*Privy Council Office,
20th February, 1923.*

The following Statute, made by the Governing Body of St. John's College, Oxford, on the 12th day of December, 1922, and sealed on the 16th day of February, 1923, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

Ex parte the President and Fellows of St. John's College, in the University of Oxford.

A Statute made to amend certain Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), in relation to St. John's College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose on the 12th day of December, 1922, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute XII. of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted: "Table Allowances. The President and Fellows may, if they think fit, set apart and allow a sum of money not exceeding three shillings a day in respect of the President and each Fellow, and also (if they think fit) of any Tutor or Lecturer not being a Fellow, for the expenses of his dinner on each day when he shall dine at the Common College dinner, whether in Hall, or in some public room of the College: "

And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that it is desirable that the said Statutes shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now we, the President and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the 54th Section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do, by this present instrument under our Seal, alter and amend the Statutes of the said College as hereinbefore set out in manner following, that is to say:—

By substituting for the before-mentioned Statute XII. the undermentioned new Statute:—

"Table Allowances. The President and Fellows may allow from the Revenues of the College such moderate sums as the cost of food may from time to time render advisable for the expenses of their Common Table."

Given under our Common Seal this 16th day of February, 1923.

Seal of Saint John's College,
Oxford.
