Secretary Shortt.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.
Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance or other lawful means, His Majesty the King has jurisdiction in China:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as “The China (Amendment) Order in Council, 1921,” and shall be read as one with the China Order in Council, 1904 (in this Order referred to as “the Principal Order”), and the said Order and any other Orders in Council amending the said Order may be cited together as “The China Orders in Council, 1904 to 1921.”

(2) This Order shall not apply to places within the limits of the Consular District of Kashgar.

2. The following provisions are substituted for Article 162 of the Principal Order:—

(1) A register of British subjects shall be kept in the office of every Consulate in China.

(2) Every British subject resident in China shall, in the month of January of each year, be registered at the Consulate of the Consular District within which he resides, provided that if some other Consulate is more easy of access, he may, with the assent of the Consular Officer, be registered there. A British subject arriving in China must apply for registration within one month after his arrival; provided that a person who fails to apply for or to obtain registration within the time limited by this Article may be registered at any time if he excuses his failure to the satisfaction of the Consular Officer.

(3) Where a person is in possession of a valid British passport, the Consular Officer shall, on the first registration of any such person, endorse on the passport without further fee than that provided for in sub-
