The following Address was presented to The King by the Committee for the Scottish Memorial to King Edward on the occasion of the unveiling of the Memorial by His Majesty at Edinburgh, on the 10th instant:—

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the members of the Committee for the Scottish Memorial to King Edward, in our own names and as representing the subscribers, respectfully approach Your Majesty with the request that you will be graciously pleased to unveil this Memorial of your illustrious Father, King Edward.

The movement to erect a Memorial to the late King Edward originated in a meeting representative of the whole of Scotland, which was held in Edinburgh on 24th October, 1910. That meeting unanimously adopted a motion submitted by the Earl of Rosebery to the following effect:—"That this meeting is of opinion that there should be a Scottish Memorial to His late Majesty, King Edward."

Expressions of opinion were invited as to the form which the Memorial should take, and various proposals were submitted. These were most carefully considered. It was recognised that all of them were put forward with the single-minded desire that the Memorial should take the form best suited to commemorate in a worthy and permanent manner the profound feelings of affection, esteem and admiration which the Scottish people entertained for their late Sovereign.

It was ultimately decided that the Memorial should be in Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland, and should be associated with the Palace of Holyrood—a proposal which we are glad to know received Your Majesty's most cordial approval.

After various schemes had been considered, the Committee resolved that the Memorial should have a two-fold form, viz.: First, the erection of handsome wrought-iron Gates and the completion of the forecourt of the Palace; and, second, the erection within the forecourt of a bronze statue of King Edward.

This scheme was carried out in accordance with plans prepared by an Edinburgh architect, Mr. George Washington Browne, R.S.A. Three sets of gates have been erected at the north and south entrances to the forecourt and also at the Canongate entrance. The forecourt has been completed by panels of wrought-iron railing in harmony with the gates.

The statue has been placed so as to face the Palace upon a raised podium enclosed by a semi-circular stone wall. The commission for the statue was entrusted to an Edinburgh sculptor, Mr. Henry Snell Gamley, R.S.A.

The plans of the Memorial were at various stages submitted to Your Majesty, and we gladly recognise and appreciate the great interest and helpful advice and encouragement which Your Majesty has accorded to us in all our labours. We feel sure that the Memorial, while fulfilling its main function of commemorating in an enduring form the memory of King Edward, will be an adornment to this ancient City, and enhance the attractions of the Royal Palace of Holyrood.

It has been a matter of much regret to the Committee that, owing to circumstances arising out of the war, difficulties arose involving delay in the completion of the Memorial, but we rejoice that these difficulties have been overcome, and we trust that the Memorial as now completed will give satisfaction to Your Majesty.

It may be interesting to Your Majesty to know that subscriptions to the Memorial Fund came from all parts of Scotland and from various Scottish Societies and Associations in Your Majesty's Overseas Dominions, the total number of individual subscribers being upwards of 14,000.

We now respectfully ask Your Majesty to do the subscribers the honour of formally unveiling this Memorial to your august Father. We recall with sincere feelings of admiration and pride his illustrious reign; the deep interest which he took in his people's welfare; his sagacity and kindness of heart; and all his great qualities which endeared him to his Scottish subjects, who will ever cherish his memory.

The KING'S Gracious Reply was as follows:—

The desire expressed that I should unveil this statue of my beloved Father, King Edward, has deeply touched me. On behalf of the Queen and myself I thank you most cordially for the sincere and kindly words of your Address.

The beautiful memorials here erected in honour of my Father will for all time testify to the affection in which he was held by Scotsmen, both in their native land and beyond the seas. It has been a great pleasure to me to be identified with the Committee responsible for the work, and thus to have opportunity of realising the generosity, skill and unsparing toil which have contributed to its completion. Speaking for my dear Mother, Queen

Alexandra, and for myself, I desire to express our deep gratitude to all who have been associated in the initiation and carrying out of this most successful undertaking.

The years which have passed since King Edward came for the last time to his Scottish home at Holyrood have been pregnant with grave issues, and some of them overshadowed by trials and sorrows enough to daunt the bravest heart. But throughout Scotland has remained unwavering in her devotion to the ideals of sincerity, wisdom, kindness and courage which he inspired and exemplified.

My Father's life also remains to me as a constant inspiration; and I rejoice that I can count, as he did, upon the sympathetic and willing co-operation of my Scottish People in all that conduces to the advancement and general well-being of the nation.

The Queen and I are proud that this Memorial should have been erected in your beautiful City, which holds so high a place in the affections of our family, while such a special adornment will intensify those feelings of attachment and veneration with which we ever regard the Palace of Holyrood.

The following Address from the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland was presented to The King on the occasion of the visit of Their Majesties the King and Queen to Edinburgh on the 10th instant.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly, avail ourselves of the first meeting after the announcement of the betrothal and the subsequent marriage of Your Majesty's beloved daughter, the Princess Mary, to Viscount Lascelles, to offer to Your Majesty and to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen our cordial congratulations upon this happy event.

We recall with fervent gratitude Your Majesty's attachment to the Church of Scotland and Your constant and most helpful sympathy with every agency that seeks to promote the religious, social, and moral well-being of the nation.

We assure Your Majesty of the deep and loyal affection of the people of Scotland for Your Majesty's house.

It is our earnest prayer that the Grace of Almighty God may ever sustain Your Majesty and Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, and that God's richest blessing may be with Your Majesty's home and family; and that Your Majesty may long be spared to rule over a free, loyal and devoted people.

May it please Your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland convened in General Assembly.

The King's Gracious Reply was as follows:—

It is with great pleasure that the Queen and I receive the congratulations of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland upon the marriage of our dear daughter to Lord Lascelles. We are glad to have this opportunity of receiving in person your loyal and dutiful Address, and we thank you sincerely for your good wishes.

We have been deeply touched by the enthusiasm with which the Scottish people have acclaimed this happy event and by the sentiments of affection to our House to which your Address gives such eloquent expression. To us, as well as to our beloved daughter, the welfare of Scotland is very dear.

I appreciate your reference to my attachment to the Church of Scotland and to my sympathy with all who have at heart the spiritual advancement of the nation. It is my earnest prayer that the Blessing of God will continue to rest upon the labours of the Church.
