SECTION C.—An auxiliary language carrying 100 marks may be offered extra numerum.

6. Candidates will be required to reach a high standard of qualification in subject 54 (French, translation, free composition, set composition and conversation) and in subject 56 (German, translation, free composition, set composition and conversation).

7. The auxiliary language in Section A or Section C will be tested by means of translation from the language. The following languages may be offered:—Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, Norwegian, Swedish, Danish, Russian, Latin, Ancient Greek; provided that—

(a) No candidate offers any language twice in the examination.

(b) No Candidate offers in Section A and C together two languages of the group Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, or two of the group Norwegian, Swedish, Danish.

8. In subjects 50 to 65 the civilization subject associated with a language can only be taken by candidates who offer the language itself for examination.

9. A Candidate desiring to offer any of the subjects 30 to 42 or subject 47 must produce evidence satisfactory to the Commissioners of laboratory training in an institution of university rank. For Astronomy (28), Geography (43), Physical Anthropology (44), and Agriculture (46), other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as a part of the examination.

10. From the marks assigned to Candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

11. Moreover, if a Candidate's handwriting is not easily legible, a further deduction will, on that account, be made from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.

12. Application for permission to attend one of these Examinations must be made in the writing of the Candidate, at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

13. A fee of £8 will be required from every Candidate attending an examination.

Civil Service Commission,

October 20, 1922.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS FOR APPOINTMENTS TO THE GENERAL AND LEVANT CONSULAR SERVICES AND TO STUDENT INTERPRETERSHIPS IN THE FAR EAST.

1. Candidates will be required to appear before a Board of Selection which will meet at the Office of the Civil Service Commission on the second Tuesday in May, and will decide which candidates possess suitable qualifications for entry into the General, Levant and Far Eastern branches of the Consular Services in order to enable them to compete at the examination prescribed below. Candidates may appear before this Board at any time after they have attained the age of nineteen; but a candidate who is not recommended for acceptance by the Board of Selection may not appear before that Board for interview a second time unless he is specifically notified after his first appearance that the Board will be prepared to see him again.

2. (i) Candidates must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 24 on the first day of August in the year in which the Examination is held. In reckoning age for competition, candidates who have served in the Army, Navy or Air Force between the 4th August, 1914, and the 11th November, 1918, may deduct from their actual age any period of service between the 4th August, 1914, and the 31st December, 1919, except that candidates for the Far East Service must in no case have attained the age of 26 years on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held.

(ii) No person will be eligible who obtained
