NOTICE.

In pursuance of Section 4 of the Public Works Loans Act, 1922, which provides that in the application of section sixty-seven of the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890, to any company established for the purpose of constructing or improving, or of facilitating or encouraging the construction or improvement of dwellings for the working classes, which does not trade for profit, or whose constitution forbids the issue of any share or loan capital with interest or dividend exceeding the rate for the time being prescribed by the Treasury, paragraph (d) of sub-section (2) of the said section sixty-seven shall have effect as if the words "seventy-five per centum" were substituted for the words "one moiety":

Provided that the Public Works Loan Commissioners shall, in any such case, require, in addition to a mortgage of any land or dwellings, a further security of such value as they may think fit:

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice, that for the purpose of the said section 67 of the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890, as amended by the said section 4 of the Public Works Loans Act, 1922, the prescribed rate shall for the time being be the rate of six per cent. per annum.
