My Lords and Gentlemen,

HAVING given My Assent to the several Bills you have Presented to Me, I am now to Return you My hearty Thanks for what you have done this Session, which has been carried on with great Prudence, Temper and Affection.

At the Opening of the Session, I Told you how Sensible I was of the Difficulties to be Struggl'd with, which were of such a Nature, that I will freely own the Hopes I had of Our being Able to Overcome them were Founded only upon the Wisdom and Zeal of so good a Parliament.

My Expectation has been fully Answer'd; You Entered upon the Business with so much Cheerfulness, Proceeded so Unanimously, and have at last brought things to such a Conclusion, That We may Hope to Carry on the War with Success, in Case Our Enemies do not think it their Interest to agree to an Honourable Peace: And so effectual a Provision being made for Supplying the Deficiencies of former Funds (which is the best Foundation for Re-establishing of Credit) I doubt not but in a short time it will have a very happy Effect, to the universal Ease and Satisfaction of My People.

The Circumstances of Affairs making it Necessary for Me to be out of the Kingdom for some time, I shall take Care to leave the Administration of the Government, during My Absence, in the Hands of such Persons as I can Depend upon.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have nothing more to Ask of you, but that you would carry down the same good Disposition into your several Countries which you have Express'd in all the Proceedings of this Session.

Then the Lord Keeper, by His Majesty's Command, Prorogued the Parliament to Thursday the 13th day of May next.

Pembroke, April 11. On the 9th Instant came into this Harbour His Majesty's Ship the Chester, with several Vessels under her Convoy, having convoyed several others up the Bristol Channel.

Plymouth, April 13. Yesterday came into this Port a Danish Ship called the Love from Copenhagen; and the Endeavour laden with Fruit from Seville, and bound to London.
